Kalifornie udává trend pro národ a existuje klišé v tom, jak populistická pravice používá Kalifornii jako předzvěst budoucnosti Ameriky jako dystopie třetího světa. Lidé podceňují, jaká byla Bílá Kalifornie, není to tak dávno, a Bílí Kalifornňané nyní tvoří asi jednu třetinu populace, oproti 85 % před několika generacemi. Kalifornská realita však odporuje vyprávění rasové pravice o očekávání velkého odporu bílých, jakmile běloši dosáhnou statusu menšiny. Nejbliže Kalifornie k „bílé reakci“ byla v 90. letech díky opatřením proti nelegálnímu přistěhovaectví 187, zákazu pozitivních akcí a přísné politiky v oblasti zločinu, které byly reakcí na vlnu zločinu a nepokoje v LA. Bílá pravice je emocionálně zaujatá příběhy o konfliktu nebo kolapsu, ale v Kalifornii bylo nahrazení bílé spíše postupným, mírovým a hladkým přechodem, možná mírnou mírovou etnickou čistkou.

Kalifornie má zkorumpované politické vedení a mnoho problémů, jako je městská katastrofa, bezdomovectví, nerovnost příjmů a rostoucí kriminalita. Pravicová média, která útočí na Kalifornii z clickbaitů a politických důvodů, však často vykreslují stát jako mnohem horší, než ve skutečnosti je. Navzdory nárůstu kriminality je kriminalita v Kalifornii celkově nižší než v 80. letech. Dokonce i nedávná vlna kriminality je nepřiměřeně spojena spíše s Afroameričany, kteří jsou klesající demografickou skupinou, než s novými přistěhovalci. Také kriminalita se většinou omezuje na městská jádra a oblasti s nižšími příjmy, zatímco velká část Kalifornie, včetně předměstí, je stále relativně bezpečná.

I když sympatizuji s obavami disidentské pravice o demografii, často přehnaně senzacechtují rasové problémy, aby se zdály horší, než ve skutečnosti jsou. Do určité míry je anti-Whiteness v Kalifornii, je to spíše na institucionální úrovni, jako je technologická cenzura, anti-White diskriminace při přijímání na univerzitu a probuzené korporace, stejně jako státní politiky, jako je UBI pro černošské porody a navrhované reparace, přestože Kalifornie nikdy nebyla otrokářským státem. Bez ohledu na to nejsou hlavními problémy, které mají dopad na bílé Kaliforněany, ani tak zjevné rasové nepřátelství, jako spíše praktické problémy, jako jsou náklady na bydlení a jistotu zaměstnání a zejména sociální atomizace a nedostatek komunity a identity. Život v Kalifornii je mnohem bližší Bowling Alone než American History X, což je méně senzacechtivé než příběhy o rasových konfliktech. Celkové rasové vztahy mezi bílými, Hispánci a Asiaty jsou natolik přívětivé, že běloši mohou mít méně podnětů k tomu, aby se stali etnocentričtějšími.

Kalifornská střední třída klesá a od roku 1970 klesl podíl střední třídy ve státě z 60 % na něco málo přes polovinu dnešní populace. Také kalifornský index GINI pro nerovnost je jedním z nejhorších v zemi, blízko Mississippi's. I když existuje rozdíl mezi vyšší a nižší střední třídou, dá se říct, že Kalifornie je totálně rozpolcená na ultrabohaté a strádající-chudé, i když se zdá, že míří tímto směrem. Cringe neoliberálové mají částečně pravdu, že smrt střední třídy může být psí píšťalkou na vyvlastnění Bílého. Kalifornie má rostoucí nebílou střední třídu, včetně nedávných asijských přistěhovalců ze střední třídy, stejně jako rostoucí latinskoamerickou střední třídu. Například Mexičtí Američané byli stereotypně považováni za chudé ještě v 90. letech, což již neplatí. Tento vzestup v nebílé manažerské třídě zvyšuje konkurenci pro bílou střední třídu a zhoršuje nadprodukcí elit.

Amerika má mnoho zranitelných míst, jako je polarizace a velké ekonomické a finanční problémy, ale Bílá pravice je naivní předpokládat, že nebílá Amerika se zhroutlí. V případě Kalifornie přebírají Latinos ekonomickou roli bílé dělnické třídy, zatímco Asiaté bílé profesionální třídy. Tento model latinskoamerické dělnické třídy a asijské manažerské třídy funguje při udržování docela funkční a ekonomicky prosperující společnosti, kde však bílí hrají spíše okrajovou roli. Tuto dichotomii ztělesňuje město San Jose, pokud jde o bezpečné a prosperující město, ale kde byli bílí vyvlastněni a jsou poměrně atomizováni.

I když existuje bezpočet příkladů nekompetentních byrokratů afirmativních akcí a korporátních podvodníků DEI, pravičáci spoléhající na narativ nebílých, že jsou nekompetentní, je špatnou optikou a ignoruje, že mnoho barevných lidí může převálcovat bílé. Nemluvě o celkové kultuře imigrantů, která je skvělá pro HDP státu, ale ne nutně pro ekonomickou bezpečnost Whitea. Je důležitější zdůraznit, že bílí čelí hyperkonkurenční krysí rase s mnohem menším ekonomickým zabezpečením než v minulosti. Nemluvě o nedostatku ekonomických mezer a sponzorských sítí, které nedávni přistěhovalci mají.

