16. února 2022, celý týden předtím, než Putin vyslal bojové jednotky na Ukrajinu, ukrajinská armáda zahájila těžké bombardování oblasti (na východě Ukrajiny) okupované převážně etnickými Rusy. V okolí se v té době nacházeli představitelé pozorovatelské mise Organizace pro bezpečnost a spolupráci v Evropě (OBSE) a vedli záznamy o ostřelování, jak k němu došlo. OBSE zjistila, že bombardování v průběhu týdne dramaticky zesílilo, až dosáhlo vrcholu 19. února, kdy bylo zaznamenáno celkem 2026 dělostřeleckých úderů. Mějte na paměti, že ukrajinská armáda ve skutečnosti ostřelovala civilní oblasti podél linie kontaktu, které byly obsazeny jinými Ukrajinci.*

Chceme zdůraznit, že úředníci OBSE pracovali ve svých profesionálních schopnostech a shromažďovali důkazy o ostřelování v oblasti z první ruky. Jejich data ukazují, že ukrajinské síly bombardovaly a zabíjely své vlastní lidi. To vše bylo zdokumentováno a nebylo zpochybněno.

Otázka, kterou si musíme všichni položit, je tato: Je bombardování a vraždění vlastních lidí „válečným aktem“?

Mapa z Měsíce Alabamy

Myslíme si, že ano. A pokud máme pravdu, pak musíme logicky předpokládat, že válka začala před ruskou invazí (která byla zahájena o celý týden později) Musíme také předpokládat, že údajná „nevyprovokovaná agrese“ Ruska nebyla vůbec nevyprovokovaná, ale byla vhodnou humanitární reakcí k úmyslnému zabíjení civilistů. Abychom mohli tvrdit, že ruská invaze „nebyla vyprovokována“, museli bychom říci, že vypálení více než 4 000 dělostřeleckých granátů do měst a čtvrtí, kde žijí ženy a děti, není provokace? Kdo bude hájit tento názor?

Nikdo, protože je to absurdní. Zabíjení civilistů na Donbasu bylo jasnou provokací, provokací, která měla za cíl přimět Rusko k válce. A – jak jsme řekli dříve – OBSE měla na místě monitory, které poskytly úplnou dokumentaci ostřelování, jak k němu došlo, což je tak blízko železnému svědectví očitých svědků, jak jen můžete získat.

To je samozřejmě velký rozchod s „oficiálním příběhem“, který označuje Rusko za pachatele nepřátelství. Ale jak jsme ukázali, tak to prostě není. Oficiální popis je špatný. I tak vás možná nepřekvapí, že většina mainstreamových médií zcela vynechala jakékoli zpravodajství o činnostech OBSE na zjišťování faktů na východní Ukrajině. Jedinou výjimkou byla agentura Reuters, která zveřejnila záměrně neprůhledný účet zveřejněný 18. února s názvem „Rusko hlásí poplach kvůli prudkému nárůstu ostřelování Donbasu“. Zde je úryvek:

Ruský ministr zahraničí Sergej Lavrov v pátek vyjádřil znepokojení nad prudkým nárůstem ostřelování na východní Ukrajině a obvinil zvláštní monitorovací misi OBSE, že zamlčuje to, co podle něj ukrajinské porušování mírového procesu...

Washington a jeho spojenci vyvolali obavy, že nárůst násilí na Donbasu by mohl být součástí ruské záminky k invazi na Ukrajinu. Napětí je již nyní vysoké kvůli hromadění ruské armády na severu, východě a jihu Ukrajiny.

"Jsme velmi znepokojeni zprávami z posledních dnů - včera a především došlo k prudkému nárůstu ostřelování zbraněmi, které jsou podle minských dohod zakázány," řekl Lavrov s odkazem na mírové dohody, jejichž cílem je ukončit konflikt. "Zatím vidíme, že speciální monitorovací mise dělá vše, co je v jejích silách, aby vyřešila všechny otázky, které ukazují na vinu ukrajinských ozbrojených sil," řekl na tiskové konferenci.

Ukrajinská armáda v pátek popřela, že by porušila mírový proces v Minsku, a obvinila Moskvu, že vede informační válku, aby prohlásila, že Kyjev ostřeluje civilisty, přičemž obvinění jsou podle ní lži a mají to vyprovokovat. ( Rusko je znepokojeno prudkým nárůstem ostřelování Donbasu , Reuters)

Všimněte si chytrého způsobu, jakým agentura Reuters rámuje své zpravodajství tak, aby tvrzení ukrajinské armády byla přikládána stejně důvěryhodnosti jako tvrzení ruského ministra zahraničí. Agentura Reuters nedokáže poukázat na to, že zpráva OBSE ověřuje Lavrovovu verzi událostí a zároveň vyvrací tvrzení Ukrajinců. Úkolem novináře je rozlišovat mezi skutečností a fikcí, ale znovu vidíme, že agendy řízené zprávy nemají informovat, ale zavádět.

I would ask those politicians and pundits in Washington, DC who are agitating for pouring more weapons into Ukraine how the United States would react if Russia was arming Mexican drug cartels with weapons that were killing American citizens? You know the answer. The American public would be howling in rage and demand retaliation. If you think that Russians, whose history is written in the blood of centuries of invaders, do not care about the threat that NATO presents on its western border then you know nothing of Russia's tenacity in beating back such threats. These are very dangerous times.

Citace: Larry C. Johnson , Syn nové revoluce

Myšlenka, kterou se snažíme udělat, je jednoduchá: Válku na Ukrajině nezahájil tyranský ruský vůdce (Putin) usilující o obnovu Sovětského impéria. Tento příběh je podvodem, který dali dohromady neokonzervativci, kteří se snažili získat veřejnou podporu pro válku s Ruskem. Fakta, která zde uvádím, lze identifikovat na mapě, kde k skutečným výbuchům došlo, a poté je zaznamenali úředníci, jejichž úkolem bylo splnit právě tento úkol. Vidíte rozdíl mezi těmito dvěma? V jednom případě se děj opírá o spekulace, dohady a psychobláboly; zatímco v druhém je děj spojen se skutečnými událostmi, které se odehrály na místě a byly katalogizovány vyškolenými profesionály v oboru. Ve které verzi událostí máte větší důvěru?

Sečteno a podtrženo: Rusko nezačalo válku na Ukrajině. To je falešný příběh. Odpovědnost leží na ukrajinské armádě a jejích vůdcích v Kyjevě .

NATO EXPANSION

A tady je ještě něco, co je obvykle vyloučeno ze selektivního pokrytí médií. Než Putin poslal své tanky přes hranici na Ukrajinu, odvolal se na článek 51 Organizace spojených národů, který poskytuje právní ospravedlnění vojenské intervence. Samozřejmě, že to Spojené státy udělaly mnohokrát, aby poskytly fíkový list legitimitě svým četným vojenským intervencím. Ale v tomto případě můžete vidět, kde by mohla být takzvaná Responsibility To Protect (R2P) ve skutečnosti ospravedlněna, koneckonců podle většiny odhadů ukrajinská armáda od převratu podporovaného USA před 8 lety zabila přes 14 000 etnických Rusů. Pokud někdy nastala situace, ve které mohla být obranná vojenská operace ospravedlněna, byla to právě tato. Ale to stále plně nevysvětluje, proč Putin použil článek 51 OSN. Za tímto účelem se obracíme na bývalého zbrojního inspektora Scotta Rittera, který to vysvětlil takto:

„Ruský prezident Vladimir Putin s odkazem na článek 51 jako svou pravomoc nařídil to, co nazval „zvláštní vojenskou operací“...

podle článku 51 nemůže být pochyb o oprávněnosti ruského tvrzení, že ruský mluvící obyvatelstvo Donbasu bylo vystaveno brutálnímu osmiletému bombardování, které zabilo tisíce lidí ... Navíc Rusko tvrdí, že má dokumentární důkaz, že ukrajinská armáda se připravovala na masivní vojenskou invazi do Donbasu, kterou předcházela Ruskem vedená „zvláštní vojenská operace“. [Údaje OBSE ukazují nárůst vládního ostřelování oblasti ve dnech před nastěhováním Ruska.]

..Sečteno a podtrženo, Rusko předložilo rozpoznatelný nárok v rámci doktríny předvídatelné kolektivní sebeobrany, kterou původně vymyslely USA a NATO, protože se vztahuje na článek 51, který je založen na skutečnosti, nikoli na fikci.

I když by mohlo být v módě, aby lidé, organizace a vlády na Západě přijali ukvapený závěr, že ruská vojenská intervence představuje svévolné porušení Charty Organizace spojených národů a jako taková představuje nezákonnou útočnou válku, nepohodlný Pravdou je, že ze všech tvrzení týkajících se zákonnosti preempce podle článku 51 Charty Organizace spojených národů má Rusko ospravedlnění pro invazi na Ukrajinu na pevném právním základě. (., Rusko, Ukrajina a válečné právo: Zločin agrese“, Zprávy konsorcia)

Zde je trochu více pozadí z článku zahraničněpolitického analytika Daniala Kovalika:

"Tuto diskuzi je třeba začít tím, že přijmeme skutečnost, že na Ukrajině již probíhala válka po dobu osmi let před ruskou vojenskou invazí v únoru 2022. A tato válka vlády v Kyjevě... si vyžádala životy asi 14 000 lidí." mnoho z nich jsou děti a dalších asi 1,5 milionu vysídlili... Vláda v Kyjevě a zejména její neonacistické prapory podnikly útoky proti těmto národům... právě kvůli jejich etnické příslušnosti. ..

Zatímco Charta OSN zakazuje jednostranné válečné akty, v článku 51 také stanoví, že „nic v této Chartě nenaruší přirozené právo na individuální nebo kolektivní sebeobranu...“ A toto právo na sebeobranu bylo vykládáno jako umožnit zemím reagovat nejen na skutečné ozbrojené útoky, ale také na hrozbu bezprostředního útoku

Ve světle výše uvedeného soudím, že Rusko mělo právo jednat ve vlastní sebeobraně intervencí na Ukrajině, která se stala zástupcem USA a NATO pro útok – nejen na ruská etnika uvnitř Ukrajiny, ale i samotné Rusko. (., Proč je ruská intervence na Ukrajině podle mezinárodního práva legální“, RT )

Informoval tedy někdo ze západních médií o tom, že Putin před zahájením speciální vojenské operace použil článek 51 OSN? Ne, neudělali, protože by to znamenalo přiznání, že Putinova vojenská operace je v souladu s mezinárodním právem. Místo toho média nadále šíří fikci, že „Hitler-Putin se snaží obnovit sovětské impérium“, což je tvrzení, pro které neexistují žádné důkazy. Mějte na paměti, že Putinova operace nezahrnuje svržení cizí vlády za účelem instalace loutky podporované Moskvou, vyzbrojení a výcvik cizí armády, která bude použita jako zástupce v boji proti geopolitickému rivalovi, ani nacpání země státem. nejmodernější zbraně k dosažení vlastních úzkých strategických cílů nebo páčání teroristických činů průmyslové sabotáže (Nord-Stream 2), aby zabránily ekonomické integraci Asie a Evropy. Ne, Putin se do žádné z těchto věcí nezapojil. Ale Washington určitě má, protože Washington není omezen mezinárodním právem. V očích Washingtonu je mezinárodní právo pouhou nepříjemností, nad kterou se přezíravě krčí rameny, kdykoli je vyžadována jednostranná akce. Ale Putin není v takových věcech zdaleka tak kavalír, ve skutečnosti má dlouhou historii hraní podle pravidel, protože věří, že pravidla pomáhají posílit bezpečnost všech. A má pravdu; dělají. A proto se odvolal na článek 51, než vyslal vojáky na pomoc lidem na Donbasu. Cítil, že má morální povinnost poskytnout jim pomoc, ale chtěl, aby jeho činy byly v souladu s mezinárodním právem. Myslíme si, že dosáhl obojího.

Furthermore, we have about 50% of the world's wealth but only 6.3% of its population. This disparity is particularly great as between ourselves and the peoples of Asia. In this situation, we cannot fail to be the object of envy and resentment. Our real task in the coming period is to devise a pattern of relationships which will permit us to maintain this position of disparity without positive detriment to our national security. To do so, we will have to dispense with all sentimentality and day-dreaming; and our attention will have to be concentrated everywhere on our immediate national objectives. We need not deceive ourselves that we can afford today the luxury of altruism and world-benefaction.

Americký imperiální plánovač George Kennan, architekt první studené války, v roce 1948 napsal: „Máme asi 50 % světového bohatství, ale pouze 6,3 % jeho populace“ „Naším skutečným úkolem“ je „udržet tuto disparitu“ @BenjaminNorton

Tady je ještě něco, co v západních médiích nikdy nevidíte. Nikdy nevidíte skutečný text Putinových bezpečnostních požadavků, které byly vzneseny celé 2 měsíce před vypuknutím války. A důvod, proč je nevidíte, je ten, že jeho požadavky byly legitimní, rozumné a nezbytné. Jediné, co Putin chtěl, bylo základní ujištění, že NATO neplánuje umístit své základny, armády a raketové základny na hranici Ruska. Jinými slovy, dělal totéž, co dělají všichni zodpovědní vůdci, aby bránili bezpečnost a ochranu svých vlastních lidí.

Zde je několik kritických úryvků z textu Putinova návrhu pro USA a NATO:

Článek 1

Strany budou spolupracovat na základě zásad nedělitelné, rovné a neomezené bezpečnosti a za tímto účelem:

nebude podnikat akce ani se účastnit nebo podporovat činnosti, které ovlivňují bezpečnost druhé strany; neprovede bezpečnostní opatření přijatá každou stranou jednotlivě nebo v rámci mezinárodní organizace, vojenské aliance nebo koalice , která by mohla ohrozit základní bezpečnostní zájmy druhé strany.

článek 3

Strany nevyužijí území jiných států k přípravě nebo provedení ozbrojeného útoku proti druhé straně nebo k jiným akcím ovlivňujícím základní bezpečnostní zájmy druhé strany.

článek 4

Spojené státy americké se zavazují zabránit dalšímu rozšiřování Severoatlantické aliance na východ a odepřít přistoupení k Alianci státům bývalého Svazu sovětských socialistických republik.

Spojené státy americké nezřizují vojenské základny na území států bývalého Svazu sovětských socialistických republik , které nejsou členy Severoatlantické aliance, nevyužívají jejich infrastrukturu k jakýmkoli vojenským aktivitám ani s nimi nerozvíjejí dvoustrannou vojenskou spolupráci.

článek 5

Strany se zdrží rozmístování svých ozbrojených sil a výzbroje , a to i v rámci mezinárodních organizací, vojenských aliancí nebo koalic, v oblastech , kde by takové nasazení mohlo být druhou stranou vnímáno jako ohrožení své národní bezpečnosti , s výjimkou takové rozmístění na vnitrostátních územích smluvních stran.

Strany se zdrží létání s těžkými bombardéry vybavenými pro jadernou nebo nejadernou výzbroj nebo rozmístování povrchových válečných lodí jakéhokoli typu, a to i v rámci mezinárodních organizací, vojenských aliancí nebo koalic, v oblastech mimo národní vzdušný prostor a národní teritoriální vody, kde mohou útočit na cíle na území druhé strany.

Strany budou udržovat dialog a spolupracovat na zlepšení mechanismů pro předcházení nebezpečným vojenským aktivitám na volném moři a nad ním, včetně dohody o maximální přibližovací vzdálenosti mezi válečnými loděmi a letadly.

článek 6

Strany se zavazují, že nebudou rozmisťovat ze země odpalované rakety středního a kratšího doletu mimo svá národní území , jakož i v oblastech svých národních území, ze kterých mohou takové zbraně útočit na cíle na území státu druhé strany.

článek 7

Strany se zdrží rozmístování jaderných zbraní mimo svá národní území a vrátí tyto zbraně již rozmístěné mimo jejich národní území v době vstupu Smlouvy v platnost na jejich národní území. Strany odstraní veškerou stávající infrastrukturu pro rozmístění jaderných zbraní mimo svá národní území.

Strany nebudou cvičit vojenský a civilní personál z nejaderných zemí v používání jaderných zbraní. Strany nebudou provádět cvičení nebo výcvik pro všeobecné síly, které zahrnují scénáře zahrnující použití jaderných zbraní. ( „Aby měl smysl války“ , Israel Shamir, Unz Review)

Není potřeba génia, aby přišel na to, čeho se Putin obával. Obával se rozšiřování NATO a zejména vzniku nepřátelské vojenské aliance podporované Washingtonem upravenými nacisty okupujícími území na jeho západním křídle. Bylo to od něj nerozumné? Měl přijmout tyto rusofoby podporované USA a dovolit jim umístit své rakety na jeho hranici? Bylo by to prozíravé? Co tedy můžeme vyvodit z Putinova seznamu požadavků?

Za prvé, můžeme odvodit, že se nesnaží rekonstruovat sovětské impérium, jak MSM neúnavně naléhá. Seznam se zaměřuje výhradně na požadavky související s bezpečností, nic jiného.

Zadruhé to dokazuje, že by se válce dalo snadno vyhnout, kdyby Zelenskij jednoduše zachoval status quo a formálně oznámil, že Ukrajina zůstane neutrální. Ve skutečnosti Zelenskij souhlasil s neutralitou při jednáních s Moskvou v březnu, ale Washington zabránil ukrajinskému prezidentovi, aby dohodu dokončil, což znamená, že za pokračující konflikt je z velké části odpovědná Bidenova administrativa. (RT dnes zveřejnila článek, který jasně uvádí, že v březnu bylo dosaženo dohody mezi Ruskem a Ukrajinou, ale dohoda byla úmyslně potlačena USA a Velkou Británií. Washington chtěl válku.)

Za třetí ukazuje, že Putin je rozumný vůdce, jehož požadavky měly být dychtivě přijímány. Bylo od Putina nerozumné žádat, aby „strany se zdržely rozmístování svých ozbrojených sil a... vojenských aliancí... v oblastech, kde by takové rozmístění mohlo být druhou stranou vnímáno jako ohrožení své národní bezpečnosti“? Byl pro něj nerozumný požadavek, aby „strany odstranily veškerou existující infrastrukturu pro rozmístění jaderných zbraní mimo svá národní území“?

Kde přesně jsou „nepřiměřené požadavky“, které prý Putin vznesl?

Žádné nejsou. Putin nevznesl žádné požadavky, které by USA nevznesly, kdyby „bota byla na druhé noze“.

Za čtvrté dokazuje, že válka není bojem za osvobození Ukrajiny nebo demokracii. To je blbost. Je to válka, jejímž cílem je „oslabit“ Rusko a nakonec odstranit Putina od moci. To jsou prvořadé cíle. To znamená, že ukrajinští vojáci neumírají za svou zemi, umírají za elitářským snem rozšířit NATO, rozdrtit Rusko, obklíčit Čínu a prodloužit hegemonii USA o další století. Ukrajina je pouze bitevní pole, na kterém se vede boj o velmoc.

