Hérodotos (Historie , kniha 1.53) vypráví příběh Kroisa, krále Lydie c. 585-546 př.nl na území dnešního západního Turecka a na Jónském pobřeží Středoziemního moře. Kroisos dobyl Efesos, Milétos a sousední řecky mluvící oblasti, získal hold a kořist, díky nimž se stal jedním z nejbohatších vládců své doby. Ale tato vítězství a bohatství vedly k aroganci a aroganci. Kroisos obrátil oči na východ, ctižádostivý dobýt Persii, již vládl Kýros Veliký. Poté, co Kroisos obdařil oblastní kosmopolitní chrám Delphi značným stříbrem a zlatem, zeptal se jeho Orákula, zda by byl úspěšný v dobytí, které plánoval. Kněžka Pýthie odpověděla: „Pokud půjdeš do války proti Persii, zničíš velkou říši.“

Kroisos se proto vydal zaútočit na Persii c. 547 před naším letopočtem. Pochodoval na východ a zaútočil na perský vazalský stát Phrygia. Cyrus zahájil speciální vojenskou operaci, aby zahnal Croesa zpět, porazil Croesovu armádu, zajal ho a využil příležitosti zmocnit se Lydiina zlata, aby představil své vlastní perské zlaté mince. Takže Kroisos skutečně zničil velkou říši, ale byla jeho vlastní.

Rychle vpřed k dnešnímu úsilí Bidenovy administrativy rozšířit americkou vojenskou moc proti Rusku a za ním i Číně. Prezident požádal o radu dnešní obdobu starověkého delfského orákula: CIA a její spojené think-tanky. Namísto varování před arogantností podporovali neokonzervativní sen, že útok na Rusko a Čínu upevní americkou kontrolu nad světovou ekonomikou a dosáhne konce dějin.

Po zorganizování státního převratu na Ukrajině v roce 2014 vyslaly Spojené státy svou zástupnou armádu NATO na východ a poskytly Ukrajině zbraně, aby mohla bojovat proti etnické válce proti rusky mluvícímu obyvatelstvu a přeměnit ruskou krymskou námořní základnu v pevnost NATO. Tato ambice na úrovni Croesus měla za cíl zatáhnout Rusko do boje a vyčerpat jeho schopnost bránit se, zničit jeho ekonomiku v tomto procesu a zničit jeho schopnost poskytovat vojenskou podporu Číně a dalším zemím, jejichž cílem je hledání soběstačnosti jako alternativy k hegemonii USA. .

Po osmi letech provokace byl nápadně připraven nový vojenský útok na rusky mluvící Ukrajince, kteří byli připraveni vyrazit k ruským hranicím v únoru 2022. Rusko chránilo své ruskojazyčné spoluobčany před dalším etnickým násilím zahájením vlastní speciální vojenské operace. Spojené státy a jejich spojenci v NATO se okamžitě zmocnili ruských devizových rezerv držených v Evropě a Severní Americe a požadovali, aby všechny země zavedly sankce proti dovozu ruské energie a obilí, v naději, že to naruší směnný kurz rublu. Delfské ministerstvo zahraničí očekávalo, že to způsobí vzpouru ruských spotřebitelů a svržení vlády Vladimira Putina, což umožní USA manévrování k instalaci klientské oligarchie, jako je ta, kterou pěstovaly v 90. letech za prezidenta Jelcina.

Vedlejším produktem této konfrontace s Ruskem bylo uzamčení americké kontroly nad svými západoevropskými satelity. Cílem tohoto žokeje uvnitř NATO bylo zabránit snu Evropy profitovat z užších obchodních a investičních vztahů s Ruskem výměnou svých průmyslových výrob za ruské suroviny. Spojené státy tuto vyhlídku vykolejily tím, že vyhodily do povětří plynovody Nord Stream, čímž odřízly Německo a další země od přístupu k levnému ruskému plynu. To zanechalo přední evropskou ekonomiku závislou na dražším americkém zkapalněném zemním plynu (LNG).

Kromě nutnosti dotovat domácí evropský plyn, aby se zabránilo rozsáhlé platební neschopnosti, je v boji proti ruské armádě zničena velká část německých tanků Leopard, amerických raket Patriot a dalších „zázračných zbraní“ NATO. Ukázalo se, že americkou strategií není jednoduše „bojovat do posledního Ukrajince“, ale bojovat do posledního tanku, rakety a dalších zbraní, které budou vyřazeny ze skladů NATO.

Očekávalo se, že toto vyčerpání zbraní NATO vytvoří obrovský náhradní trh, který obohatí americký vojensko-průmyslový komplex. Jejím zákazníkům NATO se říká, aby zvýšili své vojenské výdaje na 3 nebo dokonce 4 procenta HDP. Slabý výkon amerických a německých zbraní na ukrajinském bojišti však tento sen možná zhatil, zatímco evropské ekonomiky se propadají do deprese. A vzhledem k tomu, že německá průmyslová ekonomika byla narušena přerušením obchodu s Ruskem, německý ministr financí Christian Lindner 16. června 2023 řekl deníku Die Welt, že jeho země si nemůže dovolit platit více peněz do rozpočtu Evropské unie, do kterého již dlouho byl největším přispěvatelem.

Bez německého exportu podporujícího směnný kurz eura se měna dostane pod tlak vůči dolaru, protože Evropa nakupuje LNG a NATO doplňuje své vyčerpané zásoby zbraní nákupem nových zbraní z Ameriky. Nižší směnný kurz stlačí kupní sílu evropské pracovní síly, zatímco snížení sociálních výdajů na přezbrojení a poskytování dotací na plyn uvrhne kontinent do deprese.

V celé evropské politice narůstá nacionalistická reakce proti americké dominanci a místo toho, aby Amerika uzamkla svou kontrolu nad evropskou politikou, mohou Spojené státy nakonec prohrát – nejen v Evropě, ale především na celém globálním Jihu. Namísto přeměny ruského „rublu v trosky“, jak slíbil prezident Biden, ruská obchodní bilance prudce vzrostla a jeho zásoby zlata se zvýšily. Stejně tak zlaté držby jiných zemí, jejichž vlády se nyní snaží dedolarizovat své ekonomiky.

Je to americká diplomacie, která vyhání Eurasii a globální jih z oběžné dráhy USA. Americká arogantní touha po unipolární světové dominanci mohla být tak rychle odstraněna zevnitř. Administrativa Biden-Blinken-Nuland udělala to, co Vladimir Putin ani čínský prezident Si nemohli doufat, že dosáhnou v tak krátké době. Ani jeden nebyl připraven odhodit rukavici a vytvořit alternativu světového řádu zaměřeného na USA. Ale americké sankce proti Rusku, Íránu, Venezuele a Číně měly za následek ochranné celní bariéry, které si vynutily soběstačnost v tom, co diplomat EU Josep Borrell nazývá světovou „džunglí“ mimo „zahradu USA/NATO“.

Ačkoli si globální Jih a další země stěžovaly na dominanci USA již od Bandungské konference nezúčastněných zemí v roce 1955, postrádaly kritické množství k vytvoření životaschopné alternativy. Ale jejich pozornost nyní upřela americká konfiskace oficiálních ruských dolarových rezerv v zemích NATO. To rozptýlilo myšlenku dolaru jako bezpečného prostředku pro držení mezinárodních úspor. Dřívější zabavení venezuelských zlatých rezerv uchovávaných v Londýně ze strany Bank of England – slibující, že je daruje všem nevoleným odpůrcům jejího socialistického režimu, které američtí diplomaté označí – ukazuje, jak byly libra, euro a dolar vyzbrojeny. A mimochodem, co se kdy stalo s libyjskými zlatými rezervami? Američtí diplomaté se vyhýbají úvahám o tomto scénáři. Spoléhají na jedinou jedinečnou výhodu, kterou Spojené státy nabízejí. Může se zdržet jejich bombardování, zinscenování barevné revoluce k jejich „Pinochetovi“ ze strany National Endowment for Democracy nebo zavedení nového „Jelcina“, který dá ekonomiku klientské oligarchii.

Ale zdržet se takového chování je vše, co může Amerika nabídnout. Deindustrializovala svou vlastní ekonomiku a její myšlenkou zahraničních investic je vybojovat příležitosti k hledání monopolu tím, že soustředí technologické monopoly a kontrolu obchodu s ropou a obilím do rukou USA, jako by to byla ekonomická efektivita, nikoli hledání renty. .

To, k čemu došlo, je změna vědomí. Vidíme, jak se globální většina snaží vytvořit nezávislou a mírovou cestou vyjednanou volbu, jaký druh mezinárodního řádu chtějí. Jejich cílem není pouze vytvořit alternativy k používání dolarů, ale zcela nový soubor institucionálních alternativ k MMF a Světové bance, zúčtovacímu systému bank SWIFT, Mezinárodnímu trestnímu soudu a celé řadě institucí, které američtí diplomaté unesli. z Organizace spojených národů.

Výsledek bude civilizačního rozsahu. Nevidíme konec dějin, ale novou alternativu k neoliberálnímu finančnímu kapitalismu zaměřenému na USA a jeho nezdravé ekonomice privatizace, třídní války proti práci a myšlence, že peníze a úvěry by měly být privatizovány v rukou úzké finanční třídy. být veřejnou službou k financování ekonomických potřeb a rostoucí životní úrovně. Ironií je, že historickou úlohou Ameriky bylo, že ačkoli sama nebyla schopna vést svět vpřed tímto směrem, její pokusy uzavřít svět do protikladného imperiálního systému dobytím Ruska na pláních Ukrajiny a snahou izolovat čínskou technologii od prolomení pokusu USA o monopol IT byly velkými katalyzátory, které tlačí globální většinu v tomto směru.