Zatímco hledání méně různorodých komunit je faktorem pro bílý útěk, celkový bělošský demografický pokles v Kalifornii je způsoben životními náklady a náklady na péči o děti, jako je školní vyučování, což zdražuje zakládání rodin, dokonce i pro středně bohaté. Vysoké životní náklady jsou způsobeny kombinací imigrace a NIMBYismu namáhajícího nabídku. Je také důležité poukázat na to, že nebělošská populace Kalifornie by také klesala, nebýt kompenzací od nových přistěhovalců. Navzdory velkým problémům má Kalifornie mnoho rysů, které ji činí žádoucí, a nepodceňujte, kolik bohatých lidí stále chce žít v Kalifornii, zejména v žádoucích pobřežních oblastech. Například exodus neúměrně zasáhl spíše nižší třídy než bohaté. Kalifornie je jedinečně bez kořenů, což je umocněno vysokými životními náklady. Obzvláště bílí Kalifornané jsou jedinečně individualističtí, možná jedna z nejindividuálnějších skupin lidí na zemi, takže jsou neúměrně ovlivněni atomizací pro ty, kteří nejsou spojeni s blízkou komunitou. Zatímco úmrtí ze zoufalství neúměrně postihují venkovské oblasti v regionu Jefferson Pro bělochy střední třídy je běžnější, že odcházejí někam levněji nebo zůstávají, ale nemají rodiny, včetně mnoha bytových hipsterů, kteří nyní dosahují středního věku. Tato bílá sestupná mobilita v Kalifornii je zapouzdřena komentářem mého přítele Decaye, který poukazuje na to, že jeho „rozvětvená rodina jsou zámožní progresivisté z Bay Area a podporují všechny alternativní životní styly (kromě tvrdých drog nebo bezdomovectví). Uvědomují si, že jen menšina jejich potomků si udrží třídní postavení a ti, kteří nemohou vyžadovat netradiční cesty. Je to způsob, jak snížit konkurenční tlak na poziční zdroje. Pouze dva z mých bratranců byli natolik úspěšní, aby se oženili, koupili dům a měli děti, a to vyžadovalo velmi dobře placené a vysoké postavení.

Kalifornské hyperkonkurenční prostředí je obzvláště špatné pro zakládání rodiny, což je důležité pro teorii výběru chovatelů. Teorie předpokládá, že demografické skupiny, které dříve podstoupí darwinovský selekční tlak, mohou mít z dlouhodobého hlediska výhody oproti jiným skupinám. I když úbytek bělochů přetrvává v příštích několika desetiletích, podskupina bělochů, kteří zůstanou v Kalifornii dlouhodobě, bude pravděpodobně odolnější, vybraná tak, aby odolala antinatalistickým selekčním tlakům tím, že se zbaví bělochů, kteří jsou více atomizovaní a méně odolní. přes, bezdětnost, ven-manželství, a exodus. Očekávám, že tento trend bude v budoucnu výraznější, než jen předpoklad nekonečného bílého útěku a úpadku. Je také možné vidět, jak se tabulky obracejí, kde se bílí Kalifornané vyvíjejí, aby se stali kmenovějšími, zatímco potomci nezápádních přistěhovalců se s asimilací více atomizovali. Existuje proces třídění mezi tím, jaké druhy bílých odcházejí nebo zůstávají. Celkově mnoho bílých konzervativců, stejně jako přechodných mladých liberálů, odchází a mnoho bílých liberálů, kteří zůstanou, se nebude reprodukovat, zatímco ti, kteří zůstanou, mívají silnější profesní, sociální nebo rodinné vazby. Bílý liberál z vyšší střední třídy zakládající rodinu v Kalifornii je také odolnější než Trumpův příznivec odcházející do Rudého státu. Existuje rozpor mezi bezdětnými bílými liberály a těmi bílými, kteří zůstávají v Kalifornii a zakládají rodiny, kteří bývají předměstští, bohatí a umírnění liberálové, protože bohatí bílí liberálové jsou ve svém životním stylu často konzervativnější než jejich protějšky ze střední třídy. Dokonce i v Kalifornii, kde dochází k celkovému poklesu zakládání bílých rodin, Whitopias neboli de-facto enklávy. Očekávám, že tato nika zámožných bílých Kalifornanů se zdravou plodností se v budoucnu bude stále více stávat jejich vlastní kastou. Možná etnogeneze nebo bílá diaspora, vynořující se z bělochů vyšší třídy, což už se tak nějak děje. Kvůli nadprodukcí elit a diverzifikaci elit jak prostřednictvím afirmativní akce, tak imigrace vysoce kvalifikovaných pracovníků, ekonomické vyloučení a nimbyismus již nejsou životaschopnými náhradami za etnocentrismus. Pokud anti-bílá diskriminace silně zasáhne bílou vyšší třídu, bude zajímavé sledovat, zda úspěšně konkurují, odejdou ze státu nebo začnou přijímat enklávismus a paralelní instituce. Enklávismus se s největší pravděpodobností vynoří z bílého ekonomického elitářství a poté se promění v něco více identitárního, i když jsem obzvláště pesimistický ohledně budoucnosti kalifornských nižších bílých.

