Vzpomínám si, že když jsem od poloviny do konce 60. a začátku 70. let navštěvoval základní školu St. Albert Veliký v Burbanku ve státě Illinois, někteří učitelé dějepisu nám říkali, že Spojené státy nikdy neprohrály žádnou válku. Mějte na paměti, že to bylo v době, kdy se odehrávalo pošetilé americké fiasko ve Vietnamu, a to bylo jen deset nebo dvě desetiletí po bezvysledné patové situaci korejské války. To vám ukazuje, že indoktrinace školních dětí není nic nového.

Pro vojensko-průmyslové impérium, které udržuje přibližně 800 vojenských základen po celém světě a které utrácí na svou armádu více než dalších sedm zemí (a také 144 dalších zemí) dohromady, se globální hegemonické impérium USA dnes zjevně hroutí před našima očima, po desetiletích pomalého rozkladu. Poslední válkou, kterou USA jednoznačně vyhrály, byla druhá světová válka – a to vítězství bylo možné jen díky bojům Sovětského svazu, Velké Británie a dalších spojenců kromě Ameriky. To velké vítězství bylo před téměř 80 lety.

Od té doby se americký vojensko-průmyslový komplex potácel od jednoho vojenského debaklu k druhému v téměř neustálém válečném stavu, přičemž každý konflikt se vyznačoval buď případným selháním, nebo v nejlepším případě nejednoznačnými výsledky.

Mnoho geopolitických nepořádků vytvořených těmito americkými vojenskými intervencemi bylo nicméně pro třídu elitních válečných štváčů velmi finančně výnosné. A koneckonců, USA tvrdí, že jsou „výjimečné“ mezi národy, takže mají samozřejmé právo vměšovat se, kdekoli a kdykoli chtějí, bez ohledu na negativní důsledky.

Brzy po druhé světové válce došlo ke korejské válce, ve které komunisté vyhráli severní část tohoto národa navzdory vojenskému úsilí USA. Pak tu byla vietnamská válka s mnohaletou devastací způsobenou USA, která skončila stažením amerických jednotek, tvrdě poražených komunisty, kteří ovládli celou zemi.

A pak, po několika letech, došlo k velmi rychle oklamanému rychlému vítězství sil vedených Američany ve válce v Perském zálivu – „vítězství“, které nevhodně nechalo „špatného“ u moci, což vedlo k ošklivému zesměšňování amerického prezidenta. . Takže po několika dalších letech syn toho prezidenta zahájil válku v Iráku, založenou na nehorázných lžích o neexistujících zbraních, aby mohl konečně vyhladit toho padoucha a očistit tátovo jméno. Saddám Husajn byl lynčován v přímém televizním přenosu a Bush mladší prohlásil, že mise byla splněna.

Ale co se vlastně v Iráku podařilo? Statisíce mrtvých civilistů, hromadné ničení a společenské devastace, stejně jako podstatně zhoršená destabilizace celého Blízkého východu, vedoucí k posílení moci Íránu, nárůstu islamistického terorismu a dalšímu ostudnému stažení USA. A jako by to nezpůsobilo dostatečný chaos v regionu, USA o několik let později zničily další národ a dále destabilizovaly Blízký východ zabitím dalšího údajného padoucha v Libyi . Samozřejmě, že nejkřiklavější nedávná americká porážka a stažení přišla na konci nejdelší americké války v Afghánistánu. Po 20 letech amerického vojenského vměšování a masakrů v Afghánistánu se tamní padouši, které USA údajně rozpoutaly válku, aby je sesadily, vrátili k moci . Zdánlivě další spektakulární porážka amerického impéria, ačkoli tento konflikt odsouzený k záhubě byl úmyslně ukončen, aby americké vojenské zdroje mohly být odkloněny jinam, jmenovitě k novému nesmyslnému boji ve východní Evropě. Kromě těchto dobře známých amerických válek od 50. let do současnosti USA za tutéž dobu podnítily, zahájily a byly zapojeny do stovek dalších vojenských konfliktů (prostřednictvím skutečných bojů, bojů v zastoupení, dodávek zbraní a peněz, nebo různé jiné formy vměšování), jak zjevně, tak skrytě, všude – od Střední a Jižní Ameriky přes Blízký východ a severní a subsaharskou Afriku po jižní, střední a východní Asii až po střední a východní Evropu. Hlavními výsledky těchto konfliktů bylo v podstatě sakra hodně zabíjení, chaosu a ničení a celkové zhoršování problémů v cizích zemích, s absolutně žádnými výhodami pro americký lid (pokud nepracujete pro Pentagon nebo nejste manažer . s velkým dodavatelem obrany). A tak jsme dnes tady. Zatímco píšu tato slova, vojenská mašinérie Spojených států je zjevně na pokraji další velkolepé porážky – tentokrát proti ruským silám na Ukrajině. Tato hořká skutečnost byla skryta americkými a západními mainstreamovými korporátními médii, ale byla odborně formulována několika čestnými komentátory, jako je Douglas Macgregor . Další válka podněcovaná a vedená Spojenými státy prostřednictvím zastoupení proti imaginárnímu nepříteli z jiných důvodů, než je finanční zisk a klamný pocit udržování své zjevně ochromené a rychle se zmenšující světové hegemonie . Plýtvání cennými zdroji při ničení další cizí země, prosazování jakéhosi chorého neoliberálního probuzeného programu, i když se zdá, že Amerika kolabuje ve všech oblastech své společnosti doma. Brilantně vnímavý Chris Hedges označil toto šílenství za „probuzený imperialismus“.

Blázniví, senilní a/nebo zoufalí američtí elitní „vůdci“, kteří evidentně cítí – i když stále odmítají veřejně přiznat – nevyhnutelnou blížící se porážku proti Rusku, nyní šíří hysteričtější lži (stejně jako to dělali s Ruskem a Ukrajinou, Irákem, Vietnamem). , atd.), když se začnou zaměřovat na válečné štvání na Čínu a Tchaj-wan . Jo, takhle to pro ně dopadne lépe než ta jejich šíleně vyprovokovaná zástupná válka proti Rusku!