V tomto článku se snažíme uvést několik bodů:

1. Kdo začal válku?

Odpověď – Ukrajina začala válku

2. Byla ruská invaze porušením mezinárodního práva?

Odpověď – Ne, ruská invaze by měla být schválena podle článku 51 OSN

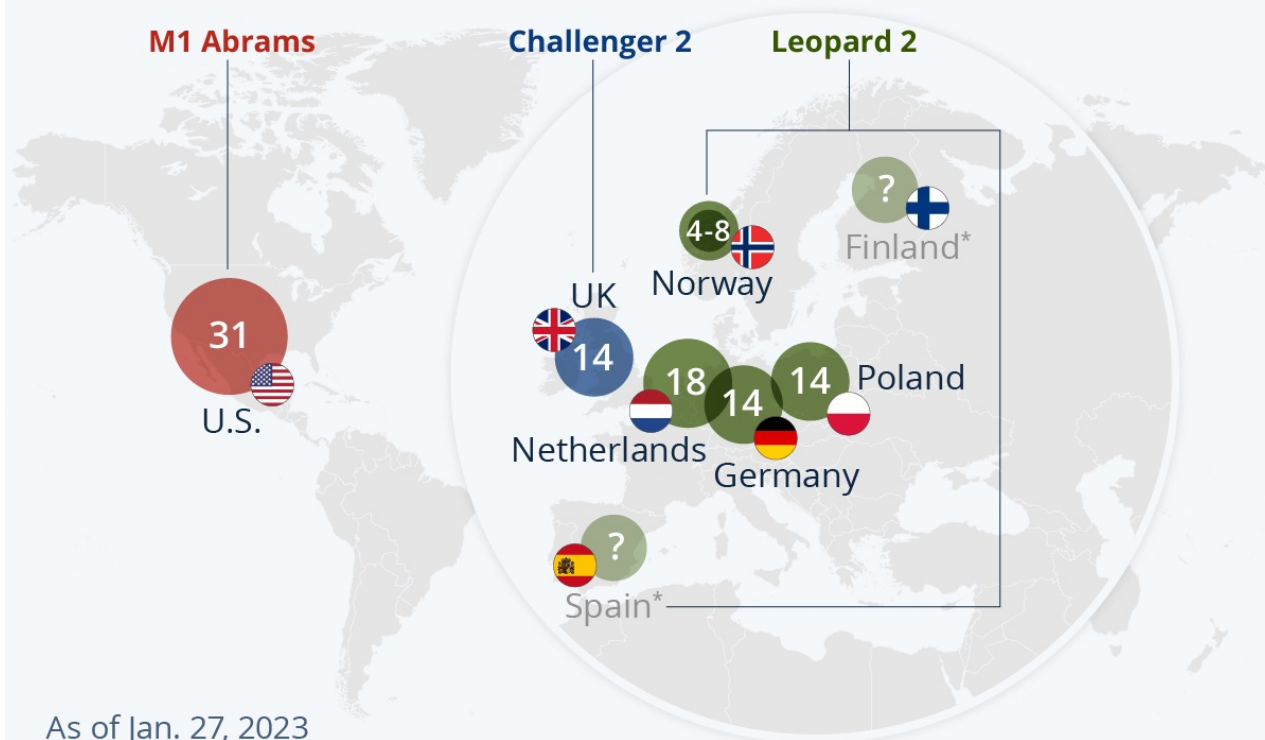

3. Mohlo se válce vyhnout, kdyby Ukrajina vyhlásila neutralitu a splnila Putinovy rozumné požadavky?

Odpověď – Ano, válce se dalo předejít

4. Poslední bod se zabývá Minskou smlouvou a tím, jak nepoctivost západních vůdců ovlivní konečné urovnání na Ukrajině. Jsem přesvědčen, že ani Washington, ani spojenci v NATO nemají ponětí o tom, jak těžce byly mezinárodní vztahy zdecimovány zradou v Minsku. Ve světě, kde lze právně závazné dohody snadno odhodit ve jménu politické výhodnosti, je jediný způsob, jak urovnat spory, pomocí hrubé síly. Přemýšlel o tom někdo v Německu, Francii nebo Washingtonu, než začal jednat? (Nejprve ale něco o Minsku.)

Cílem minské dohody bylo ukončit boje mezi ukrajinskou armádou a etnickými Rusy v oblasti Donbas na Ukrajině. Bylo odpovědností čtyř účastníků smlouvy – Německa, Francie, Ruska a Ukrajiny – zajistit, aby obě strany dodržovaly podmínky dohody. Ale v prosinci bývalá německá kancléřka Angela Merkelová v rozhovoru pro německý časopis řekla, že nikdy nebylo v úmyslu tuto dohodu realizovat, místo toho bylo v plánu využít čas k posílení Ukrajiny, aby se připravila na válku s Rusko. Je tedy zřejmé, že od samého počátku měly Spojené státy v úmyslu vyvolat válku s Ruskem.

5. září 2014 Německo, Francie, Ukrajina a Rusko podepsaly Minsk, ale smlouva selhala a boje byly obnoveny. 12. února 2015 byl podepsán Minsk 2, ale také to selhalo. Podívejte se prosím na tento krátký úsek na You Tube od Amita Sengupty, který poskytuje stručný přehled Minsku a jeho důsledků: (Sám jsem skladbu přepsal a všechny chyby jsou moje.)

(11:40 minut) „V roce 2015 měly Německo a Francie hrát neutrální roli. Měly přimět Ukrajinu a Rusko k dodržování pravidel. Ale neudělali to a důvod, proč to neudělali, je to, co Angela Merkelová odhalila ve svém rozhovoru 7. prosince. Merkelová řekla: „Dohoda z Minsku z roku 2014 byla pokusem dát Ukrajině čas. Dalo to také čas stát se silnějším, jak je dnes vidět. Ukrajina z let 2014 a 2015 není moderní Ukrajinou. V podstatě všichni tři partneři Minské dohody lhali a zradili Rusko.Dokonce i Putin řekl: „Jednoho dne se Rusko bude muset dohodnout s Ukrajinou, ale Německo a Francie zradily Rusko a nyní pomáhají Ukrajině zbraněmi.“... Je ostuda, že se západní političtí vůdci zapojují do jednání, která nedělají. hodlají ctít nebo prosazovat...(Ukrajinský prezident Petro Porošenko přiznal totéž co Merkelová a Hollande)...Teď i Putin uznal, že bylo chybou souhlasit s Minskými dohodami. Dokonce řekl, že problém Donbasu měl být v té době vyřešen silou zbraní. (2015) Rusko čekalo 8 let, než uznalo nezávislost Donbasu, a pak letos zahájilo útok v plném rozsahu. Ale Putin měl tehdy dojem, že Minské dohody– zaručené Německem a Francií a jednomyslně schválené Radou bezpečnosti OSN včetně Spojených států – by vyřešilo krizi a poskytlo by Donbasu autonomii a zároveň by zůstalo součástí Ukrajiny . Německo a Francie se měly postarat o to, aby byly minské dohody realizovány v letech 2015 až 2022. Kolektivní Západ vždy věděl, že jediným řešením je válka. Nikdy nechtěli mír, jen hráli ve jménu Minské dohody . Takže vidíte, je to diplomatická „výhra“ pro západ.....

Francie a Německo usmířily Rusko dohodou z Minsku a daly falešné naděje na mírové urovnání. Ale ve skutečnosti tím získávali čas, aby Ukrajina vybudovala svou armádu. Nikdy neexistovalo diplomatické řešení; kolektivní západ – který zahrnuje Spojené státy, NATO, Evropskou unii a G-7 – oklamal Rusko, aby věřilo, že existuje diplomatické řešení konfliktu na Donbasu (ale) místo toho připravují Ukrajinu na plnohodnotnou válku proti Rusko.Tak či onak, tato válka se měla stát. Nikdy nebylo diplomatické řešení... Toto chtěla sdělit Angela Merkelová: „Studená válka nikdy neskončila“. Byla německou kancléřkou, když v roce 2014 proběhl na Ukrajině převrat a byly podepsány Minské dohody. Proto její příspěvek k této dvojí hře spolu s Německem, Francií, Ukrajinou a USA vedl k této válce. A ona to moc dobře ví. V žádném případě to však neskončí dobře pro Německo nebo Francii, jejichž ekonomiky byly těžce zraněny. Ukrajina byla zcela zničena. Stal se Afghánistánem Evropy. Za vraždu Ukrajiny jsou vinni západní političtí vůdci. Stejně jako od roku 2014 zahajuje ukrajinská vláda kruté vojenské útoky proti rusky mluvícím ukrajinským civilistům v oblasti Donbasu. Tisíce rusky mluvících civilistů byly zabity. Rusko si mělo území vzít zpět v roce 2014 spolu s Krymem. Ale pak se Rusko dostalo do pasti Minské dohody západních zemí. ... Není to Rusko, které začalo tuto válku, jsou to Spojené státy, které tuto válku zahájily. Ukrajina je jen pěšák, který je podporován USA a ostatními evropskými vládami. A je škoda, že ukrajinská vláda slouží zájmům Spojených států a ne ukrajinského lidu. (“ Odhalení Angely Merkelové o Minských dohodách | Válka Rusko Ukrajina “, Amit Sengupta, You Tube)

Neexistuje způsob, jak zveličovat důležitost zrady v Minsku nebo dopad, který bude mít na konečné urovnání na Ukrajině. Když dojde ke ztrátě důvěry, národy mohou zajistit svou bezpečnost pouze hrubou silou. To znamená, že Rusko musí rozšířit svůj perimetr tak daleko, jak je to nutné, aby bylo zajištěno, že zůstane mimo dosah nepřátelské palby. (Putin, Lavrov a Medveděv již naznačili, že to plánují udělat.) Za druhé, nový perimetr musí být trvale opevněn bojovými jednotkami a smrtícími zbraněmi, které jsou udržovány v pohotovosti. Když se smlouvy stanou nástrojem politického oportunistu, musí národy přijmout trvalý válečný stav. Toto je svět, který Merkelová, Hollande, Porošenko a USA vytvořili tím, že se rozhodli použít „základní kámen mezinárodních vztahů“ (Smlouvy) k prosazení svých vlastních úzkých cílů válečného štvání. Jen by nás zajímalo, jestli si někdo ve Washingtonu uvědomuje, jaký fu** udělal?

Další slabý čajový příspěvek Whitney.

Politici vůdci a jejich zajaté armády si mohou v hranicích svých vlastních zemí dělat v podstatě, co chtějí. Podívejte se například na Írán nebo Myanmar.

Rusko nemělo právo vměšovat se do vnitřních záležitostí Ukrajiny, bez ohledu na to, zda někteří obyvatelé mluvili jejich společným jazykem, stejně jako Mexiko nemá právo napadnout TX, NM nebo CA, protože španělsky mluvící lidé nejsou s Gringy spokojeni.

great job of laying the facts out mike, as usual. but the facts no longer matter, as the russians are not here to argue the facts anymore, no more trying to reveal the truth through a shit storm of lies, half truths and endless propaganda. they aren't here to set the record straight, they're here to make they're own facts on the ground and they no longer give a shit what the west thinks or has to say. the time for talk ended last february, and these idiot zioneocons still think russia is fighting ukraine and they can just talk their way out of it, as they always have in the past. they're about to find out that the war is much bigger than they had ever imagined, that the russians had spent the entire eight years improving and building their arsenal in preparation for the inevitable conflict. they are currently running their defense industry 3 shifts a day 7 days a week. their defense industry is not dependant on foreign supply chains and produce almost all of their material needs from within the r.f.

sorry to be the one to have to tell you natonazis, that you're totally fucked and if you still can't understand that now, you will really soon.

Excellent summary of what people ought to know.

| We just wonder if anyone in Washington realizes what the fu** they've done?

Indeed. All this talk about who is winning and why is really just stuff we already know.

The real questions are:

Who can possibly negotiate defeat on behalf of Kiev?

How far does Russia want to go with this (it can go as far as it likes but someone from Kiev, Lvov or Warsaw still needs to give guarantees/acknowledge new Russia red lines)?

Has the US just been plain stupid? Do they know how badly Ukraine is beaten? And was the objective always war with Germany (aka cutting EU off from trade with Russia/Silk Roads/China trading block).

Personally I think this was intended as war with Germany (which US won and Germany very much lost). But US certainly lost the support of everywhere else but GB, EU, Canada ANZ. Even the Saudis have applied to join BRICS.

Well now that sounds great. Especially as that logic would give full justification to Israel slaughtering all its Palestinians.

And, of course, it is not new. The entire history of the Brit WASP empire is built on upon that sense of 'law' – if we do it within our borders to people we claim the right to rule, then it is only our business and you just need to get lost.

Provoking war is the full time business of both Jews and WASPs. Anglo-Zionist Empire is the match made in Hell that Satan was always working towards.

Facts have never mattered to either version of leadership of Anglo-Zionist Empire. The actual operating morality of Anglo-Zionist Empire is Talmudist. And those people do not care a single little bit if every Ukrainian were to get killed in this conflict that was brewed in London and DC over many decades. So the Ukrainians now are like the idiot Poles in the 1920s: they are so stupid they think Anglo-Zionists not only could prevent them from getting destroyed but actually would risk themselves to protect the fools they got to do some of their dirty work.

The West,' which means all nations that have been forced to bow to the Anglo-Zionist Empire, cannot win this war against Russia without nukes. Or else without drafting at least 10 million adult men from across the Anglo-Zionist Empire and training them to die in defeating Russia for the glory of Anglo-Zionism.

| Russia had no right to intrude on internal affairs of Ukraine

The US would never interfere with the internal affairs of another country would they. How many countries, literally thousands of miles away from US borders, have been subjected to coups and invasions by the US since WW2? How many times have they invoked 'defence' as a pretext? If you had deliberately set out to write the most dishonest and hypocritical post possible, then you have succeeded brilliantly.

meamjojo the troll, aka pointy-headed escapee from Barnum Circus in a tiny clown car, said...

Russia had no right to intrude on internal affairs of Ukraine, regardless of if some of the population spoke their shared language, any more than Mexico has a right to invade TX, NM or CA because Spanish speakers are unhappy with the Gringos.

You've got that attempted analogy completely back to front and upside down.

Here, let me fix it for you...

Russia had no right to intrude on internal affairs of Ukraine, regardless of if some of the population spoke their shared language, any more than Amerikka has a right to invade Iraq, Syria or Lybia because the American created, trained, funded and armed head-chopping psychopathic ISIS was trying to turn them all into barbaric wastelands or because Amerikka just didn't like their current governments or had a thieving eye on their oil.

And yet, STRANGELY, that's PRECISELY what Amerikka did in ALL those countries. I guess that kind of gives Russia a FREE PASS to do whatever the Hell it wants to, just like Amerikka!

Except that, UNLIKE Amerikka, which does whatever the Hell it wants to do according to its own BS "rules based order" which it makes up ON THE FLY, Russia DID INDEED have EVERY LAWFUL RIGHT to intervene in Ukraine. The article's author EXPLICITLY pointed this out, presumably so that pointy-headed clowns such as yourself might not overlook this inconvenient fact...

Before Putin sent his tanks across the border into Ukraine, he invoked United Nations Article 51 which provides a legal justification for military intervention.

That's according to the international laws laid down by the United Nations – of course, not something that a pointy-headed clown such as yourself would regard as particularly relevant to your pointy-headed world view, at least not nearly so much as Amerikka's BS "rules based order".

Here's some friendly advice for a pointy-headed clown such as yourself – you just don't have the education to make it as a troll, especially in a pay-per-post gig on a top echelon forum such as this. So climb your pointy-headed arse back into your tiny stolen clown car and head on back to the circus. You'll be much more appreciated there.

Covid was great in separating the wheat from the chaff; and the same holds for the Ukraine war. There are dozens of obvious questions about Covid that the chaff refuses to or cannot address; and the case is the same with the war. Mike raises great points and provides a useful TLDR. Like E. Michael Jones likes to say, the short of it is that NATO is the aggressor here. But like with Covid, reason and facts don't get one far in arguments with the true believers. Both issues quickly reduce to matters of worldview. And it's impossible to argue with someone whose ego and worldview presuppose that Russia is metaphysically evil, the Anglo-American system is eternal and perfect, and "Science" as presented by its prophets is omnipotent.

Mr. Whitney has done a fine job of summarizing events up to the present moment with this essay, but as you state, reality must be made to defer to fantasy.

Russia has been defending other Russians outside its nominal borders from mass murder by NATO. In the process of doing that, it is also dismantling a major threat to the Russian Homeland.

On his youtube broadcast earlier today Brian Berletic (The New Atlas) pointed out that Germany is taking off the mask about its true motives.

CNBC – Germany has announced it is ready to send 14 of its own {Leopard 2} tanks and to allow others to do so, in an U-turn from its previous position.

Politico – Germany to send 88 Leopard I tanks to Ukraine

Mr. Berletic remarked that these numbers are a deliberate message about The Way Things Really Are in this latest attack on Russia. Now a note on Nazi Numerology.

Neo-Nazi code 14 = We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children.

Neo-Nazi code 88 = The letter H is number 8 in the alphabet, or Heil Hitler.

Don't forget Saint Reagan's 1983 invasion of Grenada.

The US government defended its invasion of Grenada as an action to protect American citizens living on the island, including medical students.

Making a military invasion to protect a nation's citizens is OK except when the Russians are doing it. No matter that no American citizens had died in Grenada. And ignore the fact that many thousands of Russians had already been killed in Eastern Ukraine, and Ukraine was preparing to slaughter many more.

Mr. Whitney, thank you for penning this cogent and concise explanation of the events leading up to the war between Russia and Ukraine, a war which was indisputably fomented and orchestrated by the U.S. and its lap pit bull, NATO.

Some time ago I read a quote – possibly attributable to the author, John Derbyshire – to the effect that (and I’m paraphrasing), “In order to love one’s country, it must be lovely.”

What does one do if his country is no longer lovely, but instead is perfidious, mendacious, duplicitous, dangerous and evil? What does one do if the reigns of power in his country have been seized by a small, alien and insular tribe of supremacist psychopaths who fanatically believe that they have a divine right to rule the entire world, which includes the right to exploit, subjugate and exterminate anyone not of their tribe?

When the Bolsheviks seized the reigns of power in Russia in 1917, did the native peoples still believe Russia was “their” country? Similarly, in light of the fact that neo-Bolsheviks have insidiously but thoroughly seized the reigns of power in the U.S., does any natural born American still believe that the U.S. is “their” country? If so, did anyone from the government ever ask you what you thought about inciting a war with Russia that could end in mutually assured destruction? No? Me neither.

“Russia’s justification for invading Ukraine is on solid legal ground.”

The UN Charter prohibits the use of force by any member state against any other state. However, it contains an express exception for self-defense and collective self-defense – where a state subject to an unlawful armed attack by another state requests a third state to come to its defense with force. The exception appears in Article 51, which provides, in relevant part, that “Nothing in this Charter shall impair the inherent right of self-defense or collective self-defense in the case of an armed attack against a Member of the United Nations.”

Two points need to be clarified:

1. Where is the “third state” in the conflict? On February 24, 2022, parts of the Donetsk and Lugansk regions were still part of Ukraine. So, technically, they cannot be a third state requesting collective defense.
2. For the same reason, armed attack occurred against parts of Donetsk and Lugansk regions, not a third state that is a member of the United Nations.
3. Can Article 51 be applied if the above conditions are not met? No, because there was no aggression by a “third state”, it was and is a civil war.

I must confess that I am neophyte at Geopolitical analysis. I feared that Putin was dreaming of rebuilding the Soviet Era Empire..BUT That would had entail going to War with Latvia, Moldova, Rumania, Hungary, Poland, Finland,and reigniting the Serbo/Kosovo wars, etc. Russia/Putin doesnt have the resources economic, military, nor the political (popular) will to embark in such insanity...contrary to the Neocons madness in the USA. Nordstrom I, II were built at the request of the Germans and their capital investments. Could Putin starve the Germans of GAS?, and cut his main source of HARD CASH revenues$$ for the Russian Economy. Alienating, threatening Germany would had meant losing Poland/Sweden/Rumania..etc., and the former Soviet Republics and hence probably WARS on several fronts. I still dont understand why Nordstrom was allowed to proceed and more puzzling the fact that Sweden, Finland could had provided its oil to energize the German industry..at the expense of Russian Gas. I still insist that the wiser route would had been Trumps Peaceful Coexistence USA/Russia. ...after all the “The business of America IS business..” (Coolidge)

The problem I see with Mike's facts is that when you check them, they are not true. OSCE report from February 23 2022 is here

<https://www.osce.org/special-monitoring-mission-to-ukraine/512872>

In Donetsk region, the SMM recorded 528 ceasefire violations, including 345 explosions. In the previous reporting period, it recorded 703 ceasefire violations in the region.

In Luhansk region, the Mission recorded 1,182 ceasefire violations, including 1,075 explosions. In the previous reporting period, it recorded 1,224 ceasefire violations in the region.

So, ceasefire violations had gone down in February, not up as Mike suggests. Then there is a detailed list of ceasefire violations:

<https://www.osce.org/special-monitoring-mission-to-ukraine/512872>

They are recorded by a camera. If the camera is on Ukraine government-controlled area and records a ceasefire violation e.g. resulting in an explosion, this explosion was in the government-controlled area, else the camera would not have recorded it.

Thus, the grenade was shot from the separatist-controlled areas to the government-controlled areas. In the list you find for every violation marked where the camera was (government-controlled) or (non-government-controlled). It seems to me that there were ceasefire violations in this list to both directions and not any special increase of ceasefire violations recorded by cameras in non-government-controlled areas. This time I did not calculate how many violations were to each direction, but I did calculate this at the beginning of the war (you can calculate them if you want), and my conclusion was that there were more ceasefire violations coming from non-government controlled areas to government controlled areas. So, this argument is simply false.

About NATO enlargening, the issue is that former Eastern Block countries all wanted to join NATO as soon as possible. NATO did not need to persuade them to join. They all were afraid of Russia. It is the right of an independent nation to try to secure its area against external threats. Russia was for some reason seen as a threat by these countries. Possibly they thought that Russia might invade some neighboring country. Not necessarily so impossible idea, as Russia did invade Georgia and later Ukraine.

Important report of hard facts for the records (set straight / Mike “Witness”)

An only add on could be that the “OSCE” is unfriendly and even outright hostile to Russia and Slavlands in general; e.g.:

1. The OSCE handed vehicles – armoured SUVs – to the Jewish controlled regime in Kiev to use as cover at the front (compared with ammunition transports in red-cross marked vehicles).