Absolutně nejhorším scénářem, aniž bychom se příliš uchýlili k alt-right pornu strachu, je, že levice začne naplno jednat s radikální protibílou politikou, protože Kalifornie již má zkorumpované vedení jedné strany, s protibílou ideologií prostupující na institucionální úrovni. Znovu se vrátíme k bodu o rasových vztazích mezi bělochy, Hispánci a Asiaty, které by se mohly změnit, protože mladší generace jsou indoktrinovány protibílou ideologií a radikálně probuzené mladé demokratické partyzány se zvedají do mocenských pozic. I když návrh na reparace nemusí být realizován, je to signifikantní směřování kalifornské politiky. Vzhledem k tomu, že návrh reparací souvisí s diskriminací v oblasti bydlení v historii Kalifornie, mohl jsem vidět asijské a latinskoamerické advokátní skupiny lobbující za reparace na základě dřívější diskriminace, a samozřejmě, že by Asiaté a Latinoameričané požadovali reparace proti bílým, mělo by to mnohem větší dopad než reparace pro černochoy. Nebylo by přitažené za vlasy, kdyby v ne tak vzdálené budoucnosti Kalifornie navrhla reparační daň na bílé dědictví ve výši řekněme 50 %. Zatímco bílá vyšší střední třída je loajální k systému, pravděpodobně by mohla být vržena pod autobus. Nebezpečí je, že bílí mohou být stále příliš atomizovaní na to, aby se připravili a zorganizovali v reakci na takový scénář. pravděpodobně by mohly být vhozeny pod autobus.

Nebezpečí je, že bílí mohou být stále příliš atomizovaní na to, aby se připravili a zorganizovali v reakci na takový scénář. pravděpodobně by mohly být vhozeny pod autobus. Nebezpečí je, že bílí mohou být stále příliš atomizovaní na to, aby se připravili a zorganizovali v reakci na takový scénář. Zatímco kalifornským boomům dávám zabrat, jakmile odejdou, dramaticky to sníží vliv bílých a jejich zmírňující dopad na politiku, a to je okamžik, kdy bychom mohli v Kalifornii skutečně vidět zrychlení směrem k radikální politice probuzení.

Existují srovnání mezi Kalifornií a menšinovými bílými, bývalými koloniálními národy, například v Latinské Americe nebo Jižní Africe, pokud jde o to, jak bílí fungují jako menšina. Obecně se bílí stávají více pravicovými jako menšina, zatímco většinové bílé společnosti mají tendenci být více sociálně demokratické. V Kalifornii jsou však běloši poměrně liberální, což lze vysvětlit tím, že exodus funguje jako bezpečnostní ventil nespokojenosti. Problém bílých Kalifornanů je v tom, že jsou menšinou, která stále jedná a myslí si, že jsou většinou. Zatímco disidentská pravice používá Jižní Afriku jako vzor pro americkou většinovou nebílou budoucnost, Jižní Afrika ve skutečnosti není nejlepší srovnání s Kalifornií, protože Kalifornie je velmi drahá a atomizovaná, ale také relativně bezpečná. Naproti tomu Jižní Afrika má vysokou míru kriminality a zjevnější rasové nepřátelství, ale je velmi cenově dostupný a bílí Jihoafričané jsou více přizpůsobeni modelu diaspory. Latinská Amerika jako vzor pro budoucnost Kalifornie je výstižnější, vezmeme-li v úvahu demografické podobnosti.

Je ostudné, že Bílí Kalifornané, kteří jsou pozoruhodnými lidmi, kteří produkovali nesmírné inovace, nedokázali vytvořit žádnou zakořeněnou regionální identitu. Bílé Kalifornany je těžké definovat jako národ a historicky byli poměrně bez kořenů a zahrnovali různorodou škálu národů. Například obyvatelé Nové Anglie, kteří osídlili Bay Area a Severní pobřeží, Scotts-Irish Okies v Central Valley, němečtí Američané ze Středozápadu v jižní Kalifornii, později židovští a italští Američané transplantovaní z New Yorku, různé skupiny imigrantů z Evropy, např. stejně jako obyvatelé Blízkého východu, jako jsou Židé z Blízkého východu, Íránci a Arméni, kteří mívají mnohem těsnější komunity. Bílí Kalifornané jsou často stereotypně spojováni s volným časem a kreativitou, jako je kultura surfařů, beatniky a hippies. Typ člověka, který se přestěhoval do Kalifornie, byl vybrán pro rysy kreativity, otevřenosti a individualismu, které mají své silné i slabé stránky a vysvětlují, proč byli Poslední géniové poloviny 20. století v Kalifornii . Bílí Kalifornané zapouzdřují faustovského ducha, toho, jak byla Kalifornie kolonií kolonie.

Míra asimilace mezi mnoha přistěhovalci 2. a 3. generace se nabízí jako protipól rozpadu na enklávismus. Otázkou je, zda je tento asimilační trend dočasný nebo dlouhodobě udržitelný, protože Kalifornie již nemá žádnou dominantní demografickou skupinu, která by fungovala jako kotva nebo kanál asimilace, ani masovou kulturu pro nové přistěhovalce, do které by se asimilovali. Ještě v 80. letech by přistěhovalec z Mexika, Koreje nebo Íránu do Kalifornie našel kulturní atributy jako něco, o co by mohl usilovat. Dnes by se nedávný přistěhovalec mohl podívat na všechny ty odpudivé reklamy na probuzení a pomyslet si: „Ne, díky, já si zachovám svou vlastní kulturu“, i když zůstanou kvůli ekonomickým příležitostem nebo rodinným vztahům. Bez ohledu na to předpovídám vznik různých etnogenezí, jako je euroasijská/hapaská identita, Asijští Latinoameričané, Castizo (bílá a hispánská) identita spolu s eurokalifornskou kastou.