A pro budoucí úvahy nezapomeňte, že vždy existuje válka, která může být vytlačena proti Severní Koreji, Íránu nebo jakékoli jiné nezávislé zemi, která odmítá uznat hegemonii USA.

Normálnímu, racionálně uvažujícímu jedinci se nekonečné americké válečné štvání po celém světě, které vždy končí trapnými a ponižujícími prohrami a dalším chaosem a šílenstvím, připadá krajně nelogické. Ale skrytá logika amerického vojensko-průmyslového komplexu spočívá ve velmi reálných finančních ziscích, které nadále sbírá, když se marně snaží udržet upadající americké impérium, bez ohledu na vojenské ztráty na místě. O tom to celé je. O tom to vždy bylo. Peníze. Chamtivost. Napájení. Řízení. Nevšímejte si smrti a ničení.

Netřeba dodávat, že tato klamná, sebevražedná situace nemůže trvat věčně. Nakonec se americké impérium vyčerpá a nakonec se totálně zhroutí. A pak váleční prospěcháři jednoduše změní stranu, pravděpodobně se přesunou do Číny. Mezitím se však uvadající americké impérium bude nadále chovat tak, jak se upadající říše v průběhu historie obvykle chovaly, od římského po britské impérium.

Jak sračky narážejí na fanoušky doma stále špinavějšími a páchnoucími způsoby, USA se budou nadále snažit ukázat svou „sílu“ rozdmýcháváním dalších sraček a chaosu v zahraničí, v zoufalých, bezmocných pokusech skrýt skutečnost, že jejich údajný „výjimečnost“ “ jsou všechny nesmysly.

Jednoho dne v budoucnu současný americký šílenec způsobí, že děti ve škole budou mít nějaké matoucí hodiny historie.

The US model of war since 1945 could be called “Integrative Failure”. The empire always wins a few thousand or tens of thousands of the previously separate liberal class of each state that gets to enjoy intervention. It doesn’t matter if the host of the war suffers. The instigator gets to marginize domestic opponents and brings over 10s thousands of grateful new citizens during the evacuation.

That is what it is all about. That is what it has always been about. Money. Greed.
Power. Control. Pay no attention to the death and destruction.

That's it in a nutshell. The ever-changing ideologies being sold to the public are just show biz for the gullible masses. Apparently one can fool most of the people all the time and that's all it takes to stay in control. The US has always been at war and that's baked into the cake; that can't change. US wars have been unique in that they have been expeditionary ones of choice. Therefore the criteria of what 'winning' is, is different. Causing destruction and hindering development somewhere overseas may be what's desired, not occupying or implanting cultural values, whatever those are. The US has been roving the planet, looking for easy prey and opportunity, never mind what those dummy teachers told us.

Afghanistan is NOT America's longest war by a long shot. Ignoring the Indian Wars (1607 to 1918), America's longest is Somalia, now completing 30 years and still underway with no end in sight. Admittedly, the Somalian war is nowadays limited to a SOCOM detachment of about 600 men plus air support, the heavies (immortalized in "Blackhawk Down") having been removed in defeat some time ago.

It is Sunday night and I just saw a posting at Moon of Alabama informing us that:

“Bakhmut has fallen. Russia is closing the only avenue of escape and will destroy everyone in the cauldron. 12,000 cut off and trapped.” This seems to be very much in line with Mr. Smuskiewicz’s theme in this UR column.

(It is comment #201 on the Feb 13 MOA thread if anyone is interested in seeing what information follows from other barflies.)

As the shit is hitting the fan at home in increasingly messy and smelly ways, the U.S. will keep trying to display its “power” by stirring up more shit and chaos abroad, in desperate, impotent attempts to hide the fact that its purported “exceptionalism” is all bullshit.

And the hamsters like you will be spinning the wheel of History, hoping against hope that the next “exceptional super-duper power” will be a slightly more palatable variety of same shit. lol

Another half-baked piece about American hegemony.

Needless to say, this delusional, suicidal situation cannot go on forever. Ultimately, the American empire will exhaust itself out, and it will finally and totally collapse. And then the war profiteers will simply switch sides, probably moving to China.

American "war profiteers" aren't going anywhere. China doesn't want them, doesn't need them, and won't have them. The beneficiaries of the Chinese military economy will be Chinese, stupid, not Americans.

But in the meantime, the fading American empire will continue to behave the way that declining empires have typically behaved throughout history, from the Roman to the British empire . . .

Here we come to the crux of the matter. Nowhere in the article is there any mention of Jews, Zionism, Neocons, AIPAC, the State of Israel, complete control of American Defense and Foreign Policy by Neocons etc.

30 years ago, the US trade deficit was small and entirely explicable by oil imports. It was manageable, as was the national debt. For the last 30 years, there has been almost complete Zionist control of the American Government. They have pursued a policy of unilateral free trade and offshoring which has wrecked the economy, but not for them – they and their oligarchs have massively benefitted.

Last year, the national debt was a record $948 bn. The accumulated national debt in the last 30 years is well over $20 trillion at 2023 prices.

Likewise, US national debt has exploded. It is now $31.5 trillion. Of that, $ 21 trillion has been spent on making the Middle East safe for Israel – always the main priority of the Zionist ruling class. When the dollar collapses shortly and America experiences its full effect, the root cause will be Zionism.

<https://www.newsweek.com/war-terror-cost-us-21-trillion-its-conflicts-killed-nearly-one-million-reports-show-1625114>

In a little over 30 years, America will have gone from unipower to basket case, due almost entirely to Zionist control of government. Smuskiewicz never mentions the elephant in the room. He is not any genuine type of intellectual conservative: he is an intellectual coward.

Hm. I agree with much of this, and yet...

For the western elites, all of these ‘debacles’ have been very profitable. Afghanistan alone must have gotten the politically connected a trillion dollars in profits, if not more. So what if the place was left a bombed out wasteland under the control of the Taliban? Who cares?