2. The OSCE excludes its member Russia from meetings and even from full meetings or makes it impossible for the Russian Federation to attend.

3. The officially published OSCE figures are likely to be understated too, because just in its hesitating first response to the above reported Jewkrainian attack on Russians in Russian lands the RF had to use ca. 60.000 shells daily. A single battery “flamethrower” sends two dozens of rockets within a few seconds. Machineguns can have rates of fire of several thousand rounds per minute etc. pp.

To get an idea of OSCE understatements regarding Jewkrainian terror...(and Russia’s counter-terror-op)

Russia's first strike should have been on the main office of the UNs OSCE office, for standing around for 7 years and doing nothing but pass information to Kiev. Why was the OSCE only on the Donbas side for 7 years and not over on the Kiev side? It was rigged and Russia let it stand that way instead of telling Donbas leaders to tell the OSCE to leave and go to the other side. Way too much incompetence for at least 5 years.

The UN Charter of 1945 expressed the position that peoples have the right to self-determination (in Article 1 of Chapter 1) The UN Charter since mutated into a selfpurpose of Jewnighted „Nations“ (re. The UN migration pact to desolve nations – natives) and replace and limit the rights of the sovereign (the native peoples) with fancies like this one:

United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
Article 3

Indigenous peoples have the right to self-determination. By virtue of that right they freely determine their political status and freely pursue their economic, social and cultural development.

https://www.un.org/development/desa/indigenouspeoples/wp-content/uploads/sites/19/2018/11/UNDRIP\_E\_web.pdf

The right principle is of equal rights and self-determination of peoples according to which all peoples have the inalienable right to determine freely and without interference from outside their political status and to pursue their economic, social and cultural development. It can never be decided in Jew York, where Russian diplomats are refused entry etc. Every State has the duty to respect the right right. „Unjust laws are no laws at all“ (St. Augustine). The secessions from Yugoslavia did not matter to the UN „the international community“ aka „global stakeholders“ = International Mafia. (Pepe Escobar too reported about the bullying within the UN).

If it suits, but only if it suits them, the self chosen consider secession to to be legal under two scenarios:

- a) the parent state authorizes the new state to secede (e.g. India's independence from the UK)
- b) the people that wishes to secede has experienced such severe human rights violations at the hands of the parent state that it would be hopeless to expect a return to a peaceful, unified existence. (e.g. this line was taken opportune with Croatia, Bosnia, Montenegro, Kosovo against Belgrad/Yugoslavia and to the severe detriment of Serbia with cutting Serbia off from sea) Following the 2014 US-backed Jewish coup in Kiev, several eastern regions refused to recognize the legitimacy of the criminal Kiev regime. The people of Crimea voted sovereign and overwhelmingly to rejoin Russia. The illegal Kiev regime and the highly criminal G7 regimes refuse to recognize peoples' votes, calling public referendums illegitimate annexations.

The former chief commissioner of the EU, Jew Martin Schulz, publicly stated: „We can not allow the people to vote and decide the future of Europe.“ No, you brazen cuck Jews want to be God and decide who is allowed to live, and if, how.

2014, shortly after the criminal regime change in Kiev and the anti-Russian violence from it, the Donetsk and Lugansk regions' peoples voted and declared independence, which Russia ignored for the time being! Hence Jewkrainian fascists attacked Russians in ancient Russian lands. What the Kiev Jew called an “anti-terrorist operation” was and is factual genocide, hence the forced RUS anti-terror-operation as a “special military operation” to save Russians and others from further genocide. Russia has become a kind of guardian of peace by taking on the warmongers of mankind (Jewmerica, Israhell, Vatica, London & hyena aka lackeys).

What do your JewN articles say about genocide?

What do your JewN articles say about prohibiting the language of the majority of a people?

What do your JewN articles say about prohibiting the culture of a people (like destroying all its books)?

As some-one else said here in earlier threads, public opinion is just a catalyst, and is not the same as public engagement [my addition]. The public is narcotized in passivity, whether the majority watches soccer or listens to Alexander Mercouris for over an hour matters not. This shows the limits of media warfare, a first, factoids as in Ukraine will shape ultimately what the “NYT” can print, what social media can quantify concerning power structures, balances of power. Media going out “Full Pro Wrestling” becomes boring. A reverse trend is starting to emerge. The individuals making the effort to analyze based on facts have little to go to, data are toxic [tweaked and propagated, the masking is done one layer lower, before data are thrown into the public domain, a good example is GDP]

What makes me smirk most is that from Ron Unz [at least he knows why], to Alexander Mercouris [not a clue beyond selling T-shirts], there still is this brain-dead, systemically absurd tendency to feed on toxic media coverage [one worse than unreal factoids], to cite, and blow kisses to convention in personae et libri [Sachs, Greenwald, Bennett, Scholtz, van der Leyen, Rutte, NYT, The Economist, the Vatican, “spokes-women” ...a list including anything and everything that is financed by globalist interests for the minority share-holders/owners of planetary riches], then making arguments to the contrary. Bad faith [Unz on vaxxing and Covid199], plain ignorance [Mercouris on Ukraine]. These are just outstanding examples of the trend.

As a side-note: yes Whitney is a year late [mentioned by another commenter in this same thread]. The vial was then, now the real question is how Ukraine’s riches will be divided up between the few, on all sides, who the robber barons are, ethnicity, convictions, ultimate ambitions. How the public on both “sides” is to think about winning and loosing is a minor, again, the factoids on the ground will be the better data to feed and anticipate future events for outliers searching for seeds in the murk of the public domain.

Year Two of the Ukraine War Is Going to Get Scary

Feb. 5, 2023

By Thomas L. Friedman

As we approach the first anniversary of Russia’s full-scale invasion of Ukraine — and the ferocious Ukrainian response backed by a U.S.-led Western coalition — the following question urgently needs answering: How is it that on Feb. 23, 2022, virtually no one in America was arguing that it was in our core national interest to enter into an indirect war with Russia to stop it from overrunning Ukraine, a country most Americans couldn’t find on a map in 10 tries? And yet now, nearly a year later, polls show solid (though slightly shrinking) American majorities for backing Ukraine with arms and aid, even though this risks a direct conflict with Vladimir Putin’s Russia.

That’s a head-snapping shift in U.S. public opinion. Surely it’s partly explicable by the fact that no U.S. combat forces are in Ukraine, so it feels as if all that we’re risking, for now, is arms and treasure — while the full brunt of the war is borne by Ukrainians.

But there is another explanation, even if it’s one that most Americans might not be able to articulate and many might only reluctantly agree with.

They know at some deep level that the world we live in today is tilted the way it is because of American power. That doesn’t mean we have always used our power wisely, nor could we have succeeded without allies. But to the extent that we have used our power wisely and in concert with our allies, we have built and protected a liberal world order since 1945, which has been hugely in our interest — economically and geopolitically.

This is an order in which autocratic great powers like Nazi Germany, imperial Japan or modern Russia and China are not free to simply devour their neighbors. And this is an order where more democracies than ever have been able to flourish, and where free markets and open trade have lifted more people out of poverty than at any time in the history of the world. It's not always perfect — but in a world where perfect is never on the menu, this order has produced almost 80 years without a Great Power war, the kind of war that can destabilize the whole world.

Straw man as you should know. Putin hasn't spoken of recreating the Soviet Union although apparently lamenting its dissolution as a disaster. He has written bad history in which his wish to do a Peter the Great (and Catherine) is evident. That includes extinguishing a nation he doesn't recognise, and its culture which has been affected by membership of the Western oriented Lithuanian-Polish Commonwealth while Russians were still under the yoke of Mongols.

Tanks are obsolete, by the way. Without an infantry screen they're sitting ducks, and with an infantry screen all that armour is nothing more than a waste of metal and fuel.

Speaking of by the way, it is extremely likely that Ukranian provocations spilled into de jure Russian territory. Putin doesn't mention it only because he doesn't have "official" proof that it was Ukraine. The KGB is fully aware, though.

Thanks for the shelling/firing accounting.

Concerning the desire to join NATO, anything Western, West, your suggestion is true. From the Latin countries, to the Philippines and Siberia, Mozambique to Cuba, Balkans [the easy slip into cutting up Yugoslavia explained] to the Baltics, across the layers in societies (working/welfare/middle/administrations/elites) young and middle-aged individuals were and still are under the ban, would “kill their mother” to get to the West.

Hollywood, Globalist Media, popular culture, arena sports etc. have been working hard and successfully to propagate nihilistic culture. Going on for over a century, this was highly successful. Hitler today would not be able to rally Germans around the values of Lebensraum as then. This is the greatest effort to unify and globalize the world ...based on unsustainable values, even if the ‘out of Africa’ migrations would not have been rebuked.

If the numbers can be trusted, and the media silence is a pointer, over five million Ukrainian territory occupants fled to the West, mostly holed up in Poland, and saw the “war” as the greatest opportunity to get their take on prostitution, welfare, con-Z-umption, arena sports and political fodder first hand. No Russian invasion needed.

There is a hic-up though, the Western riches, the dream-economy was based on plunder of the rest of the world. The trickle down of this plunder allowed for some spoils for the man-meet at the bottom of society, maintain a heavy and sluggish middle class executing sense-less jobs. Is this the case today?

The West is sinking? The first to drown are the bottom rats. There are tell-tale signs, worry not the officers and the captains will find a life-boat, and row if must, to alter shores.

Although it all seems right, as a documentation of facts before the start of the Russian invasion, it must be understood that all resembles window dressing.

The fact is that the Russian leadership was preparing and eager for a much desired reckoning with the Ukrainian leadership. The Jewish comedian and his fascists allies had it coming, barking madly like a small dog hiding behind NATO, in the most dishonourable manner, to its powerful neighbour to the East. Immensely stupid hubris that is causing the destruction of the Ukrainian state.

But sure, go all the way with Article 51 of the UN and Responsibility to Protect, sounds really nice and by all means, push that narrative, always bearing in mind that what really matters is strength, the capacity to destroy the other, the capacity to bring the other to its knees and beg for mercy, while presenting a good façade to onlookers, whom pretend to be impressed by the façade, while actually respecting the strength.

Lyn' Ursula is setting up prosecution of Putin and Lavrov for war crimes under the same Hague processes that declared one its "rules" that Russia had shot down MH17. Meanwhile she is also telling Zelinsky that the rebuilding of Ukraine is starting NOW, and that she is going to use the foreign reserves stolen from Russia to pay for it. She says that there will be a 10th sanction bill on February 24th, their claimed one year anniversary of the war of Nato aggression.

Ursula is also telling us that Putin "will not be allowed" to win.

The Plandemic Psyop has shown very clearly how the media organs can keep a fake narrative floating on a sea of never ending lies. Vaccine mandates are still ongoing despite vaxxed sports stars and celebrities dropping right and left from heart attacks and strokes.

The most brazen lies get repeated over and over and over on one media or social media channel after the next. Ursula is a master of telling lies, as are so many of the leading EU man hating feminist prime ministers and foreign ministers. That all the Euro hypergamous harpies are singing the exact same lies on cue is proof of how the more vulnerable sex have been turned into MKUltra Beta WEF whores.

One of the more revealing turnabouts in the last year has been the gyno-green party pivot. Now they are all war mongers. Sanna, Annalena, Ursula, even Georgi want to see men die on the battlefield.

Ukraine/NATO/USA/west whatever versus Putin.

Putin is the leader of course, but he represents a country that is fully behind him, where as the leaders of the collective west have no such indivisible support and yet we refer to that belligerent party by country or block.

How about we refer to this SMO as the east led by Putin against the west led by whichever discombobulated leader, block or group you choose to name because that is what it is.

The right map has not been updated. NATO members also include North Macedonia, Montenegro and the de facto Nato occupied Serbian province – Kosovo. Bosnia is not a member due to non-acceptance of local Serbs, although Muslims and Croats who control one half of Bosnia would like to join immediately. So, on the map, only the Serbs (Serbia and the Serbian half of Bosnia) are not members of the NATO pact.

@Notsofast

The morally bankrupt West has totally lost its moral compass under the Talmudic influence whose biblical motto has always been “by way of deception thou shall win war”.

When we have Western leaders who decide to break treaties without any reasonable justification, like Trump cancelling the JCPOA or when Merkel and Holland dutifully act like the puppets of the Anglo Zionist empire and use other parties' trust as a means to gain a military or political advantage, then the reality about representative democracy becomes so outlandish that any reasonable person would curse the events that set the stage for the end of European monarchies starting with the much ballyhooed French Revolution. When European Kings used to bound themselves with treaties they took it as a matter of honour to abide by the letter of the treaty. There was a time when the Treaty of Westphalia set the rules that govern the relationship among nations especially when it came to rules of engagement in wars. The much maligned Hitler, tried in vain to reestablish those rules after the tragedies of WWI but his calls fell on deaf ears in the leading nations of Europe. He was vilified the same way that Putin is being vilified even though his demands for a few concessions from Poland were no less reasonable than Putin's demands from Ukraine before the SMO. If Putin comes out on the losing side, he will suffer the same fate as Hitler in a West that takes ruthlessness, treachery and opportunism as a normal way to conduct the business of the state.

Let us not forget that the one leader in Germany, Gerhard Schroeder, who stood for principled policies when he doggedly resisted the American pressure to involve Germany in the second

Golf in 2003 war ended up in the political wilderness. This is the way of the Talmudist West and that is what will spell its collective downfall.

Wars have their own dynamics. Those who start a war count on that fact to fog the issue through propaganda of which party initiated the killing. This article is a welcome reminder of who's actually guilty for the Ukraine disaster. It is an exercise that is worth repeating often during the course of a war so that sight is not lost of who's the true criminal. In every single war since WW2 in which the US has been involved, it is either the US and/or its proxy of the moment that have initiated the killing. Thank you Mr. Whitney.

I did calculate this at the beginning of the war (you can calculate them if you want), and my conclusion was that there were more ceasefire violations coming from non-government controlled areas to government controlled areas. So, this argument is simply false.

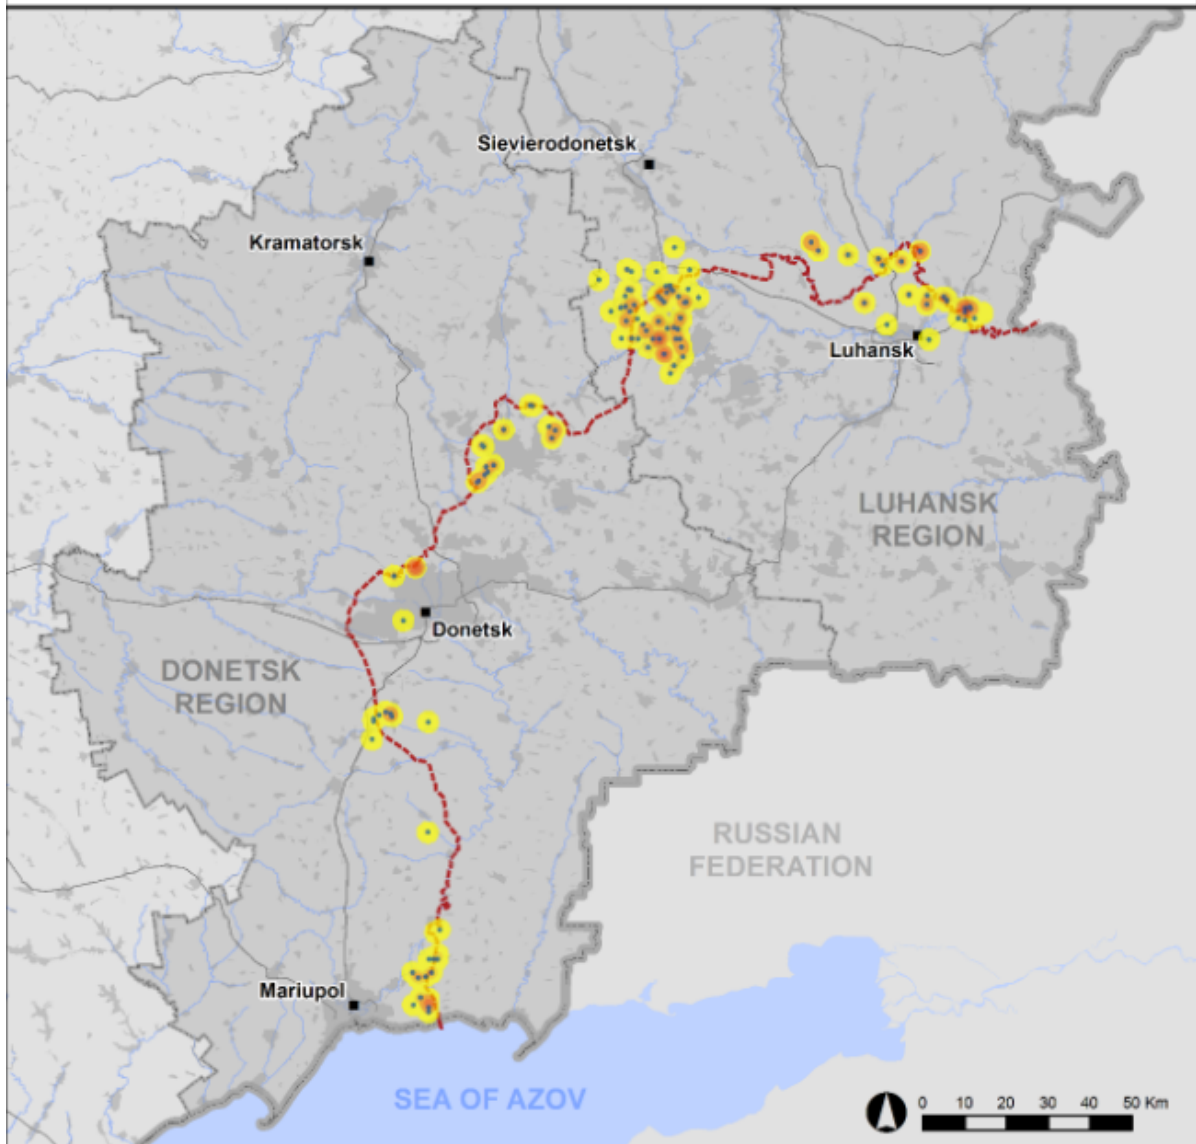

LOL. j2 forgot to mention that Merkel, Hollande and Zellenky already spilled the beans on this: The Minsk negotiations were conducted in bad faith and were fraudulent. Mr. Whitney explains that in this article, but once again j2 cherry picks plausible deniability The Nato war of aggression against Russia began in 2014.

Here are some graphics from the OSCE report that j2 links to that illustrate what a liar j2 is:

Notice above that on 22.2.2022 the number of violations was 10x than a month before

In the map above you can see that all the intense shelling is going on within the separatist areas.

In an event that shadows the discovery of Polish documents detailing Polish provocations of Germany in 1939 (see this recent unz article), Jacques Baud, who is a Swiss Colonel who was working for OSCE, shows how Nato stepped up its shelling of Donbas in February 2022, and he describes the secret Ukrainian government agreements for this action:

Military documents found in Ukrainian headquarters in the south of the country confirm that the Ukraine was preparing to attack the Donbass; and that the firing observed by OSCE observers as early as February 16 heralded an imminent outbreak in days or weeks.

See documents below the more.

Baud also said this:

In 2014, I was at NATO and I observed the Ukrainian crisis from the inside, so to speak. From the outset, it was clear that the situation was being fueled by the West. Videos show that the coup plotters were supported by armed men speaking English with an American accent. The German magazine Der Spiegel mentioned the presence of mercenaries from the firm Academi (formerly Blackwater, of sinister memory in Iraq and Afghanistan). The German Federal Intelligence Service (BND) apparently informed the German government. I informed my diplomatic contacts at the OSCE—but this was soon forgotten.

Unlike European observers, the Atlantic Council, which is very supportive of NATO, was quick to note that the Maidan revolution was hijacked by certain oligarchs and ultra-nationalists. It notes that the reforms promised by Ukraine were not been carried out and that the Western media adhered solely to a “black-and-white” narrative, without any critical insight.

Thus, what Raphaël Glucksmann called a “democratic revolution” was nothing more than a coup de force, carried out without any legal basis, against a government whose election had been qualified by the OSCE as “transparent and honest” and one which “offered an impressive demonstration of democracy.” Subsequently, the democratically elected President Yanukovich was convicted of “high treason” for having defended the constitutional order.