Enklávismus se pravděpodobně vyvine spíše organicky než jako masové politické hnutí nebo něco tak explicitního jako evropsko-americké památkové zóny. Budoucnost enklávismu v Kalifornii není přímá segregace, jako je The Jim Crow South nebo Apartheid South Africa, ale spíše Indie. Například tam, kde různé kasty a etnické kmeny koexistují v těsné blízkosti, ale kde lidé mají tendenci se stýkat, ženit se a obchodovat v rámci vlastního kmene nebo enklávy a vytvářet paralelní instituce. Vzdání se amerikanismu má určité trauma a běloši jsou v limbu mezi tím, že Amerika je jejich a jednají jako menšina nebo diaspora. Mladší bílí Kalifornané mají výhodu, že již žijí v postamerické společnosti, a to, jak se bílí přizpůsobí multikulturalismu v Kalifornii, je vodítkem pro budoucnost Ameriky. Běloši se musí přizpůsobit, aby v nevyhnutelné multikulturní budoucnosti prosperovali jako kmen . Čím dříve se bílí přizpůsobí, tím lépe, ale nebezpečí spočívá v tom, že bílí na přizpůsobení čekají příliš dlouho.

Zločin v CA je mimo žebříčky a oni to jistě zakrývají.

Problém bezdomovců je šílený.

Úmrtnost na drogy raketově vzrostla a otevřená hranice znamená obrovské množství fentanylu.

Pravicoví lidé nemají v CA žádné přátele.

V CA rozhodně existuje zjevné rasové nepřátelství vůči bílým.

Vlastně bych řekl, že CA je nejvíce protibělošský stát v USA. Školní děti jsou krmeny stálou stravou protibělošské propagandy a židovská média jsou zcela protibílá.

Just yesterday two young non-white women walked past me and as they walked by this is what they said.....”It was almost all white people! It must have been 90% white! It was TERRIBLE!” I don’t know what they were talking about, but they surely did not care that they were spewing hate toward whites while walking right past a white male. The anti-whiteness is simply part of the woodwork now.

Also, just recently, I had a weird conversation where someone randomly made a comment regarding “old white men” and their tendency to be gruff and mean to their wives. I was astonished by the crazy anti-white stance from this person, who I believe is a white CA liberal. The person was simply regurgitating what he’s seen on many jewish produced comedy shows where white men are depicted as lowlife stupid scum.

And I recently overheard some hispanics talking about NASCAR and they said it was for “white trash.”

I hear this shit all the time.

The idea that there is no racial hostility toward whites is absurd.

The anti-whiteness is baked into media, education, and government. With organized jewry running every control point this is to be expected.....and CA whites suffer for being a hated minority.

Robert Stark:

“who tend to be suburban, affluent, and moderate liberals, as wealthy White liberals are often more conservative in their lifestyles than their middle class counterparts”

This is not true at all. You are just trying to make liberals into conservatives. More affluent liberals are not more conservative than middle class liberals. In fact, as a group, white liberals tend to be wealthier and more educated than conservatives, and “blue” states, on average, are wealthier and more advanced than “red” states.

White liberals *across the board* tend to have less kids than conservatives.

But let's assume that you are right, and that wealthier liberals have more kids than middle class liberals. Does that make them “conservative”? My experience in living in Manhattan for 6 years and interacting with very wealthy white liberals is that, whether they are married or not, have kids or not, has no influence in their political thinking. The liberals with spouses and children still supported gay marriage, drug legalization and were extremely anti-racist.

The mistake that you make here is thinking; conservative = married with kids. Liberal = unmarried without kids. This is not what defines a liberal and a conservative. Wanting to procreate is a natural desire of all living things, and it is not nearly enough to determine political orientation. Stalin loved his daughter Svetlana and loved being a dad. Was he a “conservative”?

Putting aside the fact that white liberals, in general, do have less interest in breeding across the board compared to white conservatives, wanting to have kids or not is not what makes one a conservative or liberal. What determines that is your attitude towards *others*. The traits that distinguish liberals from conservatives are:

- Religiosity. Liberals are less religious and more scientifically/evidenced-based minded compared to conservatives.
- Openness. Liberals are more open minded than conservatives, more flexible and interested in new ideas, new types of lifestyle and types of people. Conservatives tend to like familiarity, and dislike exploration and novelty-seeking
- Egalitarianism. This is a big one. Liberals are natural egalitarians that hate profound social discrepancies between people in terms of wealth, access to resources and other factors that determine well-being. This is why liberals are at the fore front of uplifting minority groups and of creating social programs to bring health-care and other benefits to the disenfranchised. Conservatives, on the other hand, tend to regard inequality a fact of life, and don't care that some people have it better than others, especially if the ones having it better are themselves and those like themselves. And this brings me to another point...
- Empathy. Liberals are more empathetic and altruistic than conservatives, and their entire political thinking reflects this. They seem to live their lives based on the motto: "If someone in the Society is hurting, I am hurting."

Universalism: This is another big one. Liberals have an inclusive morality, that takes into regard people that are not kin and might live lifestyles that they, personally, do not live. Conservatives, conversely, tend to be more intolerant and only ascribe moral worth to people of their kin or other group that they belong to, like a religion.