As far as Ukraine goes: sure, the Ukrainians are seeing their country devastated beyond repair regardless of which side “wins.” Western Europe may well de-industrialize, and the UK may be reduced to third-world status. America may be drained of resources. So what? There will be massive profits as defense contractors refill the weapon stocks drained by Ukraine. Russia will have been bleed and weakened – and there is still at least the chance that Russia will fall and the western elites can gorge on all of those lovely resources. Elites all around are profiting enormously from shortages, as higher prices drive profits through the roof. And all of this distracts the American public from the third-world invasion that will likely destroy the nation as it has been known in about 20 years.

I could go on. For the people at the top, all of this may not be a bug, but a feature.

The proxies that the western elites use to rule are often moronic (Biden, Reagan, Pelosi, W. Bush, etc.), but the elites themselves are not stupid. Vicious, amoral, depraved, for sure, but not stupid. Don’t underestimate them.

The European Empire is failing. Everyone knows that their puppet, Not-The-President Biden, lost in 2020.

Europe's SJW Islamic Empire is fading. Christian Populism keeps making gains. For example: (1)

Italian Chamber of Deputies approves Meloni decree to restrict activity of migrant rescue boats in the Mediterranean

The Italian Chamber of Deputies has approved a government decree designed to limit the activity of humanitarian vessels escorting migrants from the Mediterranean to the shores of Italy.

The decree, announced by Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni in January, orders humanitarian vessels to head for the nearest port following a rescue at sea “without delay,” preventing them from laying down anchor and waiting for more distress signals from other migrant boats.

The bill, which will enshrine the decree into primary legislation, was passed with 187 votes in favor, 139 against, and three abstentions.

The government is concerned the continual presence of the NGO boats operating in the region entices migrants to attempt the perilous journey from North Africa in their bid to reach Europe.

NGO boats that are found to be ignoring the new rules will have their captains fined up to €50,000 and their boats impounded.

The followers of God reject Muslim Rape-ugees.

Will Muhammad Scholz keep inviting sexually deviant Jihadists to the Deutsche Caliphate? That would be sad. A humiliating failure for the German people, not America.

I don't get this article. Another humiliating failure of US Empire? America is not even in control of its own military. Arguably, hasn't been since WWI and especially since WWII when Communists took over the federal government. In 2020, the pretend Communist front for mid-eastern and London oligarchical-organized crime network, again took over the Federal government under the pretense of an epidemic (shhh!! don't tell Unz). Ask an ICU hospital nurse if the admissions for flu before 2020 and the admission for C-19 are any different. All of them I have asked to a "T" say, no change. Same with wars. It's obvious this is the invasion of Ukraine yet again by New Bolsheviks. What changed?

The US by the time the Vietnam war ended had lost a single war the War of 1812. It was not a stalemate, it was for intensive purposes a route by the British.

Since there are two losses to our account

Iraq II and Afghanistan both are losses because they occurred while the US was present in force. But those losses are for different reasons — none of which are related to battlefield conduct.

There are enough friendlies in Ukraine to support US presence.

We don't need to occupy Russia, just remove them Ukraine.

The theft of oil for the geopolitical nation of Israel's use as well as control of that part of the region, again, purely on behalf of the nation of Israel. Certainly nothing in US interests.

Chat GPT,

2 'globohomo' versions,/haha/

– here are some of the ways that declining empires have typically behaved throughout history:

Military aggression: Declining empires may become more aggressive in their foreign policy as they seek to maintain their power and influence. They may engage in wars of conquest or attempt to subjugate weaker nations in order to secure resources and territories.

Economic instability: Declining empires may experience economic instability as their resources become stretched and their productivity declines. This can lead to high levels of inflation, unemployment, and poverty, which can exacerbate social and political tensions.

Political corruption: As an empire declines, political corruption may become more rampant as those in power seek to maintain their privileges and influence. This can lead to a breakdown of law and order and a loss of trust in government institutions.

Social unrest: As economic and political instability grows, social unrest may become more common. Protests, riots, and other forms of civil unrest may arise as people become frustrated with the government's inability to address their grievances.

Loss of cultural identity: Declining empires may experience a loss of cultural identity as they struggle to maintain their power and influence. This can lead to a loss of national pride and a sense of disillusionment among the population.

Reliance on authoritarianism: In some cases, declining empires may turn to authoritarianism as a means of maintaining control. This can lead to the suppression of civil liberties and human rights, which can further undermine the empire's legitimacy

Military overstretch: One common characteristic of declining empires is that they often become overextended militarily, trying to maintain control over vast territories while facing numerous enemies and rebellions. This can lead to a drain on resources and a decline in the quality of troops.

Economic decline: Declining empires may experience economic difficulties as a result of overtaxation, corruption, inflation, or other factors. This can lead to a decrease in trade and productivity, as well as a decline in the standard of living for the population.

Political instability: As an empire declines, it may become increasingly difficult to maintain political stability. This can be due to a variety of factors, including social unrest, political corruption, and external pressures from rival powers or internal factions.

Loss of confidence and legitimacy: A declining empire may experience a loss of confidence and legitimacy among its people, as well as among its allies and rivals. This can lead to a loss of prestige and influence, which can further erode the empire's power and position in the world.

Resistance to change: In some cases, declining empires may be resistant to change and may cling to outdated policies or institutions that are no longer effective. This can exacerbate existing problems and make it even more difficult to address the challenges facing the empire.

It is interesting that almost everyone forgets to mention the American bombing of Serbia, when from a great height, for 78 days factories, civil infrastructure, bridges, television, electricity transmission, railways, trains, hospitals, schools, depleted uranium, and least of all – military infrastructure (with the exception of numerous wooden models of tanks and artillery) were destroyed.

And that was exactly the moment when the American empire went downhill, and it became clear that it was powerless to do anything but bomb civilians. We also saw the cowardice of sending the infantry because it was known that they would be defeated in an equal duel.

Now, for example, we have the information that a large number of Americans in Bakhmut, where they hold all the command positions, got killed but the American public was not informed about this.

| But you will likely be long dead and gone when that occurs. So sorry...

CBO estimates are that by 2035 the costs of Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid and government pensions added together will equal 100% of tax receipts. There will only be 2.7 workers for every Social Security recipient. At the same time, our national debt will be 40 trillion dollars. Assuming a normal 5% interest rate, that will be two trillion dollar a year interest payments. The younger generation, due to the dysgenic effects of our welfare and immigration policies over the last sixty years, will not be able to generate enough taxes to come close to paying for all this.