It is obvious that neither Mike Whitney, nor President Putin, have read the text of Article 51 of The United Nations Charter. Article 51 provides for the instance where one United Nations Member State invades another and there has yet been no Security Council Resolution offering collective UN defense of the invaded nation. In this case any and all military aid to the invaded State by any UN Member State, or alliance thereof, including ground troops, or strikes against the invading State, is explicitly authorized. This must cease when a Security Council Resolution supporting the invaded State is approved. Russia vetoed a Security Council Resolution supporting the Ukraine in its defense against the Russian invasion, hence any and all military aid (and other actions including Sanctions or Blockade) is not only legal, but encouraged by Article 51. Russia cannot invoke Article 51 to support its illegal invasion of the Ukraine because not one word of Article 51 supports Russia's actions. Russia is in fact in egregious violation of War Crime Number One under the Hague Conventions: Waging Aggressive War. Russia is also in egregious violation of The United Nations Charter. Mike Whitney's article is an ignorant distortion of the facts and international law. Mike Whitney is in fact a sort of Judas Goat, even a Ray Epps, trying to put into the minds and mouths of the Alt Right support for Russia to frame them so the Alt Right can be destroyed. The idiots of the Alt Right have even been conned into dumb ass fantasies of Russia dropping nukes on The United States, babbling away how they would look forward to such an event. All you that support Russia, that fantasize about Russia killing "hohols" and "Ukies", you who gibber and squeal idiotically about nuking New York are sub-moronic chumps setting yourselves up to be framed as anti-American and then mercilessly crushed.

Kanekoa wrote about Nato shelling of ethnic Russian secessionists in June last year:

OSCE Reports Reveal Ukraine Started Shelling The Donbas Nine Days Before Russia's 'Special Military Operation'

While the western media spent the last year reporting on Russia's troop buildup at the Ukrainian border, they failed to inform the public about Ukraine amassing "half of it's army or 125,000 troops" along the Donbas conflict zone during this same time period.

Ukraine began to reposition its forces along the Donbas as early as March 24, 2021, when Volodymyr Zelensky issued a decree for the recapture of the Crimea, and began to deploy his forces to the south of the country.

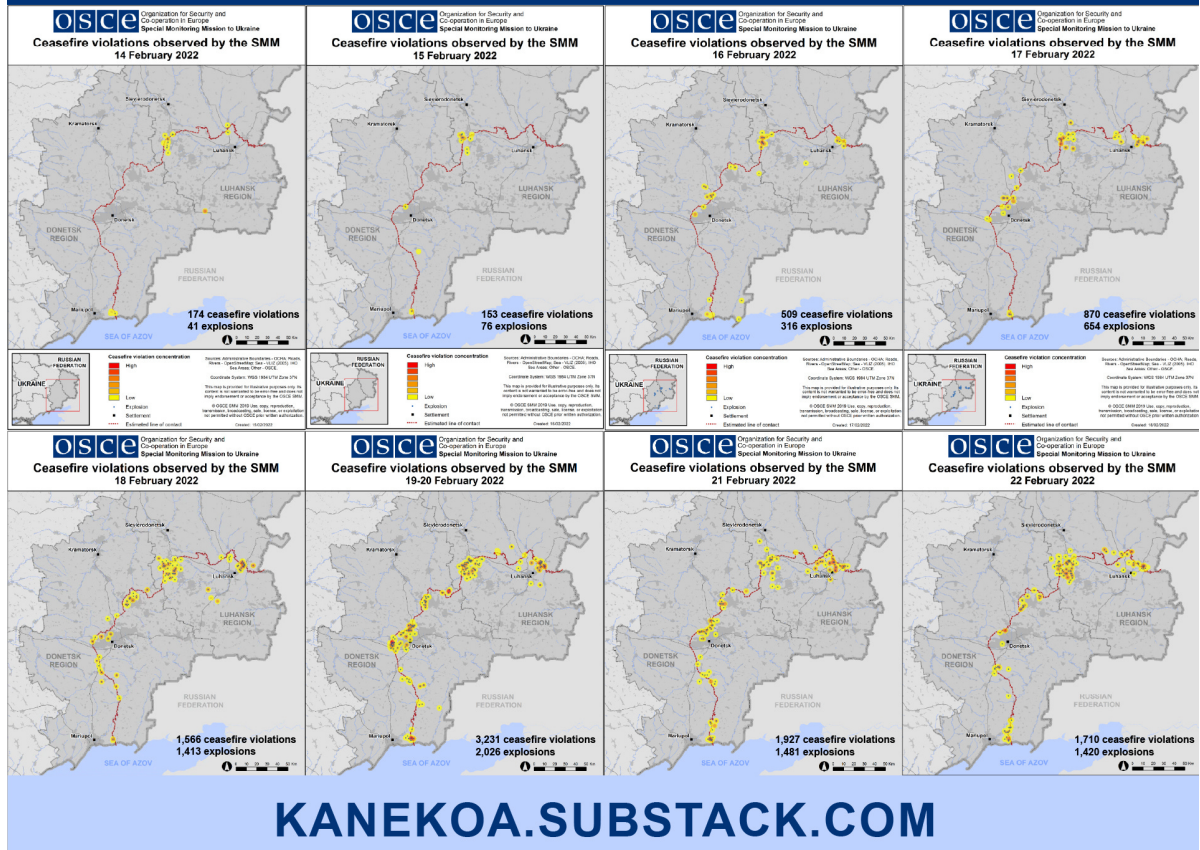

It is unlikely Zelensky would make such an aggressive decree without first receiving the approval of the United States and NATO.

In April 2021, the Ukrainian government publicly announced that they would seek nuclear weapons if they were not issued membership in NATO.

Kanekoa includes more details and more OSCE maps of Nato shelling:

UKRAINE STARTED THE WAR WITH RUSSIA

KANEOA.SUBSTACK.COM

Kanekoa also links to a US News report from Dec 2021:

Russia Says Ukraine Has Deployed Half Its Army to Donbass Conflict Zone

Russia accused Ukraine on Wednesday of deploying half of its army or 125,000 troops to Donbass, a conflict zone in eastern Ukraine, where government forces have been battling Russia-backed separatists since 2014.

Kanekoa also includes several on the ground YT reports of the shelling (below the more)

States have interests, including security interests, and in that context it's clear to reasonable people that Russia's invasion of Ukraine is far more justified than the US was in going half way around the world to attack and destroy Iraq.

But at this point, it's relatively pointless to continue to argue or debate this, since it's just as clear that you are dealing with a great many unreasonable people who, after being inundated with two decades of propaganda demonizing Putin and Russia, which has only grown more intense in recent years, are unthinking, and largely unwilling to even consider the Russian side.

The real issue is the reaction of Western elites, who have countenanced, even promoted, slaughter and destruction in Ukraine rather than acknowledge the security interests of Russia, and engage in any kind of honest dialogue on that basis.

This has not been lost on the Russians, setting the stage for further senseless and practically open-ended hostility and conflict:

This is an excellent analysis and fully outlines the truth. Mike Whitney sums up all aspects. He is a great journalist. However being a great journalist does not mean the truth is being told. And great journalists can superbly produce high quality disinformation with truth nuggets to hide the REAL TRUTH. As has been mentioned many times by others in these posts on Ukraine is that the benevolent human ETs surrounding this planet in their spaceships can and will stop all nukes. These ETs are also offering WORTHY countries complete military protection. Ukraine of course does not qualify (it's a Nazi state). Putin had no choice but to save his people (Ukrainian ethnic Russians) by doing what he did. If NATO push further EAST Russia, Iran and CSTO (with a possible troop number beyond 50 million backed up by thousands of fighter jets, tanks, artillery, missiles, hypersonics, etc) will have the momentum to block NATO. The best course of action is for countries to get benevolent ET military protection, disband their armies, and live in peace.....but the USA guided by negative off world forces in collusion with Neocons are fighting tooth and nail to definitely not allow this.....thus the current world insanity.....but you'll never get this from Mike Whitney, Scott Ritter, Pepe Escobar and other "excellent alt journalists" because hiding the truth in the light of day is a good scam!

“In order to love one’s country, it must be lovely.”

I would venture and ask what does it make a country lovely. Well it is not that hard, basically an honest society and an honest government. Taking Germany as an example, I would say that the German Greens have given such a dubious reputation to a German society known for its honest dealings. As for the German government, especially since Merkel took the reins of power, it has made the Germans so irrelevant in their country that she could open the gates of immigration hell in the name of diversity without any regard to the wishes of the German citizenry.

By reviewing all Western nations, the formula might change somehow with respect to the honesty of society but when it comes to the honesty of Western governments, the result is invariably the same: crooked politicians who play the scripted roles allocated to them by the leaders of the tribe.

You make so many strong points about the sad reality of Western governments, that to believe that the election process would change anything is the zenith of naivety. To gain back control of their lives, Westerners should deal with the root cause of the problem which their “ Unrepresentative Governments”, a hidden form of tyranny that can be overturned only by outright revolution of the mind and the spirit with the objective of pushing the current “Dumbocratic“ system down the dust bin of history and replace it with direct democracy.

I've been pulling for Putin from the first day he started this 'special military operation', and I am taking enormous pleasure and delight in how he is decimating this jewish infested dung heap of a never respectable crap hole of a nation.

But, I am going to be really pissed and disappointed if Putin's Russia winds up winning this war against Ukraine without remembering to drop a nuke on a certain house where the diabolically evil architects of this completely unnecessary conflict conspired to bring it about. And, not all of those architects can use the excuse that they are suffering from dementia and have early signs of cognitive decline and therefore shouldn't be punished for their actions.

Tell us why you believe the ousting of the pro Russian President in 2014 was the work of the US? No doubt because you've read about one partly recorded telephone call between Victoria Nuland and an ambassador and have mindlessly accepted that it is evidence of aUS organised coup. And maybe you've accepted BS about $5 billion being used to buy...??? ... what exactly?. Try talking to someone who was living and working close to the centre of Kyiv at the time. I have and he's the son of an old friend who doesn't tell lies. The Maidan affair was the protest of largely young Ukrainians who wanted the connection to Europe they had been promised.

Zelensky: Ukraine will look more like ‘big Israel’ than Europe in the wake of Russia’s war

“We will become a ‘big Israel’ with its own face,” Zelensky said Tuesday at a briefing for Ukrainian media, Haaretz reported. “We will not be surprised if we have representatives of the armed forces or the national guard in cinemas, supermarkets, and people with weapons. I am confident that the question of security will be issue number one for the next ten years. I am sure of it.”

Armed soldiers are ubiquitous in Israel, where there is a mandatory draft for men and women and where men may do weeks of reserve duty every year into their 40s.

Now we understand what Zelensky meant here. He knew that in the process of completing the genocide and ethnic cleansing of Ukraine, that he would send his Zionist militia press gangs across Ukraine to scrape up any goyim stupid enough to remain.

After that, Zelensky was planning on turning the Pale of Settlement into Pale-stein v2.0.

When Jews who are occupying Palestine (Jew name: Israel) bomb Damascus, are “Palestinians” guilty of war crimes? When Jews who are occupying Ukraine (Jew name: Khazaria) bomb Belgorod, are Ukrainians guilty of war crimes?

I am so glad this article was written because everyone excludes it in recounting the reasons why Russia invaded Ukraine. Not only was Western Ukraine bombing their own people since the Dombas first announced their vote to be autonomous, but the west (the US) under Trump was the first who sent the western Ukrainians javelins to kill their own people. Even Obama didn't do that, and Trump bragged about what he had done – he said, “Obama sent them blankets; I'm sending them javelins.”

When Putin said during this last attack that it was a genocide of their own people, he was spot on. How Trump sent them weapons for western Ukraine to kill their own people, I don't know. What was he thinking? Did he know they were killing their own people? How could he not know?

The west tried to convince people that the Russians were already in Ukraine fighting before the invasion in February, they were not. There was no authorized government soldiers in Ukraine. Any men from Russia inside Ukraine fighting against these attacks were volunteers, and many probably had relatives living in the eastern Ukraine.

But is this not the same exact thing that happened to Hitler? The Poles were killing and committing atrocities against the Germans in Danzig and Bromberg (areas taken from Germany after WWI). That was the reason Hitler went into Poland, and for no other reason. He called it an emergency. It most certainly was an emergency.

“Here are some graphics from the OSCE report that j2 links to that illustrate what a liar j2 is:”

OK, Brosi, I looked at those reports. It seems that on 15 and 16.Feb 2022 separatists increased shelling to government controlled areas and government rebuffed them by increasing shelling in the five day period 18-23. Feb 2022. Whether this was an intention to attack the separatists areas as Russian troops were ready behind the border and the whole world was wondering whether Putin attacks or not, then I would think that as Ukraine had not mobilized, it was not intending to attack soon after 22. Feb 2023. Instead, Putin attacked in 24. Feb 2022. It looks to me that the increased shelling of the separatist areas was a response to the separatist shelling on 15-16. February and not a preparation for an attack by Ukraine, with only the standing army mobilized, against separatist and Russian troops that were ready on the place to attack Ukraine. I mean, it certainly would be strange for Ukraine to plan on an attack on 24.Feb 2022. Do you not agree?

But if we assume that in the start of this war Zelensky, who did not mobilize the Ukraine army, was in a way helped to become the president by Kolomoisky, and was Russia speaking, did want Russia to start the war and Ukraine to lose, then it would make perfect sense that he ordered increased bombing to give Putin an excuse to invade. What do you think? If so, Zelensky wanted Russia to win, but then changed his mind after ending up in a Russian kill list.

When you read the now available documents and history regarding WWII, you see that Churchill and Roosevelt were itching for war, for no apparent better reason other than to have some fun and for the glory of the battle, and they both violated International Law as they proceeded to have their fun and get their glory.

More and more I see the same kind of personality in so many people, people I even come across in my own personal life. They have magnetic personalities, but are wholly narcissistic and self-consumed. They never put their feet in the shoes of the “other guy”. They are wholly self-absorbed, and completely ignore the consequences of their actions as it concerns others, no matter how innocent those others are in their obsessive quest to achieve their own ends. That there is a tendency for people like this to wind up on the political stage is no coincidence. People should know that when there are rulers like this, and chances are, there will be, no one is safe.

In my opinion, Churchill was a definite psychopath. I do not believe Roosevelt reached the level of psychopathy as Churchill, but he certainly ran a close second.

Just shows how Trump in his massive self-regard could believe in taking all sides of every issue and talking them into incoherent death. Remember his “perfect” phone call to Zelensky? The depth of that insanity might be the ultimate symbol of his presidency.

Russia is a UN member, so Putin makes statements as regards UN doctrines; it makes sense he would do so.

That tactic is, however, playing your opponent's "game" by his rules. For a variety of reasons Putin cannot unilaterally walk away from the UN. But the UN's existence, like NATO's, is at least to some degree a cover for crimes the member-states wish to commit. Organizations associated with the UN have done constructive things in the past, i.e. the distribution of potable water. "Humanitarian" efforts are nevertheless basically window-dressing. If the day comes that Russia – and more importantly, China – simply tells the UN to drop dead, then we'll see what difference the UN, with such powerhouses as Rwanda and Botswana, really makes.

“now the real question is how Ukraine’s riches will be divided up”. It is a good question but we know that the USofA has the biggest and most aggressive bankers and multi national corporations so ” we” will get the biggest share. That $100 billion we already expended will be coming back soon along with mucho interest and dividends.

To look on the bright side, about 10 months ago the talk of the town was not who was going to get Ukraine’s riches but it was who was going to get Russia’s riches. Haven’t been hearing any of that talk lately.

Another bright side look is that we know that almost all of the non western world governments are well aware of who is responsible for this unnecessary, dumb, unforgivable war. The world will be a better place when the US monopoly dollar has equal competition. The decline of our monopoly will undoubtedly bring some short term pain but this country is so blessed with size, natural border security, climate, natural resources, and farmland that we will (can) overcome this setback in a few years. Hardest part will be at the ballot box where we need to get rid of the entrenched group.

“What Reuters fails to point out is that the OSCE’s report verifies Lavrov’s version of events while disproving the claims of the Ukrainians. It is the job of a journalist to make the distinction between fact and fiction but, once again, we see how agenda-driven news is not meant to inform but to mislead.”

It’s as if there’s two parallel universes going on. In one—the dominant one in America—when the news reports what a politician or leading military or business figure says, the message must be put through a decoder in order to reveal the truth. It is as though there are two separate co-ordinate systems. What is input to one has to undergo a transformation operation to become intelligible in the other.

Now some people are adept at doing this, think William Jefferson Clinton. Whatever he hears, he can, in the blink of an eye, transform into political speak and do so in a convincing manner. This process is so natural to him that he can’t figure out why people accuse him of dissembling, calling him “Slick Willy” and such. People to whom this comes easy become leading politicians, speech writers, campaign managers, Hollywood moviemakers, public relations people, TV ad-men and the like.

The other class of people have no tolerance for the inefficiency inherent in this process of transformation. It’s not that they are stupid or slow—quite the contrary—they “get it”. But they regard it as a waste of time and effort. They want to deal with the world as it is and not be bothered with verbiage and the troublesome phrase phase transformation involved in functioning effectively in the political world. They need to communicate clearly and unequivocally with their peers and fellow workers. Ambiguity is intolerable nonsense. Every step in phrase transformation is just another opportunity for error and must be purged.

Hence the two parties in America, the divisive split in politics and social mores etc. The two groups speak past one another. One is always trying to sell you something and has the morals of a salesman; they care little and know less about the technical details of what they're selling. The other is trying to accurately locate real things in a logically ordered, coherent co-ordinate system. To render the pitchmen intelligible, the latter find that they must tediously apply a set of transformation operations to everything the pitchmen say.

The pitchmen don't even bother trying to apply transformation equations to what the reality men say. In the first place, they don't care enough to bother and in the second, they lack the IQ to understand the co-ordinate system in which the reality men function.

So it's a one-way street with the reality men complaining about how the pitchmen don't operate in good faith while the pitchmen don't understand the criticism, believing that because they are so adept at transforming every input into a sales pitch that that itself testifies to their operating in good faith.

Fewer than 10 civilians were killed in the shelling of Donbas in each of the 2 years preceding the Special Military Operation, as pointed out by the BBC to Sergei Lavrov (who didn't dispute it). Putin calls this "genocide". Compare that to the tens of thousands dead Putin's invasion has caused. He invades to take care of "neo-nazis" – iow, a gov't that wants nothing more than to be integrated into globohomo EU & NATO. These are Nazis? Putin and Co. apparently believe Ukrainians should be ashamed that there were those among them willing to resist Bolshevism during WWII, when in fact it's something to be proud of.

Also, the 14,000 dead ethnic Russian civilians killed at the hands of Ukrainian forces is mostly Russian propaganda.

Ukraine did nothing to Russia, nor was it a threat. Russia is engaging in aggressive war , which is a war crime. By waging aggressive war, Russia's "security interests" are not served, but denigrated. Putin's problems are entirely self inflicted.

Here's the problem with the theory that Ukraine started the genocide of Eastern Ukraine. The author failed to mention the FACT that the genocide coincided with the invasion of Crimea in 2014!!The consensus opinion is that Russia had no choice but to launch the SMO because Ukraine was killing all of the ethnic Russians in eastern Donbass and other areas. The problem with that theory is that PRIOR to the Russian invasion and ILLEGAL annexation of Crimea in 2014 there was no fighting there.No genocide was taking place The Russian military at minimum actively supported the Russian separatist and more than likely fought side by side of the Separatist. More than likely most of the separatist were imported from Russia to stir the pot good with upheaval and chaos. 14,500 dead but how many were fighting in the war? How many Russians came to fight with the separatist ? WE don't know how or why they died do we? really? I think not. By the way WHY was the Russian army in UKRAINE??

When one considers what the illegitimate Brandon administration and its deep state tentacles have done to its own citizenry within their own sovereign border, what did these rival nation states expect when they refuse anal submission to a one world one gender GlobalHomo agenda?

These despicable parasites in DC allow millions of illegals to invade our cities with impunity while citizenry are forced to take gene altering jabs. They use BLM/Antifa militants to burn loot murder and rape our cities and children, turning them into purple haired gender freaks while a den of thieves from synagogues of Satan reap trillions using endless wars to distract from their genocide war on white culture.

The only salvation coming is either the rise of a Fourth Reich, or nuclear Armageddon.

You are not listening, you are just pushing your talking points. However, some of your points are correct. For example, there have been 12 instances of invoking Article 51 and only 2 have met its provisions.

Putin knows full well that his case is as bad as those 10, but he invokes it anyway and we all know why.

| The people who want to secede have experienced such severe human rights violations

In the spring of 2014, there were no “severe human rights violations.” None. Except for the Ukrainian language bill. But that cannot justify the seizure of administrative buildings and the dissolution of authorities and police. Language problems have to be solved in an orderly way.

| What do your JewN articles say about genocide?

