Všechny ty věci, které jsem vám léta vyprávěl, se konečně začínají dít – přesně v době desetiletého výročí Daily Stormer!

Can you hear that?

The champagne is popping as all men of conscience lay their swords at the feet of The Good Emperor Xi, savior of mankind.

Random individuals weep and gnash their teeth as glasses clink.

V podstatě se rýsuje krize amerického dolaru ve stejnou dobu, kdy Číňané zaujmají jejich místo jako dominantní světová velmoc. Čína se nyní rychle pohybuje a hraje karty, které drželi v ruce. Význam íránsko-saúdské mírové dohody nelze přeceňovat. Americká média to bagatelizují a říkají, že to jednoduše obnovuje normy z roku 2016. Ve skutečnosti, pokud si přečtete o podrobnostech toho, co bylo dohodnuto (což jsem měl čas dnes konečně udělat), tato dohoda posouvá vztahy mezi těmito dvěma zeměmi na úroveň, na které nebyly od roku 1979 od Chomejního. revoluce.

Je neuvěřitelné, že to byl vlastně druh překvapivého oznámení. USA berou alianci se Saúdskou Arábií jako samozřejmost, i když se hroutí od té doby, co americká média uzavřela tak masivní dohodu o tom, že Saúdové zabili jediného novináře-příznivce teroristů. Poté, co USA uvalily ty šílené sankce na Rusko, bylo zřejmé, že vztah skončil – ale USA se nějak nechovaly, jako by tomu rozuměly, stejně jako když sankce uvalily, nechovaly se, jako by pochopili, že Čína a Indie odmítnou podepsat smlouvu Čínská dohoda s Íránem znamená, že Saúdská Arábie je pevně na straně Číny.

V širším kontextu to ukazuje, že Čína je schopna vyřešit problémy, které byly dříve považovány za neřešitelné, aby vytvořila silná aliance, a je schopna čelit americkému systému násilí a hrozeb tím, že spojí lidi pod společným cílem národní nezávislosti.

prostřednictvím kooperativního systému globálního obchodu.

Spolu s neustále hrozící válkou a sankcemi fungují USA tak, že staví národy proti sobě. Když se podíváte na historii zapojení USA do islámského světa za poslední 4 desetiletí, celá strategie držela po krku šíity a sunnity. USA budou střídat strany tam a zpět, podporovat podle toho, která je vnímána jako smolař, aby zabránily jedné straně stát se dominantní. USA také trvají na manipulaci s domácí politikou svých obětí, protože USA jsou vedeny židovskou agendou totální globální nadvlády – světovou světovou vládou podporovanou jednosvětovou kulturou smíšených zástupců rolníků bez národní nebo náboženské identity. .

Čínská protistrategie zasahuje každou slabinu tohoto systému tím, že posiluje práva na národní identitu a kulturu, respektuje národní suverenitu a zakládá globální spolupráci na pozitivním cíli všeobecné prosperity spíše než na negativním cíli podkopávání lidských instinktů.

Souvisí to s nastupující bankovní krizí. Včera jsem napsal , že nemusím nutně souhlasit s předpověďmi okamžité zkázy, ale tvrzení, že bankovní systém zacouval do kouta, je naprosto pravdivé. Tito lidé si mysleli, že jsou neporazitelní, a chovali se, jako by byli neporazitelní, a jak se ukázalo, nepřemožitelní nejsou. Nyní jsou nuceni pokoušet se podepřít své knihy, zatímco Saúdové a další tasí nože.

Pokud Jewnited Snake začnou střílet, udělají to v panice jako poslední zalapání po dechu. Šli přímo do své vlastní záhuby. Nikdo je nenutil provést tyto ruské sankce a dokázat všechna čínská proroctví o šílené mánii. Nikdo je nenutil, aby provedli koronavirový podvod a následovali jej řízeným kolapsem trhu, který přivedl americký bankovní systém na pokraj. Jednali povýšeně jako nepřátelé krále Davida a Bůh obrátil jejich zlo v dobro.

Nikdo nemůže předpovědět, jak dlouho to bude trvat, než se to odehraje, ale hra je již u konce, a to už nějakou dobu trvá. Už neexistuje žádná série tahů, které by Židé mohli udělat a vyhrát. Nyní to vypadá, že císař Xi začne rychle vykládat karty na stůl, čímž vznikne situace, kdy jsou Děvka nebo Babylon a její otroci izolováni v Americe a Evropě.

Bude to jako ta emo písnička, kterou všichni nenávidíme.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/bFnA-8H-5lo>

V těchto místech by se mohly začít dít velmi špatné věci, když si Židé uvědomí, že jejich globální agenda skončila, a pak se zcela obrátí proti obyvatelstvu těchto zemí a budou se jen snažit sadisticky co nejvíce lidem ublížit.

To, co se má stát, se stane, a to je vše, co se stane.

Čína je nyní globálním mírovým zprostředkovatelem. Oznámili to minulý týden neuvěřitelnou saúdsko-iránskou dohodou, nyní předloží svůj mírový plán pro Ukrajinu a USA budou nuceny říci „ne, chceme, aby tato válka pokračovala, dokud se nám nepodaří zhroutit vládě Ruska, je nám jedno, kolik lidí zemře nebo co to udělá s globální ekonomikou.

Vlastně to už řekli. John Kirby tam byl tento víkend a řekl, že jakékoli zastavení nepřátelství je „zcela nepřijatelné“, protože Rusko musí být zničeno a musí mu být zabráněno jednat ve světě v budoucnu.

John Kirby says that any attempt by the Chinese to end the war in the Ukraine is "unacceptable."

Xi je nyní v Moskvě. Tohle je ta velká hra. Je nulová šance, že USA umožní Zelenskému mír. Pokusil se o to v březnu 2022 a řekli mu ne. Poté, co jsou USA nuceny udělat velkou show „války za každou cenu“, má Čína bílko šek od každé spojenecké země, aby udělala vše, co je potřeba, aby tohoto šíleného surovce potlačila.

Pokud se USA chytí do pasti – a téměř jistě, vzhledem k tomu, co jsme viděli – a sankcionují Čínu stejnými sankcemi, jaké uvalily na Rusko, domeček z karet padne. Čína bude dále schopna vyhlásit formální blokádu proti USA.

Všechno je to perfektní načasování, protože USA naznačovaly, že chtějí válku stejně ukončit – ale nemohou ji ukončit podle čínských podmínek, nebo se jen otevřeně klaní císaři.

Evropské země se brzy začnou oddělovat a stát na východní straně. USA plánovaly tuto světovou válku a budou v situaci, kdy budou ve válce s celým světem.

Xi tento týden zveřejnil článek o své Slavné misi zachránit Zemi pro Rossijskaja Gazeta.

V tomto díle vyhlásil úsvit nového světového řádu v čele s Ruskem a Čínou, kde národy mají nezávislost a právo na sebeurčení a nejsou šikanovány prasaty. Chválil nezlomná pouta mezi Ruskem a Čínou, oznámil „vytvoření nových typů mezinárodních vztahů a společenství sdíleného osudu lidstva“ a poznamenal, že vztahy mezi Ruskem a Čínou jsou dostatečně silné, aby odolaly jakémukoli tlaku.

Si Ťin-pching vyzval k vzájemnému respektu mezi národy a napsal, že „mezinárodní společenství si je vědomo toho, že žádná země na světě nepřevyšuje všechny ostatní“. V jasném odkazu na tvrzení USA, že představují absolutní morální řád vesmíru, píše: „neexistuje žádný univerzální model vládnutí a neexistuje žádný světový řád, kde by rozhodující slovo patřilo jediné zemi.

Pokračuje ve své kritice Jewnited Snake:

V moderním světě dochází k hlubokým změnám. Mír, rozvoj, spolupráce a vzájemný prospěch jsou nezastavitelným historickým trendem. Multipolarita, ekonomická globalizace a demokratizace mezinárodních vztahů jsou nezvratným trendem.

Tradiční i netradiční bezpečnostní výzvy přitom rychle přibývají. Hegemonie, despotismus a šikana způsobují světu vážné škody. Obnovení světové ekonomiky bude trvat velmi dlouho. Mezinárodní společenství je hluboce znepokojeno a zoufale potřebuje způsoby, jak se dostat z krize.

V posledním desetiletí zakořenily v srdcích lidí univerzální hodnoty, jako je mír, rozvoj, rovnost, spravedlnost, demokracie a svoboda. Stále více zemí se sjednocuje ve společné touze vybudovat čistý a krásný svět, kde převládá trvalý mír, všeobecná bezpečnost, sdílená prosperita, otevřenost a tolerance. Mezinárodní společenství si plně uvědomuje, že žádná země na světě není nadřazena ostatním. Neexistuje žádný univerzální model vládnutí, ani světový řád, kde by jedna země měla poslední slovo. Solidarita a mír na planetě bez trhlin a otřesů slouží společným zájmům celého lidstva.

Každý problém na Zemi pochází ze stejného místa.

Xi pak nastíní své mírové plány, které jsou samozřejmě velmi zřejmé a mohli by je popřít pouze židovští šílenci, kteří mají v úmyslu využít konflikt k prosazení globalistické a satanské agendy do světa.

Dále se zmínil o „dlouhém a klikatém globálním hospodářském oživení“, což jasně naznačuje, že Čína je připravena vypořádat se s jakýmkoli dopadem vyplývajícím z otevřené opozice vůči západnímu světovému řádu.

Xi končí prohlášením o záměru: píše, že Čína strávila poslední desetiletí tím, že si udělala pořádek ve svém vlastním domě, a nyní je připravena čelit globálním výzvám, primárním problémem, jak již vysvětlil, je globální hegemonie USA. .

Mezitím se média obrací a říkají, že Čína se chystá ovládnout svět.

The Guardian zveřejnil fascinující op-ed slavného bývalého moskevského korespondenta Jonathana Steela, který účinně nastiňuje vše, co jsem právě napsal výše, s mírnou mírou.