We are talking about a dozen years away, not really very long. The funding for a large military to play policeman for the world will not exist. The military will be used to defend our borders. Instead of a unipolar world, we will move to a multipolar world where the major countries have spheres of influence. The Ukraine will be in the Russian sphere of influence, not ours. Our sphere of influence will be this hemisphere as enunciated in the Monroe doctrine. We will keep hostile foreign powers out but not otherwise attempt to interfere in the internal affairs of our neighbors.

Another silly “article” that regurgitates the stupid idea that USA loses wars. USA’s goal are NOT to win a war but the create chaos, cause destruction of the local infrastructure thus making sure the country and the region cannot function at a modern level. How many times do we have to explain simple concepts like these? WHY is UNZ continuing to publish this crap? Propaganda, obviously.

USA didnt lose in Afghanistan. It prevented Afghanistan from joining the BRI, sent Afghanistan to the stone age from whcih Afganistan wont be able to get out for the next 100 years and managed to make a few army merchants rich. That aint no “loss”. If thats a “loss” the eiter is an idiot who knows nothing. Thats a major win. Same thing applies to Iraq, Lybia, SOMalia, Syria, pretty much all wars since WWII, including the Korean and Vietnam war.

It’s the truth, UNZ really has very little to read these days.

I don't think relying on morons to execute your strategy is a sign of intelligence. The more "vicious, amoral, depraved" the elites become, the more difficult it becomes for them to find performers who aren't complete morons to put as front. The problem with complete morons is that they can make up an infinite variety of ways to f*ck up things, and they always end up f*cking up things. So, eventually absolute immorality becomes evidence that one's not as intelligent as he believes himself to be because it always eventually proves to be a death wish.

The Soviet Union won WWII. The rest (USA, UK, etc) hitch hiked with Russia. Which means that the conclusion/fact that the USA never won a big war still holds. The next big war (i.e., against Russia, China or both) will be the last one for the rogue regime of the USA.

Here we come to the crux of the matter. Nowhere in the article is there any mention of Jews, Zionism, Neocons, AIPAC, the State of Israel, complete control of American Defense and Foreign Policy by Neocons etc.

True, but they themselves don't do any fighting. They have to rely on feudal dominance of an increasingly degraded US/Europe. Feudal kings and lords can launch wars for personal reasons, but the serfs and allies have to be equipped and organized. It was cripplingly expensive in the Middle Ages, same as it is today.

If the US had adopted neutrality in 1945 (in line with the Founders wishes – “no foreign entanglements”) then by now (2023) the US would be a far richer place. The problem seems to be that the US' foreign aristocratic class were dazzled by the unprecedented power they received in 1945 and decided to double down for more.

Until the costs of the wars waged overseas are brought to the doorsteps of the American elite and public, they won't divert course.

While objective observers can see the signs. the Americans are like fish not seeing the water in which they live in, until the poison that they have spread across the world stains their water and chokes them.

Jutin is now playing his assigned dialectical 'antithesis' role as the 'enemy'—in ostensible 'conflict' with NATO (thesis) to clandestinely advance the Great Reset/Agenda 2030/Whiteocide: synthesis. Time for Another Humiliating Failure for the Fading American Empire

A.J. Smuskiewicz • February 10, 2023 • 1,200 Words • 8 Comments • Reply

A no read. An example of redefining the definitions of “Who” and “winning”.

Our take, just for the record, and accounted for ten years ago already. Sad we see articles like the above re-chew the same mistakes, and biases all over, to re-align the main stream audiences into ignorance.

The way “US wars” can be seen to me is this focussing on Ukraine, the Ukraine one in particular as an illustration of “US war strategies”: a territory was seen as loot. To achieve the loot the population was weaponized to commit suicide. Russia was pulled into it as a forced participant in the Ukraine genocide [unforeseen and even to insiders a main surprise]. All to the gain and profit of stateless actors.

The US and WE logistics [vassaled to International Jewry], testing battle electronics and larger equipment, e-migration was used as another tool for genocide, WE was degraded as a side-effect. Russia responds disproportionately to asymmetrical acts of war [North-Stream, Syria being bombed by Israel, counter punching in looted territories (larger swats of Syria, Irak, Lybia, none of the perpetrators of extortion policies face any consequences as individuals) of Russia is weak or non-existent].

All this is called “winning” in the larger scheme of the International Jewry. Russia seriously, and only beyond the former deconstruction, destruction, and provocation being forced in repair is an unexpected bonus [bleeding Russia]. Even this blow-back is conditional. Moskva further on the line could alter stances and align with International Jewry once more. Not that they never did. Probable.

The alliances as Russia China and India, Iran etc. are based on opportunism of a temporary and frail nature, but quite a start. It is there, taking out the capacity of the Dollar to allow International Jewry to dictate the scale of values as to living in the biosphere is compromised. Not sure if Moskva itself understands fully that this is a convulsion that history offers rarely. They should account for the timeliness of the moment, a narrow window of opportunity and take advantage of it.

Point made, ultimately Ukraine will only matter as another Covid19, a vaxxing experiment, to be improved, certainly, but valid as to selectively, discriminately herding of man-meat, to widen the gap between the Few and the rest. To assert the “stateless” loyalties, and the definition of war. The pummeling is a preposterous side-show.

‘The hidden logic for the American military-industrial complex lies in the very real financial profits it continues to rake in.’ — A J Smuskiewicz

From Feb 28, 2022 through Feb 15, 2023 — a period of 11-1/2 months — the top-performing of the eleven sectors in the S&P 500 stock index has been Energy. This is a result of the West’s embargoes and sanctions on Russian oil & gas exports.

Runner-up is the Industrial sector. It includes all of the major defense contractors: Raytheon [now the largest constituent of the Industrial sector, at a 5.13% weighting]; Boeing; Lockheed Martin; Northrup Grumman; and General Dynamics.

The Industrial sector gained 3.5% over the period, including dividends. All the remaining sectors, save Health Care, show losses since Feb 28, 2022. The largest defense-oriented ETF, symbol ITA, is up 5.0% over the period, outperforming the larger Industrial sector.

