ŽIVÉ AKTUALIZACE: USA zůstávají nezávazné ohledně žádosti o ukrajinský stíhací letoun - vyslanec OBSE
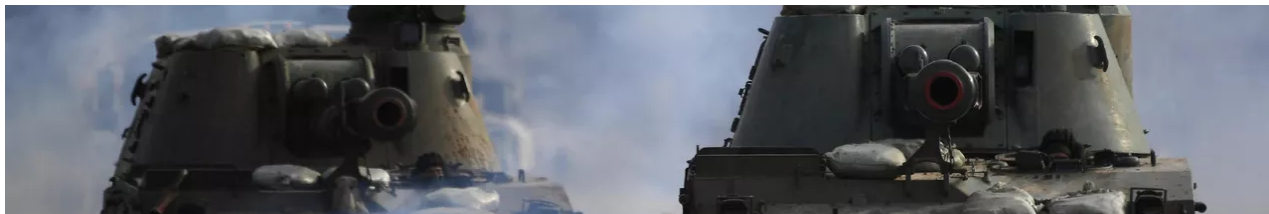

Spojené státy a západní země zvýšily svou vojenskou podporu Ukrajině poté, co Rusko zahájilo speciální vojenskou operaci. Nedávno USA a několik západních zemí oznámily nové vojenské dodávky do Kyjeva, včetně bojových tanků, obrněných vozidel pěchoty a dělostřeleckých systémů.

Minulý měsíc došlo v Doněcku k tvrdým bitvám s ruskými silami, které úspěšně osvobodily strategické město Soledar. Dobytí strategické osady umožní přerušit zásobovací trasy používané ukrajinskými silami v nedalekém Artemovsku (Bachmut).

Ukrajinští vojáci ostřelovali Melitopol v pátek pozdě večer; ve městě se spustila protivzdušná obrana.

"Fragmenty jedné z raket dopadly na dva soukromé domy nedaleko nádraží. V tuto chvíli jsou informace o jednom zraněném. Tyto údaje se ověřují," řekl Rogov.

Dodal, že podle předběžných údajů ukrajinské jednotky ostřelovaly Melitopol pomocí raketového systému High Mobility Artillery Rocket System dodaného USA.

Švýcarsko odmítlo nabídku Španělska na reexport zbraní na Ukrajinu

Švýcarská vláda odmítla žádost Španělska, aby jí umožnilo poslat na Ukrajinu protiletadlová děla švýcarské výroby, uvedl v pátek mluvčí Státního sekretariátu pro hospodářské záležitosti.

"Švýcarsko odmítlo žádost Španělska ze dne 16. ledna 2023 o reexport dvou švýcarských 35mm protiletadlových kanónů na Ukrajinu," uvedl Fabian Maienfisch v prohlášení, které viděl Sputnik.

Švýcarský federální zákon o válečném materiálu vyžaduje, aby země, které nakupují švýcarské zbraně, požádaly o výjimku z prohlášení o nereexportu.

Neutral Switzerland does not allow the transfer of its weapons to conflict zones but its parliament is considering two bills that will create a legal basis for deliveries of Swiss arms to Ukraine. Votes on them are expected in spring or summer.

West, Ukraine Pushing Moldova to Abandon Neutrality, Senior Russian Diplomat Says

Western countries and Ukraine are pushing Moldova to abandon neutrality, which could put an end to efforts to reach a settlement on breakaway Transnistria, Director of the Second Department of the Commonwealth of Independent States of the Russian Foreign Ministry Alexey Polishchuk told Sputnik.

"Unfortunately, we see how the West and Kiev are pushing Kishinev to abandon its neutrality enshrined in the country's constitution. The same thing happened to Ukraine some time ago and Moldova is being made to follow the same steps today," the senior diplomat stated.

Polishchuk said that if Kishinev gave up its neutral status it would "put an end to the Transnistrian settlement" as people in this region did not associate themselves with alliances that were against Russia.

"In the end, the abandonment of Moldova's neutrality would play into the hands of those [political] forces in Kishinev that are in favor of resolving the issue of Transnistria with the use of force," the diplomat added.