You don't get to claim that wealthier liberals are conservatives because they have more kids than more middle class liberals. First, I don't think it's true that wealthier liberals have more kids than middle class liberals. Quite the opposite. But even if they do, it doesn't matter. A rich liberal might(or not) have a bunch of kids, but even if he has a bunch of kids and is married, he will still support gay marriage, transexual rights, racial minority rights and all other liberal values. Like I said, I met lots of wealthy white liberals. Some were married with kids, most were not, but all equally supported gay marriage, drug legalization, transgenders rights, were strongly anti-racist, etc.

California has the 5th highest income inequality in the country. The middle class is leaving in droves. Only immigration from India and China is keeping the numbers from really falling off a cliff. California= more expensive Brazil. Pretty sure Belo Horizonte is more livable than Los Angeles or San Francisco. Just wait till they can't sustain the power grid for more than a few months a year.

@Robert Dolan

The “Jews” are just continuing the race war against Whites that reached their apex with World Wars One and Two. They’re trying to do WW3 with Russia. But their wars are with the all the other races, too. This is what they do. This us what they are. Divide and rule, endlessly. It’s a pathology with them, same as their greed and grandiosity.

The author (Stark) is simply a White? front man. There are probably millions of them, paid and unpaid/programmed. He’s “naturalizing” the process for them, trying to paint California as a multicult utopia.

He’s of the same mind as Unz.

And when delusional, mentally ill liberals and “Jews” don’t get their way, when facts and logic don’t comport with their narrative, they throw tantrums, stomp their feet, blow it all up, start censoring, start throttling, start terrorizing...

You once asked why I jumped Unz? Now you know. And he’s so fragile, I’ve been throttled on here ever since.

While I like Robert, he's delusional. The release valve here is that sane Californians, i.e those not emotionally (or otherwise) wedded to the state, are fleeing in droves. Where, pray tell, are Americans generally supposed to flee if the whole country goes in the shitter like California has? Even South Africans can flee (here, for example). When there's no place left, then what?

My parents were Midwesterners brought here by the military and stayed for the weather. The weather is still a draw but everything else is worse. My five siblings and most of their children have left the state. My daughter is marrying in June and she and her fiance are already talking about leaving. My oldest son lives out of state and would never consider returning. Buying a home and raising a family here is just too expensive. The schools are leftist indoctrination centers now. Even a nice city like San Diego is degenerating (the downtown area is a homeless encampment). The SD city council is all Democrats and the mayor is a part-Filipino homosexual. It still livable here if you have money and avoid the big cities but the prognosis is grim.

I live in CT where most of the “ruling elites” and upper middle class in the suburbs are liberal.

They are full of self-hate (especially anti-white blue collar hate) and are very intolerant of anyone whose opinions differ from their own.

They are arrogant and ignorant and their idea of “follow the science” is total obedience to mass media propaganda.

They will cancel and ban anyone who speaks out against them in the workplace, in education or in social settings.

Most conservatives in this state hide below the radar and keep their mouths shut.

I also socialize among wealthy white liberals in Manhattan, and I can assure you that while they will BS you to death with their antiracist virtue signaling at cocktail parties, just try proposing bringing in 100 African students to their daughter's elite private or public school. LOL! These liberals can't stand blacks, and they certainly don't want their children associating with them.

California is in some ways like one big college town. If you put a state college in some farm town, like Cal State U Chico, the money flows in. State money for faculty and staff salaries, students spending money from their parents, businesses that cater to those groups, all of it coming from outside. The town prospers, except for the farming types who established it.

California is a beautiful place with mild weather, paradise for everyone decades ago, and still paradise for the wealthy. Tech millionaires and their well paid underlings live in secure communities. Well-off Chinese and Hindus come here, bringing their money to keep it away from their own governments, and establish colonies by taking over towns and neighborhoods and rearranging them to suit their peoples' needs.

Whites who want to get along in this state have to swallow the multi-cult fable. They can't criticize anything about these aliens, but must agree with the outlanders critique of our race. They can never defend their own kind, but must bow to the anti-White storyline. True friendship is impossible with somebody you must always suck up to.

So yes, California is the prototype for America's multi-racial future. Whites on the bottom.

We do not want to live in a country resembling India or Brazil. Our home is being invaded by strangers whose cultures (environment + genetic orientation) are antithetical to the transcendental idealism which influenced not only the psychological disposition of our ancestors, but the fruits of that disposition as well. The architecture, literature, and all art will diminish. We will be surrounded by unfamiliar, slovenly, and often hostile foreign peasantry. This seemingly dispassionate author is merely implementing his own form of casuistry to try and reckon with the fundamental, inevitable, shift. It is of the same ethos, this pusillanimous nonchalance, that ignored and thus tacitly allowed this problem to begin with. Ridiculous and frankly pathetic.

Grandfather in family property. Avoid those taxes.

I also saw the place change in the 1980s to early 2000s. The squeeze on whites tended to pretty subtle. Saw prop debates/votes up close.

I honestly thought Davis was better than the shitbag Schwarzenegger. Davis actually had a high level Nazi sympathizers for a dad or grandfather, I forget which. The Austrian guy was a total headfake by the cucky GOP.

This is a somewhat similar outlook I have for California.

California's white population (about 15 million today) has actually remained stable in absolute terms over the last 50 years (about 77%

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Demographics\_of\_California#Ancestries\_of\_Californians of California's population was non-Hispanic white out of a total population of about 20 million in 1970). Whites' share of the California population has been falling due to non-White immigration into the state. I believe, higher Mormon birth rates and Mormons' longevity have stabilized California's white population, and in absolute terms it will actually increase by about 1 million souls by 2060 to about 16 million from about 15 million today:

California's future population

The state Department of Finance projects California's population will reach 50 million in 2049, growing to more than 52 million in 2060 — a 41 percent increase from 2010. The Hispanic population is projected to rise the most, representing 48 percent of the state's residents by 2060.