So yes, the ‘war babies,’ as they were more plainly called a century ago in WW II, are doing quite splendidly. But middle class Americans? Not so much.

Three generations after the creation of the permanent national security state, it continues to bleed away and destroy capital which should have been allocated to domestic investment. Thus the US empire decays, offering living standards that have not improved since fifty years ago.

Gratuitous boosts to defense spending continue every year, by Uniparty consensus. If the US closed its overseas bases and merely defended its own borders like a normal country, its defense budget would be one-third the size — and national security would be dramatically enhanced.

But the warmongers' band plays on, enabling and celebrating its corruption-fueled economic vandalism.

Interesting new twist to Ukraine conflict info, is that as the USA and NATO escalate further, Russia has plans in place to knock out US-NATO satellite surveillance which is the main tool Ukraine has against Russia

Though the nature of mass satellite destruction, is that this can only be done by doing huge damage to all satellite fleets, including those of Russia and China, turning the entire band of satellite orbit paths into a debris field, with global GPS down etc

Though Russia itself will be 'blind' as well, Ukraine will hardly be able to do much, unable to 'see' massive Russian movements in Ukraine territory, with war becoming much more old-fashioned in a non-satellite-aided combat sphere, Russia's bigger numbers more decisive

“The last war that the U.S. unambiguously won was World War II”

That's not exactly true. Following its time-honored tradition of invading a sovereign country under false pretenses—in this instance, a supposed threat to American youngsters attending a rather questionable local medical school—the US defeated the Stalinist menace in Grenada. A few years after that “our troops” showed Manuel “Pineapple Face” Noriega who's boss when they invaded Panama after he dared to give the CIA competition in the drug trade. Those two were unambiguous, if inglorious, victories.

I just can't get away from the serial-killer model for the Empire.

It's like watching Ted Bundy on his final, sweaty, bug-eyed house-to-house killing frenzy.

Like a serial-killer, the Empire can't seem to help itself. It is out of moral control. It exists and functions like a machine strictly to feed its own insatiable appetites. Yet no matter how negative the consequences of its behavior and how obvious it is to others, it will always try to deny any responsibility and talk and act as though it is in complete control of the situation. It follows, just like a serial-killer, that it will continue to play out these destructive behavioral patterns just as it has always done. Until it can't.

Yet at least Ted Bundy admitted to most of those murders in the end and even may have shown some remorse, though the latter may be debatable. However, he never did take responsibility. He blamed his acts on porn and not his own degeneracy.

Thus – if such a thing can even be imagined after Ted Bundy – there is an even deeper and darker abyss of psychopathy inhabited by those serial-killers who not only never take any responsibility for their acts, but who never show any remorse, and who vociferously deny any and all complicity in their crimes despite how overwhelming the physical evidence is against them, and who adamantly do so until the very end. This is the abyss of the inveterate gas-lighters, the cognitive and psychic vampires, those absolutely convinced of their own superiority over others and for whom maintaining some form of control at any cost is always the ultimate driving force, even when their actual control has been reduced merely to that of denying the obvious truth in front of others.

Not only does this paragraph describe John Wayne Gacy, the Chicago serial-killer who tortured and murdered nearly 30 teenage boys and young men. It describes with troubling accuracy the communication style, behavior and moral character of the Empire over the last 30 years. Instead of being driven by the sado-sexual impulses of a homosexual serial-killer, it is driven by greed, power and control to use any means necessary – gaslighting, torture, murder, blackmail, deception – all ironically under the banner of a “rainbow” flag, to ultimately destroy everyone and everything it comes into contact with to sate its toxic and unquenchable appetite for destruction. Such is the Empire’s track record.

Some have argued that there was a time when the Empire was driven more by moral imperative than by greed, power and control, or, at the very least, impelled in that direction. If there ever was such a time, then perhaps it was the time of John Wayne and when his black steed, white stetson, shiny badge and bullets represented the archetype for which the people of the Empire stood or were striving.

But this is not to idolize John Wayne or put him on a pedestal, rather it is to suggest that in a single lifetime the archetype of the Empire has disintegrated from one where John Wayne represented honor, character, integrity, justice, merit and moral virtue to one of John Wayne Gacy where the behavior of the Empire is more accurately described by the machinations of a deranged, psychopathic, sadistic homosexual predator.

This is one of the primary reasons that I am not optimistic. The decline and disintegration of the Empire have never been up for debate. It only remains to be seen when and the final nature of how it will all play out.

As we speak, human hordes from the western hemisphere (and a few from the eastern) are pouring over the border unchecked.

This is not a military, but a demographic invasion.

Paragraph #1 gets an A+. Paragraph #2 gets a C-.

Here's why: "Our sphere of influence will be in this hemisphere as enunciated in the Monroe Doctrine. We will keep hostile foreign powers out..." This is not really consistent with Paragraph #1 or this reader's sense of where we are headed as a society. When one takes a careful look at our sickening societal death spiral, how can one say with confidence that will be able to enforce our unilateral "Monroe Doctrine"? If Mexico, let's suppose, is taken over by powerful, heavily-armed, and vicious drug cartels, I would bet a Weimar wheelbarrow of Gringo pesos that the only response of Americans will be to buy even more of their drugs to kill the pain as we slide ever-downward into a Mad Max-esque dystopia. Will Washington even still control Alta California then?

What if Brazil chooses, perhaps with much of Africa, to become part of a future Chinese sphere of influence? Will Hunter Biden's bastard, the ghost of General Milley, and the proud patriots of the Home of the Brave [sic] be able to do anything about it?

You must have forgotten Hiroshima and Nagasaki. From what our great President Truman told the nation at the time, it was the only way to defeat Japan. We would have been in an unacceptable stalemate with Imperial Japan were it not for the shocking attacks on women and children in locations of no military significance.

Effing brilliant.

Since Gacy’s execution in 1994, Hunter Biden has assumed his role as degenerate killer clown, milking the Ukies and China to pay his crack dealers and his whores.

And the Beria Garland ‘Justice’ Department, with slam-dunk written evidence in hand, turns a blind eye.