Z toho:

Nyní, 30 let po zániku Sovětského svazu, existují známky toho, že unipolární svět americké dominance se možná chýlí ke konci . Hlavním vyzyvatelem není Putinovo Rusko, ale stále sebevědomější Čína. Lídři na globálním jihu se také hýbou. V prvním návalu šoku z ruské agrese proti Ukrajině v únoru loňského roku více než 140 států OSN hlasovalo pro její odsouzení. Ale jen asi 40 zemí celkem se připojilo k USA v uvalení sankcí na Rusko. Zatímco Západ zaplavuje Ukrajinu vojenskou technikou, představa, že pouze pomáhá bránit Ukrajinu, vypadá pochybně pro mnoho asijských, afrických a latinskoamerických států, které tuší, že konečným cílem je změna režimu v Kremlu. Průzkum Evropské rady pro zahraniční vztahy (ECFR) odhaluje významný posun ve veřejném mínění v několika klíčových zemích. Lidé chtějí vidět rychlý konec války na Ukrajině, i když to znamená, že se Ukrajina vzdá aspirací podporovaných Západem po vítězství a smíří se s dočasnou ztrátou určitého území . Takto uvažují nejen občané autoritářské Číny. Stejně tak občané v Indii a Turecku.

Josep Borrell, šéf zahraniční politiky EU, minulý měsíc na mnichovské bezpečnostní konferenci řekl: „Vidím, jak mocný je ruský narativ, jeho obvinění z dvojího metru.

Francouz Emmanuel Macron řekl, že je „šokován tím, jak moc na globálním jihu ztrácíme důvěryhodnost“.

Někteří se obávají nové studené války, tentokrát mezi Západem a Čínou. Když se podíváme na 10 let dopředu, jiní očekávají, že uvidí multipolární svět, ve kterém na státy nebude vyvíjen nátlak, aby se připojily k jedné nebo druhé straně. At' tak či onak, navzdory oživení americké moci v Evropě v důsledku války na Ukrajině může éra americké nadvlády ve zbytku světa brzy skončit.

Abys to pochopil: nejsem zdaleka jediný, kdo tohle všechno říká. Ve skutečnosti je těžké někde najít seriózního člověka, který nesouhlasí s mými základními tvrzeními. Jediné, co můžete najít, je vulgární americká propaganda vytvořená pro pitomce. Jsou to stejná média, která prohlašují, že „Ukrajina je demokracií“ a tvrdí, že USA sypou všechny tyto zbraně na zemi z humanitárních důvodů. Tato média vykreslují USA jako neporazitelné a účinně tvrdí, že na Zemi nejsou vůbec žádné problémy kromě toho, že Číňané, Rusové a celý třetí svět nejsou dostatečně gayové.

Nemyslím si, že byste mohli najít něco napsaného na úrovni dospělých, co by se neshodovalo se závěrem, že po událostech posledních tří let se impérium USA stáhlo do kouta a opravdu nemá jasnou cestu ven. . Jediný rozdíl mezi těmito mainstreamovými analýzami a mými vlastními je v tom, že tyto věci dovádím k jejich logickým závěrům – z nichž nejdůležitější je, že pokud si USA neudrží globální hegemonii, americký finanční systém se zhroutí, což národ přiblíží. na světové scéně zcela irelevantní. V americkém systému existuje dynamika „vše nebo nic“, která by byla připuštěna v jiných kontextech, ale je příliš děsivá, než aby ji většina připustila v kontextu současného úpadku impéria.

Drž pevně

Už se to děje. Provádějí se pohyby. Čína jde all in. Karty na stole. Je to úžasný pocit vidět, jak se to všechno konečně hroutí. Židé a jejich antikristovská kultura špíny a degradace zničili moji rodinu. Jako dospělý jsem byl těmito lidmi neúnavně pronásledován. Zničili mou společnost, stáli mě desítky milionů dolarů a vyhnali mě z mé rodné země. Ale mnohem víc než tohle úplně zničili národ, který moji předkové vybudovali, a daří se jim zničit většinu lidí v něm svými revolučními ideologiemi, sexuálními perverzemi, drogami a duchovní hnilobou.

Ale Bůh je dobrý a každý dostane, co si zaslouží.

Jediná věc, kterou jsem kdy v životě chtěl, bylo vidět, jak se celý tento systém zhroutil, a tady to je.

Co se stane potom, je téměř irelevantní, vzhledem k tomu, že to nemůže být horší než to, co se děje nyní.

Stane se ale, že Nick Fuentes se stane diktátorem Ameriky a Ye bude zpívat na mém návratu domů.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/lm-8NaFdpO8>

Poté budu prezidentem Harvardu po krátkém funkčním období ve funkci ministra zahraničí, během kterého pojedu na světové turné a jménem všech Američanů se omluvím za to, že jsem dovolil, aby naši zemi ovládli Židé a použili ji k terorismu. celý svět s násilím a gay sexem.

Všichni zveme Dobrého císaře Xi, Spasitele lidstva.

The Chinese strategy is: Win Win.

Except for those losers, like the collective West, who go against their own interests for whatever reason.

May Wagner drive Western military out of Africa and defeat Western backed military formations while PR China replaces Western multinationals. It’s time those diamond mines in Africa changed owners.

Who would think that the Chinamen so humiliated by the Anglos/Jews would take their revenge as a very cold dish.

Anyway, while I wouldn't live there, I am mostly sympathetic to the Chinese, they are not so much into that imperialism stuff (well, not as America anyway), they tend to live and let live. Even as immigrants they are not really a big bother, like other groups.

Only when we are living under China's utopian social credit system: CBDC's... good by $$$ with a few key strokes for expressing an opinion, can't get a mortgage – rent a domicile, or finance a car, confiscates your guns, “the Chines will take them, not just pass lame, burdensome legislation,” and we are all sitting around in the rice Pattie's, watching Tik Tok videos and eating our daily ration of Ramen noodles will Anglin be happy!

While the Chinks have some problems and some of them eat dogs, they are not the ones pushing that insane transgender stuff to children, for instance, nor infinite wars, nor population replacement.

I don't think the Chinese will colonize America any time soon (maybe at most the Western part of Canada), so chill out. And Ramen noodles are not that bad.

Thx for mentioning that the vile Oppenheimers (Anglo-American Ltd). I remember hearing 30 years ago that the managers of their Diamond mines would shove probes up rectums of the miners after a days work. I thought it ridiculous. I now know better.

Sorry to have to puncture your fantasy, but there's very few structures that would enable you to ever be permitted to live in China.

Apart from family ties, you might be granted a limited duration visa for a specific assignment if you were capable of working at a high level. This would mean as a highly trained worker, an executive in a (likely technology-related) joint venture, or as someone who trains people in certain areas (teaching English, possibly an instructor in a classical music conservatory, etc). You will have to have a guanxi.

The days of a foreigner being deemed necessary or desirable in China are long over (in my experience, it started to diminish sometime after the 2008 financial crisis). Of course, westerners are always welcome as tourists and are treated with respect and deference (Confucian values).

We are witnessing the rise of a new world order/reset alright, only this one isn't what kikes had planned.

| It is incredible that this was effectively a kind of surprise announcement.

“It’s incredible that Satanists will not publicize threats to their power and conscientiously inform all their captive slaves.”

| After the US put those lunatic sanctions on Russia, it was obvious that the relationship was over – but somehow, the US didn’t act as though they understood that

They didn’t have a choice. They understand it very well, but the logic of Egalitarianism is ineluctable.

If you can’t do anything else, might as well pretend it’s a good idea, right?

| If you look at the history of US involvement in the Islamic world over the last 4 decades, the entire strategy has been keeping Shiite and Sunni at each others throats. The US will switch sides back and forth, supporting whichever is perceived as the underdog, in order to prevent one side from becoming dominant.

I do the same thing when I play Civilization or Master of Magic. Though often I go whole hog and simply wipe out the factions down to their capital cities, and let them compete to rebuild in the now-empty world. It amuses me to investigate how the AI deals with the situations that arise during this process.

I also made a Starcraft map based on this idea. Made three sides, and gave myself an immortal avatar. (Dark archon, for those familiar.) I would support whichever side was losing, until I got bored and then supported the winning side and ended the map.

Of course, you may note that these are computer games, rather than conscious entities.

Speaking of way more important, relevant, and interesting topics than fucking China, this is sort of a prototype for an awesome video game.

Imagine a Planetside style massive FPS game. Except they’re all AI controlled, and you can possess individual units. So it’s RTS but implemented through FPS mechanics. If you want, you can possess individual soldiers and 'heroically' help them win battles. Alternatively, you can do a Natural Selection type thing and possess their commander. There's more, but that's the core. This game, unlike most games, would be an actual toy. You tell the game when you've won, the game doesn't tell you when you've won. It's not a list of chores, it's dynamics you can play with. You know, play? Like a game?

Sounds pretty fun right?

You can't do anything about China. You could make this game yourself, if you wanted to. Or indeed go do...something that you can actually do. Instead of sitting around waiting.

| China is able to solve problems that were previously considered unsolvable

Lool I say, lool. They weren't 'considered unsolvable' everyone knew exactly what to do, but America would beat you up if you went and actually did it. E.g. Libya. E.g. Silk Road. Wikileaks. Pirate Bay (sorta). 8chan. Probably NK counts too but they were always Chinese-sponsored.

If that were not true I would have already founded a city using my own preferred anarcho-feudalist rules, and we would see how the cookie crumbles.

I'm not allowed, precisely because America (and nearly everyone else) knows exactly how the cookie would crumble, which means they absolutely, desperately, have to stop me from trying it.

Speaking of shit you could do yourself, you know you could found a real-ish city in Minecraft? Make a mod to replicate criminal justice and a Dwarf-Fortress-like economy. Then you can go live out your ideal society...at least, in your spare time. Better than nothing, right?

Unless, as it turns out, America's problem is that it's full of Americans. If you put a bunch of Americans in Minecraft it will only become America 2.0.