I don't know how anyone can so thoroughly miss the lesson of history.

Croesus therefore set out to attack Persia c. 547 BC. Marching eastward, he attacked Persia's vassal-state Phrygia. Cyrus mounted a Special Military Operation to drive Croesus back, defeating Croesus's army... So Croesus did indeed destroy a great empire, but it was his own.

And the writer follows that with “Russia protected its fellow Russian-speakers from further ethnic violence by mounting its own Special Military Operation.”

Croesus attacked the vassal-state as a prelude to attacking Persia. When Persia responded its goal was not to protect the vassal-state, it was to destroy the army of Croesus, because Persia knew that the goal of Croesus was to destroy Persia.

Russia did not mount a SMO to protect Ukraine, it did so to destroy the military power of the USA. Ukraine was never anything more than a pawn.

Russia knew that the goal of the USA is to destroy Russia. The USA has stated openly and repeatedly that its ultimate goal is to destroy Russia. Why would the Russians not believe it? Russia mounted the operation to destroy the USA.

You do not seem able to see irony and paradox, where it is apparent. Like many people of the West, you see discrete either/or categories and Aristotelian digital possibilities, e.g., “it’s either this or that”.

This thinking was bequeathed to Western Christianity.

Russia had an exigent priority, to save from genocide, the Russophone of Donetsk. Up to that point, it had made many attempts to persuade the West to enter into detente re: Ukraine. That meant respecting the rights and privileges of a minority, while remaining part of Ukraine as citizens. Notice the lack of hegemony, lack of advocacy of land acquisition, expansionism, etc., Russia’s part.

Those conditions attached were that Ukraine would remain neutral and not ever by part of NATO. Those were Russia’s terms. It now seems apparent that Russia/Putin knew that this proposition would not be acceptable and that JUSA/NATO was preparing for takeover of Ukraine and dissolution of Russia. That had been obvious since the end of WWII, not in 2014, or after the collapse of the Soviet Union.

I assert this on the basis of many expert opinions, documentation, and actions.

the one unique advantage the United States has to offer. It may refrain from bombing them

During a May, 1945 meeting in San Francisco, Dulles assessed that the war must go on for at least three months more, so that the atomic bomb is ready to be used – – not because it is relevant to ending the war on logical, desirable terms, but because the postwar foreign policy of the United States depends upon having demonstrated to the world the willingness of the US to use atomic bombs on civilian populations.

Of course seven wars since then, bereft of cause except the sheer joy of warring (and military-toys profits), have reinforced the Dulles thinking – – non-atomic variety. But my belief is this: Still operative, in fact more so now than ever, is the prior, gratuitous use of atomic bombs. I can't prove it, but I believe the Russian and Chinese "war college" types regard the Hiroshima/Nagasaki bombings as a major factor when they render their input to political leaders. And properly so.

German, French and British people have agreed with the destruction of their nations long ago when they didn't remove those pushing multiculturalism.

Enoch Powell like Watt Tyler was left standing there alone when he was stabbed in the back...the people just accepted it and slunk away with tail between their legs.

So the financial death of Europe is also supported by the people because they do nothing, so be it, that is their fate.

and “while Europe’s economies are sinking into depression. And with Germany’s industrial economy deranged by the severing of its trade with Russia....”

It’s amazing. We have friends in Western Europe. We keep trying to tell them that what is happening in the EU/UK, has already happened in the US: the American Oligarchs/Wall Street/political puppets/the US Judicial System are ALL a composite mass utterly destroying the American society.

We provide details telling them about the incredible costs of privatized Health Care, privatized food/other corporations; the negligent salaries paid to American employees; the horrendous costs of Big Insurance: home/auto/medical care costs.....

yet these Europeans simply do not get it. If we show them the horrendous costs of health care for American, or our car/home insurance, or our costs of food, water, energy costs.....they still don’t believe us.

Anyone here, who is or has European/UK friends let us know what they are thinking, but for us, our definite impression is if they complain, it’s because of their government that’s doing all that.

What they don’t get, is that the US Financial Oligarchs are combining financial powers with the UK, EU Oligarchs/Banks, etc.

Croesus attacked the vassal-state as a prelude to attacking Persia. When Persia responded its goal was not to protect the vassal-state, it was to destroy the army of Croesus, because Persia knew that the goal of Croesus was to destroy Persia.

I don't see anything in what Michael Hudson writes, whether with reference to modern Russia or ancient Persia, that contradicts the second paragraph quoted just above. Hudson never suggests that Cyrus failed to see Croesus's true goal. On the contrary, he shows that Cyrus's response to the Lydian move on Phrygia was calamitous for Croesus.

| I don't know how anyone can so thoroughly miss the lesson of history.

Surely the lesson of this particular scrap of history is that the price for misinterpreting an oracle, whether Delphic or (((otherwise))), can be very high indeed.* The point that Hudson uses the Croesus story to prefigure—namely, that the (((US government's))) unwarranted self-regard is leading to a Lydian outcome—is certainly apt.

The ancient Greeks were caught in a bind, as they themselves realized. Thucydides makes plain that when the Athenians and Spartans consulted the oracle during the lead-up to the Peloponnesian War, both were very uneasy because they knew that the answers they got would be riddles. Yet the religious sense that they held in common told them that going to war without consulting the oracle would be taken by the Olympian gods as an act of impiety, one whose consequences might well be disastrous for them. Given that our Jewish masters regard themselves as Olympian in intellectual and moral stature, Greek irony and tragedy look to be repeated as vulgar shtetl burlesque.

*Few would argue, I think, that Delphi's batting average was several orders of magnitude better than that of today's self-anointed oracular Jews.

Not coincidentally, the religious dimension is the core subtext of Sophocles's play King Oedipus. Impiety and pride, not incest, are the king's greatest sins. When he publicly declares that he can prove that oracles lie, he commits both sins and dooms himself thereby.

I recently read in Quora, how the Assyrian Empire made monumental reliefs and inscriptions of their gruesome atrocities against their enemies and rebellious subjects. I didn't have the nerve to reply that is the American Empire. Hiroshima is prize exhibit A. The Assyrian as did the American Empire after their shock and awe imposed soft power. Assyriologists are quick to point out the Assyrians brought about international trade and peace. After all Europe in NATO had no major war until last year. And we all know about the consumer American culture. But within a few years, the apparently invincible Assyrian Empire, now universally hated for its cruelty and greed, imploded and was conquered and invaded by the Babylonians and Medes. The Babylonian Empire only lasted several more generations before its conquest by the great liberator, King Cyrus of Persia.

Empire is inherently impious. Inherently an affront to the heavens, and inherently imprudent.

Did you know Hudson worships Mammon?

| obtaining tribute and booty that made him one of the richest rulers of his time

...yes, and? Riches are meaningless. What did he do with them? And why?

Are riches an end in themselves? If they are not, this sentence makes no sense.

| But their attention has now been focused by the U.S. confiscation of Russia's official dollar reserves in NATO countries.

It's just money. So what?

| Its NATO customers are being told to increase their military spending to 3 or even 4 percent of GDP.

“Line might not go up. Line might go down!”

| Their aim is not merely to create alternatives to the use of dollars, but an entire new set of institutional alternatives to the IMF and World Bank, the SWIFT bank clearing system, the International Criminal Court and the entire array of institutions that U.S. diplomats have hijacked from the United Nations.

Ah yes, the problem with the world is that the three-letter agencies have the wrong letters. We need those bureaucracies instead of these ones.

Such ambition. Such vision.

Mammon seems to be rewarding Hudson as per his usual mein.

During the 90s, EUropeans supported separatism in Yugoslavia, Islamic and narco-separatists, told Serbs that they should give all rights to Muslims, even a state from their territory, that it was okay for the Serbian people to be divided into 7 territorial parts that would become new states and where the centuries-old genocide against Serbs would continue. The media was full of ethnic cleansing by Serbs, mass graves, rapes, bombing of civilian markets, genocide in Srebrenica, Milosevic was a butcher, etc.

The source of the propaganda was the deep state in the US, its media and Vatican, which spread to the entire European Union, and eventually the bombing was carried out. The European memory is very short, there is not anymore anything of the above mentioned, no weapons of mass destruction, no 45 minutes to use nuclear weapons, poison gases, smoking gun in the shape of a nuclear mushroom. Can Europe survive with such a lack of intellectual potential, courage and susceptibility to such shallow propaganda? I doubt it.

Not one person has heretofore said that the SMO was to protect Ukraine. It was to protect ethnic Russians from clear preparations for even more violence in the Donbas.

The Russians did not anticipate the extent of the intervention by the fanatic Americans/NATO serfs or, I think, the effectiveness of the javelins. Recently I've read that the Ukrainians made effective use of mines early in the SMO as well, just as Russia is doing now.

It's not clear that the goal of the SMO was to destroy the US. The Russians have managed debt wisely and were still probably surprised and relieved that they weathered US sanctions as easily as they did.

Now they're undoubtedly overjoyed that so many utterly unpredictable consequences have come to pass that are almost all in favor of Russia, which new realities it is gleefully exploiting to create to create unimaginable multipolar arrangements.

Yes, what's in it for us, the people who actually live here?

Another question I like to ask is, how do we know that all of the dire predictions that have been made about what will have if the dollar loses its reserve status are correct? People keep on repeating the same thing over and over again, but how do we know that America is going to suffer so greatly? Because.

Because. It's hard enough to predict the past. Don't even think about trying it with the future.

Here's the problem with the American elite, apart from the fact that its members largely are a bunch of infantile dilettantes.