As the Anglo-Zionist Empire falters more, its elites will become more desperate to hang on to and wield its raw power domestically. They will become worse tyrants. They will go to even greater lengths to encourage blacks to rape and murder non-elite whites. They will cram more trannies down your kids throats. They will ramp up the FBI to wage even more stealth war against Middle American whites. They will arrest increasing numbers of whites who dare mention the wealth of Jews and any friends of Jews. It should become clear to even the most dippy optimist whites that the Elites of the USA hate them and want them made into an official serf class.

At that point, it will become all out civil war. And whites better have been praying long and hard before then that they do not still have to plead with other whites not to think they can make allies of more than maybe 5% of blacks and Jews. The Rod Dreher's of 'conservative' America still dream about blacks suddenly being revealed as something exactly like them. but that that will occur inky when Wakanda is revealed to have been among us all along.

And none of that will save civilization in America. If we went 'the West' rebuilt properly, we must make certain that the foundation we lay is that of renewed Christendom.

no reasons other than financial profit and a delusional sense of maintaining its obviously crippled and rapidly diminishing world hegemony.

Not just financial. William James, 100 years ago, explained that war makes men feel they are living life “on a higher plane”; counters a feeling of aging degeneration. John Fowles wrote that war makes men feel serious; makes them feel that women will not laugh at them. This reminds me of Rodney Dangerfield’s joke that he could not get real dates, so he would go to the drive-in movie, and get into the back seat, and do push-ups, so his friends passing by would be impressed.

almost everyone forgets to mention the American bombing of Serbia, when from a great height, for 78 days factories, civil infrastructure, bridges, television, electricity transmission, railways, trains, hospitals, schools, depleted uranium, and least of all – military infrastructure (with the exception of numerous wooden models of tanks and artillery) were destroyed.

The author forgot to mention another orgy of bombings, “when from a great height, for over 2 years, factories, civilian infrastructure . . . railways, trains, hospitals, schools . . .” in Germany were firebombed to dust.

Even that last war that Smuskiewicz avers the U.S.

“unambiguously won . . . World War II,” it accomplished by committing war crimes for which it has not yet been held accountable:

The last war that the U.S. unambiguously won was World War II—and that victory was only possible because of the fighting of the Soviet Union, Great Britain, and other Allies in addition to America. — — — and the commission of war crimes.

That was good.

But we can wrap it around several entities. Russian looks to be in the throes of a dying empire, one claim for invading Ukraine is to cleanse it of Nazis. Please.

Worldwide, economically successful countries mimic some of this, becoming bland trading centers with demographic decline/ various corruptions/loss of culture.

You and your Christendom and Chris Moore’s obsession with Moses: how’s that worked out over the years since ~1862, when Christians slaughtered fellow Christians in the American South, in Christian Europe, in the birthplaces of Christianity in the Middle East?

At least you can say this for Rome and Paganism: when a Roman leader overstepped his bounds or offended the people or fellow Elite, he was assassinated tout suite or had the good grace to off himself (or herself, i.e. Lucretia, Cleopatra).

Think there becomes mistake labeling that doesn't apply, meaning no such thing as 'american' empire, is false label made by cons to pretend there's a 'we' when there isn't. There are the cons and fronts such as those claiming to be state, media, 'courts, pharma or food corp cons or tech corporations surveillance cons etc, then others, us, are not them. Separate. There's no 'american' empire, its false image and always has been. Their paper laws are a con, as we should see by now. Another is notion of them failing anything, they got hundreds of billions in weapons and water and food control and media etc, and worldwide, remember over half million cons, and do acts including pretending to lose such as afganistan when they ripped it down over twenty years to push dope opium, then put on 'afghan takeover' bs show with their cons there, pretending 'lost'. Nonsense.

Unless people take back food land and water and stop immigration and close down courts and police and media and take over the weapons, people here have zero 'empire'. The cons put out stories then others repeat, but its inversion, same type as accusing others of what they're doing, or play victim pretending 'humiliated' when they're vile cons. Their con now will be to pretend 'anti war' or 'broke', same time launch drones on us. In any case important to separate, and share info local so others know the whole con, and can share. Many know things are wrong but don't know extent or to share, so more can, and band with few others, for power and ideas. Should make note. They are a large gang, such as covid tyranny.

'.. military-industrial complex lies in the very real financial profits it continues to rake in as it seeks in vain to maintain the declining American empire, regardless of the military losses on the ground. That is what it is all about. That is what it has always been about. Money. Greed. Power. Control. Pay no attention to the death and destruction.'

– actually was to get the weapons and food and water, now they don't need money. They want dupes continuing chase fake 'money' when value is zero, digital is wiped off computers, don't own anything you can't defend. The words –power and control is point to look at, and make effort.

There's some interesting parts of article, just comment looking at more base facts of situation.

You contradicted yourself. You are more right than you are aware of. It's not “instead of being driven by the sado-sexual impulses”, because you then say, “all ironically under the banner of a “rainbow” flag”. They are one and the same impulse.

Why leave it there? A future history lesson for our children? Who will write this history and what will be the lesson learned? Accountability, revenge and punishment is necessary for the history books so that an important lesson is taught to those future souls of the consequences of lying, fraud and greed for those aspiring to positions of power and leadership.

There are many elite, political and non-political, that have gone along for the ride and have profited greatly; themselves, their family and their friends. All of those that have profited from this century long mayhem extended across this planet, shall be hunted down and given their fair due. This includes clawing back all the cash and assets they have accumulated over the century. And lest we forget the greedy mega-corporations that have ruthlessly savaged our planet and its environmental resources. They and their controllers must be dealt with in a similar manner.

I'm not ready to forget what I have seen in the last 60+ years, nor am I ready to forgive these insane evil fuchs. There should be grave consequences for the harm that has occurred in the last century by those in power and for those we have trusted.

I mean its not like Google and Microsoft and Facebook and dozens of other “Globalist American companies” has switched sides and are now building a perfect totalitarian surveillance system squashing out our constitutional protected Individual Rights to Life, Liberty and Property. (more sarcasm).

Its not like “our” American businesses, like say like the NBA, would shut down the free Speech of its own people, right?

I’m mean our privacy, anonymity and Individual sovereignty is not under any kind of daily assault by “our own” big tech and even small tech companies, right?