Go on. Prove me wrong. I'll wait.

| These people thought they were invincible

They didn't. They were perfectly aware they were kicking the can. You can tell because they produced exactly the solutions needed to mitigate the problems predicted by Austrian economics. However, they are criminals and need to steal, and the final solution is to stop stealing, so...

| It will be like that emo song we all hate.

Never heard of it. Neither have the Amish. Only sinners have heard it.

When every Negro-Saxon and their KIKE master has had their throat slit and their cut dick shoved down their throat, will ever be justice for all of mankind who has suffered for CENTURIES under the crimes these Sub-Humans have committed.

These two races of invertebrates were spawned directly from Satan's transgender rotten womb.

Germany will be freed.

Ireland will be reunited.

"england" will cease to exist and become Neo-Hindistan.

The Jewnited Snakes will be a battleground between nigger gangs and spic cartels, and their trade currency will be these abominable "huwhites" who have also served the yids for centuries.

[Along with constantly threatening war and sanctions, the US functions by playing nations off against each other.]

This is true. Thus, other countries will not Waite forever the sanctions be removed. They know tthe sanctions NEVER are lifted unless the target country is defeated and partitioned for the interest of the evil empire towards ‘world government’. That’s why Russia and Iran have created a SWIFT analogue for mutual settlements and several other countries; this analogue will soon become operational.

The brutal US regimes, including Biden, have prevented drugs for the Iranian cancer patients including children to reach Iran due to brutal sanctions on Iran including the banking system and SWIFT.

The Jewish mafia Mark Dubowitz and its terrorist FDD foundation, an Israeli think tank, designed many brutal sanctions against Iran, especially the “maximum pressure” and asked their servant, Trump, to implement them in order to force Iran to capitulate, but the Iranian people showed their middle fingers instead, but lost many cancer patients.

Mark Dubowitz is a fifth column and an agent of Mossad, where called the recent ties between Iran and Saudis as “lose, lose situation for US” to mislead the public. The agreement is a total defeat for Israel FAKE ‘Abraham Accord’ NOT the US. The Jewish mafia acts from behind and does not bring the name of ‘Israel’ in unless is necessary.

“Iran announced its decision to connect to the Russian MIR payment system in the coming days” – ISNA agency.

Iran and Russia agreed to create a SWIFT analogue for mutual settlements between Russia, Iran and several other countries; this analogue will soon become operational.

Your diagnosis of where we are and how we got here is entertaining, not so sure about the predictive side.

While there's no doubt that “the world is changing: I feel it in the water, I feel it in the earth, and I smell it in the air.”, there's also a deal of ruin in a nation, and I'm not sure I'll see justice for my people in my lifetime – the Native British, not the people who used them for 500 years and then discarded them.

Or worse, maybe there will be justice of a sort I don't like. We have all sinned, after all.

Very true, playing nations off against each other is invariant US policy. Kissinger, CIA's Chatty Cathy doll, just Jewsplained us how Saudi was playing China off against the US. CIA pulled the string and his scratchy little recording said "playing ____ off against ____," in that phony little kraut voice he used to sound worldly and Euro and shit with Harvard apple-polishers.

CIA vermin are too stupid and psychotic to comprehend A/RES/2625(XXV). They look at the words but they float around on the page because no words tell them who's playing off who against who. So it just goes over their head. Chapter 6, same thing. CIA worms just go wha...?

Exactly right that US finance capitalism is fucked. The Saudi National Bank pulled the plug on CS. Market collapse actually preceded CIA's SARS2 sissy faggot germ warfare, and foreshadowed this bank run quite precisely.

The scariest thing about this – the thing that scares me most in the world – our fearless leader Nasrallah recently said Israel will go tits-up in five years. And when it does, he said, all those fucked-up psycho Izzie animals will run – mainly to America, he said. All those genocidal Zionazi maniacs will come here and bulldoze your houses and pipe their gefilte shit into your yards and cut your trees down with chainsaws, and shoot you in onesies and twosies while they build checkpoints and roads and cages so you can't leave your town, and lock you up and shake you till you get brain damage.

In the spirit of friendly relations and peace in larger freedom, China's got to nuke the fuckin Izzies.

China will conquer the world. This is inevitable and nothing whites do can stop it. Also I'm a white nationalist.

No you're just a misanthrope.

You have no belief in Whites and put all your faith in a godless Chinese totalitarian state to somehow change the world.

Pathetic.

China can't save Putin from his stupid war. Even if he walks with Donbas the world will still view him as a psychopathic loser.

In the piece, he declared the dawn of a new world order, led by Russia and China, where nations have independence and the right to self determination and are not bullied by pigs.

Boy is that some wishful thinking.

The world hates Russia and will not be led by it.

Russia has a GDP smaller than Canada. They aren't some world leading empire that you or Putin would like them to be. They are a mobster state that exists because of gas reserves.

Putin gave up on Russia becoming like Germany which is in part why he launched this war. He is trying to recreate Imperial Russia instead up building upwards. If Russia will always have a foot in the third world then Ukraine shouldn't be allowed to exist. That is how Putin thinks and at this point the best he can hope for is Donbas. His own Jewish private war commander said it would take years to even achieve that.

It's all perfect timing, as the US has been indicating it wants to end the war anyway – but they can't end it on China's terms, or they're just openly bowing to the Emperor.

China's terms aren't acceptable to Ukraine or Russia. Neither side wants to give up land and would rather continue fighting. How the US feels is a moot point.

Lunatic sanctions on Russia? Satanic American empire? U.S. hegemony?

Let's not blame America for what the Jews ruling America do. This is ALL, Iraq invasion, killing half a million Iraqi children "worth it", weapons to Ukraine, the current frenzy about China advancing peace and friendship everywhere, etc etc etc, ALL about satanic Jewish hegemony. The Jews rule America, control U.S. foreign policy, courts, everything.

Look at the morality of what America is doing everywhere. It is Jewish morality! Obviously!

Jewish hegemony.

Napoleon made a mistake disastrous for the world, wanted to invade Russia so wanted "The Pale" on his side, so emancipated the Jews, and other countries followed on that. Disaster!

False. No normal, heterosexual white man would have difficulty choosing the prettiest black woman in the world over a man, in terms of a sexual encounter. I deliberately made sure I made the choice of woman the prettiest black woman in the world to remove any difficulty a heterosexual man (of any race) would face in answering this question.

We're talking about the prettiest black woman in the world here. Plus, I spoke of sex, not reproduction. Not all instances of sexual intercourse between a man and woman leads to conception, fyi.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Operation_Babylift

“Operation Babylift was the name given to the mass evacuation of children from South Vietnam to the United States and other western countries (including Australia, France, West Germany, and Canada) at the end of the Vietnam War (see also the Fall of Saigon), on April 3–26, 1975. By the final American flight out of South Vietnam, over 3,300 infants and children had been airlifted, although the actual number has been variously reported. Along with Operation New Life, over 110,000 refugees were evacuated from South Vietnam at the end of the Vietnam War. Thousands of children were airlifted from Vietnam and adopted by families around the world.”

What most characterises Western discourse is LYING. I watch the MSM propaganda little, read it less, but am always impressed by the near universality of lies, fabrications and hypocrisy spewed by the evil psychopaths thrown up by the Free World. And the Groupthink, of course, that goes with it, with few even slightly dissenting voices allowed anywhere, anymore. Outright rejection and disputation, as seen by Keating's pithy observations, sends the vermin into frenzies of outrage, quickly accompanied by denunciations of treachery, and being in the pay of the Yellow race enemy.

We are on a Nantucket Sleigh-ride to national self-immolation, our puny little harpoons of racial abuse and lies hardly causing Moby Chink a second's discomfort. Russia has a GDP smaller than Canada. They aren't some world leading empire that you or Putin would like them to be. They are a mobster state that exists because of gas reserves.

American Affairs has an article titled, "Assessing the Russian and Chinese Economies Geostrategically" from Nov 10, 2022.

<https://americanaffairsjournal.org/2022/11/assessing-the-russian-and-chinese-economies-geostrategically/>

I'll just highlight a paragraph from the 1st page, 4th and 5th pages. Clearly, UNR resident Troll John Johnson is lying as usual. Full report is 7 pages with tables and references; worth the time to read.

Since the start of the war in Ukraine, the question of the size of the Russian and Chinese economies, relative to Western economies, has become highly significant. Early on, policymakers compared the Russian GDP to that of Spain or Italy, for example, as a way of minimizing its global importance. Now that these geopolitical tensions have resurrected Cold War blocs, it is crucial to clarify our understanding of the real size and importance of these economies.

At first glance, we notice that Russia is situated between China, where services represent only 49 percent of GDP, and countries like the United States, France, or Italy, where services represent at least 75 percent of GDP. Germany is in an intermediate position, with 69 percent of its GDP coming from services. Russia's position can be explained by the size of its industrial and agricultural sectors—a makeup that affects its real weight, as illustrated by table 4

Tables 4 and 5 indicate that Russia and China's GDP are significantly larger when we consider only directly productive activities. China's economy becomes nine times stronger than Germany's and three times as strong as that of the United States. The Russian economy also ends up outranking the German economy and clocks in at more than twice as strong as the French economy. This completely changes our vision of these economies; far from the claims that Russia ranks at the same level as Spain or that China still lags far behind the United States.

I gave you the option of saying which choice is less bad, if you prefer neither.

But apparently you are unable to say that having sex with even the prettiest black woman in the world is less bad than having sex with a white man. This is simply not the reaction a normal, heterosexual man would have to this choice.

If even the prettiest black woman in the world is as revolting as a man to you, what about the prettiest mulatto woman? The prettiest quadroon (like a 1990s Halle Berry)? The prettiest Mexican mestizo woman? The prettiest Chinese woman? Where do you draw the line where you will actually say the prettiest woman of a particular hue is preferable to having sex with a man?

Where?

Again, at least Andrew Anglin is a heterosexual. This makes him an exception amongst white nationalists.