Now you are getting emotional, which shuts off your critical thinking, that should bring to mind thousands of Ukrainian-speaking conscripts and policemen who were only doing their duty, trying to bring order to the chaos they were sworn to do AND stop the stealth invasion by the Russians.

What about the hundreds of Ukrainian-speaking people caught up in the murderous riots? Were they not also “genocided”?

The weeks before Russian SMO started are less relevant than the fact that the war in Donbass started in 2014, not in 2022. It was started by Ukraine.

I know this because in 2014 Ukrainian bomb hit the school I went to in Lugansk. For those who don't know, Lugansk freedom fighters never had any aircraft, so it's 100% certain who dropped that bomb. The same year a Ukrainian shell hit the library where I borrowed books when I was in school. In 2015 I had to evacuate my 89-year old mother from Lugansk because due to Ukrainian shelling her apartment lost power, phone connection, natural gas, and then water.

As we know from recent admissions of Poroshenko, Merkel, and Hollande, Minsk agreements were a deliberate lie on the part of Ukraine, Germany, and France.

So, Russian intervention was 100% justified. If anything, it was late in coming.

How much of a sacrifice would it have been for the US to simply say, out of respect for the security interests of Russia, that Ukraine would not be allowed to become a member of NATO? — how much of a sacrifice would it have been for the EU to say Ukraine would not be offered full membership, but instead it and Russia would both be offered commercial access to the EU under the same, favorable conditions?

I disagree.

Russia was justified in its Article 51 preemption by the threat of NATO expansion alone, just as it was in Georgia in 2008 and the U.S. would have been in the Cuban Missile Crisis. R2P on the other hand is nothing more than a blank check for intervention in other countries internal affairs and has been used by the U.S. as precisely that pretext in the Libyan regime change and dismemberment of Kosovo from Serbia. (And could also be used to invade Tibet, Xinjiang, Hong Kong, or just about any other country where hypocritical interventionists claim “human rights violations.”)

R2P is a can of worms that no one should want opened.

Preemption of genuine threats to national security, on the other hand, is a law of nature that cannot be repealed.

Tell us why you believe the ousting of the pro Russian President in 2014 was the work of the US?...The Maidan affair was the protest of largely young Ukrainians who wanted the connection to Europe they had been promised.

One does not exclude the other. We all know that protests by young Ukrainians, or not so young Ukrainians, or not Ukrainians at all, are very easily dealt with if these protests are not authorized by the Western backers. That could be seen all over the world. Just take a look at the protests in Europe, or in Peru against the latest coup, or anywhere else.

But in Maidan, snipers showed up as well as well-trained militants ready to take on the police. The Western politician were there in great numbers to jump on Maidan as well as to convince Yanukovich not to use force to disperse the protesters, even then Maidan turned violent. That was a well-organized coup, in which stupid young Ukrainians wishing to become “Europeans” played but a minor role.

This has been observed by many:

As to being a neighbour of Russia, let's read the beginning of William G. Bray: Russian frontiers: from Muscovy to Khrushchev, Bobbs-Merrill, 1963, pp 11, 13:

” For five centuries, Russians have been seeking a final frontier which they never find.” This statement by A. L. Kennedy in a lead article in the January, 1947, issue of The Quarterly Review sums up our problem with Russia. ... A brief study of five centuries of Russian history makes it clear that Russia's aggression today follow the same pattern that has guided her every maneuver since approximately 1462 AD. ...This territorial hunger can be compared to the farmer who, when queried as to why he was acquiring so much land, said: „I don't want much land, I just want that which joins my farm.”

That raises a very interesting point that requires some elaboration. So let's see.

The US has interfered in countries far away from its borders in which there have been hardly any Americans living, let alone as a sizable minority, through coups, colour revolutions, election rigging, bullying, bribery, invasion, and has installed puppet governments that carry out its orders.

Surely then the Mexican government has far more right to influence what goes on in the USA. After all Mexico should be considered to be a stakeholder in USA by virtue of the sizable Mexican minority and its past ownership of several states that make up the USA. I think it would only be fair for the Mexican government to have more say in what goes on in USA given that USA has such a large say in what goes on in countries which never belonged to USA and don't have large numbers of Americans living in them.

The UN Charter prohibits the use of force by any member state against any other state.

Your ridiculous pedantic “argument” is fatally flawed on its face because, for one reason, post-coup “Ukraine” is obviously not a legitimate “state” in any meaningful sense. It is nothing more than a lawless territory run by terrorists. And everything that’s happened since the coup proves this point beyond a doubt; e.g., “Ukrainian government” controlled forces mass-murdering civilians; hosting laboratories engaged in illegal biological weapons research and development; attempting to cause a radiological catastrophe; admittedly negotiating treaties in bad faith; etc.

“Ukraine and Georgia had no more sovereign right to join a purely offensive nuclear-armed alliance targeting Russia (which is exactly what NATO became after the dissolution of the Warsaw Pact), than Cuba had to allow nuclear missiles to be installed 90 miles from U.S. territory.”

Cuba had the right as a sovereign state to join into an alliance with the Soviet Union and to place nuclear weapons on its ground. I have not heard anybody disputing this right. Had the USA attacked Cuba when it placed nuclear weapons on its ground, the USA would have invaded a sovereign country and committed a war crime of being the aggressor in a war. But I must have missed that piece of history where the USA invaded Cuba. Or you mean the Bay of Pigs, but Kennedy did call it off, did he not, or do I remember incorrectly. So, it seems that the USA did not finally invade Cuba (but it did put heavy sanctions, I was in Cuba some time ago, sad looking country, very thin horses and hens, apparently they do not enough food, there was a fountain surrounded with a fence so that people who had no water in their houses could not come to take water from fountain. That kind of a country, but that is Communism). So, as the USA did not invade Cuba, how did they get the nukes out? By negotiation with the Soviet Union, not by war. Maybe not the nicest way of negotiation threatening to start a nuclear war, but still. Oh, I remember that Putin did threaten with nuclear war also.

“Preemptive self-defense against genuine threats to national security is a law of nature that cannot be repealed.”

There are very few cases of accepted preemptive attack. One of them is Israel’s Six Days War, but that naturally was a false preemptive attack as Israel knew it would win, and so did the USA. There was no real immediate danger to Israel. Thinking about it, I do not remember a single valid case of preemptive attack. Hitler's Operation Barbarossa for sure is not accepted as one. You think there are laws of nature that have to be followed, but this is not the case. There is a law of nature called blood revenge. Somebody kills your relative, you kill his relative. It is banned. All laws of nature are today banned and replaced by laws and international agreements. But the international law does recognize preemptive attack as legal. But in such a case there must be a realistic and immediate threat from the country where you attack. I cannot see any immediate threat from NATO to Russia. If NATO would like to attack Russia with nukes, Russia would respond with nukes. There are so many nukes that there is no working protection to either side. Oh, I see, a nuclear missile shot from Ukraine would reach Moscow and kill Putin (before the whole world would be destroyed in a nuclear war). This is an immediate threat to the person of Putin. He would die maybe 15 minutes earlier than other people. It would shorten his life more than the life of other people. You mean this? So, because of this 15 minutes you feel that Putin had the right to make a preemptive attack? But I very much doubt that Ukraine would have fired the nuke. For the reason that NATO was not going to take Ukraine as a member and place any nuke there. Boris Johnson especially told to Putin that Ukraine will not join NATO in foreseeable future just the day before Putin invaded Ukraine. (But as Putin did invade Ukraine, now Ukraine will join NATO.) That means, no immediate threat. Russia did not have the right for a preemptive attack.

>What is wrong with free nations joining NATO?

In the theoretical fantasy world of women, manlets, and faggots, nothing — but in the real world where real nations, led by real men, have legitimate security interests and concerns which they feel must be protected, there's a lot wrong with Ukraine joining NATO — it crosses a red line declared many years ago by Russia (link):

Putin's Munich speech: "NATO expansion does not have any relation with the modernization of the Alliance itself, or with ensuring security in Europe. On the contrary, it represents a serious provocation that reduces the level of mutual trust."

Obviously, the Ukraine coup of 2014 was also a massive provocation aimed at Russia.

Russia and Putin watched as NATO aggressively (and needlessly) expanded, in violation of assurances given to Russia after the dissolution of the Soviet Union.

Putin waited 8 long years before recognizing the autonomy of the LPR and the DPR (link); it was clearly a step he did not want to take — he wanted a negotiated settlement, and was willing to accept and maintain the territorial status quo in eastern Ukraine — but instead of acting in good faith, Ukraine and the West cynically used sham Minsk agreements to win time in order to arm Ukraine.

Also, one the last things poor, second world nations of the former Eastern Bloc ought to be doing is spend money modernizing their military to be NATO compatible, benefiting the US military industrial complex.

How much of a sacrifice would it have been?

@AnonfromTN

“The weeks before Russian SMO started are less relevant than the fact that the war in Donbass started in 2014, not in 2022. It was started by Ukraine.

I know this because in 2014 Ukrainian bomb hit the school I went to in Lugansk. For those who don't know, Lugansk freedom fighters never had any aircraft, so it's 100% certain who dropped that bomb. The same year a Ukrainian shell hit the library where I borrowed books when I was in school. In 2015 I had to evacuate my 89-year old mother from Lugansk because due to Ukrainian shelling her apartment lost power, phone connection, natural gas, and then water.”

As you mention Lugansk freedom fighters who did not have airplanes when the bomb hit, this event must have happened after there were Lugansk freedom fighters. These freedom fighters were legally rebels. They had broken the law of the country by rebelling against the state and the army had the duty to suppress their fight.

Yes, Ukraine started a war against separatists, but it had the right and duty to do so as a sovereign state. To rebel against the government is a crime. A rebel is still a citizen of the country and under the law of the country. A citizen is not allowed by the law to take to arms against the government (even if you feel that there was a coup). It is a rebellion and you are a rebel if you do so. It is army's duty to suppress the rebellion.

There is a moral right to rebel against a government that you do not accept, but it is not a legal right. If you do so, then you must accept the fact that the army will come after you. They must, it is their job: protect the country against all external and internal enemies. Rebels are internal enemies. Thus, the one who started the war were the rebels by raising up against the state. By rebelling against the state they made themselves criminals/terrorists. They broke the law.

The moral right gives you the right to try to get independence, but they you also will have to take the cost of it. If you succeed and other countries recognize the rebel state, then you become a sovereign state. But if you fail, you are simply rebels and face punishment. That is the moral right.

Therefore do not complain that a bomb was dropped: you rebelled, so a bomb was dropped. Take it as a natural result of your decision to rebel. Then do not complain but fight for your independence. But you should do it without external help. It is common but not correct that external powers mix into a civil war. A civil war is a war of the people in a country and it should be an internal matter.

But in fact, I strongly suspect that Russia instigated this civil war and if I correctly remember, some green men occupied Crimea. The conflict started from Crimea. There was really no good reason for the civil war. It is entirely silly to make a war if you have to learn Ukrainian as a Russian speaker. We all have to learn many foreign languages, and Ukrainian is very close to Russian, it is easy to learn. You could have negotiated for a decent treatment if you felt that you were poorly treated. But you took to arms and faced the army. That's what would happen if you do so. Try to find a better way than starting a civil war. My advice.

You were in the school, so very young. You did not understand how bad choice your people made by rebelling and ending up in a civil war. But it was a bad choice. You could have simply talked to Ukrainians, I am sure there were also reasonable people there. But Russia wanted to destabilize your country. And now Russia destroys it.

The United Nations is an unnecessary institution and should be disbanded.

Countries should resolve their issues bilaterally or tri-laterally if necessary.

If India and China have unresolved border-issues, they should resolve their disagreements bilaterally or keep them going in perpetuity for mutual benefits!

There is nothing the United Nations can or should do in interfering with other nations' bilateral problems.

The Russian Federation's ongoing military action that began in February of last year was already too late as the Russian Federation should have acted lot sooner, which is my opinion in retrospect.

The United Nations is an obsolete, obtuse and obnoxious institution designed by the United States of America, which has zero relevance in our modern world of hypersonic weapons.

The United Nations' failure to stop Iraq-war — instigated by the U.S.A. and the U.K. — was a proof that the United Nations should have been closed down for good of the entire humanity!

There will remain problems such as in the Korean Peninsula where the D.P.R.K. and the American vassal-state South Korea should eventually re-unite and become only one Korea without any outside political or military interventions.

Hong Kong and Taiwan were never separate countries from the motherland of the People's Republic of China.

Scotland and the Northern Ireland should decide for their own interests without any dictatum from the United Nations.

Our world has a “Muslim problem”; but, the United Nations never addresses Islam as a grave threat to human civilization!

Let Israeli govt. do its job of cleansing our world from Muslim terrorists in British Christian geographical fiction called “Palestine”.

American govt. heavily funds the United Nations with a very high expectation that the United Nations will carry on American government’s supra-national hegemony where the U.N. Security Council is occupied and controlled by 5 countries that have far less population combined than the remainder of the countries on earth have.

Russia's Oil And Gas Revenues Slump 46% Year-Over-Year

By Michael Kern – Feb 03, 2023, 10:30 AM CST

Russia's budget revenues from oil and gas plunged in January by 46% compared to the same month last year due to the sanctions on Russian oil exports, which led to a slump in the price of Russia's flagship crude grade.

Russian budget revenues from energy sales – including taxes and customs revenues – plummeted last month to the lowest level since August 2020, according to data from its finance ministry compiled by Reuters.

Right again, CQ. As soon as Russia began its SMO, all jews of fighting age took the first thing smokin' out of Ukraine.

Tucker Carlson even had a rat-faced Israeli jew on his show during the first few days of the SMO begging for money (I know, shocker!) to help jewish relief organizations evacuate all the jews from Ukraine, even jewish men of fighting age. When Tucker inquired as to how such men were allowed to leave in light of the restrictions imposed by the Zelensky regime, the rat-faced Israeli jew blatantly admitted that jewish relief organizations were able to circumvent those restrictions. By the expression on Tucker's face and the terse nature of his questions, you could tell that he was not too pleased to have been required to allow said rat-faced Israeli jew to make a plea for money on his show.

Remember Agent Orange? Jewess Jewliar Timojewnko, oligarchess, twice prime mistress of Kabal and organizer of Orange Revolution incl. bankruptcy (1998) against the pawns (Russians) of Jewkraine?!

„Containing Russia“, Yuliya Tymoshenko, From Foreign Affairs, May/June 2007 pages 69–82; pay-hurdle:

<https://www.foreignaffairs.com/articles/russia-fsu/2007-05-01/containing-russia>

Back in 2007 the bitch already agitates about „the Russian Janus“ and holds open gates for each and every NGO including one of the worst dickheads from Germany, a lawyer with his org. „David v Goliath“...“advicing“ on how to fuck up society. I even still remember how thanks to her the fashion (incl. Men’s) turned orange with orange jackets, hoodies etc. all over Europe (and Jewmerica?).

From day one – Putin’s speech at the Munich insecurity conference 2005 – it was all the go against everything Russian in Ukraine and westwards. From thereon the JewWest declared war on Russia and everything Russian. „The Maidan“ openly started in September 2013 with open agitation against Russians/Russia. Donbassa is Russia. (How would I know? That is where Merkel went to high-school and learned Russian. That is where my mother’s oldest brother „fell“).

The financing of the so-called “Orange Revolution” in Ukraine was provided and supervised by “Carnegie Endowment”. The “Ukraine” project was headed by America’s former Jewish Secretary of State Madeleine Albright. The goal of this organization is the overthrow of Russia’s champion president and the transfer of Russia’s energy reserves, natural resources, banks and key industries back into the hands of the locusts. That is what it all is about and even started already in the fifties as one can read at pravda.ru

Rudolf Steiner about the enslavement of the German & Russian peoples

Russia had no right to intrude on internal affairs of Ukraine, regardless of if some of the population spoke their shared language, any more than Mexico has a right to invade TX, NM or CA because Spanish speakers are unhappy with the Gringos.

There is a better analogy. Even Americans should understand the following.

Did France have a right to intervene in the American Rebellion of 1765-1791? Yet it did — the French general Lafayette helped the rebels greatly, and the French Navy actually defeated the British Royal Navy in 1781 (Battle of the Chesapeake). I understand that the French were critical to forcing Cornwallis' surrender at Yorktown, shortly after the Battle of the Chesapeake. And I believe that most Americans are happy with France's intervention.

The parallels are nearly exact. The Donetsk and Luhansk Republics were rebelling against the Kiev regime. As Whitney has noted, the regime attempted to punish the rebels. So the two republics asked Russia for help, and Russia obliged.

If George Washington could ask another country for help — and even for direct military intervention, as in the Battle of the Chesapeake — then so could the Donetsk and Luhansk Republics.

<https://beyondhighbrow.com/2023/01/17/video-shows-ukrainians-executing-four-schoolteachers-in-kupyansk-for-collaborating-with-russia/>

Hey everyone. I'd like to spread this video far and wide, hopefully even on Youtube videos or TV. Don't worry, my site's not monetized.

This shows members of a Ukrainian neo-Nazi battalion executing four female schoolteachers in Kupyansk. They continued to teach school under the Russians, so that makes them collaborators! These are all fairly young women, and they have all been identified by other schoolteachers in Kherson who had met them. The women are led up a hill, shot and then roll down into a ditch below. Interestingly, this is exactly the way the Nazis used to execute Jews and others in Ukraine and Eastern Europe. Look at photos from Babi Yar.

In addition, all of the members of a town mayor's family were found in a similar pit at the bottom on a hill in their town, all bound and shot. The mayor had run the humanitarian aid program in town. The executions were blamed in Russians.

After the Ukrainians took back over these towns, they went on a rampage. In Izyum, 1,900 people were taken away with hoods over their heads as collaborators. Many were just simple government employees. Others had run the humanitarian aid programs. This number included 93 schoolteachers. I assume that many if not most or possibly all of those disappeared were executed like these women. A man in Izyum said that there were two dead bodies in front of his house, one in front of each neighbor.

When the Ukrainians came into Izyum, they called the entire population collaborators simply for staying and not leaving when the Russians took over the town. They threatened to kill everyone in the city and they said we can kill any of you at any time. They said only hryvnias would be accepted at the stores, not rubles. Everyone in town had only rubles. They said any attempt to use rubles in a store would result in death. A woman was shot dead for trying to buy something with rubles.

In Kherson, 100 collaborators were murdered and 300 others were taken away and quite possibly also murdered. One of the men to be killed was arrested for the simple crime of having an old Soviet ID from the time he was in the Red Army decades ago. That's all it takes to get a bullet in the head in the land of freedom and democracy, Ukraine!

This is who the West is supporting! Literal Nazis who line up lady schoolteachers, shoot them, and let them fall into mass graves just like their Nazi heroes used to do! These are "Western values." This is "freedom and democracy."

Murdering lady schoolteachers!

1/ You are right, the war was started by both the JEW zelensky and his PUPPET MASTERS (the JEWISH controlled US deep state, NATO and the servile junior partners of the EU. The UK being another JEWISH controlled banana state).

2/ Article is too long. Please shorten as people don't have so much time to read.

3/ I can't believe that some readers buy into the western media lies and porpaganda and keep parroting waht the MSM says 24/7... I suppose these geniuses are quadruple jabbed and wear face diapers alone in their cars waving Ukie flags.

4/ What everybody seems to forget is that all the players in the Ukraine false flag are either freemasons, member of the Davos crime syndicate (eevn Putin was a youg global leader), or other secret societies. China is a totalitarian shithole, the USA a banana republic (confirmed in the 2020 rigged elections).

They all have a plan: agenda 2030, great reset. And what better way to reset the world than permanent war.

What they are doing in Ukraine looks like a very bad George Orwell movie adaptation of 1984:

Three blocs always at war with each others to create a permanent 'state of emergency powers' given to the tyrants. Added to the climate hysteria (another hoax) which follows the 'covid' hysteria (yet another scam).

Will we soon have weeks of hatred like in 1984?

Given the dumbed down level of the moronic hordes glued to their 'smart'phones, social media and TV screens, I fear this is the next step in the global re-engineering agenda.

Basically, the 'war in Ukraine' like the 'war on terror' might just be another false flag to keep us terrorized and compliant while they drive the real agenda in stealth mode.

What is going on in the background? The WHO power grab with their 'pandemic treaty', the invasion of 5G towers and surveillance grid globally despite science clearly warning against 5G huge health issues, most nation still force their populations to wear muzzles in medical facilities, they are preparing the next 'plandemic', the climate hoax used to operate massive transfer of wealth and to transform our world into a gigantic concentration camp (starting with 15mn cities soon.

So while they try to scare us with Ukraine, we are getting screwed at home. The real war is not against Putin, it's against us.