How can they imagine that debilitating the population of their own country is going to enhance its capacities as a world power? Depriving the majority of the largest population group of advanced education over now three generations. Importing landless peasants from around the world and expecting them to represent your post-industrial future. Focusing all of your efforts at creating inclusion on the known least educable demographic in your population. At the same time somehow keeping a large segment of the same group in a state poverty and social disruption and not accepting responsibility for doing it. Mind you, I think, and most agree, anyone with the capacity to pursue education should have the opportunity to do so. I'm not arguing against that. Then there's the replacement of your native born scientific and technical class with imported non-European foreigners. And what else? I'm sure I missed something.

Maybe it's time to fire the American elite and get a new one, recruited from the people who actually live here.

The hubris and ignorance of the US-based Ashkhenazim financier class will be our undoing. The world needs to de-dollarize—BUT SO DO WE!!!! The current model of banking and currency is based on the Bank of England model, founded in 1694. Benjamin Franklin stated that the main reason for the American Revolutionary War was the insistence by George III that the American colonies accept Bank of England banknotes, which were issued as promissory notes, rather than use the increasingly successful American fiat script, issued by the colonies in the CORRECT quantity and not bearing debt! We must be prepared for a new monetary system, an honest one, when our present debt-based banking cartel collapses. Kindly read and critique this proposed Constitutional Amendment. But first, a little background...

From “The Truth in Money Book” by Theodore R. Thorsen and Richard F Warner:

QUOTE Someone had to borrow at usury to bring that money [checkbook balances, bills and coins] into existence. The money goes out of existence as the usury and the debt principal are paid back to the bank. These amounts are huge: several billion dollars go out of existence each day. [Actually this money goes into the reserve accounts of the Federal Reserve Banks, out of the hands of the public! This book was first printed in November 1980. The amounts which are withdrawn presently are much larger.] If the money is not replaced with new loans, a shortage occurs. Soon individuals and businesses experience serious cash flow problems. These result in more and more loan applications to banks—the only place where money is being created to replenish the supply” UNQUOTE

Here is one possible solution—To Hell with Fractional-Reserve Debt-Based Banking Constitutional Amendment

The reason why the US empire is not going away any time soon (meaning within a few years) despite the wishes of the majority of nations, is that with the exception of China all major world economic and technoscientific powers are still allied with the US. I don't see Europe drifting away from the US, where else would they go? Certainly, Europeans will not submit to China, nor do they have enough unity and independence of mind and leadership to form their own bloc. Everyone can safely predict that the US empire will cease to exist within a few decades, but how many exactly? Russia has been hollowed out by both Yeltsin and Putin letting a comprador class led by a self serving corrupt oligarchy plunder the country, its car industry for example was 80-90% dependent on foreign parts, and it will take a decade or two according to Russia 's own plans to reach 20%. Except for China all competitors to the US are faring much worse, are led by incompetent and corrupt ruling classes, even more corrupt than the US. China I doubt will be able to replace the US, Russia and global South are led by corrupt incompetent oligarchs, far worse than the West.

This is all wishful thinking by a pro Russian writer.

Thank you for this brilliant summary of the Neocons' intentions and results so far, Professor Hudson! "Pinochet" is now a verb! You covered a lot of ground with an economy of words so I had to read it over several times.

"And by the way, what ever happened to Libya's gold reserves?"
Duh, I will surmise that someone stole them. Let's hope that whoever did so does not meet the same fate as the Roman emperor Valerian who wanted gold from the Persians but was rumored in the end to have molten gold poured down his throat.

This American suspects that Europeans may be slow in certain ways. When Victoria Nuland's phone call was intercepted by the Russians saying "Fk the EU" the meaning to me was clear. The Europeans didn't seem to react. Now the Neocons have wrecked Germany's industrial output and Germany can't kick in as much to the war effort. So sad! I'm sorry to insult Europeans but I once had an English manager who used the expression "as thick as two short planks." I didn't know exactly what it meant but at least I sensed that it didn't sound good.

Unfortunately there is zero parallels between ancient history and modern history. Especially when it comes to the author comparisons of financial systems then and now. Also, despite author best efforts his conclusions are not very useful for real life and cannot be used as foundation of any real life movement unlike conclusions made by Marx. It also looks like the West did make a right conclusion and follows the rule number one in war book:” Do not march on Moscow” and is using proxy to fight Russia. They managed to set one part of Russian people against another and are using policy of thousand cuts to gradually undermine Russia. Generally speaking Western economic potential is far larger than that of Russia which makes me worry especially considering what kind of people has been leading Russia since 1991. The conflict has been going on since at least 2008 and it is obvious now that Putin and his team has done very little to do what was necessary and considering they are doing noises about further privatization of the state assets it is obviously they have no clue how to do what must be done.

The reason why the US empire is not going away any time soon (meaning within a few years) Everyone can safely predict that the US empire will cease to exist within a few decades,

A few decades is like a blink of an eye in the larger scheme of things.

Civilisationally speaking, China has seen many young upstart empires come and go. Greeks, Romans, Parthians, Arabs, Mongols, Portuguese, Spanish, Ottomans Dutch, English. The current US Empire is just the latest of these. They simply have a different view of history than the average American. This is why they are willing to wait patiently for Taiwan to come back into the fold eventually. What is 50, 100 years to them?

I for one am not unhappy if I am unable to witness the collapse of the USA in my lifetime. The important thing is that the direction is already set, the momentum cannot be reversed. Every day is better than the last one, at least that is the view from where I am standing. In fact, things are already proceed far faster than I expected.

But I will venture to speculate that things will become very apparent very soon, within 2 years, one of the European powers will flip. Just as Saudi Arabia flipped. When that happens, we will no longer have this feeling of motionlessness that we have at the top of the rollercoaster track. We will really feel the rush of speed when EU and NATO lose their relevance, when Ukraine is shown to be decisively defeated. Then one European country after another will make peace with Russia and China.

I personally think that Hungary may be the first to flip.

So, who was Croesus. Apparently, he was neither Persian nor Greek (as wiki says). The Anatolian principalities of Lydia, Lycia and Phrygia were settlers from the Balkans. In his book Cratylus (available online), Plato talks to Socrates about the words that the (future) Greeks took from the 'barbarians' i.e. the Phrygians. It is interesting that these are Serbian words. The Phrygians are actually a Greek pronunciation of Brigi(ans), which in Serbian means – highlanders or hillers. The metathesis of the name 'breg' (=hill) found its place in many European names and toponyms (berg).

In the town of Sirbin (Sard), as Strabon calls it (later changed by Greeks to Xanthos) in the province of Lydia, Asia Minor, a Serbian law code from the 8th cBC found on a large stone. The Code is engraved in Serbian, so that it can be read without much effort.

There was an attempt to place the obelisk in the 4th cBC in order to declare the inscription Greek because the Greeks got literacy in the 6th cBC and came to Anatolia in the 4th cBC after Alexander's victory over the Persians whose semi-autonomous vassals were those principalities.

S. Bilbija published his findings under the title "Obelisk of Xanthos – The Stone Book of the Laws and Customs of the Ancient Serbs" [8], where statements were presented in the form of provisions of the Code, grouped according to topics covered by the side of the monument and the row number for each provision.

The complete text of this ancient law of Asian Lydia, which contains 232 provisions, which were grouped into 16 groups according to their content. These groups (Chapters of the Code) are:

(1) On Governance – the task of the state; (2) Humanitarian duties of the State; (3) Freedom of Occupation and Work; (4) Customs and Laws; (5) Leader selection and traits; (6) Duties of combatants; (7) About the enemy and his act; (8) Wise sayings and counsel; (9) Ancestral councils to farmers; (10) Tips for gold ore diggers; (11) Medical advice; (12) Offences, proceedings and penalties; (13) Educating children; (14) On food and its preparation; (15) About food and how to feed; (16) The engraved should be read, memorised, execute.

Perhaps Western racism is only trying to eliminate part of the world population by planning not to have to share the benefits of new technologies.

Although it is horrible, that already happened once. It must be remembered that Western civilization was built on the murder of hundreds of millions of human beings who simply got in the way of the plans of greedy white Christians.

The rebirth of Nazism in the West indicates this. Nazism is political, racial and religious extremism.

| Alejandro : I will always be a message. Only now, the message is different.

| — Sicario: Day of the Soldado

Suffice to say, Russia decided the message of US hegemony would be different. Finally, after all the water under the bridge since the signal events of 1989-91.

Most here can probably, good enough for government work, apprehend the message(s) of smashing Libya, "Assad Must Go!," and, most importantly, "Trump Must Go!" Yet, Russia refused to be cowed and, really, anyone who thinks it had a choice needs to rethink their life unless they're still in middle school and struggling in social studies class.

It was evident to me at least, even before Obama was installed, that the American ruling and governing classes would never forgive Russia for ending up with a mere decade of humiliation in the '90s, when those sharp as a tack Chinese suffered a century thanks to the West. This turn of events has driven Western elites to madness because, whereas they didn't deserve much of the credit for the collapse of the Soviet Union, they get all the credit for spurring Russia to get it together again so quickly.

Who exactly finds the messages out of Washington appealing. Ukraine is kaput and the illegitimate Biden regime is offering to vouchsafe internal repression and autocracy for all who stay on team (see “Biden’s” ‘Red Speech’ and more).

| Russia mounted the operation to destroy the USA.

Russia's SMO was wholly justified to prevent the Ukrainian crime against humanity in the form of ethnic cleansing of a substantial Russian-ethnic Ukrainian populace.

You could stop with that, but it became obvious early on that the Ukies were giving a preview of NATO's capabilities in the form of weapons and tactics, and it became even more obvious as it became a war of attrition that NATO's "strategy" is wholly bankrupt as it is backed by a matériel industrial capability that is a fraction of that of Russia, and which will take several years to spin up to parity, if that is still possible.

NATO's only hope against Russia is to go nuclear early, and even that is a losing proposition.