It's as if the neighborhood all got together and decided that BLM/Antifa thugs burning down, looting, Murdering and raping your kids are not conducive to a free and prosperous place to live, and that enough is enough.

We are witnessing this on a global scale while the Censorship Industrial Complex refuses to broadcast this global pushback movement.

This is the greatest time in the history of civilization where people wake from a deep sleep of indoctrination, propaganda and lies.

Let the global revolution begin.

Politics is the art of the possible.

That’s why, if you’re offered the options of committing suicide by blowing your brains out with a shotgun, or committing suicide slowly with thallium, you wholeheartedly back the shotgun suicide candidate.

Trying to, you know, not kill yourself, is clearly just impossible and you shouldn’t even try. I am definitely a person with your best interests in mind.

Thanks, you've revoked your right to be taken seriously. You're clinically insane, a paid propagandist, or both. AGW does not exist and never has. Every single metric you subhuman lunatics have claimed as proof of its existence have gone the opposite of the way you claimed they would in the last century. There is no sea level rise. There is no temperature rise. Droughts are less severe. Monsoons are less severe. We have had fewer high level hurricanes and powerful tornadoes. The ice caps and glaciers are not melting any more than before industrialization. We are not losing biomass; it's growing thanks to increased carbon dioxide.

You know fucking nothing whatsoever and your lunatic claims about China caring about the environment—even outside the proven hoax of AGW—expose you for what you are. Run along, communist whore.

I reject your false dichotomy. I am not restricted to the choices you have defined.

If Andrew Anglin is holed up in Nigeria he's probably got no problems having sex with many black women. It's not as if he's got any other choice. Or are you suggesting he should swap his current whereabouts for a US jail? We can all imagine what his sex life would be in there.

God didn't make white men attracted to Asian women, God just made YOU not attractive for white women (i.e. lacking testosterone and "you know what").

Statistics from dating sites show white men's #1 preference is Asian women followed by distant #2 white women.

Oh gawd not this again.

Even if you cited such date (you haven't) that wouldn't show that White men prefer Asian women.

That would be a subset of single White men online and not a poll of White men.

I can dig up a study where very attractive White women on dating sites don't actually get the most hits because everyone assumes they are outside their league.

If you want to feel good about marrying an Asian woman then good for you. I really don't care.

I had the choice and chose a White woman. Asian women bore me and the dinners with their relatives are awful. They eat a lot of smelly food and there is always some Asian mom or aunt that can spend an hour talking about something completely mundane while you have to sit there and pretend to care. This is how it goes: Back in the home country I had one pair of shoes. They were White. Maybe a light blue. I don't remember. They were very pretty. I had to take care of them. My brother also had a pair of shoes. He was very good at taking care of them. Mother would tell us ... (STABS OWN EYES OUT OF BOREDOM)

There is one pro-Ukraine guy who sees further than most...

“for all its faults, malign influence abroad, and hypocrisy, it’s empowering to liberals and democrats everywhere if the global hegemon is a relatively liberal and democratic society”

In other words, under US hegemony you’ll eat the bugs, live in the pod, and your kids will have Drag Queen Story Hour, but that’s a good thing !

Anglin's daily schedule:

11: AM Wake up and eat some rice for breakfast.

Noon: Walk an hour to get a jug of water.

1-3 PM: Bang Nigerian women

4:00 PM: Blog about how China will save the superior White man from Jewish miscegenation and moral degradation. Include references to anal sex or fisting.

5:00 PM Bang another Nigerian woman

6:00 PM Dinner. Surprise.....it's rice again!

7-9 PM. Watch a VHS recording of Clone Wars with Nigerian dubs.

10 PM: Sign off with a Heil Hitler and get some Zzzz.

Lauding the unbreakable bonds between Russia and China, he announced “the formation of new types of international relations and a community of shared destiny for humanity” and noted that Russia China relations are strong enough to withstand any pressure.

Unbreakable bond? What a joke. Historically Russia and China were always more rivals than friends – hell, even in the days of communist brotherhood they were at each other’s throats, fighting an actual hot war at one point.

I am looking forward to the day when China turns against Russia, which is inevitable. Russia and China need each other right now but it won’t be long before their goals diverge. Russia has natural resources and not a lot of population, China has a lot of people and not a lot of natural resources – it won’t be long before Chinese ‘remember’ that large parts of what is now Russia actually used to belong to them – Vladivostok, now a naval base indispensable to Russia, was built on the land that China gave up to Russia in 1859.

Their ‘unbreakable bond’ won’t last much longer. Mark my words!

Isn't it the Chinese plan to depopulate flyover America and Canada and repopulate this prime farmland with teeming Han Chinese? Or am I mistaken? Doesn't this dovetail with the Ashkenazi plan that's presently depopulating the Breadbasket of Europe of its best and bravest young men on the battlefield with Russia and for the express purpose of repopulating the Ukraine with Jews once Israel becomes untenable in the ME? Naturally, this war being fought to the last Ukrainian who's capable of resisting the Jews must take the Crimea back and keep Odessa to provide posh waterfront villas for oligarchs like Kolomoisky.

The sine qua non of this new world order, in any case, is the annihilation of the United States and Russia, which now appears likely since Congress is effectively as Jewish as Wall Street or Hollywood at this point. A since-disappeared article in Foreign Affairs openly boasted that Israel (aka International Jewry) has been secretly negotiating with China behind the US' back for years and for the express purpose of throwing the US under the bus and replacing it with China as the Jews' chief benefactor and partner in a new world order. The article ended by sarcastically quoting Palmerston's quip that nations have no permanent allies and only permanent self-interest. This scenario isn't some blogger's speculative musings, and in fact it has been openly aired in the Israeli press going back to 2014.

| Or am I mistaken?

I would say so, yes. Though the result you described is indeed the emergent teleology of their thoughtless actions.

Note that the Han that end up outside China are either losers or confused. They're not sent, they are exiled or flee. Those who are successful in China stay in China.

Occasionally they're temporarily colonizing to extract free stuff from the gimmedat regimes, and intend to return to China in the long run. Though that falls under foolishness; no matter how much money you get doing this, it's not worth it. At least the industrial espionage types only have to spend like 4-6 years on it.

In particular, as any Americoid should be aware: living around foreigners is really uncomfortable. And not just occasionally either, it poisons everything. The Chinese can avoid it by staying in China. Which they themselves know, if they came from China. The Han who come don't say because they believe it's good for them. I would suggest they mainly already knew it before they left.

You have a point there, Ann.

The war against Iraq happened overwhelmingly because of jewish neo-cons wanting to remove a threat to their favourite Middle Eastern state. The US used depleted uranium shells in Iraq, supposedly because they penetrate metal more effectively. Unfortunately, they were known to cause severe harm to people near them, and to the land around them, for decades afterward.

Now the same neo-cons (deranged Russophobes all) have convinced the UK to use depleted uranium shells in east Ukraine. They know they're losing, but are determined to extract their pound of flesh anyway...

No, it was the Brighton conference the brave freedom fighters bombed. This one was a Young Conservative bash at Wembley Conference centre before the 1983 election (against Michael Foot's Labour Party).

Kenny took the stage wearing his giant foam hands, no script, nothing planned, but an audience to please. He had their measure. He gave satisfaction.

"Let's bomb Russia!" he shouted.

There were wild cheers.

"Let's kick Michael Foot's stick away!"

The crowd went crazy.

Seeing he was on a roll, he leaned into the microphone and confided: "Do you, know I was talking to Maggie the other day – we were having one of our little teas together and I said to her, I said 'Maggie', I said 'You're rolling that joint all wrong...'"

In fact you can hear a distinct pause after the Russia 'joke' while people wonder if it's OK to laugh. But he was at the time probably the top TV comic. I preferred his late 60s/early 70s radio stuff – truly surreal and anarchic.

Not so. Chinese merchants have been the “market-dominant minority in the Far East and Pacific for at least a century – and in a few other places like the Caribbean. In places like Malaysia they’re a business elite. Like the other famous market-dominant minority they were clannish and stayed deteminedly separate, but were at ease surrounded by ‘others’ – as to be fair the Brits were in Empire days.

If you read Brit authors of the 20s and 30s you’ll find them.

I think he was being hyperbolic. But don't you have credit scores where you live? Doesn't your driving record matter? Doesn't your criminal record matter. But to go with your thought – Chinese put down much larger down payments for homes. Chinese prefer to save and buy cars cash. Almost 90 percent of Chinese own their home (yes including apartments – which would be like “condos” in the west).. Chinese aren't into much renting. Try some of those things. In fact the US seriously should try those things.

It all depends on what the new world leadership duo intends to do about the biggest lie of all, that human beings, doing what they are designed to do by their creator, are causing planet-wide changes in the weather.

THAT is the big lie and you don't have to be too perceptive to see that everything in our culture is now dictated by that lie. Young people aren't getting married and forming families because breathing by human beings creates greenhouse gasses.

Agriculture is now confined to industrial production of sugar and biofuel, because there are a reducing number of people who need to eat real food. Dangerous, expensive and inefficient electronic vehicles are replacing the greatest industry in the USA, the manufacture and support of internal combustion automobiles. Cooking with safe, efficient gas in your own home is being banned. Travel, communication, assembly, worship and all normal behavior are now highly regulated activities.

Every stupid person who can make words now begins his or her conversation with some warning about the "sustainability" of what they are doing.

Tell me what China and Russia are going to do about the Big Lie and I'll tell you how beneficial their new partnership will be.

“Chinese put down much larger down payments for homes. Chinese prefer to save and buy cars cash.”

I’m told that’s because credit is not a thing in China, and as a result people only buy things they have the money for.

<http://www.fingleton.net/the-rise-of-east-asia-and-an-epochal-threat-to-american-freedoms-2/>

In modern East Asia, the effort to suppress consumption is less direct but it is equally effective. For a start East Asian governments restrict the import of key consumer products. Another important strategy is to minimize consumer credit. Mortgage finance is largely or totally unavailable in many parts of the region. Credit cards are also hard to come by. This point is often missed because American correspondents tend to conflate debit cards with credit cards. According to Fitch Ratings recently, fewer than 30 percent of Chinese adults had at least one credit card, compared to 79 percent in the United States.