Afterall, we don’t have cameras built in China on every pole and building tracking us 24/7 right?

And so here we are today. As I write these words, the United States military machine is apparently on the verge of yet another spectacular defeat—this time against Russian forces in Ukraine. This bitter fact has been hidden by the American and Western mainstream corporate media, but it has been expertly articulated by a few honest commentators, such as Douglas Macgregor.

The same Douglas Macgregor that told us Ukraine needed to surrender in March because the war was over?

The same Douglas Macgregor that said a Winter Offensive would happen in November or December at the latest?

The same Douglas Macgregor that rambles every month about how Ukraine is doomed but doesn't explain why the Russians haven't been able to take Bakhmut for over 6 months?

The same Douglas Macgregor that tells us Russia is well supplied and yet Russian POWs are caught with Salvation Army looking jackets and old rifles?

Yea what a source.

I don't see the basis of your thesis. HIMARs have orders from around the world thanks to their success in Ukraine. The US military machine has been invigorated from this war. Most of the tanks and Bradleys are old stock. US defense industries will undoubtedly benefit from this war.

The Bradleys and Strikers are almost to the battlefield. I fail to see how their use will embarrass the US. The Russians are currently using human wave attacks with very limited T-62 support. The Bradleys will tear such attacks to bits.

Statements by the Head of the Russian Military Space Academy, Major General Anatoly Nesticuk:

The United States plans to disable Russian satellites with the help of combat space vehicles;

Small combat space vehicles of the United States can be launched into orbit as part of multi-satellite low-orbit communication systems such as OneWeb or Starlink;

New weapons of the States will be able to perform a hidden maneuver, approach the spacecraft of the Russian Federation.

Such means pose the threat of a space attack on critical Russian spacecraft. Disabling the spacecraft can lead to loss of control, first of all, of strategic nuclear forces, which cannot be allowed.

In what battle, anywhere in Vietnam, did the US military lose decisively? Or even lose? Whether you like it or not the US military won every major battle, destroyed the Viet Cong as a cohesive military force and brought the N Vietnamese to their knees with Operation Linebacker, forcing them to come crawling to the negotiating table begging for peace. After a treaty was signed, giving recognition to the S Vietnamese government, the communists waited until full withdrawal of American troops and a coup that installed a communist leaning government into power in the US, before reinitiating hostilities. Had Nixon not been removed, he would have provided the South with the air support and supplies needed to fend off the well-financed N Vietnamese military.

As for the Korean War, the North was already communist before the war, invaded the South in the hope of unifying the country under the hammer and sickle, but were driven out of the South and forced to accept a West leaning nation. Throwing back an invasion and preventing the invader from taking over is actually a win. Sorry.

Nope. If the US were ruled by white conservatives or the Christian Right, maybe.

But it's ruled by Jews who promote globo-Homo and Negrolatry, and it just so happens the new trinity among Europeans, esp the soulless elites, is cult-worship of Jews, homos, and blacks.

Notice how Europeans who grumbled about Bush II and Trump were totally silent about Obama's wars. Notice how they blame white 'racism' but totally support Zionism. (Even Putin will attack the Anglos but never mentions the Jews, the main instigators of the conflict.)

Europeans are so beholden to Jews that they will even overlook the Jewish alliance with sub-nazis in Ukraine (LOL).

There was no Christendom in 1862. Wars by Anglo-Saxon Puritans, for example, against, say, Irish catholics, are wars by heretics against peoples of Christendom.

Beyond that, because of Original Sin, there can be no truly peaceful nation – ever. There always will be crime, and that includes waging wars of aggression and greed.

The only thing that has ever corralled Jews and that has ever withstood huge forces of marauding pagans is Christendom. Anything else that replaces Anglo-Zionism and this perverted post-Christian ‘West’ is at best a waste of time and energy to establish, because Satan will own it and that means that jews eventually will come to be its moan managers – just like its the resets of The Reformation.

People the world over, need to stop regarding military conflicts like they are sporting events. We didn't spend 20 years in Afghanistan and Iraq because we were trying to conquer anything. We didn't spend 10 years in Vietnam because we were genuinely trying to stop the flow of communism into south east Asia. Hell, we were the ones who created the whole situation in Vietnam. People sitting at home waving their pom poms like they are rooting for their team, are completely delusional and void of any understanding of what is really going on – what the real goal is. Does anyone really think what is going in Ukraine right now has anything to do with victory for either side of the event? First thing you need to do is figure out who the two ‘participants’ actually are. Once you do that accurately, then you can begin to answer the cui bono questions.

A question: will the youth of today fight with gusto because they are told to?

John Wayne made a faux pas with ‘The Green Berets’. The generation gap bit him in the ass when the baby-boomers weren’t buying his jingoistic, Team America, Great White Savior BS.

Morale was in the dumps when the conscription of boomers was finally lifted in the 1970s. The military had to rebuild around the Cold War bogeyman of defeating communism.

From the late 1960’s onwards America’s belief in itself has changed. From Gen X’ers to Millenials, the enthusiasm for risk has been waning. They know that Afghanistan and Iraq were a waste of blood and treasure. These are the people who make up the rank and file of the military.

From first hand experience, I can tell you the youth signing up to the military now are more cynical than any previous generation.

The issue isn't necessarily whether we won the war or not but what our "victory" resulted in. Yeah, technically we won WWII but the victory, in the long term, resulted in our demise as a country after we defeated the man that understood communists and communism better than anyone in history and knew best how to deal with them. Now the Jew communists have conquered us from within by destroying our culture and feeding us to non-white savages after taking control of our institutions including media, entertainment, banking, and academia.

Iraq: a country in permanent chaos, and Scuds no longer menacing Tel Aviv, good for Israel.

Libya: another country destroyed, millions of “rapefugees” invading Europe, good (?) for the jews.

Afghanistan: poppy fields controlled for 20 years, lots of drugs and Oxycontin produced, good for Big Pharma and CIA cartels.

Ukraine: lots of money laundering, lots of dead Slavs, Russia kept busy, Europe weakened, Germany fucked.

| because of Original Sin

You base your concept of the nature of man on a Jewish assertion, “original sin.”

