Wikipedia má velmi užitečný seznam „amerických“ židovských bankéřů.

Je to užitečné ve smyslu „wow, podívej se, jak dlouhý je tento seznam – wow, to je opravdu, opravdu velmi dlouhý seznam.“

Nyní: představte si, že to jsou pouze lidé, kteří jsou dostatečně slavní na to, aby měli stránku na Wikipedii.

Představte si, chcete-li, že tento druh nadměrného zastoupení je na všech úrovních bankovníctví.

Pak si představte: říkají vám, abyste si mysleli, že je to proto, že je katolická církev donutila k lichvě. O stovky let později stále kontrolují banky.

V domnělé demokratické meritokracii.

Zkopíruji celý seznam, protože mám pocit, že někdo bude požadovat, aby to bylo staženo, a je důležité, abychom o tom vedli záznam.

Všimněte si, kolik z nich pochází z bankovních rodin.

Bylo mi řečeno, že v lidskoprávní demokracii může každý vyrůst v cokoliv.

Zdá se ale, že z dětí kriminálně smýšlejících bohatých bankovních Židů chtějí vyrůst kriminálně smýšlející bohatí bankovní Židé – a vytlačují všechny černochoy a Latiny, kteří by chtěli kus peněz z toho bankovního podvodu.

Tito Židé potřebují rezignovat a umožnit barevným lidem vzít si práci.

And not just banking of course. The idea there isn't Jewish Power is the same idea as Israel has no nukes. No one really believes it, but to mention it is 'antisemitic.'

But how does one explain how less than 2% of 'west' population appears in the power milieu in every sector of society?

That list is more reasonable.

Anglin's claim that his list is "bankers" is silly. The people he listed are entrepreneurs, businessmen, hedge fund/finance guys, etc. I knew Anglin's list was suspect when I saw the names Jordan Belfort and podcaster James Altucher. Bankers? Seriously?? Sometimes Anglin is like a child.

Jews are allowed to show off their people in high places, and you can often read about it in Israeli and Hebrew media. But if you point out the same then you are an “anti-Semite” and are banned. I wonder in Anglin’s website was taken down for a while just because he reproduced the Wikipedia list.

Well then, let's see a list of bankers/financiers who are not Jewish.

So that when a small-to-moderate businessman, not Jewish, needs to borrow funds to expand his business, he has numerous opportunities to borrow from non-Jews.

So that the non-Jewish lender will do what the Jewish lender will very likely/quite possibly/historically been known to do: subtly guide the lendee into a relationship with other Jewish entities who gather information about Mr. Gentile Businessman's clientele

(see HERE, for example:

I was in the industry and remember a few names in this list became incredibly rich after 911. How? They were shorting airline stocks and buying put options galore through hundreds of accounts around the world just days before the attacks. I remember thinking something strange going on in the airline sector stocks but shrugged it off. The day of 911 it all made sense. The SEC knows EXACTLY who the people are behind it but never investigated. These peeps are murderous villains and crooks. No arab with 2 flying lessons in a cessna perpetrated 911. Those buildings were all blown up including building 7 that housed the FBI counter intel/counter terrorism office which was responsible for monitoring foreign agents in the USA. All 3 buildings belonged to Larry Silverstein who should upgrade his name to Platinumstein due to the billions he made from insurance fraud after the attacks.

And people wonder how these scumbags get rich? Its not from being “smart”

You’re unsophisticated and easily fooled. They are gophers – they have the trappings of power but don’t in fact make decisions, they implement decisions that are already made. Jews make for excellent golems. Saying da joos have ‘power’ is like saying cops make the law.

Their shadowy masters also don’t have power. You can just not take the vaccine. You can just watch neither Hollywood movies nor Hollywood TV. They only have power over the Jews themselves and Jew-equivalents.