The SMO may have started out as a move to demilitarise Ukraine, but it has lead to the demilitarisation of NATO and exposed the weakness of Western industrial capability. The Russians might not have wanted to destroy America, but the Americans seemed to have made it inevitable.

The Land Belongs to God: the Bible's Commandment Against Wealth and Poverty

<https://kairoscenter.org/land-belongs-to-god/>

On December 8th, 2016, the Kairos Center hosted “The Land Belongs to God: The Bible's Commandment Against Wealth and Poverty” at Union Theological Seminary. Our featured speaker was Dr. Michael Hudson, an economist who has studied the history of debt — as well as its consequences and the struggles that have been fought around it — in societies from ancient Babylonia up through today. Dr. Hudson's recent book, J is for Junk Economics, was released in February, 2017, and his work on the history of debt in the Near East will be published by The Institute for the Study of Long-Term Economic Trends (ISLET) in early 2018.

then Hudson says:

I went to work first for the Central Bank, then moved to Chase Manhattan. And while I was there I met an executive from the National Catholic Welfare Conference who I spoke to about population growth and Malthus, and I wrote him a letter saying that if you were not going to cut the population down to the food supply then you had to increase the food supply to feed the population. He sent this around to most of the bishops and I began working with Monsignor Knot at Pittsburgh who later became Cardinal Knot and the foreign secretary of the Vatican. The Vatican then sent me around the country giving speeches on economics. I also worked with various Protestant groups who were attracted to my ideas. The plan was for Pope John Paul I to start an academy for Geo-economics to talk about land reform and debt that was to be centered in Tulane. But then he died and the two other popes who came in were not interested.

If one is a declinist, you watch the accelerating decline w/amused and horrified fascination. Literally everything the us empire gov't does is self-destructive.

Every day, it seems, us citizens are trashier, dumber, more violent, more vulgar, and more depressed. No behavior is too corrupt, or too venal. One party is intent on killing democracy; the other party actually believes that “politically correct” language is the same as political power. USAians are morons.

It's like watching a grotesque train wreck or a 35-car smashup on the Interstate, with mutilated bodies and blood gushing everywhere. And you say to yrself: Well, what did they expect?

If not us, who? The destruction of the 'American Way' accelerated under my watch – and yours, if you're anywhere my age – so let's fess up – we were part of the problem. How so? Besides the foreign oligarchy, we let a bunch of 'developmentally arrested' adolescent know nothings take over the entire culture and country – every institution you can name is run by DaWoke. It took them over 100 years, but let's face it – they are in charge and they are not bashful about telling us that they are. –

The comments quoted above appear to contain some inaccuracies; specifically, it was not possible to locate a “Monsignor Knot” in Pittsburgh, nor as a foreign secretary with the Vatican.

The tenure of John Paul I having been only 33 days, it is unlikely that the concept of an “geo-economic academy at Tulane” was broached during his papacy. (But it should be: this is something that concerned citizens and the Roman Catholic hierarchy should be prodded to enact.)

Hudson’s conversation at Kairos was reproduced from notes taken by ???. It is possible that “Knot” was “Knorr” or “Knox” or something else entirely; that he was from Philadelphia or somewhere else entirely; that John Paul II rather than John Paul I was the pope at the time.

Pittsburgh’s Duquesne University has a research department concentrating of matters of the hierarchy. One of their librarians is researching “Monsignor — Cardinal Knot”.

The fact remains, however, that Michael Hudson decidedly does not “worship mammon,” as Alrenous stated in convoluted and baseless comment #19, above.

@Al Ross

The price of time, lol

You remind me of my youth and a Greek guy, my boss at the time, who said to me he would gladly work for me if I paid him a penny doubled every day? It was a trick because it wouldn't take much more than a month for him to be a millionaire.

As for the power of interest here's an interesting piece:

The brilliance of Edison and the honesty of Abraham Lincoln caused each of them to speak out firmly against the dangers of national debts and compound interest. They knew that the history of the Western world for 1,694 years had forbidden the taking of usury.

King Alfred the Great in 901 declared,

If any man is found taking usury, his lands will be confiscated, and he will be banished from England.

In 1215, King John echoed the same announcement as Alfred, and as late as King James in 1566, the king declared,

If a man is found taking usury, his lands will be confiscated. It is like taking a man's life, and it must not be tolerated.

I recalled one evening in Portland, Oregon, when I picked up a copy of the book entitled The Chronology of Money written by Wickliffe B. Vennard. In illustrating the power of compounded interest, Vennard suggested that if one penny had been deposited in the year A.D. 1 at 6% compounded interest, by 1895, that penny would have had an accrued value of $8,497,840 decillion! The figure so staggered my imagination, I could not comprehend it. Later that night, somewhere between midnight and dawn, I pushed back a ream of paper and concluded wearily that this man spoke the truth. For hours I had worked with pen in hand, proving to my own satisfaction that his statement was not an overstatement. Naturally, one could not comprehend the magnitude of one decillion dollars, but if it were illustrated with symbolism that could be understood, one decillion dollars would be equal to 610 quadrillion worlds of solid gold. And what would that mean? The world, I had learned in early life, weighed 6,600 billion times a billion tons.

Naturally no one would consider banking a penny with the thought of leaving it almost two millennia. But many a man could face more realistically a debt that would double in approximately 12 years, or be a thousandfold greater in a century, at the approximate rate of 6% compounded interest.

John Maynard Keynes, who wrote on the power of interest, referred to the $200,000 in gold that Sir Francis Drake gave to Queen Elizabeth, gold that he had taken from the Spanish on the high seas. This mattered little, because they had only taken it from the inhabitants of Mexico or South America. Keynes reviewed the fact that Queen Elizabeth made Francis Drake a knight for bringing home the gold, which later became part of the investment in the East India Trading Company.

“By 1930,” said Keynes, “every dollar that Drake had brought to England would have grown in value to a hundred thousand dollars under a rate of 33/a7o compounded interest.”

But of what concern is this to us in our day? Lawrence R. Klein wrote in The Keynesian Revolution regarding national debt,

An internally held public debt can never be a burden because we owe it to ourselves.

No burden-because we owe it to ourselves? I asked myself slowly. Is $500 per second not a burden on the taxpayers?

For every tick of the clock, Americans must pay in taxes over $500 in interest on a national debt that is over $400 billion. Not a burden? Is it not a burden to pay over $11/4billion every 30 days in taxes on interest on a national debt?

How can they imagine that debilitating the population of their own country is going to enhance its capacities as a world power? Depriving the majority of the largest population group of advanced education over now three generations. Importing landless peasants from around the world and expecting them to represent your post-industrial future. Focusing all of your efforts at creating inclusion on the known least educable demographic in your population. At the same time somehow keeping a large segment of the same group in a state poverty and social disruption and not accepting responsibility for doing it. Mind you, I think, and most agree, anyone with the capacity to pursue education should have the opportunity to do so. I'm not arguing against that. Then there's the replacement of your native born scientific and technical class with imported non-European foreigners. And what else? I'm sure I missed something.

The Judeofascist swine have created a false consciousness that Muh Globalism is the future! Because these Marxist-Zionist, Golemised pigs and whores we call "elites" have no soul (since the Judeofascists removed it in the wars and revolutions of the ~20th Century+), they are either accomplices, or malleable clay in clawed Judeofascist hands.

These Awe, shucks, what's happening?!? rubes may or may not be Judeofascist accomplices.

Some of the naive, post 20th Century "Christians" (are they really Christians if they're gullible about the avariciousness of "Jews"?) really are clueless and innocent. But some of them (like the White trash Zionist accomplices in the slaving industry who imported millions of Black slaves before Lincoln gave them a good whacking), are evil, rotten, and corrupt to the core.

At the time of slavery, the average ignorant Southerner was following the Zionist oligarchs around like a lost puppy, utterly clueless about what the Judeofascists and their accomplices were doing and what was coming.

Today, the average ignorant American is still following the Zionist oligarchs around like a lost puppy, still ignorant about what the Judeofascists and their accomplices are doing.

That's because they refuse to follow Christian Logos — The logic of "anti-Semitism."

Lincoln was probably guilty of this as well, because he never demanded the repatriation of "Jews," only Blacks, before he was assassinated by Zionists.

What good is deporting victims of Satanism when you leave Satan running wild to create more victims?

These Judeofascist swine have absolutely zero self-control when it comes to the deadly sins, which is why Moses rightfully eviscerated them to build civilization in the Mideast, whereas the Judeofascists would have preferred anarchy, chaos, lawlessness, savagery and human sacrifice forever.

And that's what they'll get unless they are stopped.

@Bill H.

I don't think Putin started the SMO with the actual goal of destroying NATO.

Even though the destruction of NATO could well have been envisioned as a byproduct of the successful SMO.

The stated goals of the SMO were to denazify and demilitarize the Ukraine.

“Demilitarize” means no NATO in the Ukraine.

Putin sought a negotiated agreement with the Ukraine all along.

He stated more than once that the longer the Ukes fought, the worse their negotiating position would be.

This strongly implied that however far the RF was pushed, it would not give up any of the gains from the SMO—it would not “give back” in a negotiating scenario.

So, best to negotiate now.

Quite a simple formula, actually.

Zelensky must have understood this, since, per Putin, he was agreeable to the deal put together by Erdogan in March 2022.

It was the UK that changed the chemistry to ongoing confrontation, ongoing loss of lives and infrastructure and war materiel by insisting that Z refuse to negotiate.

Plus destruction of Europe's economy via the NS2 sabotage.

Plus, eco-damage from the dam explosion.

(Either under orders from the USA/NATO, or it may be the other way around, with UK pushing for confrontation.)

This led to the revelation for the whole world to see with increasing clarity of the West's actual goal: using Ukraine to destroy all of Russia and to "own" the EU.