Image Source: <https://www.sfgate.com/news/article/Hispanics-soon-to-outnumber-whites-in-state-4241849.php> or <https://archive.ph/evsnR>

The Mormon population in California is about 800,000 today and it was about 350,000 in 1970

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Church\_of\_Jesus\_Christ\_of\_Latter-day\_Saints\_in\_California#Membership\_history

With a very high life expectancy <https://archive.ph/jo8XP> due to non-smoking, non-drinking etc., still well above-average birth rates relative to the rest of the population and being comprised of mostly British-ancestry whites, I believe most of California's white population growth over the next 50+ years will come from Mormons. I wrote in detail about this phenomenon in this comments thread: <https://www.unz.com/article/ol-blue-eyes-people-with-similar-eye-color-prefer-each-other/?showcomments#comment-5314462>

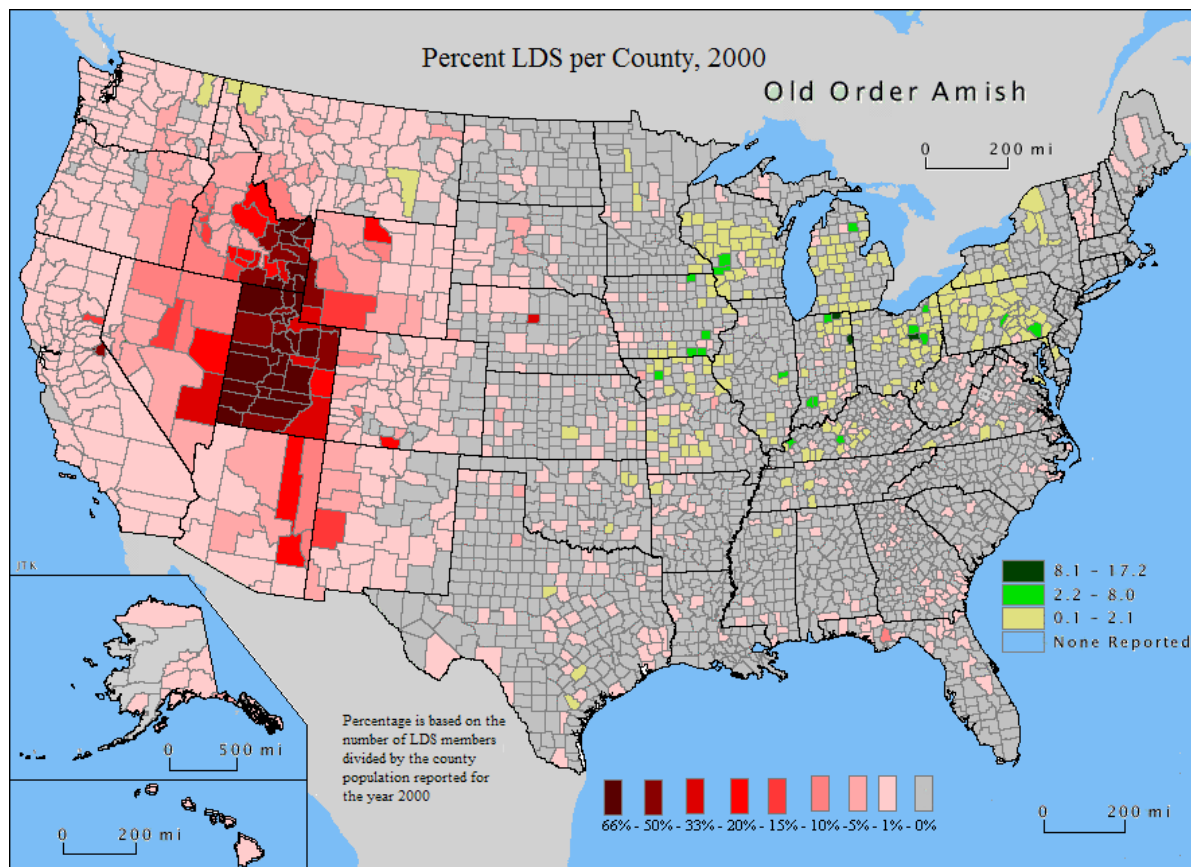

Anatoly Karlin also did a great article on this topic:

@Ralphie in WPB

There are many other countries in this world where your children and ours can make a new life — just like our ancestors did when they left Europe / “the uk” and settled in the USA. It’s also quite possible, and advisable, to acquire citizenship or permanent residence in at least two countries other than the USA (or any home country).

In that vein, anyone who can should be moving savings into other currencies, held in banks outside the US / uk / eu, and learning the languages of those other countries. They can be places to live all the year, part of the year, or just maintained as a fallback (flight) or retirement option.

We need to broaden our planning beyond “which State seems less bad (for now)?” The question is, where in the entire world might be better options for practical day-to-day liberty (being left alone), physical safety, affordable housing, affordable medical care, a better standard of living, less government-approved anti-white hatred and discrimination, etc.

The USA is not our country and will never be again. At least not with anything like its current territory or probably its original system of government.