You don’t have to hold USD or USD equivalents. The way to be rich under a fiat system is to hold as many dollar liabilities as possible, which you use to pay for real assets, so inflation makes your assets rise in price while wiping out your debts. Bugging the banks is extremely legal in America.

Andrew Anglin is a nutcase!

Jews over-represent American judiciary and the legal community by claiming that Jews were the inventors of Ten Barbaric Commandments for world's Christians to follow with the saying of "Thou shall not commit adultery (i.e., Don't covet your neighbors' wives!)."

Jews over-represent urban medical practices in America by manipulating one-sixth of the American economy (i.e., Medicare, Medicaid, Private Insurance Business, Dentistry, Ophthalmology, Oncology, Psychology, etc.).

Jews over-represent in American academia with more tenured Jews in American schools than non-Jews!

Jews over-represent in the winning list of Nobel Prizes than non-Jews in proportion to the Jews in any given population.

Jews over-represent in American media industry with more successful movie-makers than any other ethnic group does.

Jews are the only over-represented group on earth who falsely claim that Christian Nazis massacred them to the tune of EXACTLY six millions — about 80 years ago — and world's Christians gladly provide world's Jews with financial reparations for generation after generation.

Jews are the only ethnic group on earth who over-represent for being nice to one another!

Somehow they missed August Belmont. Started working for the Rothschilds when he was twelve. Sent by them to the US during the panic of 1837 and quickly became rich. As Chairman of the Democratic National Committee he allowed the party to split and facilitate the election of Lincoln, a minority president. He was married to Caroline Slidell Perry, a niece of John Slidell, who helped to scuttle Douglas's nomination and to finance the south in the civil war. Belmont Stakes is named after August Belmont, who established it..

“Contrary to the historically ignorant popular opinion, military invasion is actually far less destructive to a nation than a mass immigration. Paris was invaded and occupied by German soldiers, and it remained Paris. Afghanistan, Iraq, and Vietnam were all invaded and occupied by US soldiers and they are still Afghanistan, Iraq, and Vietnam.

But Detroit was mass-immigrated by Africans and it is no longer Detroit except in name. Palestine was mass-immigrated by Jews and it is no longer even Palestine by name. If the current trends continue, by the year 2100 Australia will be Chinese and Sweden will be the first Arab country on the Baltic Sea.”

Jewish-supremacists caught on early that editing Wikipedia pages was a chance to do their favorite thing – battling goyim. They'd run classes to teach editing of Wiki pages, creating an instant army of pro-Jewish editors. This isn't speculation- they bragged about it.

One of the more interesting editor battles was the page for Antifa. Compare it with the page for OathKeepers. Depending on who was editing, the OathKeepers were a fraternal order of military and police, but some editors were very insistent they be called a far-right militia. Antifa was either a terrorist organization, or a wholesome grouping of anti-racists.

The nepotism pipeline keeps certain occupations staffed with Jewish ‘friendlies’.

A more interesting chart would be the career path of the children. They are encouraged to visit Israel, be courted and groomed by tribe mentors, follow a path laid out for them by the preceding generation, and take advantage of heritage leg-ups.

You don’t have to look far to see examples of how tribal nepotism takes opportunities away from non-Jewish youth. Many brilliant gentile minds languish in obscurity, while mediocre Jews land outstanding careers.

Does anyone believe that Grinder enthusiast Yoel Roth was the best qualified person to run Twitter, with a six-figure salary to boot? Nina Jankowitz selected for DHS?

@Face The Truth

The reasons why Jews are overrepresented:

- Jewish nepotism;
- Jewish ends justify any means to achieve them;
- To people who aren't sociopaths, means have an intrinsic moral value therefore the end doesn't justify the means;
- As a corollary, "gentiles" treat Jews according to gentile ethics, Jews treat "gentiles" according to Talmudic "ethics".