Putin and the general staff surely suspected the West's endgame, but he gave Ukraine and the West plenty of opportunity to "think this through."

Just as he gave Prigozhin the opportunity to "think this through."

Prigozhin used the opportunity. The West did not.

We reap what they sow, and they will always become corrupt. And so the world spins, at what point you get on and get off is your fate or your fortune. History does indeed rhyme, there must be some universal moral laws baked into the deal after all. We can only better ourselves, no one else, unless it rubs off. Expecting to find Shambhala is wishful thinking, unless you do the hard work and penetrate the thick black veil of endless lies that lie deep inside. Why did Jesus not overthrow the Roman occupation, because it would naturally spawn itself again and again. Life's solutions are within you, not without. The most we can hope for is that the majority of our fellow citizens wherever we find ourselves be fairly decent human beings. End of sermon.

America has not destroyed a great empire, the zionists who control the central bank aka the FED, which is a zionist privately owned debt creation machine and their graduated income tax aka the IRS aka the zionist debt collection machine, these and the wars the zionists created with these two machines are what has destroyed America, and by the way these are 2 of the 10 planks of the communist manifesto ie America has been under communist control since 1913.

America has been under a foreign zionist/communist death cult since 1913 and this death cult has been the agent provocateur in every war since WWI, right on down to the zionist created war in the Ukraine, and by the way the wars in the middle east are the result of the Israeli and traitors in the highest levels of the ZUS government on the WTC and blamed on muslims to give the excuse to destroy the middle east for Israel.

To see how the zionists did the attack on the WTC go to drjudywood.com and wheredidthetowersgo.com, also read the Protocols of Zion and the book The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Reed, it can be had on amazon.

So why did Russia allow the neocon installation of the bought off drunk Yeltsin, and the neocons and ((Jewish)) oligarchs to have their way with Russia, in the 1990's

That was an internal affair amid great chaos and confusion. At that time, the Russian nomenklatura thought that importing Western "experts" and capital would help them make a transition to a market economy. The Russians were earnest, the West lied, conned, and cheated them. Stabbed them in the back.

This is why Putin had the dalliance with ((Prigozhin)) before it blew up in his face. He played cute with his pet, like Trump played cute. He should have unleashed him on ((Zelensky)) and started an internecine Judeofascist dog fight

This is highly speculative, even employing unbridled and over extended imagination. I doubt if you can document this.

During a May, 1945 meeting in San Francisco, Dulles assessed that the war must go on for at least three months more, so that the atomic bomb is ready to be used – – not because it is relevant to ending the war on logical, desirable terms, but because the postwar foreign policy of the United States depends upon having demonstrated to the world the willingness of the US to use atomic bombs on civilian populations.

Correct. The Japan offered the White House acceptable surrender terms in January 1945, but it delayed acceptance until two atomic bombs could be dropped, then bombed some more!

But I sure wish someone would explain how one can simultaneously frame his spiritual life around what is, in its historical reality, books composed by Jews for Jewish purposes; then turn around and say that adherence to THOSE books contains the key to overcoming the tyranny of the people who wrote the books (in which, incidentally, they spelled out their intention to destroy any and all who fail to honor their god, their dictates above all).

This debacle for all but the American MIC was entirely predictable and, in fact, predicted. Why does nearly the entirety of Europe insist upon fanatically embracing their own demise while forcing the same consequences upon their few sane neighbors (Hungary, Serbia, Moldova) who would resist their madness? Pure fear (not love, admiration and emulation) of the modern day American barbarians? Or just the primitive human reflex act of “monkey see, monkey do?” As in Neo-Nazism is so fashionable amongst the smart posh Eurotrash! As time goes by and this crisis ripens, not just for the fascist Ukies, but for all of Europe, the fools will regret acting upon what should have been a generous dose of loathing to accompany all the fear that the Yankee scum fanatically elicits from its targeted nations.

It is absolutely moronic for a country like Germany to get pissed at Russia and seek vengeance against that nation, because Amerika quite clearly destroyed its source of cheap Russian energy and now schlocks its replacement at several times the original market price, all the while extracting billions of dollars worth of war materiel to squander in Ukraine from already financially-shocked Deutschland! If you intend to go down swinging, as the Exceptionals say, why not target your real antagonists—the Americans—NOT the Russians? Stop selling the Yanks your cutting edge high tech. After all, it was they who shut down your industrial base that produces such desirable stuff. And if the rest of the Eurotrash aped you on this, you’d at least make some headway on correcting the real problem. What more are the Yanks gonna do to you? Start a war? That will sure sell their case in the global market. The world would unify and sanction their ass to extinction. Even Wall Street and Silicon Valley would want in on Brics. Biden’s carcass would be hanging from some lamp post in Georgetown.

Lionel Messi was confused why visa rules are different between China and Taiwan.

You see how people can be easily fooled by the Western media.

Lionel Messi is hugely popular in China. He has been to China many times and makes tens of millions in endorsements in China. He is probably the most famous celebrity in China. Do you really think he would mess up his visa?

What really happened is one of his teammates had a visa issue. Argentina was playing an exhibition game against Australia, which drew 70,000 people to Beijing Worker’s Stadium. A couple of phone calls later, his teammate was granted an exception and the visa issue was resolved.

Why Taiwan was even in the conversation, I really don’t know. But kudos to those story tellers, I mean journalists.

It took the Jews a lot longer than 40 years. The first and greatest Jewish triumph was school desegregation which swiftly turned to school bussing Brown Ca Topeka 1951? 72 years ago. Jewish puppet President Harry Truman lobbied foreign ambassadors to make Israel an independent state. And desegregated the military in the late 1940s.

Then there was 12 years of immigrant Jewish communists ruling the Franklin Roosevelt administration. And sending vast vast amounts of aid and money to Russia pretending to help the war against Hitler. 90 to 85 years ago Including assistant treasury secretary Harry Dexter White aka Weiss stealing original plates for American dollar bills from the mint and sending them to Russia. Along with the formulas for the paper and inks. And the manuals for the exact process.

Sam Untermyer the Standard oil multimillionaire who blackmailed Woodrow Wilson into WW1 Whose descendants were ardent donors to CPUSA for two generations.

It goes back to the 1880s. When Russian Jew Marxist revolutionaries invaded America. And so the men could avoid the Russian army draft.

I have to agree. There are a few who protest, but although they hope to represent the rest of us, that is, that they'll inspire us to join them, they don't. The bulk of us, we're glued to the mainstream TV. We grumble that there's sure a lot of strange folk on the screen nowadays, but continue watching. Then CNN, CBS, NBC, Fox, whatever, shows a clip of "white supremacist", "Nazi" "insurrectionists". We have a vague thought that we wouldn't want to be like "them", and continue imbibing the programming that's been put in front of us.

Moses was the first real “anti-Semite.” Good men followed, like Jesus, Mathew and Paul — all “anti-Semites,” too. Christendom + Western Civilization followed (Christian Logos).

“Anti-Semitism” (now spelled “antisemitism”) is about bringing lawless kike grifters, moneychangers, killers, genital mutilators, organized malcontents, and conflict-profiteers to justice, and bringing them into compliance with the Western rule of law (Christian Logos).

“Antisemitism” is about protecting the rule of law, civilization, and sanity.

During a May, 1945 meeting in San Francisco, Dulles assessed that the war must go on for at least three months more, so that the atomic bomb is ready to be used ...

Are you referring to Allen W. Dulles? That is my assumption, since his elder brother, John Foster Dulles, a very pious man, was widely quoted as deploring the use of the A-bomb after it was dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Also, I find myself in the unusual position of sharing Zachary Smith's skepticism about whether the lifelong Republican A. W. Dulles—whose primary activities as one of Wild Bill Donovan's subordinates in the OSS involved setting up and managing intelligence networks in Germany and Austria—would have been a force to reckon with in the upper echelon of the FDR administration. Would his opinion have counted for anything, especially about the Manhattan Project, if indeed he was even one of the few in the know? On the other hand, any desire Dulles had to use the bomb would hardly have made him stand out from the crowd, as that was the overwhelming desire of virtually all the bloodthirsty Jewish scientists, civilian administrators, and military overseers of the project. Almost to a man, they were deeply disappointed that Germany had surrendered in May 1945. They had all been looking forward to the virtual extermination of the German people.

| The Japan offered the White House acceptable surrender terms in January
| 1945 ...

It still is not widely known that Japan had been sending surrender initiatives to Washington via the Swiss and IRC since 1943.

The only point on which Japan wouldn't budge was preservation of the emperor's state and household, even if only on a ceremonial basis. In their refusals, both FDR and Truman insisted on unconditional surrender. After the barbarous fire-bombing of Tokyo and the A-bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki—the latter was, not coincidentally, where the vast majority of Japanese Christians lived—the Japanese were, however, permitted to keep their emperor. It seems that the blood lust of (((those in charge))) had been satiated for the time being.

Reading the actual Potsdam agreement is interesting and explains things:

https://www.nato.int/ebookshop/video/declassified/doc_files/potsdam%20agreement.pdf

(13) We call upon the government of Japan to proclaim now the unconditional surrender of all Japanese armed forces, and to provide proper and adequate assurances of their good faith in such action. The alternative for Japan is prompt and utter destruction.

Not the unconditional surrender of Japan, but its armed forces! This allowed Truman and others to proclaim the surrender was unconditional. This cannot be disputed because the agreement also called upon:

“The Japanese Government shall remove all obstacles to the revival and strengthening of democratic tendencies among the Japanese people. Freedom of speech, of religion, and of thought, as well as respect for the fundamental human rights shall be established.”

So they expected that government to remain intact. And we see the 50,000 American troops still occupying Japan are in violation.