I’m only beginning to learn the history of Paganism, esp. Roman paganism, but to the best of my knowledge, their prevailing notion of the essence of the human person was not that he was a damned sinner, incapable of living a good life absent killing another human being to “atone” for his sins.

OTOH, Numa, a Sabine chosen to be the second king of the Roman people, was deeply religious and introduced religious concepts to the Roman people that were taken deeply to heart and prevailed throughout long history of that form of civilization: my project for today is to learn all I can about the religious ideas and practices Numa bequeathed to the Roman people.

You split hairs: “Puritans were not Christians,” you allege.

So exactly how do you define Christendom?

Denial is not just a River in Egypt. the American Empire, the Exceptional Nation, call it what you will is now in an accelerated decline into becoming a Bankrupt, Third World Country. The Banksters and the Warmongers have gutted it. The “Exceptional” Nation is only remarkable because of its Status as the World’s #1 Debtor Nation. The USA is remarkable also in its level of sleaze and corruption by its elected Representatives who cater to their Political donors NOT those they are sent to Washington to represent. The USA is fully aware their Power is coming from the barrel of a gun. If this ‘gun’ becomes powerless, the USD loses its Reserve Status as the World’s Currency. Then there will be a complete collapse of the USA having ANY kind of influence in the world. This is exactly what will happen.

Dougie was correct on all four.

But zElensky’s jockey had him refuse a chance at saving the remains of a country, now “Collective Waste” faces the reality of total defeat, humiliation and deprivation.

You never get tired of saying retarded things, do you? What an insufferable moron. I wonder if you really believe the stupid things you write, or you just want to get people riled up with your constant lies and shilling. I suppose the latter, as you're a known jewish troll who was earlier shilling for vaccines.

But just for fun, let me reply. This war is about, among other things: lots of money-making opportunities for the IMC psychopaths (and 10% for the Big Guy), depopulating the Ukraine, sending even more refugees to Europe, weakening Russia, weakening Europe (and in particular Germany) both economically and militarily, drug trafficking, guns trafficking, and all kinds of gangsterism.

Those are just a few, there are of course other important geopolitical interests for the U.S. But only a MORON would think it is about "Ukrainians peasants wanting the 1991 borders". LOL. Ukrainians don't even get a say in such matters. They don't decide shit. Riddle me this: if this is about "Ukrainian peasants", why is the U.S. the main supporter of this war, and the one sending BILLIONS of dollars to that shithole country? Answer: it's not about the Ukraine at all, it's about the U.S. (jews).

@Vermuchalive

I don't really blame the author for not calling out the kikes. No sane person who is a writer will do it as it's suicide. A direct challenge to their authority makes one invisible. Look at Kanye West, he's lost almost all his wealth and is now a leper. I could get tedious and name a dozen more names, but you get the picture, right?

Or are you exceptionally brave???

Nice Article.

The Masonic-Zionist Hegemony, their Hegemon Plutarchy, their Vassal-Oligarchs and Vassal-Nation-States need to be presented to discuss the “Who and Why” a bit more.

Murica are run by and serve the Hegemon. There are ‘Muricans in the Hegemon; but the Hegemon stand above the Nation-States of the Hegemony. Murica’s Founding Landed Gentry Plutarchs+Oligarchs have been superceded+merged with Anglo-European Masonic-Zionist Plutarchs+Oligarchs across the Atlantic.

I’ve designated the Hegemon as the Plutarchy and Vassal-Oligarchs that span the Network of Cities+Orgs Hosting them:

WashingtonDC/FEDRSV-Bankers/WallSt, CityofLondon, Brussels(NATO-€U), WEF-Davos, and Jerusalem.

The Core Nation-States of the Hegemony are ISR+Diaspora(around the World) and key NATO/G7 Members led by Murica.

Murica are the Lead/Bull Vassal State; and IMO, All Nation-States are Expendable with the exception of ISR. I suspect that the ISR_Diaspora will remain “dispersed” to a degree in case ISR suffer Massive Casualties from Wars, etc.; and will be rebuilt by the survivors with Diaspora Participation.

The Jewish-Tribals learned to live as Diaspora-“Expats” for Centuries per their own “Biblical Summaries”; and spent the bulk of the last 2 Millennia as a Disaspora Society – recently acquiring Real Estate to establish a Modern Nation-State acknowledged by the majority of the World as such.

The Plutarchy and Vassal-Oligarchs are in for the Plunder and Exploitation of whomever they can control. The Murican Oligarchs abandoned their stewardship of the State+Citizenry to Lord Over All as Subjects on behalf of the Hegemon.

We're witnessing Failures and the Extended Reach of the Hegemon. They once controlled the World. Though they now have the technological means to to control the World again in a more "Permanent and Exacting" manner – previously Felled Powers have become powerful enough to enforce their Sovereignty, Self-Determination, and Self-Sufficiency.

These run contrary to the Plunderous Finance+Extraction Economies of the Hegemony.

As RUS+CHN increase their Prosperity, they will continue to be provoked by the Hegemony – the Hegemony still own the Americas, most of the €URoZone, and will influence Africa and the Middle East – with ISR+Diaspora as "Senior Partners" who Politically benefit from MENA Conflicts.

It doesn't matter "what happens" to Murica – the Hegemon are in Control; and will most likely control the Political Landscape over the Americas – regardless of Form or Government.

Non-Masonic/Non-Catholic/Non-Zionist Whites and Asians in Murica who don't wish to conform can either Emigrate or Secede.

Kind Regards

You're not getting it. There are forces way beyond the "angry dwarf and his orc army" and the interests of Ukraine at play.

There are always international forces but this war was started by Putin and Putin alone.

He didn't even run it by the Duma or some of his top generals. Some of his highest level generals in fact really believed it was a training exercise until being given orders on the day of the attack.

Leaked plans show that he assumed the war would be finished in 2.5 weeks and Kyiv would be taken in 13 hours:

<https://www.dailystar.co.uk/news/world-news/putins-leaked-invasion-plan-shows-28766012>

He planned on taking it all through a quick decapitation strike with the assumption that he could then negotiate away any sanctions.

It was his plan and not some global conspiracy.