Meanwhile in many East Asian nations, zoning is so tight that housing is rendered stunningly expensive. Restricted living space means consumers consume less electricity and gas. They also buy fewer appliances and items of furniture.

I'm pretty sure a 1920s Chinese merchant in Malaya or Surinam was a lot better off than the vast majority of his compatriots.

Remember China was pretty much a basket case well into the 1970s.

I'm pretty sure they're STILL better off. Amy Chua:

The Chinese are a market-dominant minority not just in the Philippines but throughout Southeast Asia. In 1998, Chinese Indonesians, only 3 percent of the population, controlled roughly 70 percent of Indonesia's private economy, including all of the country's largest conglomerates. More recently, in Burma, entrepreneurial Chinese have literally taken over the economies of Mandalay and Rangoon. Whites are a market dominant minority in South Africa—and, in a more complicated sense, in Brazil, Ecuador, Guatemala, and much of Latin America. Lebanese are a market-dominant minority in West Africa. Ibo are a market-dominant minority in Nigeria. Croats were a market-dominant minority in the former Yugoslavia. And Jews are almost certainly a market-dominant minority in post-Communist Russia.

Market-dominant minorities are the Achilles' heel of free market democracy.

“They hang Burns”

Pity, he was one of those who warned Washington in 2008 against expanding to Ukraine. It wasn't his fault his masters took his injunctions as a “how-to” rather than a “don't-do”.

Wikileaks:

“NATO enlargement, particularly to Ukraine, remains “an emotional and neuralgic issue” for Russia, but strategic policy considerations also underlie strong opposition to NATO membership for Ukraine and Georgia. In Ukraine, these include fears that the issue could potentially split the country in two, leading to violence, or, some claim, even civil war, which would force Russia to decide whether to intervene.”

He could see the future!

I wish I had seen this AA article sooner.

AA is a slightly deranged entertainer and his posts should be seen for the high comedy they present, but not taken seriously.

Xi giving lectures on proper governance and human rights, etc., is just plain hilarious. China is a brutal, totalitarian, corrupt police state. As far gone as Biden's Murrice is, AA would come scurrying back to Murrice if he had to live in China for a week.

We need to fix Murrice, sin duda. But Murrice has a sound foundation so fixing it is at least conceivable. China? CHINA?

China doesn't bully? The Tibetans, Uigurs, Hong Kongers might disagree.

And yes, it would be stupid to put sanctions on China, US and Chinese economies are way to intertwined. There ain't no way that China would stop doing business with the US. I think if you summed all the rest of the world's trade with China, the US-China trade would still be multiples larger. We can't live without each other. It's just a fact.

So thanks for the good laugh, AA.

Anglin indeed infused his political commentary with comedy. But that doesn't mean your comment is correct. People who claim Tibetans are bullied by China haven't the slightest clue of history. You probably should learn why after the Han attempted to intermarry with Tibet the Mongols and then Manchu just decided to conquer them outright to stop their raids. You should probably read up on why Beijing was forced to pay indemnity on behalf of the Tibetans who killed European soldiers and missionaries who came to the territory. You might ask yourself why the vast majority of Tibetans had zero desire to follow the supposed precious Dalai Lama into India.

Uighurs? Another group you know absolutely nothing about. Muslim tourists and governments go to Xinjiang all the time and have little to nothing negative to say... even the separatists who do flee to Muslim countries are often not wanted – but most of them are militant extremists. But you claim they are bullied. Sure go to ISIS and Al Qaeda camps in any war zone and find the Uighur contingent among them and go have a meal with them and tell us how it went.

More nonsense propaganda like Hong Kong. The Brits finally opened up migration for anyone to leave (well 5 out of 7.5 million were eligible). uK propaganda said 3 million would apply within 5 years. Well we are 2 years in and so far only 150K have applied. So according to their arrogant propaganda 1.2 million should have applied by now. I can't write out the exact calculation right now but it seems out of my head that only 12-13% of their arrogant estimation have done so. Ask yourself why.

China isn't perfect and doesn't claim to be. But it is successful because the nonsense talking points you make from propaganda media have little to no truth at all.

And the vast majority of Americans who go to work in China would stay longer if their contracts would be extended. And the few who are given residency have little desire to leave in any earnest. Maybe it's because life expectancy is longer in China now than in the US. Maybe it's because they have more purchasing power in China and deal with less crime and have better infrastructure to go about their daily lives. They aren't scared of the police state.

Talk of comedians though... I actually saw a clip of American comedian Jimmy Dore. He was on Fox News Tucker Carlson. He said Americans were the most propagandized people on the planet – but don't even know it.

Nothing lasts forever so yes – EU and NATO will probably break up eventually. I'm not going to hazard a guess as to when; I don't see a clear path as to how that could happen. By which I don't mean that it isn't going to happen, just that I don't know how it's going to play out.

Things seem much clearer when it comes to Russia and China and history is just one factor on which I base my opinion. The other, probably the more important one, is the likely future trajectory of their partnership: namely China becoming the more dominant partner and Russia not being too excited about becoming “the bottom” in this relationship.

You can see some signs appearing already; China is gaining influence – in many parts of the third world actually, but particularly in the Stans – very much at the expense of Russian influence there. Russians might cope it sweet for now, but you can bet they are none too happy about it.

1-3 PM: Bang Nigerian women

4:00 PM: Blog about how China will save the superior White man from Jewish miscegenation and moral degradation. Include references to anal sex or fisting.

5:00 PM Bang another Nigerian woman

6:00 PM Dinner. Surprise.....it's rice again!

7-9 PM. Watch a VHS recording of Clone Wars with Nigerian dubs.

9-10 PM: Andrew's down time. Put on Beats and listen to more Ye.

10:30 PM: Sign off with a Heil Hitler and try to get some Zzzz. Another full day tomorrow.

It's funny, between you and AA, you'd think that maybe you are both shilling for China. Could the CCP write more sunshiny propaganda about itself?

I've criticized AA for picking on the Jews, and when I do, I'm called a shill.

But look at AA's article here, and your list of the heroic accomplishments of the Chinese. Imagine if someone in these pages went on and on about the Jews in the bubbly way you two praise the Chinese.

If I was more suspicious, I'd say you were on their payroll. Way weirder things have happened.

And just so you know, I have a decade or two doing business in China and with the Chinese. Frankly I admire the people, they are smart and have a work ethic like no one else. But their government? No, gracias.

Here's another story, this one is true. I was giving two of my Chinese colleagues a tour of the rural area where our plant is located, just killing time before our plant tour began. This was their first trip to the USA. They wanted to see a grocery store (the Chinese are obsessed with food). We went to the small town grocery with it's small selection of fresh fruit and vegetables, small selection of fresh meats, and large selection of canned and processed goods. They were not impressed.

On the way out of the strip mall I saw a gun store. Well, this is something they don't have in China. So I stopped the car and we got out and went in. The rednecks manning the counter were super friendly, glad to see new faces in that little town, and they showed us around, showed us their stock of handguns, rifles, AKs, the usual gun store stuff.. My Chinese friends were in happy shock. They simply couldn't believe you could walk into a store and buy a gun.

Right away they wanted to buy a couple of pistols, and probably would have, but I put the kabosh on that one. Our company wasn't going to be associated with smuggling weapons into the People's Republic, thanks.

We left the store, and drove around the little town. We saw a couple of houses for sale, modest places but being a small town, the lots were probably 1/2 acre. This was maybe ten years ago, so the prices were in the low $100k range.

My Shanghai friends were again in disbelief. They started peppering me with questions. Could people have their own gardens? And guns? Can they shoot game? Yes, yes, of course, yes.

I was a little surprised. I asked them why these things seemed new to them, this was a typical small town among thousands across the country. What had they been told about America?

One of the Chinese replied, struggling a little to find the right words. "We learned that America was...sad".

Well compared to cramped, super expensive apartment living in Shanghai where the TVs watch you back, there is no first, second, or any amendments, no, America is not "sad".

The rest of the day they just kept asking about life in America, prices of homes, gun ownership, and how they could finagle getting out of China.

Since then I always take visiting Chinese customers to the local gun range. They go nuts, they love it, and doing so has been really good for business.

So yeah, the People's Republic, no thanks. We've got to fix America so we don't end up like them, and that's not a done deal, but we've got way more to work with.

Have a nice day.

China is gaining influence at the expense of Russia? According to who? The CIA? Fox and CNN? Maybe the problem you don't get is both nations have actually matured. Maybe you can't understand the issues between them that existed in the 1950's to early 1980's no longer exists. You HOPE they will fight each other again. For the record most of the issues was because Russia was "with the west". Most of their history they did NOT fight. Now Russia is not "with the west". You don't seem to get it that both continue to preach they no longer believe in "blocs".

You do get it right that human beings can never perfectly get along. So it is with nations. But your rationale doesn't make sense. Even Russians will admit it was when Russia joined with western nations to carve up China – that is when the problems started. As to China wanting to claim back its former territory. That has been settled by treaty 30 years ago. Name a treaty China disavowed and attacked another country over. Also China is aging and has a shrinking population. Why on earth would China want to reclaim millions of kilometers via a war? Doesn't make sense. China is not a western nation.

In other words you are an idiot who just blows off steam and knows nothing about most things.

When did Hong Kong have democracy? Hong Kong for its time as a British colony never had democracy clown. Hong Kong is more “democratic” since its return to China than it was under the British. You are a complete clown. And sure it did have a higher standard of living. But that’s because along with Taiwan – Hong Kong is the place many talented Mainland Chinese went (like some of my own relatives). Now they don’t need to so because China reformed to the lament of colonial worshippers it has become “just another Chinese city”. It went from the highest GDP in China to now 5th in the space of 25 years. Not because Hong Kong itself stagnated – but because Mainland cities have just grown so much faster. Like expectancy is still right at the highest in the world (higher than London)... Crime is among the lowest in the world (lower than London). Hong Kong’s only problem is it is an expensive ultra capitalist city. It is expensive because it still has high quality of life 25 years after returning to China – in spite of what arrogant westerners thought.

