The staircase in your home—we know it serves as a functional piece, getting you from one floor to the other, but it can do a whole lot more for your home's design. It's often the first thing people see when they first walk into your home, so it should not only be functional but should also contribute to your home's overall design style.

Staircases are no longer considered something to get from one floor to another. It can enhance an interior design of a certain space and be the primary decorative source especially when you have custom newel posts. These will greatly depend on the kind of stairs you have in your house. Here check out 34 Cool Indoor Stair Design Ideas that will elevate your home's design.