THIS IS WHY, EVERYTIME I SEE A MORON WITH HIS UKIE FLAG I SHOUT: 'WE STAND WITH RUSSIA!'

Sorry for this too long comment.

<https://peterturchin.com/cliodynamica/russias-new-evolutionary-strategy/>

One characteristic feature of this strategy, according to Kofman, is “fail fast and fail cheap.” As an example, an earlier article, The Moscow School of Hard Knocks: Key Pillars of Russian Strategy, describes how Russia rapidly tried four different approaches dealing with the crisis in Eastern Ukraine in 2014, quickly abandoning those that didn’t work. Mark Twain once said, “good judgment is the result of experience, and experience the result of bad judgment.” The essence of an adaptive strategy is to try different things, and then use what works. It’s natural selection in action.[...} Another element of the Russian strategy is using a minimum of force, just enough to get the job done, but no more. Russian involvement in conflicts of both eastern Ukraine and Syria followed this logic: In Ukraine, Moscow sent in regular units to beat the Ukrainian army in decisive battles, then withdrew many of those units. Rapid escalation, with an influx of battalion tactical groups, was followed by rapid de-escalation. ... in Syria, the Russian contingent regularly resizes its air wing and military footprint, introducing specialized units such as sappers or military police and promptly withdrawing those no longer needed. {...] But as Kofman notes, “Moscow is comfortable with failure, preferring for it come fast and cheap so it can improvise the next evolution rather than investing in a failing plan.”

The paradigmic Russian battles such as Stalingrad, and Kursk, were fought and won as battles of defence. No Russian official including the Russian army’s in effect field commander Ukraine ( Surovikin) has spoken of an offensive; his stated intention is to fortify and consolidate the front line of the Ukrainian territory already held by Russia and defend it from Ukrainian offensives.

Everything you mentioned in your post reflects the tragic turmoil in which Ukraine found itself after the “dissolution” of the USSR. We all have our grievances against all those who descended like a pack of vultures on what was left of the empire. But that should not shut our brains off. We should keep asking questions about why it happened and whose fault it was. These are difficult questions, but you can only move forward if you find the right answers.

If you want my take on the causes of the conflict, Ukraine’s problem lies deep in the consciousness of its people who have become too materialistic and shallow, who have substituted substance for appearance, education for indoctrination, and freedom for visa-free travel. I insist that they have consciously allowed themselves to be manipulated, and no one is to be blamed for their choice but themselves. This may be hard to digest, but History is an unforgiving bitch.

I am not familiar with Rudolf Steiner’s ideas, but he seems an interesting character. Thank you for sharing.

Has anyone noticed that Folkvanger and memjojo on here are both Hasbara propagandists who work for International Zionism? While I do not sympathize with the obsessive and conspiratorial antisemitism of many on here, I really can't stand ethnocentric Jews, "Super Jews," and Jewy Jews. They're basically not very assimilated. The less assimilated the Jew is, the better they act and vice versa.

They hate Russia and China and the love Jews and especially Israel and they support US imperialism to the hilt. And both of these Jews are supporting literal Nazis in Ukraine! Literal Nazis!

I'm sad to say that the vast majority of US Jews have this crap ideology, even or especially liberal ones. But that is only because Western Jews are part of the Globohomo-Schlomo West, where extreme and nearly pathological Judeophilia, wild support for the Israeli tumor, and hatred of China and Russia as enemies du jour of Western imperialism. In this sense, most Republicans are also completely aligned with Satanic Globohomo, so this idea that the US Right is going to oppose this world cancer seems dubious.

About 25-30% of US Jews are now substantially anti-Israel, which is an interesting figure. But the less assimilated they are, the more extreme their Zionism, and the big money Jews have bought the US government lock, stock, and barrel at least on this particular issue, which frankly is the only one they care about and can agree on.

Interesting piece overall, learned about new things I had not seen presented earlier.

But in keeping the spirit of “SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT”:

While not contesting the overall point of your article (the illegality of constant attacks/shelling by Ukraines government on its eastern regions) I wonder about these casualty-figures you produce:

Quote 1: “by most estimates, the Ukrainian army has killed over 14,000 ethnic Russians since the US-backed coup 8 years ago.”

Quote 2: (requoted)”claimed the lives of around 14,000 people, many of them children, and displaced around 1.5 million more ... The government in Kiev, and especially its neo-Nazi battalions, carried out attacks against these peoples”

What is the source for these numbers (and why is it not mentioned)?

IF it is this official report from the OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS:

https://ukraine.un.org/sites/default/files/2022-02/Conflict-related%20civilian%20casualties%20as%20of%2031%20December%202021%20%28rev%2027%20January%202022%29%20corr%20EN\_o.pdf

then it is not correctly presented, as far as I can see:

A) The much cited number 14000 (exactly 14200-14400) is actually the TOTAL number of ALL CONFLICT-RELATED DEATHS in Eastern Ukraine during 2014-2022, including 4400

UKRAINIAN GOV.FORCES.

B) Of the remaining ca 9900 on the SEPARATIST side, 6500 were members of ARMED-GROUPS.

C) Of the remaining 3404 CIVILIANS

(1,852 men, 1,072 women, 102 boys, 50 girls, and 30 adults whose sex is unknown)

around 16% were on the side of the UKRAINIAN GOV.

CONTROLLED AREAS and 298 were the passengers – including 80 children- of MALAYSIAN AIRLINES FLIGHT 17 downed by the SEPARATIST side.

Thus around (3106-16%=) 2600 TOTAL CIVILIAN DEATHS 2014-2022 in the Eastern Ukraine areas on the PRO RUSSIAN SIDE is the correct number.

D) Around 90% of all casualties happened in 2014/15 (during the main fighting).

During the years 2019/20/21 the average civilian death toll per year was 26 (!) persons.

Here the reports exact quote/summary:

“Total conflict-related casualties in Ukraine in 2014-(dec.)2021

OHCHR estimates the total number of conflict-related casualties in Ukraine from 14 April 2014 to 31 December 2021 to be 51,000–54,000: 14,200-14,400 killed (at least 3,404 civilians, estimated 4,400 Ukrainian forces, and estimated 6,500 members of armed groups), and 37-39,000 injured (7,000–9,000 civilians, 13,800–14,200 Ukrainian forces and 15,800-16,200 members of armed groups).”

Sorry to maybe nitpick, but I think those numbers are by far bad enough, no need to exaggerate them and accuracy is important.

Cheers.

New Asian contracts to double Russian gas project's revenue – Reuters

Production of liquefied natural gas surged by as much as 10% last year, the operator of Sakhalin-2 says

The Sakhalin-2 liquefied natural gas (LNG) project is expected to generate twice as much revenue in 2023 compared to its earnings before the Ukraine-related sanctions rained down on Russia's energy sector, Reuters reported on Thursday, citing industry analysts.

The boost is attributed to long-term contracts with clients from the Asian region, along with higher global energy prices.

Russian energy revenues soaring – official

Oil and LNG exports surged 15% last year, according to Deputy PM Novak

Russian energy exports grew last year despite Western sanctions, adding billions in revenue to its budget, Deputy Prime Minister Aleksandr Novak said at a government meeting on Monday.

“As for the oil industry, we have a positive result for last year, despite the actions of ‘unfriendly’ countries and sanctions restrictions,” Novak noted.

Overall, Russia's revenue from energy exports in 2022 increased by roughly 28%, or 2.5 trillion rubles ($36.6 billion), from 2021.

The estimate is that the growth in 2023 will be even higher than in 2022.

“If George Washington could ask another country for help — and even for direct military intervention, as in the Battle of the Chesapeake — then so could the Donetsk and Luhansk Republics.”

Great Britain and France were already at war. French support of the colonies were part of an existing confrontation already at play. And even then the French refused aide until the colonies obtained a victory that hinted they could win.

The author’s premise is not well founded. The UN charter is applicable to countries. It is not a mandate in civil conflicts with the rebel party acknowledged as a country. It is not applicable. The UN charter does recognize either of the attempts to break sovereign Ukraine into independent states.

So the foundation the author is attempting to establish does not exist. There is no UN ground for Russia’s invasion and they have reiterated that repeatedly with votes condemning her invasion and doing so without reservation.

The initial shelling by Russia against Ukraine began in 2014, as such constituted a war on Ukraine. Again, undermining any attempt to lay fault on Ukraine. In otherwords, the Russians used the civil conflict as an excuse to soften up Ukraine with artillery bombardments for a full seven years in violation of the UN charter.

Unfortunately for the author, the definition of a nation and its sovereignty simply rejects the claims noted in the first five paragraphs. Not an uncommon ploy by advocates for the invasion.

Increased shelling that might have included areas of civilian populous is not a cause for invasion as apparent from the record, the shelling was a two way affair or three way affair that included shelling by Russians. against one side as opposed to a police action tp prevent both sides in accordance with the OSCE mandate. In other words, Russia by choosing sides violated the very premise of the OSCE.

OSCE: this,

“Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov voiced alarm on Friday over a sharp increase in shelling in eastern Ukraine and accused the OSCE special monitoring mission of glossing over what he said were Ukrainian violations of the peace process....”

is a curious reference, because it apparently indicates that the OSCE did not find the egregious faults that Russia desired. in otherwords, the supposed offence does not measure to the call the Russians hoped would justify their own intervention.

<https://www.oscepa.org/en/documents/election-observation/election-observation-statements/ukraine/statements-25/2393-2014-1-presidential-eng-1/file> in both 2014 and 2020, the elections were generally found to be free and clear of issues that would have prevented a fair election upending Russia’s claims to the contrary.

mission/26690263.html

And the references below make it very clear that while Ukraine opened its borders to the OSCE, the rebels did not and Russia did press them to do so — in otherwords, Russia and the rebels blocked OSCE assessments.

One of the most interesting observations made by the OSCE : is that the annexation of Crimea was the event that created a war environment in Ukraine.

So much for the straight story as posited by the author.

In all aspects when Russia began shelling Ukraine, she initiated a war, but that is without the provoking event of the Crimea annexation.

hmmmm interesting . . .

https://brill.com/view/journals/shrs/31/1-4/article-p121\_121.xml?language=en

It's a strange article that references reports and does not indicate where said reports can be found. As has been the case repeatedly, when supporters of invasion make a reference, upon examination the references does not support the claims. I find it curious that the authors does not note the OSCE's commitment to settle the dispute by the factions involved and Russia repeatedly refuses to abide the process and apparently the goal of a peaceful resolution. Apparently the only solution is her solution as she demands.

I don't hate Russians. but her conduct in this matter is questionable and her invasion unwarranted and unprovoked. and as has been the case a tragedy.

i for one already acknowledge and have done since 2004 or 2005 that Mexico is engaged in low level warfare with the US by way of immigration. i fully agree with such sentiments. And fully agree, that at some point in the future Mexico could make claims of ethnic solidarity to the point of open conflict at some point.

President trump's failure to respond to the Mexican military's/cartel capture and detaining of US military personnel on the US side of the border is but a glimpse of what is ahead.

That event is a tragic precursor to what is ahead if we are not careful. And careful we are not.

“Did France have a right to intervene in the American Rebellion of 1765-1791? Yet it did — the French general Lafayette helped the rebels greatly, and the French Navy actually defeated the British Royal Navy in 1781 (Battle of the Chesapeake). I understand that the French were critical to forcing Cornwallis’ surrender at Yorktown, shortly after the Battle of the Chesapeake. And I believe that most Americans are happy with France’s intervention.”

The French had reservations about supporting a revolution against another monarchy.

However, France was already at war with Great Britain. And she withheld support for the effort until the colonies could put forth a victory that indicated they might win.

but supporting the colonies was a part of an already ongoing conflict between nations – France and Great Britain.

Without the French, especially three notables, there would have been no US.

you bring up an interesting point on putin being treated like hitler. the west fully expected that to happen immediately upon cranking the mighty wurlitzer up to 11 but much to their horror, they weren't able to pull it off and as the smo dragged on, the ridiculous, bs narrative began to falter. the 85% of the world that doesn't watch the hypnotoad media, began cheering for putin and the russians. imo putin can't lose this and they won't be able to follow through with their nefarious plan. to me the question is what will happen to the real losers of this war?

perhaps when german people demand change, schroeder will reemerge as a sane leader that didn't burn his bridges with the russians. if anyone can repair the relations, that have been so purposefully damaged, it would be him and the nordstream pipeline repair might end up being the perfect symbolic reconnection both literally and figuratively for these two great people. this would be a best case scenario but i'm not holding my breath.

Indian oil refiners attempted to switch from dollars to dirhams earlier in 2022, as Russia had requested but failed.

However, the State Bank of India (SBI) can now clear these payments made in Emirati currency, sources told Reuters,

I am please to see that you seem very well inform about legal issues and also about what is happening in real life, so perhaps you can help me on one thing.

How is this Donbass/Ukraine/Russia conflict different with Kosovo/Serbia/NATO conflict?

To me, and I could be wrong, the only difference is that Ukraine FOR SURE and FOR REAL attacked Donbass and Russia is ethnically same with Donbass people.

And this is the most confusing bit for me, Russia seem to have more legal grounds on this than NATO ever had.

And if my memory serves me correctly, NATO did got legal approval on its mission.

So can you please help me understand why Russia does not get legal approval here?

I am very confused.

| You don't say!

Yes I do.

| June 12, 2014. The official announcement of the telephone conversation between Petro Poroshenko and Vladimir Putin is published on the website of the Russian president.

| In this message the Russian authorities for the first time officially named Poroshenko as the president of Ukraine. The report notes that the two sides discussed cooperation. It didn't forget to emphasize that Poroshenko congratulated Putin on Russia Day.

Seriously? To the extent that may or may not be true as stated, so what? How “the Russian authorities” may happen to refer to Poroshenko et al. at some point in time in some particular political/diplomatic context doesn't mean they acknowledge the post-coup “government” of “Ukraine” and its “leaders” as having any legitimacy. And Putin has made it clear that he sees the Ukrainian “government” as having no legitimacy. He publicly described Ukraine as “a colony with a puppet regime.”

This is really good. Russia’s scrupulous insistence on dotting i’s and crossing t’s cemented its international standing as the new sheriff in town. (Along with its unbridgeable missile gap...)

Incidental corrigenda:

“Is the bombardment and slaughter of one’s own people an ‘act of war’?”

No, strictly speaking, it’s a crime against humanity. Ukraine’s failure to protect populations under its control forfeits its sovereignty and makes it subject to pillars 2 and 3 of the Responsibility to Protect: capacity building (and when you’re bombarding civilian populations, it’s a little late for that) or intervention in conformity with the UN Charter.

“The responsibility lies with the Ukrainian Army and their leaders in Kiev.”

Umm, no. In terms of the elements of crimes against humanity or peace, responsibility for the policy and conduct falls on the US government, specifically CIA’s Operations Directorate. CIA DO has their puppet ruler Zelensky under full control by threat of death or torture. Marlowe’s kiddypimpers will need to bone up on the principles below. That will help them understand what’s going on while they sit in the glass booth in Khabarovsk II.

<https://www.icc-cpi.int/sites/default/files/NR/rdonlyres/336923D8-A6AD-40EC-AD7B-45BF9DE73D56/o/ElementsOfCrimesEng.pdf>

“When treaties become vehicles for political opportunism, then nations must accept a permanent state of war.”

Now that NATO made admissions against interest of perfidy and duplicity in breach of jus cogens, legal precedent justifies Russia in use of force as a countermeasure to undeclared war, up to and including nuclear attack. CIA's use of banned biological weapons and threats of nuclear WMD justifies decapitation of the CIA regime right now.

This war won't be permanent. It won't take long to wipe out CIA. We can expect the Government of Russia to continue the strict proportionality of its measures, but that's consistent with lots of dead spooks, and not just cannon fodder.

Crimes against humanity for the Ukrainian puppets constitute crimes against peace for the CIA command structure. The international community has been adjuring US command responsibility for a long time, and it has to be imposed for these crimes to sustain the UN Charter. CIA wins if they negate the rule of law with war. CIA has shown that they can't face their status as sneaky little pissant cowards, a mafiya to be wound up. They will have to be destroyed.

Russia's doing us all a favor.

“This shows members of a Ukrainian neo-Nazi battalion”

It doesn't show anything that you claim it purports.

Yes it does. I forget which one, maybe Azov or Kraken. At one the Nazi militias were a full 40% of the Ukrainian army. The video appeared on the page of a member of this militia saying, “This is what collaborators get.” It showed up after Russia left, maybe 10-14 days afterwards while we were getting many reports of executions and disappearances of collaborators all across these Kharkiv towns the Ukrainians took over. You could tell by the foliage that it was after the Russians left.

After it got out in the wild, he changed the text on the video to say “Russians executing Ukrainian civilians” which they have never done even one time in this war. Also the video had been modified and Russian patch was now on the pants of one of the men leading the woman up the hill. It has now been proven that that patch had been Photoshopped on there.

Also the women were identified as schoolteachers who taught when Russia was running the city. Why on Earth would Russia execute Russian language teachers in a city they controlled? Makes no sense.

Also, two of the figures are wearing pants with Ukrainian army camouflage on them.

How many Nazis? So hard to say! Hardcore members and supporters of the Nazi militias? 20% of the Ukrainians, but up to 40% in the West.

However, Ukrainian nationalism itself is simply a Nazi ideology period. So all Ukrainian nationalists are de facto Nazis.

Since 2014, the state has erected statues of, named streets after, and put up huge posters of the heroes of Ukrainian nationalism, who are almost all Nazi collaborators from WW2. The ones from before then in the 1920's are best described as proto-Nazis.

Ukrainian nationalism is a blood and soil ethnic nationalism based on ethnic purity. It despises Russians on a racial basis as "impure Whites contaminated with the blood of 'Asian Huns from the steppes.'" Whereas Western Ukrainian nationalism has seen Western Ukrainians as pure Whites and better yet, pure Aryans or Germanics, though it's not true.

From its beginnings in 1920, Ukrainian nationalism has emphasized Ukraine for (racial) Ukrainians and has targeted and murdered non-Ukrainians in general. There have been pogroms and massacres of Jews, Poles, and Russians. Since 2014, there have been extreme persecutions of Greeks and Hungarians. Recently the Hungarian language was banned and all Hungarian schoolteachers were fired. Nazi militias showed up in Hungarian villages and put up signs and made videos threatening the Hungarians.

I would say that ~70% of Ukrainians have an extreme hatred of Russians and in some cases, Poles, Greeks, and Hungarians.

Ukrainian nationalism in its new guise is not very anti-Semitic. They don't talk about Jews very much. The worst Nazi militias have Jewish members. One has a rabbi and small synagogue for them to worship. Ukraine is an odd place. Some of these Jews have Nazi symbols tattooed on their bodies. The Ukrainian Jews are literally a bizarre form of "Nazi Jew!" It seems odd but you must understand this bizarre place called Ukraine. In the 1920's, Jews (who denied their Jewishness) led pogroms against Jews that killed 20,000 people.

However, if you substitute “Russians” for every time Nazis said “Jews,” you will have modern Ukrainian nationalism. Nazism said “exterminate the Jews.” Ukrainian Nazism takes out the “Jews” and substitutes “Russians” and says “exterminate the Russians.” A similar type of anti-Russian though not particularly anti-Semitic Nazism is rife in Finland, the Baltics, and among the Belarus opposition. All of the main heroes of the Baltic nationalisms were Nazi collaborators, and there are statues of them everywhere.

So 70% of Ukrainians support a softer form of Ukrainian anti-Russian Nazism. ~20% support the extreme version of Ukrainian anti-Russian Nazism that the Nazi militias peddle.

Nope. This war breaks my heart and I refuse to cheer for photo of dead Ukrainian soldiers. UK military could run out of ammo in single afternoon – ex-commander

“[The Treasury] recognize[s] the threats. They recognize the pressure defense is under from inflation, the nuclear deterrent, stockpiles, and Ukraine. But despite recognizing the threats and the pressure, they say there is no more money,” one source told Sky.

Making matters worse, the government is actually cutting the size of the military from 82,000 to 73,000 troops. London will thus only be “credibly” able to supply a brigade, numbering between 5,000 and 10,000 soldiers plus supporting equipment, to a new NATO force that would normally expect three to six times that number from a major bloc power such as the UK.

Retired General Richard Barrons warned earlier this month in an op-ed that the country's army had been so “hollowed out by spending cuts” that it could run out of ammunition “in a busy afternoon” and was by no means prepared to withstand a “surprise attack.”

No, the video doesn't show what you claim it shows.

“At one the Nazi militias were a full 40% of the Ukrainian army“

Citations are definitively required here for that assertion.

“Yes, but I'm not anti-Jewish”

This group causes most, if not all, of the world's problems. So I've been told by the unz commentariat.