“(12) The occupying forces of the Allies shall be withdrawn from Japan as soon as these objectives have been accomplished and there has been established in accordance with the freely expressed will of the Japanese people a peacefully inclined and responsible government.”

| Not the unconditional surrender of Japan, but its armed forces!

Since the Japanese were not stupid, they quickly noticed that the US was wavering, so why not hold out for more!

Also, it wasn't "Japan" which had been sending "surrender initiatives", but unauthorized overseas Japanese who could see what was really happening. Because the US was by this time intercepting virtually every Japanese radio transmission, Washington understood what was going on.

By 1945 the US realized that the Emperor had to be retained, but had to do a delicate dance because the vast majority of US citizens wanted him hanged as a war criminal. The final outcome was of course advertised as an Unconditional Surrender, but it wasn't.

Still, compared with Germany the Japanese got off very easy. Known war criminals weren't prosecuted at all, and the Emperor was among that group.

What Biden should instead do is tell Russia clearly that any use of nuclear weapons of any size against Ukraine will lead to U.S. provision of the same types of nuclear weapons to Ukraine without any controls on where and how Ukraine might use them. The non-proliferation mafia might howl with outrage, but the West must gear its nuclear policy toward reality, not wishful thinking or an empty façade of a treaty regimen by which revisionist states no longer abide.

Just as during the Cold War, the best way to deter nuclear weapons use is to demonstrate a willingness to use them.”

Anthropogenic climate destabilisation will last for millennia, because of the thermal inertia of the VAST amounts of heat sequestered in the oceans. Russia’s unemployment drops to all-time low – official

The number of jobless people has fallen by 50,000 since the start of the year. The unemployment level in Russia plunged to a new all-time low of 3.2% in May. The number of jobless people recorded last month was 516,000, which is a 48,000 decline from the beginning of the year.

The figures coincide with the data provided by Russia’s statistics service, Rosstat, earlier this week. Unemployment in the country has now been below 4% for over a year, since May 2022.

1 For example, Setser said China’s earlier accumulation of US Treasuries and agency bonds — such as Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae securities — helped give rise to the 2008 financial crisis, by pushing investors further into riskier mortgage-backed securities.

I think that was a faulty transcription, and the name of the priest in question is probably DiNardo, erroneously transcribed as 'Knot'. He was a priest in Pittsburgh in the late 1970s. He was never foreign secretary, though. Hudson must have been confused, seeing as DiNardo held some important positions as cardinal (from 2007 onwards), which can be checked on his Wikipedia page.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Daniel_DiNardo

Here is the list of foreign secretaries (DiNardo isn't among them):

As for the plans for an academy during the brief papacy of John Paul I, I don't see it as implausible. It's even possible that some people had those plans in mind before John Paul I was elected. But this is pure speculation on my part.

“Common neo-talmudic Time” can’t contain her hatred when meeting an honest person.

1. Here is a simple explanation of what is going on in Ukraine; this explanation is evident for all people with adequate IQ: International Jewry has united with self-proclaimed Ukrainian neo-Nazis against Russia.

The first neo-Nazi battalions in Ukraine were formed and financed by the President of the Jewish Community of Ukraine, who named himself “Judeo-Banderite.” Unsurprisingly, the loudest hunters of holobiz revisionists — the thugs at the ADL (created in memory of a Jewish rapist and murderer) — found kindred spirits in Banderites who are now designated by the Jewish Lobby as “freedom fighters.”

Canada’s ultra-nationalist Bandera lobby is today a major political player. Through the so-called “Canadian Conference in Support of Ukraine” (CCSU), many of Canada’s leading Conservatives have befriended a historically criminal, fascist network of Ukrainian nationalists that has remained dedicated to pushing the West to the brink of war with Russia since before World War Two ended. ...

Several nationalist subsidiary groups function under the CCSU’s umbrella. They include the Ukrainian Youth Association of Canada, Homin Ukrainy, and the Canadian Society of Veterans of the Ukrainian Insurgent Army (UPA). The UPA was responsible for the ethnic cleansing of tens of thousands of ethnic Poles and an unknown number of Jews from 1943 through ‘44.

For the U.S to start to repair the damage they have done to themselves and others then they must be seen to make structural changes and hold to account those who have wrought so much evil.

Julian Assange must be released immediately, the Neocons arrested and charged in the U.S with destroying U.S reputation and standing in the world then handed over to international authorities to face charges of destabilization of countries through funding of coups.

And finally the U.S must remove the criminals and Gangsters who are called “elite” from the center of democratic power, a total rethinking of government so lobbying groups cannot have their interests put above the vast majorities interest.

The U.S will not be seen as a trustworthy member of the world until reform happens.

You never heard of the international jewish bankers and the plans of international jewry of establishing a "Universal Republic"?

What 'great empire' was that?

Michael Hudson doesn't know that the same elements created capitalism and communism? Oh holy gullibility. America wanted to 'conquer Russia'? Wow, such gibberish put together.

And America was that 'great'? In its 246 years of history, America has done nothing but create wars after wars and mess and pillage other sovereign nations across the world.

And if you want to know who the so-called 'founding fathers' were, watch this revealing video:

"The Hidden Faith of the Founding Fathers"

= Dr Oscar Levy, german jewish physician and author, "L'Anti-Semitism" pag 350: "There is scarcely an event in modern Europe that cannot be traced back to the jews... Jewish elements provide the driving force for both capitalism and communism, for the material as well the spiritual ruin of this world."

– "The jew is not satisfied with de-christianizing, he judaizes, he destroys catholic or protestant faith, he provokes indifference but he imposes his idea of the world, of morals and of life upon those whose faith he ruins; he works at his age-old task, the annihilation of the religion of Christ."

= London Jewish World, of february 9th, 1883: "The great ideal of judaism is that the whole world shall be imbued with jewish teachings, and that in a universal brotherhood of nations, a Greater Judaism, in fact, all the separate races and religions shall disappear.”

= Bernard Baruch, letter to Karl Marx, 1888: “The jewish people taken collectively will be its own Messiah. His reign over the universe will be obtained by the unification of the human race and through the elimination of frontiers. A universal republic will come into being in which the sons of Israel will become the directing element, will be all of the same race and the same traditional culture without, however, forming another nationality, and will be without contradiction the leading element in all parts, particularly if it is successful in laying upon the masses of workers a permanent leadership by some jews. The governments of peoples all pass with the formation of the universal republic effortlessly into the hands of the israelites in favour of the victory of the proletariat. The the personal property of the rulers will be able to be suppressed by the rulers of the jewish race who will everywhere govern the property of the peoples. The promise of the Talmud will be fulfilled that when the time of the Messiah has come, the jews will have the goods of all peoples of the world in their possession.”

= Rabbi Harry Waton, “A Program for the Jews and Humanity”, 1939: “It is not an accident that judaism gave birth to marxism and it is not an accident that the jews readily took up marxism; all this was in perfect accord with the progress of judaism and the jews. The jews should realize that Jehovah no longer dwells in Heaven, but he dwells in us right here on earth; we must no longer look up to Jehovah as above us and outside us, but we must see him right within us [pag.148])... Since the jews are the highest and most cultured people on earth, the jews have the right to subordinate to themselves the rest of mankind and to be masters over the whole earth. Now, indeed, this is the historic destiny of the jews (pag,99)... Judaism is communism, internationalism, the universal brotherhood of man, the emancipation of the working class and the human society. It is with these spiritual weapons that the jews will conquer the world and the human race.”

29/06/2023 The 1823 Monroe Doctrine and its First Consequences for Global Politics: The Making the U.S. to be a Global Empire

The doctrine was presented by the 5-th U.S. President James Monroe (1817–1825) in 1823 as an official warning to (West) European powers that any European policy of imperialistic expansionism on the ground of the Americas (North, Central, and South or Anglo-Francophone and Latin, i.e., Spanish & Portuguese) was going to be taken into account by Washington as a threat to the U.S. national interests.

We suggest you read the history of small/large Western hegemony, ie the Spanish Empire & the British Empire. If you went back and thoroughly comprehended what Dr. Hudson was saying you would understand that a nation losing its own currency starts with detractors from other nations, who develop trade and currencies with other countries. As those circumstances rise, it eventually circumvents the lead nation and its currency that was turned into a weapon of slavery.

The “Jews” unapologetically announce their plans for genocidal totalitarianism, and then are shocked...shocked!...when Christians pogrom their asses.

I’m sure they were “shocked” when Moses pogrommed their asses, too. And Germans/Western Civilization. And Muslims — excuse me, “Islamofascists” — pogrom their asses.

And why do you think that there was only one purpose to the SMO? The Ukrainian attack against the Donbass was the trigger of the SMO with the intention of the US/NATO to destroy Russia revealing itself through the the rebuilding and re-arming of the Ukrainian forces. It is quite obvious that the intention of the West was not for the Ukraine to win but for the West to destroy and fragment Russia. But this assessment and understanding is an ex post facto understanding. After all, we know that Putin wanted a peace agreement but was denied one by the West.

Not a productive, or rational, response, Chris Moore. Rather disqualifies you from participation in serious debate.

Not that it matters, really, but it does not seem that Barbiero is Jewish: it is either true or not true that the direct descendants of Moses disappear from the Hebrew Scriptures, a fact central to Barbiero's argument.

Perhaps one of your bible study groups can prove or disprove this situation.

Nor is Admiral Barbiero an academic/scholar; his interest in biblical history and archeology is as an amateur and was heightened only after his retirement from professional career in physics and computer science-related fields:

“Born on 1942 in Italy he has skills and competence on a number of scientific, humanistic and technical matters. At Pisa University he was initiated to Physics’ studies by two of the great scientist Enrico Fermi colleagues, Paolo Franzini and Tullio Derenzini, and on 1967 he graduated as an Engineer, with a thesis on the new-born Computer’s Science. Most of his professional life was spent in Italian Navy’s research centres. . .