Jews' lack of moral compass and disregard for principles of fairness gives them a competitive advantage but from time to time "gentile" society has an immune reaction. Suppressing "gentile" immunity by any means, both figuratively and literally, is what the Jews have tried to do in the last two centuries, stepping up the effort multiple times since WW2, but their problem is that they never know to stop and their hunger for power always ends up being a death wish.

Ashkenazi Jews are smart. You know, whatever Ashkenazi Jews think of us, Black Hebrew Israelites think worse of us. The Black Hebrew Israelites form have a new religion but, despite being around for a while this group of people is not capable of moving high up the socioeconomic ladder. Ashkenazi Jews on the other hand are on record time and time again for performing well on cognitive tests so of course they do well economically.

That's the spirit. Interacting with public opinion, in the public domain, there is no excuse to duck responsibility. Hiding should not be an option, corrupting information is crime. Participating can be organized crime, top-dog functions, harsher punishment.

What is even more interesting is what pays who. In any gig, it is about salary, pay, and then ego. Ego tends to grow with pay. Pay is top down. That created the nihilistic "middle class" brand of senseless pushers.

Okay.

Is it the Spartan military might of the Amish or their immense Plutocratic wealth that they can't match? Sub-1% vaccination rates.

If you rely on your job, you need to control your job, not offer it as a hostage to the Regime. How many folks had been fired for heresy by 2020? Way too late to be surprised by a sudden need to have a plan for (defence against; security) heresy charges. They didn't plan. They were surprised. They got what they deserved.

If you don't securely control your revenue stream you need to have more than one. It's called hedging. This is basic to anyone with even a modicum of education.

It shouldn't have been possible twice: if every kid refuses to do the homework, the teacher is in trouble, not the ~~victims~~

“students.” If everyone refuses to take the job, even though it's 'mandatory' then Fauci is in trouble, not the employees.

The opposite of that happened.

Because they aren't, in fact, stupid. They did know DC was hostile to them. They just like it. They want the oppression and tyranny, and that demand is being supplied.

The job, and my [exact words] over years ago and many times over: “jobs is modern slavery”. As you say, dependency, no autonomy, middle-men, as in finance [mortgages, inflation/deflation, speculation, and worst first: jobs and corporative and institutional monopolies, schools and universities], media translating the message, politicians, role playing is innate. That is why we can best assume man-meat, commoner, deplorable, subject as our state of being. It is a state of mind. The hard-wired animal bred and fed into scavenger mode.

To bootstrap the concept into the neo-cortex, the little box above the stem of our brain, it takes more then the depraved figureheads that are fed to us.

Zero results because no one cares about your hoax narrative that even jews publicly admit was never true. Begone, imbecile.

@PetrOldSack

I lost a wage position due to failing to vax.

Not a loss; I gained free time. I'm better off without that position, since it wasn't worth the money. Not only that, I jiu-jitsued the layoff to be more politically advantageous for me than quitting. Got me good optics.

My country trying to force me to vax ended up helping me twice, because I piously refused.

If you don't like tyranny, you can decline. Despite everything, the West really is free, surprisingly. Although, as it is said, freedom isn't free. Have to prepare.

Is Anglin Unz's seceret propagandist for Jews?

Banking is crucial to the extraordinary wealth of America and the fact that its people have immeasurably less material need and insecurity than the vast majority in the world or history.

You're selling them to us lol

we warehouse students and we warehouse the elderly. the two groups that would most benefit from each other's company, are purposefully separated, exasperating the disintegration of the family, and limiting transmission of multigenerational knowledge and advice.

We can't have anyone who doesn't rely on the State for everything.

Because the State is genuinely too weak to survive a population with anything less than that level of dependence.

The State considered sucking less but this option was immediately discarded. Ludicrous.

Let's not try that particular approach.

If east Europeans, without a drop of Semitic blood in their veins can become Jews, then why can't African Negroes without of drop of Semitic blood in their veins become Jews?

Why not? It would help speed-up the inevitable crash and rebirth of common sense and reason.