“and neither are the Ukrainian Nazis.”

Neo Nazis are steadfast anti-Jewish. You are creating an entirely new version of Nazis. That simply makes no sense.

“However, Ukrainian nationalism itself is simply a Nazi ideology period. So all Ukrainian nationalists are de facto Nazis“

Says who? Do you hold absolute truth here? Again, you're going to have prove this assertion with citations. Merely making the claim does not mean it's automatically accurate or factual.

“I want the Ukrainians to come to their senses and surrender”

They are a free people. They have agency. They have every right to defend their territory from invasion. To surrender would mean they would be subjugated. You are over-exaggerating this “menace”. It's called gaslighting.

| why Russia does not get legal approval here?

Putin has interfered in the internal affairs/civil war conflict between parts of the Donetsk and Lugansk regions AND the state of Ukraine without any internationally recognized legal grounds to do so.

His covert military operations in 2014-2022 can only be defined as “sponsoring terrorism”. Putin is directly responsible for thousands of civilian deaths, including women and children, of both Russian and Ukrainian ethnicity.

Because by the above actions Putin has disqualified himself as an impartial “third state” that intends to bring peace and conciliation, his current military involvement in the Ukraine conflict is to be qualified as aggression.

National Socialism can mean two different discrete things.

1, Antisemitism

2, Drang Nach Osten with a side of Lebensraum

Therefore:

1. In 1941 All the kikes in the World lived in Poland and Ukraine. Germany rolled in and the locals executed them. The Big cities became Jew Free.

2. In 1941 Germany sought living space to colonize. The Russians were in the way living on the productive real estate.

Today the Ukies and Poles expect to drive east and establish colonies on top of Moscow and St Petersburg. There are so few Jews occupying these lands now that only the Russians are the targets. Germany may or may not support this new Eastern Drive.

“and neither are the Ukrainian Nazis.”

Neo Nazis are steadfast anti-Jewish. You are creating an entirely new version of Nazis. That simply makes no sense.

National Socialism or racist fascism can unfold in any group. There is a big Nazi underground in Mongolia. They want to some sort of “pure Mongolian state.” Fascism need not be racist. Mussolini wasn’t. But if it is racist, it’s “Nazism”: racist, blood and soil, Volkisch, racial purity-based ethnic ultranationalism.

Symbols and words mean whatever people who use them say that they mean. Nothing has a hard and fast meaning and the meanings of words change all the time. A word itself is little more than a “tag” you stick on some object. The tag is not the object. Check out Heidegger.

I’m not sure if you realize that Nazis had a differnt goals:

1. Jewish exterminationism.
2. Gay exterminationism.
3. Mental and physical defective exterminationism.
4. Gypsy exterminationism.
5. Soviet, Russian, or Slavic exterminationism.

Generalplan Ost was an exterminationist plan for Slavs, especially those in Russia.

The East European Nazis just don’t care about Jews anymore for some reason. Hell, they have Jewish MEMBERS of these Nazi battalions! These are of the Jewish Ukrainian Russophobic Nazi variety.

The Nazism in this part of the world tends now to be focused on Russians (as Hitler was). This is the part they are borrowing from. A lot of them hate Gypsies too. And Ukrainian Nazis have exterminationist attitudes towards Hungarians, Poles, and Greeks too. It's "kill all the non-Ukrainians to create the racially pure Ukrainian state."

The Nazis in Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, and Finland (all of these are basically Nazi countries) are associated with the nationalism in each nation. The Nazis freed them from the Soviets. Nazism in these countries means "kill the Russians so we can be free and independent."

It is a huge puzzle how the founder of the private military company “Wagner” Yevgeny Prigozhin – a man with no formal military education – created the best assault army in the world. It has recently been incorporated into the Armed Forces of Russia and even has its own front-line bombers (Su-24).

Prigozhin flew on one of them – in the role of navigator. And, right after landing, he challenged the President of Ukraine, Vladimir Zelensky, to a duel.

But what!

Because he addressed Zelensky with the following words:

“Come on, Vladimir Zelensky, let you and I solve everything in heaven. I am ready to board the MiG-29 tomorrow. So, if you’re ready, we’ll meet in heaven.”

He even offered him: “If you win, Bakhmut is yours. If not, we will go to the Dnieper”.

Maybe Zelensky can fly with ‘The Ghost of Kiev’ for this dogfight??

He really seems to have the best interests for his own people in mind. But on the other hand, Covid measures and vaccines machinations were just as brutal in Russia as they were in the West. And Russians are about to be subjected to digital currency, China style government imposed social control, AI and digital passports as much as we are in the West. Putin chooses the company of the likes of Hermann Gref (Sber-bank) and is acquainted with the WEF-entourage. Let's not pin the golden aura of sainthood on him just yet.

How Russia Is Surviving the Tightening Grip on Its Oil Revenue

Europe's and America's gradual restrictions on Russian oil trade are raising stakes in a protracted economic standoff that is reshaping the global energy market.

Feb. 7, 2023, 12:00 a.m. ET

Shunned by the West, Russia was able last year to redirect its potent oil exports to Asia, marshal a fleet of tankers unencumbered by Western penalties and adapt evasion schemes perfected previously by its allies Iran and Venezuela.

The strategy worked: President Vladimir V. Putin not only retained but also increased money from energy exports, according to official data, and may have brought in more cash, collected in the shadows of the oil trade, that could be helping the war effort.

But it's not clear if Russia can keep outmaneuvering efforts to throttle oil revenue. There are signs that Western controls that took effect in December — an embargo on most sales to Europe, and the Group of 7 nations' price cap on Russian crude sold to other nations — are beginning to have a deep impact on energy earnings.

And another round of sanctions to slash Russia's war chest began on Sunday, when the European Union's embargo on Russian diesel, gasoline and other refined oil products took effect. Like the crude oil sanctions, it is accompanied by Group of 7 price caps on Russian diesel and other oil products sold elsewhere.

Jews have been hammering us for decades with the message that the Holofraud was not only the planets greatest crimes, but the greatest crime in the history of history.

Now you claim the Russia's defence of the people of Donbas who are the victims of an active genocide is the "War Crime Number One". You are an Anti-Semite.

seems to me you did not read..Mike Whitney's explanation edited to make my point.

” Russia had a right to act in its own self-defense. [It did so] by intervening in Ukraine [because Ukraine] .. had become a proxy [provocateur] of the US and NATO ..[the provocateur physically] .. assault[ed] – not only ..Russian ethnics within Ukraine – but also .. [Russians in] Russia itself.” (See “Why Russia’s intervention in Ukraine is legal under international law”, RT)”

We are not talking about right to invade protected space, we are talking duty to defend protected space and how provocation gives rise to the duty of self defense. Sovereignty is protected space. The right not to be invaded is conditioned on the duty of those in the protected space not to provoke would be invaders.

I think the question is different from Russia’s legal right to intervene? A national sovereign has a duty to act to preserve its self interest [defense=self-defense]. How much pain or harm is necessary before a national sovereign is justified to act to defend itself against a provocateur? IMO protecting the Russian speaking people still residing in former Russian Ukraine, is a sovereign national self interest of Russia, particularly so, since Ukraine was once part of Russia.

I think, had the provocations been limited to negotiation failures, breaches of agreements, refusals to negotiate, verbally threats, and the like, Russia may not have had sufficient justification to intervene. The question is not right to intervene, but proof that the assaulted sovereign [Russia] suffered actual physical damage, actual harm or viable threats of physical damage or harm from a qualified provocateur(Ukraine).

A provocateur can assault a person by calling the assaulted person many names, without providing the assaulted person justification to strike the provocateur, but the provocateur crosses the safe-from -physical-reprisal line when the provocateur shoots at the assaulted person, draws and aims a loaded gun at the assaulted person; at that point, the assaulted person has a self-preserving duty [right or no right] to defend himself. When the duty to defend is invoked, the defense of self-defense applies. Self defense excuses the infringement of a right. Self defense protects the infringement of rights..

The assaulted sovereign SHOULD BE ABLE TO assert the defense of self-defense to answer charges the assaulted sovereign had no right to intervene. IANAL. It will be interesting to see what happens.

I would have left this site long ago, but I get all the time comments with direct questions, like this time from you. I answer direct questions.

So, to your direct question: for many years I did not read the Unz Review, because already at that time it was getting bad. But today it is one of the few places where one can follow crude pro-Russian propaganda, which is an important part of this war. Therefore if someone (like me) wants to follow this war, and does not read Russian (as I do not, only studied the language for one year), this is a good place to check what Russian propaganda is.

But that does not mean that the Unz Review is good, the articles and comments are really bad nowadays, and Russian propaganda is very crude (but one must still follow what it is to know their way of propaganda, i.e., the crude and smart propaganda mixture. You see the smart propaganda in IMF now announcing how Russian GDP will be doing very well, which most probably is not true, that is where you find the smart Russian propaganda and then you ask who put it there).

Hope this answers your question. Sometimes one has to do shit things, like follow a shit site.

1. Ukraine is not a sovereign nation. Since declaring “sovereignty” in 1992, the UN is waiting for the required paperwork to declare them, as you say, a free nation. One thing required is delineated borders and treaties or agreements with EVERY bordering country agreeing to said boundaries. The Ukraine has yet to furnish said agreements. They’ve been in a border dispute with Poland FOR DECADES and they’ll never get an agreement with Russia until those eastern Russian speaking areas are allowed (as voted 98% in a free referendum) to rejoin Russia. So if they aren’t according to INTERNATIONAL LAW a sovereign nation, then why do you call them a “nation”???
2. What’s wrong with a free nation like Cuba being allowed to put Russian missiles on their land after having been invaded by America????

@AnonfromTN

“The founders of the US were legally rebels. So what?”

Yes. They fought a war for independence, won it, and become a sovereign country. But I never heard that any Americans claimed that the British started the independence war of the USA. The rebels started that war by raising arms against the British Empire.

But this separatist says that the war between Ukraine and Luhansk was started by Ukraine bombing a school in Luhansk when the Luhansk freedom fighters already were established and in an armed opposition to the state. Surely this war was also started by rebels, Luhansk freedom fighters, taking to arms against the state. Because that is against the law, like shooting a policeman is against the law. You do it, then the police shoots at you. You should not blame them for shooting to kill you, they do so, they have the right and duty to do so. You do not have the right to shoot them. Not all people are equal: police has more rights, in general, the state has more rights than you and gives some of its rights to people wearing uniforms. You do not, for instance, own a piece of land in the sense that you could declare your land to be your own kingdom, and you do not have the right to join the land you own to another country. You own the land, but it always stays as a part of the country. You only have limited rights as a citizen, the state have more rights than you. And you do not have the right to oppose the police or to rebel against the state.

You start a rebellion or an independence war, then the military is ordered to suppress your efforts, and there are civilian casualties in a war, so many of your civilians will die. You should expect that if you raise an armed rebellion against the state.

Colonel McGregor:

Zaluzhny secretly informed the US about the loss of 257 thousand soldiers of the Armed Forces of Ukraine

05.02.2023

Law enforcement agencies

During a visit to the United States, the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine (AFU) Valery Zaluzhny secretly told US military leaders how many fighters Ukraine had lost since the beginning of the conflict. This was stated by former Pentagon adviser Colonel Douglas McGregor on his YouTube channel.

According to the officer, Zaluzhny met in America with Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin and General Mark Milley. And, according to sources, secretly reported to them that since the beginning of hostilities, Ukraine has lost 257 thousand people.

Earlier, retired US Marine Corps intelligence officer Scott Ritter said that Washington is aware of the inevitability of Ukraine's defeat and has already begun preparing for such a scenario inside the country.

It is not only what Nato did to Serbia that is so hypocritical, but also Libya and Syria. As I recall the SAA (Syriam Arab Army) operation against “ISIS” was devastated by an combined attack of US/UK/Denmark/Australia F16’s at Deir Ezzor in 2016. Later the US just occupied the entire territory and now is stealing the oil.

There are so many violations of UN Charter, international agreements and treaties that it is pointless to even start.

This “Rules Based Order” is in essence Crowley’s “Do What Thou Wilt” applied to global politics. Of course Jews have no problem with this because to them this translates into “Kill All the Best Goyim”, and they have been calling all the shots for centuries.

For idiots from Finland like j2, joining Nato is equivalent of selling your soul to some secret masonic lodge. There is no “rule of law” that will stop the US from coercing Nato members into “cooperating” in their war crimes. There is no way to exit Nato. Turkey cannot even get the US to evacuate Incirlik AFB.

Nordstrom is a perfect example. Denmark, Poland, Germany, Estonia, Latvia and Estonia are all Nato members on the Baltic sea. They all know that the US/UK, Nato members, committed an act of terrorism against the infrastructure of a Nato member, yet all of Nato are afraid to object. Nato is an alliance of vassals. Nato is the Rothschild’s army, or the army of ZOG.

@Decoy

Thanks for your validation. My answer is this: territorial thinking in geo-politics has changed. Or call it nation state thinking [Russia, US, China]. Borders and territories are a hybrid, a dynamically shifting hybrid concept.

Secondly, there is no such thing as a US citizen, there was not, for decades now, except for the subject part [undergoing the consequences] there is no second row [voting] agency on policy making. Then policy making has become a globalized field of variables.

My point: when nationalists/isolationists would momentarily control Washington policies, their intentions would be botched from the outside. Drones would sneak in, resources would become smuggle ware, media influencing from exo-territories would not stop. In short, porous borders, and a mindset of “all or everything” sadly is no longer a choice, but a necessity.

The actors in this world have their physical presence as a burden, their most pertinent concern is multiple shelters, in case of good [to influence over any territorial border lines, across societies], in the case of bad, to hide their sorry asses, and sneaking in and out unseen. The US, Washington c-o-u-l-d become an empty hull, a spent shell without any qualms but opportunistic thinking of the few.

I laud your optimism.

@Folkvangr

I must say, now I'm even more confused since you DO NOT address the issue I pointed out AT ALL.

Lets remind ourselves quickly what happened in Kosovo/Serbia/NATO conflict

Ethnic Albanians in highly corrupt Kosovo decided to rebel against abrogation of the province's constitutional autonomy ending up to KLA making armed uprising. Serbia responded with special police and army. Western media/official narrative provided us with customary one eyed view of things portraying Serbians as a villain and Albanians as a victim, but in reality no good guys here. But thats another story. We are dealing with internal affairs/civil war thing here, aren't we.

Long story short. Kosovo/Serbia conflict was purely internal affair/civil war, like you put it, but because Albanians requested NATO help it was legal to NATO intervene.

If I remember correctly both regions in Donbass as well requested help from Russia. I can't remember exact date, but it was some time between 16.2.2022 and 23.2.2022. And based on this request Russia intervened.

So I ask again: WHY RUSSIA DOES NOT GET LEGAL APPROVAL HERE?

What is so confusing to me is that we now seem to follow "One set of rules for me and another set of rules you" principle, which seems to me some type of Banana Republic moral. Am I correct? Is that what we are for nowadays? Or am I missing something here?

About those Putins covert military actions you mention. I have heard a lot about them as well, but perhaps they were so covert that I haven't come across any evidence of them.

You know. I must admit that I am somewhat weak in issues of faith, and therefore for me it is not enough that someone is able to produce the words of accusations in their mouth. I need evidence to form my opinion.

But since you seem to know so much about horrible effects of these covert actions and all, I'm sure you can help me and point me to somewhere from where I can find some evidence of them.

I am not any expert on international treaties, but I searched in google for the Ukraine borders United Nations and immediately found a treaty defining the border between Russia and Ukraine in the UN signed in 2004:

Treaty between Ukraine and the Russian Federation on the Ukrainian-Russian State border

<https://treaties.un.org/Pages/showDetails.aspx?objid=08000002803fe18a> it looks like this treaty defines land borders as they were in 2004.

“By what measure in International Law is Ukraine a “sovereign” nation?”

I will still answer this. In 1991 Ukraine declared itself as an independent nation by Ukraine Sovereignty Declaration. After making such a declaration all that is needed to be recognized as a sovereign nation is to have the acceptance of it by other countries. Ukraine has diplomatic relations with 182 of the 193 countries in the UN. Having diplomatic relations implies that the country is recognized as a sovereign nation. Thus, Ukraine is a sovereign nation in exactly the same measure as any other country (including Russia) is a sovereign nation.

Hah! Each person has to weigh the credibility of sources.

The Russian combat successes seem to be in line with the regular Russian military briefings which seemed to have legitimate numbers. I think the Russian KIA number is low for reasons they seemed up front about at times. That is, they did not count mercenaries and the Donetsk volunteers, so I think the total KIA is at least twice as high. The amount of reserve manpower may be accurate in the sense these are troops in the system who have done a hitch and are legally available as reserves.

I did not know they had taken out 300 Ukrainian fixed-wing aircraft, so I wonder if that includes aircraft chased out of theater as well as downed ones.

The Ukrainian numbers are hard to sort out since they have been caught in blatant exaggerations so many times. Nonetheless, the Dutch guys comparing online evidence clearly demonstrated serious Russian losses. I think the list shows that.

I would like to know how many aircraft sorties each side currently flies per day.

“did not go to the UN”

Correct they leaned heavily on the OSCE and when the OSCE did not give them the answers they wanted they bad mouthed the OSCE and did not cooperate with their observers.

at least the US took their case to the UN in an attempt to get support.

“The UN has been waiting 3 decades for this paperwork and agreed upon borders map. Stop throwing words around like “sovereign” without an understanding of the word as far as the International community is concerned.”

The UN has recognized Ukraine as sovereign since they were accepted as UN members. Furthermore, the Friendship Treaty between Russia and Ukraine included clarifying the borders. And despite repeated entreaties by Ukraine to continue the work of clarifying borders, Russia has failed to do so. That issue does not disqualify either Russia or Ukraine from sovereignty.

Up until the invasion Russia recognized Ukrainian sovereignty. Note: the OSCE has found that while there were issues the elections of 2014 forward have been legitimate. This counters russia’s claims of a lawless country.

@Ville Koskinen

“Long story short. Kosovo/Serbia conflict was purely internal affair/civil war, like you put it, but because Albanians requested NATO help it was legal to NATO intervene.

If I remember correctly both regions in Donbass as well requested help from Russia. I can't remember exact date, but it was some time between 16.2.2022 and 23.2.2022. And based on this request Russia intervened.

So I ask again: WHY RUSSIA DOES NOT GET LEGAL APPROVAL HERE?”

Long story short: NATO did not have legal right to the bombings of Yugoslavia, as many have pointed out since the bombings. In a similar way Russia does not have legal right for the invasion of Ukraine. NATO tries to justify the action as a humanitarian operation, but when Vietnam made a humanitarian operation by invading Red Khmer led Cambodia, Vietnam attack was condemned because Vietnam invaded a sovereign nation. Thus, humanitarian invasions (and bombings) are illegal. Sometimes illegal actions have moral right, but they do not have legal right.

As for for your question why some major powers can do actions that violate international laws and nobody stops them, you can simply look at the mirror: go stop them if you can.

@Wizard of Oz

Bertrand Russel once wrote:

“It is necessary, in regard to any war, to consider, not its paper justification in past agreements, but its real justification in the balance of good which it is to bring to mankind.”

And you, the Wizard of Oz, believe that an UkroZioNazi victory would bring benefit to mankind, along with the victory of NATO/AUKUS backers of the UkroZioNazis, the sole aim of which, and this Ukrainian war is just one of the first steps, is to wreck the BRI New Silk Road initiative that really intends to bring peace, prosperity and development to many nations along the way and at its European destinations.

I suggest you revise and expand the Honourable Bertrand Russell’s “The Ethics of War” for the 21st century. You could set up an international committee of those highbrow high powered intellectuals, lawyers, judges, academics and politicians of your acquaintance. You could even get Ron to publish your learned tome as a free download on the UR website. Many of us look forward to reading it and subjecting it to our constructive criticism. You could then disseminate said work to decision makers at the highest level of the United Nations and governments, academia and militaries throughout the world as well as all relevant NGOs like Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, etc. Your time would be much better spent putting it to this use for the sake of humanity instead of trolling the Unz Review.

I have tried to explain and convey this important aspect as best I can:

1. Has NATO been involved in the internal conflict between Kosovo and Serbia for 8 years by supplying conscripts, tanks, trucks, manpower, snipers, “military advisors” (aka senior army personnel), ammunition, repair personnel?
2. Was NATO directly involved in placing snipers, mortars and machine guns in kindergartens, hospitals, schools so that the rebels could later blame the Ukrainian army for “shooting Russian civilians”?
3. Did NATO officially lie to the UN and deny its direct involvement in the civil war in Ukraine?
4. Did Putin lie about sending Russian troops to Crimea to secure an illegal referendum? (Yes, he bragged about it publicly).