The US and its federal and state governments, its thug rude maniac police, its perverse, vulgar and mentally ill homosexual and self-mutilating dominant popular culture, its rapacious banks and heartless greedy “doctors” and pharma corporations, its exorbitant for-profit housing industry, its white-hating constantly white-attacking Africans, its open racial discrimination against whites and asians in university admissions, hiring and promotion; its warmongering ignorant jingoistic King-Jesus-babbling MURDERERS and their tens of millions of “patriotic” enablers, often too fat to avoid waddling, and the “liberal ” people trying to surveill and coercively inject and mask and anti-socially “distance” us and our children– this doesn’t sound like a country with a good future, and it’s not a country or a people that deserve our loyalty.

Certainly it’s not good parenting to let the young people think they must or should stay here and be abused while going down with the ship. Let them get out while they’re young, can learn languages more easily, and have the energy for travel. Let them know their options aren’t limited to Florida and Texas.

Try New York as majority non-white and nearly majority Hispanic, as well, and soon both Texas and Florida. The entire country will be majority Hispanic and at least plurality Mexican (people who are 1/4, 1/2 or all Mexican will easily be the biggest group in many States, not just in the southwest).

Decent advice to normal young people in the USA: learn Spanish OR leave.

Better advice: learn Spanish AND leave.

Even today, on average, already 17% of Hispanics/Latinos are objectively perceived to be White: Most Latinos say others would describe them as Latino when walking past them on the street <https://archive.ph/jEnln#selection-1109.0-1109.90> *Fewer than two-in-ten Latinos (17%) say others would view them as White when walking past them, with those born in the U.S. being more likely to say this (28% of at least third-generation Latinos and 20% of second-generation Latinos) than Latino immigrants (13%).

I anticipate this number to only increase over the next 40 years, when more and more Hispanics/Latinos will become “Second generation” and “Third and higher generation” Americans. For California specifically, this means that even today probably 3 million Hispanics/Latinos are of the Nick Fuentes or Arnold Schwarzenegger’s illegitimate son Joseph Baena phenotype, i.e. Whites with about 25% Hispanic/Latino admixture. By 2060 when California’s population will be around 52 million and about 50% Hispanic/Latino, perhaps as much as 50% of California’s Hispanic/Latino population could be “Second generation” and “Third and higher generation” Americans, and thus perhaps up to 25% or roughly 6.6 million of Californian Hispanics/Latinos in 2060 “others would view them as White when walking past them.” Even if we were to assume that all Whites (about 16 million) in 2060 California also had 25% Hispanic/Latino admixture; 25% Hispanic/Latino admixture Whites (16 + 6.6 = 22.6 million) would comprise about 43% of the state’s total population 40 years from now. In the worst case scenario California(ns) will basically become (look like)

Spain(ards) <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Spain> & <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Spaniards> with sizable Asian, Black and Mormon minorities.

I guess my question is what percentage of the people listed as white are actually somewhat mixed race, so that the overall “Hispanic-minded” percentage of the population is higher than presented. Same thing for partially black people included in the white category.

I am not talking about a one-drop rule, just that if one is at least 10% of the other race your ideological-racial solidarity may be relevant. The 10% figure is just an example and I’m not sure I care. I simply think California through Texas will be the Northernmost region of Mexico sooner than mainstream stats suggest.

Ron Unz thinks that the 38% of the Hispanic vote for conservatives in the 2022 midterms, which is still several million more Hispanic votes for the left since they voted 30% for Trump in 2020, means Hispanics are undergoing a Great Conservative Awakening, just like Karl Rove and Newt Gingrich. Thirty-eight percent was their near-peak of 38% support for W in '04, when he was promising a few trillion for minority mortgages, with special emphasis on Hispanic homeownership. Ron has a Ph.D in physics, so he is probably well aware that their margin of electoral support for conservatives will never break 50% and that each election just means millions of new Hispanic votes for the left, even after Hispanic neighborhoods put to the torch in the Summer of Floyd 2020, their money worth 20% less than 2020, and their kids subject to every perverse deprivation of the postmodernist freakshow left in US public schools. No need for the calculus of limits to figure out it ain't gonna happen. Either Ron is in a state of unhappy denial after all the work he put in to put an end to bilingual education about their politics, i.e. redistribution and ethnic solidarity, or he's trolling us as an open-borders, multiculturalist gatekeeper.

The author misses the point. Economy and crime are important, but secondary. Culture and ethnicity more important in the long run. People want to leave among their kind. Mexicans might be really nice, but you don't want to live among Mexicans all the time. And in fact there is mostly a separation of neighbourhoods, Koreans here, Chinese there, Whites there, Jews over there, Mexicans here and Guatemalans there.

Social atomization is an issue, but most white Californians tend to be insufferable anyway.

Still, cost of living and taxes are increasing, the micromanaging government is insane, and those that can are leaving.

As a native born white Californian, CQ can hereby certify R.D.'s experiences first hand. The irony is the more whites that leave the state, the less money going towards what was once typically white entertainment culture. For example, the local Symphony Orchestra concerts are now mostly Jew run under Jewish Conductors playing to aging Jewish seniors who look as if they were recently released from a Nazi concentration camp.

The local USC University system is so Woke, you would be hard pressed to find a single lecturer, music act or performance from someone white. It's all Magic Negro, GlobalHomo, Holocaust Survivor Hysteria propaganda and your typical never ending Woke BS being pushed on the last remaining holdouts they can suck money from before it all goes to shit.

Why am I still here you axe, sorry ask, I hate cold winters and hot desert and humid summers, like Goldilocks and the three bears, CQ relates with the baby bear, I like my porridge just right, as in a few steps from the ocean.