“His professional activity did not prevent him from cultivating a wide range of non-military interests both in the scientific and cultural fields. He organized two research expeditions to Antarctica, on 1975 and 1977, and wrote several books ranging in subject from palaeo-climatology to biblical research. His interest in the Bible goes back to the 1980s, when he became member of the Centro Camuno di Studi Preistorici of the great archaeologist Emmanuel Anati [who IS “of Jewish origin,” though born in Florence, Italy]. His book “The Bible without Secrets – A historical reconstruction” was inspired by Anati’s discoveries in the Negev desert, where the real Moses’ Sinai has been identified. Since the ’80s he has participated to yearly archaeological expeditions in Israel.

“Biblical research became prevalent after retirement on 1998 and has produced a number of publications, both of historical and archaeological content, a list of which can be found at the following link:

https://www.altriocchi.com/H_ITA/pi9/pi9_libri.html ”

1. The Levites volunteered to slay their fellow Jews. Arch-

2. I’ve often wondered where the gold came from to make the Golden Calf (i.e. was it stolen from the Egyptians?); where it went after the Calf-builders were slain; and, much later, how it came to be that Josephus acquired gold treasure from the Temple with which to bribe/pay for fulfillment of Josephus’s “prophecy” that Vespasian would become emperor — where did that gold come from? Was the Temple a “house of worship” or the store-house for a “den of thieves?” (Matt. 21; further to Michael Hudson’s claim that “the bible is about economics” <https://kairoscenter.org/bible-economics-hudson/>

I cannot speak for „the Europeans“, only for the Germans I know: Yes, there still seems to be a (though shrinking) majority of mainstream media consumers who obviously will stick to this propaganda as the ultimate truth till they drop dead, probably because otherwise they would suffer a complete mental breakdown. Those with higher formal education and higher income are strongly overrepresented in that group; I guess because they always vaguely supposed they somehow belong to the ruling class. So realizing that the ruling class is also damaging them is impossible for them because this illusion is a strong part of their identity. I suppose those are the kind of Europeans Rubicon is befriended with. The not so well to do classes in Germany are much more critical and mistrusting towards their government. And then there are the East Germans, former inhabitants of the GDR, who say: “We have to be patient with the West Germans, it’s their first dictatorship.” For all these and some more, Germany has a blossoming alternative media scene of true, very critical intellectuals and their eager readers. Summing it up: There is not a thing like “the Europeans”. A look at France helps too.

The obvious conclusion from Pinto's video is that "United States of America" was not founded as a Christian nation.

Rather, as narrator says ~40 min., for the Founders, "their view of the Christian religion had more to do with a moral code of conduct than faith in Jesus Christ."

And that is what was revolutionary about their vision of what America should be: NOT tied to the beliefs of a particular ruler or sect, but committed to personal agency to live a moral life.

There have been at least 109 expulsions (actually many more).

You can see the result by looking around.

They come back. Imagine eternally removing cockroaches from your kitchen and placing them in your neighbor's kitchen, and his placing them right back in yours. Maybe you or Chris consider that a necessary Christian discipline, but sane people see how stupid it is.

The next expulsion MUST BE VERTICAL

“110 and never again” is the correct policy.

Relax, accept the truth of this, and embrace it. If you cannot, then stand out of the way when we fix the problem.

Sorry, but this is incorrect information. There were war crime tribunals aimed at the Japanese Imperial government and the Japanese Imperial military, substantially patterned after the Nuremberg Tribunal. I used to work at a university law library, and in our international collection there were many volumes published with even more even recently being issued, and I was responsible for shelving newly issued volumes as they arrived, adding them to the already extensive set.

1. The Levites volunteered to slay their fellow Jews. Arch-neocon Michael Ledeen remarked on the willingness of “Jews to slay Jews,” and boasted that he is “a proud Levite.”

Well, you’ve discovered why Zionists engineered the “Holocaust.”

Moses married a Gentile. That’s why he was “disappeared” by the “Jews” (Hebrew tribesmen) as the book you cited notes. The best of the Prophets, who also cursed the Hebrew trash, were sometimes even killed by them. Moses, however, was eventually reincarnated as Jesus Christ. (Father. Son. Holy Spirit.)

Great men? beings? entities? like Moses and Christ, and the shockwaves they send out, sweep through history. Little kikes like ((Ledeen)) attach themselves and their tribesmen in a parasitic effort to steal the thunder, and then declare themselves supreme (even as they work to back-stab the principles, ethics and integrity established by the Trinity).

This is how they operate. This has always been how they operated. And this will always be how they operate. Parasites. Or Satanic, demon possessed tools, in religious parlance.

Also, it’s possible for goyim to become kikes. One just has to belly crawl low enough, as Americans are seeing from their ZOG owned “Christian” Zionist and Judeophile “liberal” politicians, well on their way to becoming kikes like ((Ledeen)). Joe “I am a Zionist” Biden is already there. So too is Trump. Their children are married to kikes. As are Clinton’s offspring, as are Gore’s offspring...

You get the idea.

The tragic thing is, for all their plotting, conspiring, treachery, they're going to end up with NOTHING, because they are working against the will of the Trinity. How can it possibly be otherwise? Their entire serpentine history reveals what they are: soulless demons, rewarded with earthy riches but hopeless, fallen outcasts surrounded by other fallen outcasts.

Stupid, stupid little worms.

Russia does very well in physics and math and engineering. So does Iran actually. China has passed the US in patents and cited scientific research (in the majority of fields). China graduates now more STEM workers than the U.S. and EU and Japan combined (yes really). Only if you include India would it tip in US and vassals favor. But then quality is an issue. Indians don't do well in Math and Physics competitions (such as the Olympiads) as one would think since the US outsources so much software and other engineering to India. Those competitions are generally won by Chinese – Russians or American teams (with heavy participation by Chinese Americans). So it's certainly not clear cut like you think.

Europe cannot be considered any sort of independent economic power. Europe is just a middle-man in the American neocolonial economic system. With the breakdown of that system, which is already starting due to america's monetary policy and the war against Russia and China, Europe's economy is inconsequential. It simply evaporates. Yes america stood up against communism we are told Trouble is the US/UK were the ones who encouraged the communist side in the most wellknown communist revolutions!
And in good time the concerned aristocracy also explicitly explained why, but such details tend to be forgotten.
They namely, and very logically, argued that they didnt want capitalist competition.

They also aimed to conjure a world government under their control and they calculated that the hired revolutionaries would make the masses love them out of gratitude.

The cuban case is even more absurd than the russian and chinese cases since the US kept a huge military base there without the western communist sympathisers ever seeming to think that is a bit odd.

Neither does it seem to raise any suspicions when the CIA claimed to have failed in countless assassination attempts on Castro.

(What regards failed assassination attempts on De Gaulle it isnt obvious that the US wanted France to retain Algeria. The US may have vacillated about Vietnam but overall they wanted the European style colonialism brought down)

For the USSR, Trotsky intended to turn it into a land of farmers and technology was to be imported from the west.

And later, western aristocratic socialists would patronisingly praise China for having so called appropriate technology.
le primitive technology.

Needing to import anything more advanced.

I think the 20th century's special relation with the UK has in a way paralysed the capability for independent thinking of the americans. By design!

The special in that relation is that the British designed the internal structure of the US what regards everything that matters regarding propaganda think tanks intelligence etc.

I dont think it is commonly known that the US/UK celebrated THE DAY OF INTERDEPENDENCE after WWI. In Britain.

Dropping of the two atomic bombs lets the Japanese got off too easy, and let Hirohito got off too easy.

Some people may feel awful when looking at those images of suffering victims of the A-bomb and they are right. But for each such photo, there are thousands of unsung untold images of suffering victims of atrocities and beastly acts at the hands of Japanese imperialism.

Asians are all sure that these two American bombs saved lives and cut short of suffering of many, many millions of people, including millions of Japanese people. And for that we remain all thankful for the wisdom and courage of dropping these two bombs.

General McArthur made a dire strategic error on the part of the US for not abolishing the Japanese emperor system that still represents this evil thing Japanese imperialism that may come back to haunt America in some sneaky way a la Pearl Harbor, once they are about able to.

The Japanese is unrepentant war criminals, they are still denying war crimes, crimes against peace, and crimes against humanity they committed in the WWII. The Japanese are still illegally occupying territories they agreed to let go in their unconditional surrender. And the the Japanese are still adoring their class-A war criminal forebears in their nation shrine.

Amerikkka celebrates it phony “independence” day 2moro. A nation w/ the highest incarceration rate, yet is about 4 or 5% of the world population. Where said prisoners still get stigmatized even after doing their sentence & getting out, according to this op-ed.

Quite a few get imprisoned for victimless things like being in possession of & smoking a plant. So much for a “clean slate”. Amerikkka is / was a joke.

A bad one of course.

The Stockholm syndrome, a proposed condition in which a hostage develops positive emotions with his or her captor, sums up relations between much of Europe and Washington. In addition to economic harm, Denmark enabled the National Security Agency to spy on so-called United States allies.

Even the person heading the European Commission, once known as 'Rose Ladson,' is an American of sorts like the clown previously based at 10 Downing Street. Bozo relinquished his U.S. citizenship to avoid tax demands the Internal Revenue Service makes on people living overseas.

Asserting national interests requires a backbone. Frogs did it in the past. Under Charles de Gaulle, France left the alliance's integrated military structure in 1967 to restore its sovereignty. Feeble U.S. backing in Indochina, notably at Dien Bien Phu, contributed to the decision as did the humiliating retreat from Egypt after Dwight Eisenhower objected to the French, British, and Israeli invasion.