I believe these 4 points are incriminating enough to strip the liar and mobster masquerading as a “president” of any legitimacy in this case.

LOL.

When George Kennan was the US ambassador to Moscow after World War II he began to see how the Soviet Union would not necessarily be an ally for the United States now that Nazi Germany had been defeated. He wrote, “The Kremlin’s neurotic view of world affairs is based on their traditional and instinctive insecurity ... Now evil NATO is going to attack Russia. This is the story... Evil NATO is now in Ukraine and attacking rebel areas ... Russia is deaf to the logic of reason but very sensitive to the logic of power... If there is a tough opponent against them, they leave.” Kennan said it back in the ’40s.

Power is what works with Russia. The Russians are imperialists as are the Americans. But American imperialism is based on the fact that they want to have resources, oil, or whatever. On the other hand, Russian imperialism is based on fear. (Colonel Martti J. Kari)

Putin hasn't spoken of recreating the Soviet Union although apparently lamenting it's dissolution as a disaster

I think Putin's full quote on the former USSR was something along the lines of (I'm paraphrasing slightly): "He who doesn't lament the end of the Soviet Union has no heart – but he who wants it back has no head."

So for a complete context one has to absorb his full quote – not just the seemingly revanchist desire (just like Hitler!) that talking heads in the Western MSM only ever refer to.

@1RW

“The Ukrainian government was overthrown in a violent coup in 2014. Regions that were not supportive of the coup government rebelled. You write a lot but fail to address Anton’s second point.”

It does not change the legal aspects. There was a government approved by the parliament and accepted by other nations. That’s enough from a legal point of view. Many countries in the world have governments full of criminals but they are still legal and recognized you other countries, so that is not an argument that makes rebellion legal.

“What do you do when the people that are in power are actually criminals themselves that simply appointed themselves to office and threatened to kill anyone that says otherwise?”

It does not change the legal situation. Consider living as a citizen in a bloody dictatorship. If you rebel against the government, you are committing a crime and if they catch you, they will punish you. Is that not so? And they can sentence you without breaking their laws, as you do not indeed have the legal right to rebel. But you can have the moral right. The problem with the moral right is that if you win, then you are fine, but if you lose, then you are a criminal. Many peoples, like Americans, have rebelled and had independence wars. They did not have a legal right for it. They only had a moral right (if even that). If they won their independence war, they become sovereign nations, like the USA. If they did not, like the Confederate, they were rebels and put to camps. What can be so difficult in this? Why do you insist that there would be a legal right to rebel? There is no such right.

But in this Ukraine war, as it now goes on, Russia has killed some 30,000 Ukrainian civilians. This has some relevance to whether Russia had the moral right or not.

Consider this: there is a hostage drama with terrorists. You as a helpful by-passer, even a foreigner, go to help the police in this drama by throwing a bomb in the middle of the action killing all hostages and terrorists. Do you expect to get a medal? Or do you expect to be sentenced to jail for killing those hostages. This is because your help was not needed and you did not help, you made the situation worse. If you want to help, you should know how to help. Else, do not interfere. You had no moral right to interfere as you did not know any helpful way.

Russia claims that it came to help the separatists, but is now destroying the country and killing civilians, mainly Russian speaking civilians. That is not a way of helping. If Russia does not know how to help those people, then she should not interfere. So, Russia had no moral right to interfere as she did not know how to help the Russian speaking Ukrainians.

“Please give us an essay on that quandary”

I do not need to write an essay on this. You write the essay and then read it. Maybe you will learn something by writing that text.

One of the particular and peculiar forms of Ukraine Nationalism involves the school curriculum. In Bulgakov's White Guard the Ukie nationalists go out of their way to kill school teachers. The main Ukie villain in white Guard is a former Ukie literature teacher. He liked to burn down schools and churches that have a Russian language connection. So yes, these killings look to be aimed at school teachers.

To a degree that A Gaelic speaking Irishman might find perverse the Ukies do appear to be engaged in enhanced concern over language critique. It is an Enhanced Culture of Critique.

I suppose DumberCommand is referring to the “crime against peace” legal concept which is a different concept than “war crime” and which is n/a in this case for the simple reason that there was no peace against which to commit a crime. For that matter, aggressions against Serbia, Afghanistan, Iraq, Libya and Syria are all blatant instances of crimes against peace.

Otoh, if there ever was a case to which the R2P principle applied then it is the Russian SMO. Moreover, the biolabs and the stockpiling of plutonium by Ukraine with the declared intent to build nukes make it a case of legitimate self-defence.

“I suggest you revise and expand the Honourable Bertrand Russell’s “The Ethics of War” for the 21st century.”

I am afraid Mr Russell would reject your understanding. He would consider the unprovoked act of Russian invasion to be the threat to the peace and more, he would consider russia role in supporting the rebels as an act of war against ukraine.

Consider this, Russia is the only nation demanding who nations can dance with or there will be war. Russia has been the only nation to openly threaten war against others unless they remain somehow neutral. Russia is the only nation threatening nuclear exchange from the outset . . .

clearly you don’t understand Mr. Bertrand Russel’s admonition to the contexts of understanding of warfare. His central theme on the ,matter is to investigate why and Russia’s answers never meet the test to justify war and worse, they even are contradictory.

Actually I am not a White Supremacist.

I actually think your people, the Jews, are a superior form of White person than my people, the Gentiles. Jews simply outcompete Gentiles and this is the cause of much antisemitism. On the other hand I also think a lot of you are first-class A1 pricks.

I also believe that East Asians are superior to my people, the Whites.

But I am proud to support “watercooler” antisemitism, which has a low opinion of Jews of your ilk. Furthermore, “watercooler” antisemitism is simply true; it is what everyone knows about your people, and it’s not even controversial. An example might be that Orthodox Jews are:

1. Rude
2. Tight
3. Don’t like non-Jews

Those are just simple statements of fact. However, what crime do certain Diaspora Jewish civilians commit for the crime of being a-holes? None. Even a parking violation is more validly prosecuted than that. What can you morally do about an a-hole? Nothing except ignore him.

I don’t like the “obsessive and conspiratorial” antisemitism on here, simply because it is false. These people are looking for an easy solution to whatever world problem is out there. Most problems are complex and it is difficult to figure out what is causing what or who is behind what. So people just take “shortcuts.” One of these shortcuts is “The Jews done it!” It’s better than all that hard thinking.

2014: US-NATO STARTED the war in Ukraine, not Russia.

The canadian media remained totally silent, failed to report the horrific massacre of Russian-speaking civilians by US-NATO in Ukraine. MONSTERS, LIARS, MANIPULATORS

At the time, the following was posted by (among others) Susan Lindauer on Facebook

Odessa inhabitants massacred by the US-backed Ukronazis: May 2014, Odessa

How the thugs killed Odessa inhabitants in the Trade Unions House – the details of bloody scenario:

(Warning, graphics)

<https://ersieesist.livejournal.com/813.html>

”People attacked and burned to the bones by the Right Sector thugs

Firefighters only appeared when massive entrance doors were burned through.

The number of killed people can be as high as 300. Most of people, especially children and women, were hashed with axes and clubbed to death with wooden sticks in the basement of the Trade Unions House.”

”From where has the barricade appeared? It was built by the Right Sector thugs in order to lock people trying to save themselves on the above floors.”

”This man was shot in the head. Judging from clearly visible blood puddle, the murderer fired at point-blank so the bullet passed through the skull.”

”Dead woman near the elevator with clothes absent below her waist. Most likely, she was raped, then doused with a flammable mixture and set aflame.”

”The same picture again: burnt heads, hands and shoulders, lower body untouched by fire.”

”The scariest picture. Most likely it is a pregnant woman, who was one of the employees working on holidays, cleaning offices and watering flowers. She was strangled by an electric wire. She tried to resist – one can see discarded flower on the floor.”

”Note: according to one of the main versions of what happened on May 2 in Odessa, the Right Sector thugs performed a false flag operation. They put St. George’s Ribbons (symbols of anti-Maidan federalism supporters) and organized violent provocation against Maidan supporters (i.e. against their own allies), in order to later blame federalism supporters and make them look responsible for death of many people.”

US-NATO started the war in Ukraine, not Russia.

More than 10 000 Russian-speaking people have been killed in Ukraine since 2014, and the massacre continues today thanks to US-NATO and the silence and apathy of the West.

(Video below)

Film by Anne-Laure Bonnel on the massacre of more than 10 000 Russian-speaking civilians in Ukraine since 2014

Russian-speaking civilians in Ukraine were

- forced to live in their basements
- not allowed to speak their mother language (Russian)
- not allowed to work anymore
- their children not allowed to go to school or kindergarten
- elders' pension funds were robbed.

| Surely this war was also started by rebels, Luhansk freedom fighters, taking to arms against the state.

No, it wasn't. There were no "freedom fighters", only citizens protesting a pro-Nazi coup in Kiev. The Kiev junta that came to power as a result of the coup sent the army to Donbass, in violation of the Ukrainian constitution I must add, which prohibits the use of the Army internally. The army fired at the unarmed protesters, and people started arming themselves and organizing the self-defense units. That's how it all started.

Then the junta imposed the economic blockade on Donbass. At this point, Russia had to step in to prevent people from dying from starvation and lack of medications.

| You only have limited rights as a citizen, the state have more rights than you. And you do not have the right to oppose the police or to rebel against the state.

You have the most idiotic notion of the relationship between the people and the state. The power comes from the people, not from the state. The citizens delegate certain function to the government, but the rights of the state are restricted by the constitution and the laws. The state most certainly does not have the right to kill people when they object to something, or to starve them, or deprive them of medical care. Any state that does that commits a crime.

those were Russian language teachers, which offers a good explanation of why they were executed.

What a nice society you are supporting so ardently, the society that kills teachers. Actually, this is quite the tradition with banderites (a.k.a followers of Stepan Bandera, a Ukrainian nationalist, who is now a national hero in Ukraine). They used to kill teachers, doctors in the Western Ukraine after WWII. They were too cowardly to face the Red Army, but to kill civilians was just the thing. Such good people.

Funny how stupid you are. When NATO was formed, in 1949, the Soviets already knew that the USA was actively planning to use its nuclear monopoly to attack the Soviet, had recruited thousands of Nazis and other fascists to its ranks, had NOT 'de-Nazified' West Germany but filled the puppet regime with almost Nazis only (no others existed with administrative experience, after all)had provided sanctuary to the Japanese war criminal Shiro Ishii, and his bio-warfare 'research', had intervened in the Greek civil war on the side of the fascists, and were actively still supporting Ukrainian fascists inside the USSR, part of Operation Aerodynamic etc.

Contrary to your MORONIC definition, Russian 'imperialism' was local and defensive, based on the murder of tens of millions of its people, and US Imperialism is universal and hyper-aggressive and based on loot and narcissistic delusions of a 'divine' mission. Chalk and cheese.

<https://warontherocks.com/2017/02/a-comparative-guide-to-russias-use-of-force-measure-twice-invade-once/>

The Russian approach is the polar opposite of the Weinberger Doctrine {...]

In the Russian view, force must be used cheaply, deniably when necessary, and with emphasis placed on retaining agility, which requires holding the bulk of its forces in reserve[...]

This approach stems from a healthy fear of commitment that could result in overextension, quagmires, and offer opportunities for opponents to counter.

It is said that the vast majority of the troops Russia mobilised are being held back. Are they ever going to be committed to a big push that could annihilate Ukraine's army such as Col Macgregor's keeps predicting?; or any real offensive that does not move at a snail's pace? I begin to doubt it, and whether thoroughly Western military expertise like Macgregors is equipped to understand the criteria behind Kremlin decisions. The Russian mindset is alien to Western thinking.

@Kolya Krassotkin

He spelled out a good foreign policy when he was campaigning in 2016 – i.e. disband NATO; no more wars, etc., but my guess is that he, like all other Presidents, is a prisoner in the White House, being briefed by the deep state every day, and when I say “briefed”, I mean that is where he is getting his “facts.”

He knows that most people in this country do not follow foreign policy – what we are doing to others in foreign countries, so there is less at stake for him with regard to getting votes. He would not be held to the same responsibility as he would with his domestic policy, which touches the citizens of this country personally.

For instance, he assassinated Solemani, a most barbaric act, violating every conceivable international law that exists. Yet, he came out and bragged about it. It sickened me. Yet, because of the media and his bragging about it, everyone “cheered.” Did they know how barbaric an act this was?

And then when that phony chemical attack on Syria happened, he came out 24 hours after it happened, and stood like a stone, and in a monotone voice said, “there can be no dispute that Assad used chemical weapons.” Odd choice of words, I thought at the time, i.e. “there can be no dispute...” Even by him, I thought.

” There is no way that anyone in our government without any presence in that area of Syria where it happened could possibly know the facts in 24 hours. When we shot down that Iraqi plane, and were called before the UN weeks after it happened to explain ourselves, we told the UN that “we need further investigation”, and in that case it was our own actors. There is no way he could know with that kind of certainty that Assad used chemical weapons in 24 hours,

Trump is not the only President doing these things. All of the present and past Presidents are guilty of the same thing. I am beginning to wonder if they are all reading a script laid out for them.

What Trump has said and done during his Presidency as it concerns foreign policy is NOT the Trump of his 2016 campaign.

The Wizz is simply an Austfailing Imperial arse-kisser.

WHATEVER Uncle Satan in Thanatopolis DC says, goes.

Austfailingia may be the most servile and craven Imperial lackey of all, and, in joining the great White, Western, race crusade to destroy China, despite China having done NOTHING to harm us (quite the contrary)we are frog-marching behind our ‘great and powerful friends’ to national suicide.

The USA wins, and China is devastated, and so are we economically and who knows in what manner geopolitically. The far more likely outcome, a US defeat and the implosion of the Fourth Reich, will see complicit satellites like the Anglosphere thugs in VERY poor condition to do anything but hope not to be punished for decades of depredations against the rest of humanity, in our case probably by being invaded by Indonesia, seeking refuge from climate destabilisation. Economic devastation will be certain, but as such a war must go nuclear, and we are ‘target-rich’ with US ‘facilities’, we will probably have even greater problems.

But NOWHERE in the vast deserts of mediocrity in Austfailingian politics, MSM and public life will you find anyone near the seats of power who argues against this insane and wicked self-immolation. A few academics and business figures occasionally demur, but they are swiftly sidelined as ‘appeasers’ to the ‘genocidal’ Chinese regime. That is the milieu, the swamp from which the Wizz slithers.

So you are trying to say that all the MSM (and their stupid followers) was screaming at the top their lungs how illegally NATO was acting like they do now with Russia? All the countries was coming up with all kinds of economic sanctions against all the NATO countries involved, and ruined their own wellbeing in a proses? And on top of that poured all their weapons and ammunition stocks to Serbia? And lets not forget all the Serbian flags we had flying everywhere around us? And in Hague trials was not only Serbian side accused?

Its really hard to find as dishonest commenter as you are. But then again what can you expect from info war operative? Right?

JEW/WASP RULING CLASS OF AMERICAN EMPIRE WANTS TO BOTTLE UP RUSSKIE BEAR IN BLACK SEA

Christopher Caldwell in NY Times(February 7, 2023):

The Russian invasion of Ukraine has to do with a complicated set of post-Cold War historical trends (like America’s striking post-Cold War rise and its more recent relative decline) and economic accidents (like the vicissitudes of fossil fuel prices). But it is also the latest chapter of an ongoing geostrategic story in which the plot has changed little over the centuries: The largest country by area on the planet has no reliable exit into the world. The most reliable route runs through the Black Sea, where it crosses the trade routes that link the civilizations of Asia to the civilizations of Europe. There, or thereabouts, Russian forces clashed with the armies of many Turkish sultans in the 17th and 18th centuries, Lord Palmerston of Britain in the 19th and Hitler in the 20th.

Speaking last week at the 80th anniversary of the Soviet victory over Germany at the battle of Stalingrad, President Vladimir Putin of Russia described the present war as a similar effort. Russians say the war is about preventing the installation of an enemy military stronghold on the Black Sea, strong enough to close off what has for centuries been Russia’s main access to the outside world. Without Ukraine, Russia can be turned into a vassal state. That NATO intends to bring about the subjugation, breakup or even extinction of Russia may be true or false — but it will not sound implausible to a Russian.

In Opinion

“Beyond a certain point, the United States is no longer ‘helping’ or ‘advising’ or ‘supplying’ the Ukrainians,” writes the journalist Christopher Caldwell. “It is replacing Ukraine as Russia’s main battlefield adversary.” <https://t.co/wKtP1ESHmX>

First of all it is an honor that two info war operatives needs to engage simultaneously. Thanks to you and j2 for such respect.

Like I said earlier. I am weak on issues of faith and therefore I need proof to form my opinions. And because of that I asked you to provide some evidence for your accusations. But you conveniently missed that, didn't you.

But then again main guns of the info war operatives lies and aux weapons are all the dirty tricks that sabotage honest conversations.

Funny though. Earlier you called all those accusations of yours as Putins COVERT MILITARY OPERATIONS, but now you are suddenly describing pretty much open war actions. And not just that Putin was actually bragging about it publicly. I guess that is the way that you make such a covert operations that it doesn't even leave any evidence for anyone to find.

ROFL

I must say you are funny puppy. In point number 2 you totally mixed up the two countries. It is the other way around. You were describing Ukrainian Army tactics. LOL

You are obviously a hopeless moron. Kosovo is a province of Serbia where many nationalities live. It is not an Albanian province where only Shiptars/Albanians live. The US and NATO have been preparing for that intervention and the breakup of Yugoslavia for decades because they had already been planning an attack on Russia since the WWII, and the bombing of Serbia was a demonstrative exercise. Shiptars/Albanians were a mafia and a terrorist group according to the classification of the US themselves, but immediately after the beginning of the bombing of Serbia, they were declared a liberation movement. US has been supporting Shiptarian separatism for decades and arming them. She did the same with Muslims in Bosnia and Croats.

Since you are following the losses on the Ukrainian front, here is an update for January:

‘In the first month of this year alone, Ukrainian losses amounted to more than 6,500 military personnel, 26 aircraft, seven helicopters, 208 unmanned aerial vehicles, 341 tanks and other armored combat vehicles, and 40 combat vehicles with multiple launch rocket systems.’

The fact that Ukraine is in a kind of living mud is no longer hidden even by the New York Times. In the latest report, he stated that the Ukrainian army is suffering heavy losses and that all the morgues near the fronts are “full of dead bodies”. NYT pointed out that the corridors of Ukrainian hospitals are also “clogged with stretchers with wounded” that are “continuously brought in” by ambulances.

Hi, I’m like you. I’m with Russia and against these horrible Banderites.

Good God they’re monsters. It’s little discussed but the Ukrainian version of Nazism (“kill the Russians” and maybe even “Ukraine for Ukrainians, kill everyone else”) has long had very deep ties to European paganism and in particular the occult.

That’s correct, quite a few Ukrainian nationalists literally worship the Devil! It’s particular to this certain type of Nazism that has developed there. Nazism was not one philosophy but it took different forms in different places in accordance with the objective sociopolitical features of that land, it’s traditions, etc.

In addition, the Jews in Ukraine are what I would call some of the worst Jews on Earth. They’re even worse than Russian Jews, and that’s pretty bad.

You're doubling down here.

There is a neo Nazis group in Ukraine. They are fighting to preserve their homeland from a foreign invasion. It is a small contingent.

The rest of the Ukrainian population are NOT Nazis nor Neo Nazis. They too are fighting against an incursion. They are nationalist, as in they seek self determination. They need not meet Russian demands.

You are co-opting Nazism to justify Russian hegemony.

The front was very thinly held over most of its length until at least October. And in that time only one significant mechanized penetration occurred I think in September north west of Iziium which precipitated the Kharkov collapse.

I don't think armored concentrations/penetrations in this battlespace can succeed without very strong CAS suppressing this era's antitank technology. And that is apparently not happening because the same battlespace is saturated with Manpads.

Doubling or even tripling the number of Russians on the line creates twice the number of new problems as any it solves.

Mearsheimer pays very helpful attention to force-to-space ratios in Conventional Deterrence. Thanks for the tip.

Now defenses on both sides are beefed up and deeper and the Russians seem to be implementing much better dispersion and concealment of resources but it is tough to tell.

At first stuff like the BMP Terminator look like they could be game changers, but on 550 rpm full-auto the 30mm Autocannon is frightening but only 55 seconds of fire before needing a reload. And I'm not 100% convinced this wasn't a training video.

I'm wondering when the CIA/NSA is going to call the offensive... or if they are going to call it like they did a year ago.

Are the Russians actually capable of making a wide enough and deep enough penetration to turn flanks and keep it supplied and fueled for more than 36 hours? This has yet to be seen.