Speaking more broadly than Mexifornia, couldn't agree at all with this USA ho-hum decline theory.

Sure, places like South Africa and Argentina slid into unlivable dumps seamlessly, but they also weren't propping up the entire planet economically and militarily.

The reason the USA can take nconceivable amounts of debt in the trillions is because we still have enough visionary bullshit artists that sell the dream of science and technology breakthroughs that will pay back on such an investment An couple examples are colonies on Mars and virtual reality -Elon Musk motivational talks basically.

Allowing an invasion via the southern border isn't going to assist with this; squat beaners pushing brooms or hosing off kill floors are not a trillion dollar industries; I don't care what anybody says. The USA voracious borrowing is still expected to bring the world Star Trek. Not a second Mexico with roombas.

Once all the US creditors get the hint that all the US loans they hold is basically the equivalent of giving 30 trillion dollars to Colombia, the situation will detoriate fast and the accelerationists will be quite pleased.

| The anti-whiteness is baked into media, education, and government. With organized
| jewry running every control point this is to be expected

That's right. It is to be expected. Because no other group in human history has been as scapegoat-dependent as them. They have never been able to live without one.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Scapegoating>

It's the explanation for why, for all their alleged intelligence, they've never been able to create a civilization of their own. In other words, the fact that they are so scapegoat-dependent is why they're predators and parasites.

The only solution is for the Scapegoat to go No Contact. But, in this case, that's easier said than done. Because what Supremacy Inc. is doing is making whites the first global scapegoat. So even if, as a group, No Contact isn't possible, the gesture toward it is. And that means calling them out. Once that happens, and there's no reason why it can't, things will never be the same for all involved.

For some this solution might not be enough. And maybe it isn't. But it's a start. And you've got to start somewhere.

There are still 6 million more German Americans (42 million) than Mexican Americans (36 million) living in the U.S.

currently:

Mexican net migration had actually been negative since 2005, and ironically only flipped positive again under Trump:

Before COVID-19, more Mexicans came to the U.S. than left for Mexico for the first time in years

Because of American Juedeo-Protestant Christianity, any sensible self-respect based on an European heritage is strictly taboo as being racist. Essentially, this is the one of the most confusing, if not insane, religious standards in the history of of the world – and politics follows religion.

White Christianity is a confusing double-standard: whites are taught to be ashamed of being proud of their race.

Wokism is an insane triple-standard: whites are taught to be proud of being ashamed of being proud of their race.

White people hiding their identity beneath a covering of black tattoo ink will soon become compulsory.

in California White replacement has been more of a gradual, peaceful, and smooth transition, perhaps a soft peaceful ethnic cleansing.

So California is still a nice place to visit, but (if you're pale-skinned) you wouldn't want to live there. In fact, maybe you can't live there. Got it.

To the degree there is anti-Whiteness in California, it is more on an institutional level, such as tech censorship, anti-White discrimination in University Admissions and woke corporations, as well as state policies such as UBI for Black birthing and proposed reparations, despite California never being a slave state.

Mmm-hmm. Virtually every institution, public and private, that can reward or punish people is anti-white. Never mind, it sounds worse than it is. Reader, please bite your tongue before committing sensationalism.

Overall race relations between Whites, Hispanics and Asians, are affable enough, that Whites might have less incentives to become more ethnocentric.

Not exactly sure what this means. If whites accept their lower-caste status, they'll be affable enough about it?

Incidentally, you have made two wrong diction choices in a single sentence. "Between" is used comparing two items; for three or more, it should be "among." And the modifier for anything that can be counted is "fewer," not "less."

California always was a freak show, but in the 50s and 60s it was the place to be for freedom of thought and education was ahead of many other states – what happened ? The US got taken over by the bad guys. The West coast and East coast and most of the Americas { all of Central America} will be destroyed in the polar shift so the elitists calling the shots in the immigration game. will make sure that those that would have a chance of making it thru will be people that can work the land and hard labor. They won't need educated white guys that can't work the land. The War in Ukraine is a perfect example of the last big world confrontation for real estate that will be crucial for survival of those who's lands will be destroyed on the first day. Russia and China has teamed up for this reason , in order to try and survive the future. California has no future since the shift is already started. Reality sucks sometimes.

@Eric Novak

| That California has the same number of whites as 1970 is utterly stupid. Troll harder.

Here's a relevant recent comment of mine:

| This is just a basic law of nature as we can see in States like California which has hemorrhaged White population ever since the Hispanic invasion began.

The notion that there's been a large exodus of whites from California is very widely believed across the Internet, but it's factually incorrect. It came up in a previous thread, and here's a comment of mine from a couple of months ago:

To a large extent, California's alleged "white flight" is a myth or a hoax, mostly promoted by innumerate racial activists.

Today, there are roughly 14 million whites in California. About fifty years ago in 1970, the figure was 15.6 million, so the total drop has been about 10% over 50 years or 0.2% per year.

Since California whites have had below replacement fertility rates during that entire period, aging and mortality could easily account for the entire net reduction.

Obviously, lots of individual whites have moved into or out of the state, but the net flows have probably been pretty close to nil.

Admittedly, a significant portion of today's "white" population in California consists of non-European Caucasians, but even if we restrict our analysis to just Californians of white European ancestry, the decline over the last half-century has probably been something like 0.4% per year, which could easily be explained by below-replacement fertility rates. So there really hasn't been any sort of white "hemorrhage."