Across the border, German leader Willy Brandt engaged the Soviet bloc during the Cold War. Richard Nixon and Henry Kissinger were cynical at first. The Günter Guillaume scandal tainted the pragmatic policy shift. Olaf Scholz is a hypocrite since he used to berate NATO and the presence of American troops in West Germany. He held radical views back then when there was strong resistance to deploying Pershing II and SS-20 ballistic missiles on corresponding halves of the Iron Curtain.

Rather than colonizing the globe, the rational priority in Beijing is to maintain the flow of imported raw materials and energy sources needed to power industries. The chief handicap is geography. Many inputs and manufactured goods sold to international consumers pass through the Strait of Malacca, a narrow waterway linking the Andaman Sea (Indian Ocean) to the South China Sea. The U.S. Navy, in conjunction with New Delhi plus Singapore, can close this vital choke point and thus damage the Chinese economy. Such a scenario is possible if one listens to John Bolton despite mutual assured destruction given trade interdependence. Victoria Nuland wrecked Ukraine by handing out cookies.

Hu Jintao recognized the Malacca dilemma following the U.S. invasion of Iraq two decades ago. The Belt and Road Initiative was conceived as an alternate route to address the vulnerability. On the flip side, sanctions imposed on Russia could affect the project. Besides building aircraft carriers and hypersonic weapon systems to confront U.S. maritime belligerence, China is setting up bases abroad along critical shipping lanes. These tactics parallel the naval expansion Theodore Roosevelt ordered to showcase might and keep potential foes out of the Americas.

Truth be told, China has perfected seizing opportunities with both hands. To attract foreign direct investment, modernize, and lift millions out of poverty, it exploited special economic zones Alfred Marshall identified in another century. Industrial parks were initially established in Guangdong and Fujian provinces.

In the wake of the historic Deng Xiaoping visit, many Chinese students were allowed into America. Washington's intent was to turn some of them into moles. The scheme inadvertently facilitated the transfer of knowledge. The obsession with racial plus gender quotas at class-oriented Ivy League and Oxbridge universities is likely to further benefit China in the long-term. Beijing values science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. Conversely, 'Mickey Mouse' degrees have proliferated in the West.

A changing world order is afoot according to Raymond Dalio. He isn't Chinese, but invests in China via the hedge fund Bridgewater Associates. The billionaire believes the U.S. is in terminal decline considering trillions spent on wars, persistent deficits, fiat money, a beleaguered middle class, demographic trends, and political squabbles.

You are right, the Americans did not do a thorough job. If the Americans had wiped Japan from the map, then there would be no Japanese to carry out their evil vengeance by dumping toxic nuclear water into Pacific Ocean, making the world eat contaminated seafoods and rain under radioactive clouds caused by the crippled and unfixed Fukushima nuclear power plant in Japan.

It is all Americans' fault.

There is no such thing as a great empire. All empires follow the same script more or less. Stage 1 is consolidation – get all your horses in the same pen. Stage 2: expansion. Grab as much of the world as you can and milk it for the greater glory of ... yada ... yada. Stage 3 is the hard part. It consists of pacifying all your acquisitions and keeping the vassals in line. This is empire's bugaboo. This is where pretty much every single empire gets hung out to dry. Outposts (bases) hither and yon, constant low-level conflict and ultimately the draining of both the treasury and warm bodies able to wield a weapon. This is where the current empire is at. China is the next up-and-comer but I do not have any confidence that it will perform any better than it's predecessor. As long as there are empires, there will be war.

| ... the honesty of Abraham Lincoln ...

The sobriquet Honest Abe was coined by Lincoln's staffers and explained in various ways, all of them linked to fantasies of integrity. After all, unless it's a New York Jewish lawyer, who could possibly be more honest than a lawyer and politician who spent his adult life bending over backwards to help wealthy railroad magnates get government approval for access to public land on which, once privatized, they could build more and more profit-making railroad tracks?

Even more interesting is that Lincoln's political foes—specifically, supporters of Stephen Douglas—embraced the nickname, too. What they saw in it, however, was limitless potential for sarcasm. Alas, as did many before and since, they overrated the intelligence of the American public.*

“China has imposed restrictions on exporting two strategic raw materials, gallium and germanium, which are crucial for the world’s electronic chip-making industry. The US mainstream press called Beijing’s move a “second counter-measure” in the unfolding Sino-American tech confrontation, which followed the People’s Republic sanctioning America’s Micron Technology (MU) in May.

Last October, the Biden administration unveiled an unprecedented set of export controls that restricted Chinese companies from purchasing advanced chips made anywhere in the world using US technology, as well as chip-making equipment.”

Brains—USA has brains—

It is that Solar Radiation Modification (SRM). This document addresses the issue of solar geoengineering from a “risk of intervention vs. risk of no action” framework.

This 44-page document was required by Congress in a policy report accompanying the 2022 appropriations bill.

It juggles several ways to limit the amount of sunlight reaching Earth, such as Stratospheric aerosol injection (SAI), to multiply the amount of aerosols in the stratosphere to reflect the sun’s rays away from the planet, like what naturally occurs after a volcanic eruption.

Marine cloud brightening – to increase cloud cover over the oceans.

Cirrus cloud thinning, or reducing the amount of high-flying cirrus clouds, which reflect solar radiation to Earth.

It was the same in Austfalia. John Howard earned the sobriquet 'Honest' John after numerous political lies. Sarcasm at its 'finest'. But, years later, Howard's propaganda goons and his stooges in the Murdoch MSM cancer, began using it as if it was a true description of his character. As Europe declines, it will also become less attractive to Africans. An equilibrium will be reached at some point.

At that time, Europeans will typically look something like “milk coffee coloured” Brazilians....not that that is a bad thing. Brazilians are a good looking people.

An equilibrium will be found before Europe becomes Brazil.

Brazil started with a Portuguese minority that supported creating mulattoes for the economy.

Upper-middle class White liberals in positions of power do not breed with Africans. It's mostly poor Whites and disproportionately women from broken homes. I used to work in a large office building with urban White liberal women and not a single one dated Blacks. Anecdotal but look at the husbands of White female politicians. Even AOC has the Whitest guy in the room.

So what you will end up with is increased class and racial division. Not a South American culture.

Such conditions will most likely lead to extremist parties and the potential breakup of countries.

Many of us oppose globalism not because we are assholes but because we are concerned with increase disunity and chaos in countries that already have strict class divisions from capitalism. France on fire tells us that our concerns were correct. Paris was already going down the tubes as a city of the past. I still haven't heard a SINGLE liberal tell me that they are returning to Paris. Everyone wants to go back to Ireland or Greece. When liberals say nothing about Paris you know it is bad.

Good article but I would rename the title. America was, past tense, great before it became a world empire. Think about it, we started internecine warfare (Civil War, WWI, WWII and all the wars since then). Look at the lives it killed of our racial brothers. The “Empire” has about 800 military bases around the world. Look at the cost of that. Then there the wealth we have stolen from other countries (re: “I Was an Economic Hitman”.) Look at how certain international banksters in the US financed communism in Russia and China.

Friday July 9, 2023 US Senator Lindsey Graham (R-SC) said he will be working with Republican and Democratic senators to pass a resolution pushing for the admission of Ukraine into NATO.

“Absolutely not. This is exactly wrong – as usual – and could very well lead us to war with Russia, something no one should want,” Senator Rand Paul said on Friday in response to Lindsey’s proposal.

Graham said he believes there is an overwhelming majority of senators who would support this proposition.

Ukrainian membership in NATO, according to Graham, could be one of the best way to prevent future wars and promote peace.

Justin Trudeau and Rishi Sunak are supporters of Lindsey Graham and bible man Billy Graham.

Graham Crackers comes to mind.

Considering your name, you may have a distant Serbian origin. Yes, the mainstream still hides that the Etruscan script was decoded, and a book written about it almost 40 years ago by a Serbian priest who served in Italy and the US. He also determined that it was the same script as on the Xanthos obelisk. I have a translation of that text, and a guy has already defended his doctorate by interpreting the legal aspects of that inscription.

Of course, Wiki says that all those Anatolian languages are lost, but it also says that it is a Greek text. It is not a Greek text because there were no Greeks there at that time and some letters are not Greek. If the text was Greek, then the general public would already know what is written in that text. It would be strange if such a clear text, much simpler than hieroglyphics, was left undeciphered and no one even tried to do it. The truth is different, and the mainstream does not want the general public to know it.

{USA should be removed from the United Nations}

Impossible.

US is a permanent member of UN: that means as long as UN exists, US cannot be removed. The other permanent members: Russia (USSR), UK, France, China.

The “West”, the Anglo-American Empire — US+UK — has corrupted the UN to a degree that it cannot be fixed. At some point it will cease to be relevant: I think Russia+China will create another, alternative block with the “Global South” and such.

Russia and China are more or less sticklers for UN rules, but US+UK have ignored or deliberately corrupted it for so long, that as long as US+UK are in it, it is useless.

Ex: the so-called ‘Rules Based Order’ is US+UK attempt to circumvent UN, and run the world with their own made-up rules. when it suits them, but only use UN rules when it benefits them.

Everybody keeps on repeating the same thing over and over again without presenting any proof that it all will really happen. I suppose there is a counter argument somewhere as well, but I am not the one who is qualified to develop and present that argument in economic and fiscal terms.

The best highly generalized counter argument I can think of is the argument that the United States of America (aka “America”) is not an empire in the same sense as these other empires were but in fact a geopolitical isolate which would in the end do better if it was isolated more.

The continuation of the argument, I suppose, is that the present globalist, internationalist and democratic universalist regime is, in fact, preventing America from playing its geopolitical assets. I can understand though. When the next generation of the American plutocracy goes abroad for their junior year and their other studies and travels, they don't want to be burdened with having to defend or explain their own country. As adults, rinse and repeat.