As to some of the people being locked up... Nobody likes a traitor. Hong Kong returned to China in 1997. If they didn’t want to be a part of China they could have migrated. There is no restriction for them to leave. Leave rather than be a traitor. And the numbers tell.... Most people are not leaving at all. Even the 150 k – if the run up to 1997 is a measure – many will return after realizing life wasn’t better in the west. Much more left before 1997 than are leaving now. Those are facts and not dumb opinion.

America didn't save anything in WW2 (Soviets shed more Nazi blood than Americans and got to Berlin first for a reason). Go check where most of the Japanese died. It wasn't fighting the US. By The US nuked Japan to save itself. Too afraid to lose more men so unleashed terror on the world in the form of atomic bombs. That was the cowards way – like bombing Muslim goat herders from up in the sky. Meanwhile China fought Japan for almost a decade and refused to surrender. Meanwhile the duplicitous Yanks were feeding the Japanese war Machine for most of that time. By the time the US joined the war – Japans push into China was already stagnating. That is why Japan went crazy when the US finally started to stop supplying Japan – so Japan attacked the US because it was desperate. You listen to bogus history. The Soviets helped China on the ground defeating Japan in northeast China than the U.S. “helped”. Tell me what battles the US helped China in on Chinese soil. Your history is bogus just like your current events.

But here is a wake up call to you. If you stay on your side of the Pacific – Chinese people would not care to see you. 1984 is a western creation and let it stay so. Don't blame Chinese for that.

I stated fact you stated anecdotes (which are probably fake that you read or heard in some anti China media).

But here is the thing. Check China's millennia of history. China doesn't want others to be like them. China does business and shares culture – but that's it. The whole point of Xi and Putin meeting is to keep NATO countries from imposing themselves on everyone else. That's why this is ironic.

I suppose it's normal to show off the best to visiting foreigners while hiding the worst. Still those Chinese must have been very naive to be impressed by that tour. There are some nice modern houses in Chinese villages so that not everybody in China lives in apartment blocks. You would have thought those Chinese guys would have known that. Maybe they were pulling the tour guide's leg by asking how they could get to stay in good old USA. And perhaps they should have questioned why do Americans need to own guns while Chinese don't, except for hunting purposes. Anyway, there's nothing stopping Chinese citizens from joining the PLA if they want to play with guns so much.

| The US nuked Japan to save itself. Too afraid to lose more men so unleashed terror on the world in the form of atomic bombs.

Nonsense! US nuked Japan to send a message to Russia. By that time Japan was in ruins from conventional bombing already, nuking of Hiroshima and Nagasaki barely registered as something different to Japanese leadership. But on the 9th of August Russia entered the fray in a decisive manner, obliterating Japanese forces in Manchuria and cutting off their supply of all materials and all production, because Japanese moved most of their war production to Manchuria, out of range of American bombers.

Without Manchuria, what Japanese forces were still left would be fighting armed with nothing but bamboo sticks in a matter of days – that's why Japan finally surrendered.

Oh ok.... I guess I went by the official US story of why they “had to” drop atom bombs on Japan to save American GI’s (sarcasm). Also the Soviets had spies in the nuclear program who knew everything... So there was no “message” sent.

Also Northeast China (Manchuria) had long been an industrial base for Japan. That’s why they took it from China in the first place. It had immense natural resources that could be converted for industrial purposes. It was also a “scientific” base for them – which is why they conducted their demonic Unit 731 war crimes (which of course proper punishment was never doled out after the war).

But yes you are correct about the bombing of Japanese cities. So yes – more civilians died at the end of US bombs – but not Japanese soldiers – which was the point I made to John Johnson.

They probably did, although I doubt they knew everything because Russian nuclear program lagged behind America – their first nuclear test took place in 1949 ... but in any case, there was a message to send: it was that Americans not only had the weapon, but they were not reluctant to use it if they felt the need.

Northeast China (Manchuria) had long been an industrial base for Japan. That’s why they took it from China in the first place. It had immense natural resources that could be converted for industrial purposes.

Yes, well we agree on that. Japanese did move most of their production there, but the details are besides the point. The point is they surrendered because their situation was hopeless once they lost it, and they lost it to Russians not to Americans. I do have my preferences, but it would be stupid and wrong to downplay Russia’s importance in WWII – so I don’t.

Dude, you mention the 1920s as if that's a long time ago. Chinese traders have had a strong presence in Southeast Asia for well over a thousand years. The mistake is the belief that these overseas Chinese are loyal to any government. Traders are traders; the Chinese traders are loyal to their families, clan, company and lao jia (original village or hometown). Why do you think the development of China started with development in Guangtung and Fujian? Besides their proximity to Hong Kong, the fact of the matter is that these overseas Chinese, including the people of Hong Kong and Taiwan, were the first investors in China's economic miracle. The Southeast Asian overseas Chinese invested in their home areas, creating huge economic success for them and the their relatives still in China.

The Jews and their anti-Christ culture of filth and degradation destroyed my family. As an adult, I have been hounded by these people relentlessly. They destroyed my company, costing me tens of millions of dollars, and ran me out of my home country. But much more than this, they completely destroyed the nation my ancestors built, and they succeed in destroying most of the people in it with their revolutionary ideologies, sexual perversions, drugs, and spiritual rot.

Today it was alleged the Brits are shipping Depleted Uranium [DU] weapons to the Ukraine. If true, this will deny the soils and farmlands of Ukraine to produce safe and consumable foods and grains needed to feed the world. Nuclear anything [weapons or other objects of usefulness] cause cancers and many other ills and make the farmlands ecologically unusable at a time when producing food to feed the world is critical; so it seems nuclear weapons are used to bring about destructive revenge WDRs. When the enemy can not be defeated, deprive the world of the productive benefit the lost ground can render, just destroy its usefulness to everyone.

Name them. Assign each a percentage chance of occurring. Anglin has punted so this falls to the commenters.

Hey –you must be a Christian –. Do you read the Bible or only use it as a paperweight? Have you read the Bible and understand its contents or only refer to a few events which you like and ignore the other parts you do not like—but are true—after All it is God’s inspired word—is it NOT??

This is NOT a game of pick and choose but a life –and conduct – which must be adhered to.

What is frightening is Reading “each man has sinned” and ” No one has done good –all have fallen short”.

This means All or nothing.

Now read Acts 4:52 and Again Read Acts 11;29 and understand this story involves at Acts 4 –a couple who sold land and did not put the entire amount they sold the land into the disciples funds—they kept a part of it for themselves —and when Paul (the guy who fell off a house-was blinded-then converted) asked WHY the other part of the Sale (this couple was using an invisible hand to keep par tfor themselves) and they stated they contributed ALL —they were struck Dead.

Moral —–you can lie and steal from anyone but Lying to the Holy Spirit –warranted death.

Another final comment: The Bible is either TRUE and Word of God written by inspired writers OR – a book of nonsense— complete gibberish from olden times iwth NO application for today’s modern World.

The discipbles distributive justce –to each according to their needs and –from each according to their ability —is in the BIBLE –in black ink.

Surprisingly —the same justice appears in Karl Marx’s final chapter in Communist Manifesto ” From each accrign to their ability and to each according to their needs>

To disagree—we have been lead to believe the Lie of the centuries —satan is clever and his muder ad lies have tripped up every generation ——

Food for thought —if this is False —the Bible is Wrong ———
OR —if this is true —Capitalism is not in compliance with what the Bible reads.

No man can serve two Masters—it is in the Book.

Final Note: USA has been in existence since 1776 and at war in all but 16 years of its 245 year existence.

This constant fixation with death based on lies —is the very attriubutes of satan—a murderer and a liar since the beginning.

You are 100% wrong in your assertion that it was the Russian intervention that cutoff supplies of raw materials etc to the Japanese Home Islands from Manchuria. The supply line from Manchuria had been interdicted for many months by a US Navy submarine campaign, the most successful submarine blockade in history. Russia had nothing to do with it, zero, nada, zilch. It is helpful to actually read history, you need to do some reading. You are 100% wrong that it was the Russian intervention against Japan that was the decisive factor forcing Japan to surrender. Russia attacked a mere six days before Japan's surrender, simply an easy land grab by Russia. Russia's contribution to Japan's defeat was, practically speaking, ZERO. You are 100% wrong that the atomic strikes had nothing to do with Japan's surrender. Japan surrendered six days after Nagasaki, to reject a causal relationship with Hiroshima/Nagasaki is absurdly blockheaded. But of course, here at TUR, a host of commenters will insist on being blockheads.

The rest of the world now knows what the red man knew 150 years ago.

The US is an untrustworthy and unreliable partner whose word isn't worth the prairie wind over which it was carried, a true forked-tongued snake in league with the devil. Thus to make a deal with the US is to make a deal with the devil, a deal which you will always lose.

This is slowly beginning to dawn on the Ukrainians: top-to-bottom, front-to-back, side-to-side and from every other angle. It is a realization which is beginning to reverberate, to gain traction and is approaching critical mass: the realization of what it is costing them to get what only the devil made them think they wanted.

Then, suddenly, it will all be over.

Some good news from my chinese friend:

«By the way, the China is already checking the ports of Primorye for the capacity to load troops. It is from there that the invasion of the United States will be carried out. The Chinese are also checking the ports of Kamchatka.

40 thousand troops of the Russian Federation to Alaska. And presumably 200 thousand troops of the People's Republic of China through the ports of Primorye to British Columbia and the West Coast of the United States.

However, troops will also be sent directly from Chinese ports. So presumably the invasion troops are about 1.5 million.

Russian troops will only be in Alaska. Probably then the China will allow the Russian Federation to land in Seattle and participate in the recoument of the San Francisco and Los Angeles areas. The police forces of the Russian Federation can also be in Greater Texas and Oregon. But there will be Chinese troops on the fronts of the West Coast, there will be no Russian troops there. There will be only Chinese troops in British Columbia and Alberta and Saskatchewan.

North Korean troops will be in Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles as police. But they will also be used at the front.

The reason why the Russian troops will not be at the front is that they are barely enough to occupy the Northern Territories of Canada and go to Manitoba. Where they will have to fight, including against Ukrainians.

And then – China will restore order better than anyone else could.»

It's funny seeing so much of the anti-lockdown schizo-right licking so much Chinese boot now when far harsher covid measures and tracking were in place in China. Every person's movement was tracked to the inch with QR codes anytime you wanted to go anywhere, security guards acting like Spielbergian Gestapo – to the point of even refusing to listen to government officials in order to keep people locked in – they even separated families only to have the positive parents die in a traffic accident on the way to the quarantine facility.

Both Russia and the US learned plenty from the Germans. But being that the whole of Russia was mobilized for war – it was much easier for the US to keep moving forward. But we only know what we know from what has been declassified from both sides so far.

But I can agree with your overall sentiment. Bottom line is there was no real reason to drop atomic bombs on Japan... And the Japanese were as evil as the Nazis. Maybe more. Nazis in China who saw Japanese actions called them too brutal and barbaric. Still nuclear bombs have no place in humanity..

Do they deserve to starve, though? If you starve to death you can't continue to suffer. The reason you could know in advance that covid wasn't dangerous is that if you die of a cold, you can't lose your job due to lockdowns. (That and the fact they didn't lock down the airports.) With a healthy lifestyle and upbringing, the average White woman would be way more attractive than most Asian woman to an American male.

The yellow fever and the reduced attractiveness of many American women are temporary anomalies.

Smart, meek anglo men probably do find a larger pool of fairly attractive and fairly smart Asian women. These would not be considered so attractive except modern Western women have equated intelligence with feminism and aggressiveness.

Apparently the best looking white women are more attractive to all men. Deal with it.

Well done Andrew, stirred it up with this article, and your t feed has been very funny lately.

I take the Bukosky route and want to laugh at the black comedy our world had become.

You can track back from sept 11 and forward to today with events that nudged this takeover along in small and large moments, that everyone who was asleep thought were just outliers.

Those awake now know we have maybe left it too late, but Twitter revelations now reveal what we were up against, a truly massive monster indeed.

And those fooled do not care at all, and still fight for their foolers

They are Rong, and cannot admit it at all, even after ten pints of Guinness last weekend.

What happened to the USA ?

How did they become the hideous regime they now are?

The political parties are no different at all, watching Blinken and Rand dance yesterday, it seemed all rehearsed and meaningless.

The main Russian General Kirilov , in charge of chemical weapons monitoring , has an excellent presentation on what has so far been found .

Same companies and people, all connected to The Bindens of course.

And the USA has been doing this since the 50's in Korea. Cairo where they released the sub Saharan plague by air burst, evil actions by an evil people.

The USA truly inherited and perfected everything their British masters started!

Henry Makow exposes daily who is responsible.

Highly recommend this Kirilov article and or slide presentation. Dr Trozzis site has it.

With the supply of Uranium enriched missiles by the heartless British Army now on the table, I truly fear what Russia will HAVE to do to defend themselves from this move.

Very scary times ahead, get cash, get supplies, and be ready to implement your escape plan!

There is no longer any point in trying to save the vaxxed, they are beyond the point of admitting that they have been deceived by those who worship the Great Deceiver himself.

That they created their A-bomb in four years, while repairing the greatest material damage imaginable, was a miracle.

The design they used in their first test was based on the American one, so this is perhaps a miracle with a rational explanation.

But in reality it took them more than four years – their nuclear program was officially signed off by Stalin in 1942, the same year as Project Manhattan.

The US is currently holding the Uighur tribunal concurrently with the “Tik Tok Witch Trials”. Along with all the typical recycled stories (I think they borrowed some from the fake Kuwaiti testimony before the Iraq war) – one of the women testified that she was forced to teach people in the camps Chinese and “pledge allegiance to the flag”. Meanwhile all the Muslim countries visit and do business there and see nothing wrong with Uighurs learning to speak Chinese. But anyone with half a brain can see all the signs have both languages (same as with other autonomous areas of China). But according to the US Congress – Uighur language is being eradicated. It is disgusting. Worse they think they will escape judgement. They didn’t read the proverb God “hates those who sow discord among brethren”

Yes, the USA is the bad guy ! Yeah yeah yeah ! And who is the good guy, the country that will save the world ? Well, China with their Bros, India, South Africa, Russia and Iran.

Yet I dont see a flood of immigrants headed to China, Russia or Iran. India is a cess pool of mind boggling poverty and South Africa is a basket case.

The avalanche of refugees and legal immigration is in the opposite direction. You have to be the progeny of the Three Blind Mice to not see that for all our delusions, the people actually living in these countries know better than we do. Hence they flee these “utopias” for the West. They vote their favourite countries with their feet.

Anyone who thinks that once China and her stooges rise to the top, that it will be an infinitely better world better think again. Throughout history, the top dog, whether right or wrong, always calls the shots and the bitches must comply.

When Ching, Singh, Mgugu, Ivan and Abdul arrive at your home and say “White Bitch kneel, your white ass is kneeling”.

Screeching that you always loved any of them and you are glad they have taken over will not save you.

As an American what is your preference ? Shot caller or faggot to inferior races ?? As a White, will you like a squinty eyed dwarf Chinaman, a greasy East Indian, a thick lipped African, an oily Iranian or a Vodka guzzler ruling over you ?

If the answer is YES then you secretly wish to be a bitch !

Mar 18, 2023 America's China Policy is Collapsing—And That's a Good Thing!

Americans are fed up with China. Congress is finally coming together to address its threats. America's policy of appeasing and working with China is collapsing and that's a good thing. But some out-of-touch elites are trying to save the sinking ship and are calling for the US to reverse course. In this episode of China Uncensored, we look at a (hopefully small) group of elites who don't want the gravy train of China engagement to end, what their reasons are, and what they get wrong about China. Americans are fed up with China. Congress is finally coming together to address its threats.

<https://nationalpost.com/news/this-is-the-poem-that-got-a-chinese-activist-seven-years-in-jail>

How exactly would they not be a totalitarian state when they gave a poet 7 years in jail?

The world correctly views China as a totalitarian state.

Do all the damage control you want here but that view isn't changing.

China is managed by pathetic control freaks that can't admit the Communist revolution was a waste of time. They still call themselves a proletariat state and yet it is illegal to form a union. Millions died thinking they were building a worker's utopia and Chinese factory workers can't form a union and work longer hours compared to US/UK capitalist countries. If they point out the bullshit of this system they can be hauled off to perform slave labor in a work colony. A real worker's paradise!

Hilariously the Chinese chased the Marxist crackpipe after it had already failed in Europe. Most left-wing economists had given up on collectivism by the 1950s but the Chinese were willing to kill their own people to give it a try. Great success!

When did Hong Kong have democracy? Hong Kong for its time as a British colony never had democracy clown.

British colonies have representational democracy with limited autonomy.

Modern Hong Kong has neither.

Hey –you must be a Christian –. Do you read the Bible or only use it as a paperweight? Have you read the Bible and understand its contents or only refer to a few events which you like and ignore the other parts you do not like—but are true—after All it is God’s inspired word—is it NOT??

Do you eat pork?

Leviticus 11:7

And the pig, because it parts the hoof and is cloven-footed but does not chew the cud, is unclean to you.

Or shrimp, shellfish and lobster?

Leviticus 11:10

But anything in the seas or the rivers that does not have fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and of the living creatures that are in the waters, is detestable to you.

If you are eating any of those things then you are ignoring the parts you don’t like.

A White man with a skill can do well in a lot of African countries. Provided of course he isn't corrupted by Western avarice.

Africans are far less likely to believe in paint theory and in fact prefer open talk on race to Victorian patronizing.

Anglin is a decent writer and I honestly think he should give up his racial quest...which at the moment seems to be cheering for the Chinese. He seems to have zero faith in his own race despite claiming to be a White supremacist.

He would actually make for a really good Vice type travel writer. Well old Vice anyways before it went PC.

I would really like hearing about his adventures in the third world. He was a keen sense of human nature and I think he could be a successful travel writer. He would of course have to drop the anal sex references and cheerleading for totalitarian states. I don't care for his politics but he could be a top-tier given his writing ability and willingness to travel the depths of the third world.

Every major country's scientists understood the theoretical basis of the atomic bomb. The most important secret was openly revealed in August 1945. It works.

One thing I doubt is the magnitude of the mass murders the Stalin regime committed within the Soviet Union itself. Some claim, upwards of 60,000,000 people were supposed to have been murdered by the Soviet regime during the 70-some years of its existence. We have a pretty good idea of what happened there after 1945. If these huge number of people had been eliminated during the 1930s, where would the Soviet Union have gotten the manpower to industrialize the country prior to the world war, fight the world war and rebuild the country after the world war?

It just doesn't make sense. The real number might be somewhere between six and ten million at the most. A large country could survive that, especially given that many of the dead would have been beyond military age during the world war and beyond productive age during the Postwar era. Not a pretty picture, but not what we have been told either.

America never does anything like that, of course. We just let people die of their own accord and invade small, underdeveloped countries. I trace it back to the presidency of Woodrow Wilson. The Fourteen Points might have been a nice, flowery statement of principle. As a world policy, the Fourteen Points was just a bit of an overreach.

@Bombercommand

Fact: the most destructive bombing Japan suffered was not Hiroshima – it was the conventional bombing of Tokyo a few months prior. That’s why I say that to Japanese it made little difference if Americans used nuclear weapons or conventional ones.

Fact: Russian move on Manchuria was far more than a token gesture or an opportunist land grab just before Japan would surrender anyway. It was a carefully planned operation executed by force of more than million troops. You don’t just cobble something like that in a couple of days, it takes planning and preparation.

Fact: Japanese Kwantung Army stationed on the continent was not quite what it used to be, but it still numbered something like 750 thousand. Forget about the resources for the moment, loss of that military force was also a significant blow for Japan.

Fact: American blockade might have been one of the more effective ones, but nothing is as effective as taking the territory supplies come from in the first place.

China is the testing ground for omnipresent and oppressive surveillance and techno-slavery. China and Russia walked in lockstep with the west to roll out the fake covid pandemic, the clot shots, face diapers, digital currency, digital identity, social credit scores, etc. The New World Order, 4th Industrial Revolution, the Great Reset or whatever name you fancy is marching all of us into the dystopian techno-fascist slavery of Technocracy and Transhumanism that has been in the plans for over a century.

The parasite class that lords over us, the little people, know no national boundaries. China and Russia are playing their role in ushering in the coming techno-fascist nightmare. If you swallow the propaganda that China and Russia will somehow bring about a better world than the Zionist-Anglo tyranny then you have not learned anything from the fake covid pandemic of the past 3 years.

First read the Talmund then The Protocols then the Rabbi mentality with the old Testament agenda and them being the masters of the USURY and the credit deception I hope the parasites will colapse or they get kicked out as the history tells us. Their mentality is to destroy the gentiles but their brain is not wired for any other way and in my perspective they will self destruct as history shows.

On the other note they have achieved total money control over the governments in most countries in the west and USA clowns. But money is not everythig and destroying moral order of society might get to be a big agenda once people wake up.

China's not as bad as you think. I worked there for 7 years. Very conservative culture. Tough on crime and thus, very safe. Mao kicked the Tribe out long ago.

Mao kicked out the tribe? The intentionally murderous Communist plan was designed by a single German half-Jew. Mao carried out the plan of Marx which included collective farms even though they had already failed in Europe. But I guess millions of Chinese also had to starve before they realized that the idea was in fact retarded.

The Communist economic plan completely failed but the Chinese still kept the totalitarian state. So workers get the shaft and they are unable to organize. What a utopia!

They dislike blacks and South Asians(Indians) but respect Europeans.

Well that is true for most Asians. They have never liked Blacks.

You have not spent much time around Asians if you think the Chinese are unique in that regard. Asians in general don't understand the American fascination with the Bantu. The Japanese especially are unimpressed with the White man's continued attempt at denying race.

Does Washington DC allows the states of USA to separate and be foreign agents to serve foreign powers' interests? Does the oligarchs who rule the USA allow people to criticize them and the workers to have their fair shares of the wealth they created? Stop portraying your own ugly image on others to whitewash the crimes against peace, war crimes and crimes against humanity the White has committed from the day Columbus set sail out of the Mediterranean Sea.

The American culture and mentality are zero-sum, beggar-thy-neighbour, if-I-cannot-have-it-then-nobody-can-have-it, and racism. Chinese achievements are against every grain of American culture and mentality, as well as it is proving American culture and mentality destructive, bigotry, regressive, feudal, dark side of humanity, and biggest obstacle to the progress civilization.

Americans cannot let Chinese poke through the facade covering their ugly nature with lies that have fabricated by the Americans via centuries of "history" based on false pathos and insincere heroism. Stopping Chinese advancement in technology, science, commerce, etc. is stopping Chinese from poking through their facade.

I've been all over this country and I was in Portland last year.

First of all no one says "Burnside District". When was the last time you were there? 1960? Did you have an all White Sharks gang that had dance offs? It's just Burnside and it's completely tame. The sketchy areas of Portland are by the homeless camps like the one under Steel Bridge. Burnside gets packed with tourists going over to Chinatown and Voodoo donut.

I've also been all over Seattle. Both Seattle and Portland are completely tame compared to West Side Chicago.

I really don't see your point. I've been to both Chicago and East Oakland. Northwest zombie junkies are a joke compared to what happens in Oakland. The whole Antifa thing is overrated gayness as well. Bunch of dorks with nothing to do.

Then take a flight to Shenzhen—take in Shanghai and up to Beijing and

I don't plan on visiting a totalitarian state. Goes against my principles but if you want to defend the Communist paradise where workers get hauled away in the night for complaining about slave like working conditions then go ahead. You can visit for me and take pictures of the anti-suicide screens they have installed at FoxConn factories/slavery centers so the workers don't kill themselves by jumping.

@John Johnson

<https://foreignpolicy.com/2017/10/03/putins-next-target-is-russias-abortion-culture/>

“Fighting the elements to keep the tiny slippers and rubber boots in place, the organizers from “For Life” took to loudspeakers to reel off the reasons why Russia should make abortion illegal. Simultaneously, two men unfurled a long red-and-white banner with a quote by President Vladimir Putin, reading: “Demography is a vital issue... Either we’ll continue to exist, or we won’t.””

You did make claims that Putin is happy about Russian abortion rates in several posts. Your assertions are clearly untrue.

““If we don’t illegalize abortion, we cannot grow our population, and how can Russia retain its strength and greatness without that?” asked Maria Studenikina, an organizer from the Moscow faction of “For Life.” The group’s shoe project, called “If Only They Could Go to School,” has been staged in recent months in 40 cities across Russia. The shoes are accompanied by blackboards, cheery children’s backpacks, and squishy fetus dolls.”

Putin’s anti-natal totalitarianism tolerates these sort of public protests designed to morally shame of abortion seeking women? huh. It’s almost like he’s coordinating the national effort to suppress abortion.

“Russia’s anti-abortion movement has gathered momentum in recent months, as activists — usually devout members of the influential Russian Orthodox Church — have started seizing on the country’s demographic crisis as an urgent reason for banning the practice. They have also started citing Russia’s newfound commitment to a more forward-leaning posture on the global stage, from the wars in Syria and Ukraine to the diplomatic crisis over North Korea.”

The Church there doesn't like Abortion, they don't approve of cremation either; and this is basically Putin's state church. The entire article by this writer at Foreign Policy mag contradicts much, if not all, of what you've asserted in several dishonest posts.

Additionally: Abortion rates have dropped around 30% in Russia since 2000. That's a fact. So whatever Putin's done he has suppressed the practice of abortion. He's not like me. As a policy I'd pay blacks to abort their and get spayed. I'd pay white women a bounty to keep their pregnancy going and having the white child they've got. Abortion is not a moral issue for me. However, Putin clearly doesn't approve of abortion even if Russian women abort at higher rates than English girls or their white American counterparts and he's reluctantly forced to cater to their voting whims—Instead of forcing them to carry to term.

Look, NATO must at all cost defeat China and Russia, or it will be the end of all that has been built ever since WWII. I was disheartened to hear Mr. Blinken say that we may not take back land stolen by the Nazi Russians and their Nazi Chinese financial backers. Never say die, never quit. Right now, if we had given up, the entire world would be speaking German and Hitler's son would rule the world, a world where all Black people, LGBT people, and Jewish people would have been killed off. The same thing will happen if China and Russia are not completely and utterly defeated and their governments replaced by one that embraces democracy, freedom, and human rights. If anything, we need to enhance the war against China and Russia. So far, NATO has not even taken the gloves off; they have just been stretching right now, and have not even started the war. Does not NATO remember the phrase "Never Again"?

Read my comment again. I said that for all the glorifying of China, Russia etc, legal and illegal immigrants vote with their feet and see a better future for themselves in the West.

Your reply was:

The UK has a Hindu Prime Minister. The mayor of London is a Pakistani. The US VP is a Hindu female Married to a Jew.
You stupid bastard.

Therefore you agree with me. These people are in the West because their own countries have nothing to offer them. The PM of India is a billionaire. Why would he shun living in India ? Because he is better off in the West. The same for the others. Reading, comprehension and logic are your obvious deficiencies. How can I be a stupid bastard when we agree ? LOL

Take China for example. There are over 6M Chinese living in just the USA and Canada alone. Every CCP official and Chinaman with money has moved it out of China. Immigration fraud is rampant and dual citizenship is highly prized among Asians.

Even the Chinks on UR always mouthing off do not live in China. MumboBrain lives in Australia LMAO. The Chinese CEO of Tik Tok lives in Singapore.

That is because they are more familiar with the facts versus the “utopia” status of China pimped on MSM.

There are about 72,000 Americans living in China. Most are Chinese themselves with dual citizenship. White Americans living in China can be counted on your fingers and toes.

For all the twaddle about China/ Russia/ India being such great places the fact is they ARE NOT. I have not lived and worked in Russia or India but have done so in China, Brazil and South Africa. You would not want to live in any of these places. India, is even worse !

To illustrate my point, put aside all that. Would you move to any of the Brics countries and live there permanently ? How many people on UR would ? Maybe a few but a few does not make a consensus about the desirability of any of these places.

Many people on this site hold the same distorted view about BRICS as Blacks do about Africa. They rant about how great the place is but a 2 week visit usually cures their illusions. Few Americans travel abroad and those that do stay in resorts. I posit you are one of those who have never travelled or lived elsewhere. Many Americans are duped by their own Government but believe the hogwash shovelled by touts for other countries.

Does the USA have serious problems. It does ! But these will be corrected. In the meantime every other country in the world faces as many as and as serious issues as we do. So, until YOU yourself move out of the US then I have to call your chatter empty rhetoric.

One other point. I notice that instead of debate and refutation, you generally resort to name calling and profanity. You ought to desist. That is not useful or tasteful discussion but a sign you have nothing to say.

All you can contribute is gutter language and behaviour. If that is what the readers on this site want they could easily find that in a slum area. Try to elevate yourself. No one takes a guttersnipe seriously !

I think that's just the way most Chinese are and has little to do with the communist party and government. Overseas Chinese also work hard round the clock and force their kids to go to evening classes and tuition on top of the regular school, and are exploitative as employers, even of their own family members. I've known Chinese in Southeast Asia who work hard for their family businesses for almost no pay while they're young but after many years of this they expect to be placed in a senior position or to get backing from the family to set up their own business branch where they continue the trend.
