America Pulls Back From Values That Once Defined It, WSJ-NORC Poll Finds

Patriotism, religion and hard work hold less importance

By Aaron Zitner Follow

Jak vidíte, v roce 1998 bylo vlastenectví „velmi důležité“ pro 70 procent Američanů. V roce 2019 to bylo jen něco málo přes 60 procent a pak letos kleslo na 38 procent.

V roce 1998 téměř 60 procent Američanů uvedlo, že „mít děti“ je velmi důležité. Nyní to není ani polovina tohoto čísla. Klesá i význam náboženství. Jediné, čeho si v tomto průzkumu Američané cenili více než dříve, jsou peníze.

Toto jsou historická data z Pew Research o procentu Američanů, kteří „důvěřují vládě, že udělá to, co je správné, téměř vždy nebo po většinu času. Na začátku 60. let to bylo 75 procent.

V 80. letech za Ronalda Reagana došlo k vzestupu a po útocích z 9. na 11. došlo ke křeči přes hranici 50 procent, a pak to kleslo.

Federálům nevěří ani 25 procent Američanů.

Možná to má něco společného s tím, jak naši vládcí utrácejí peníze, které nemají. Zde je celkový federální dluh jako procento hrubého domácího produktu. Nyní je to 120 procent celkové roční produkce země.

A zde je graf, kolik federální vláda platí na úrocích každé čtvrtletí. Poslední čtvrtletí: 213 miliard dolarů. To je 213 miliard dolarů z vaší kapsy, která nic nekoupila.

Thomas Jefferson si myslel, že je nemorální osedlávat budoucí generace dnešním dluhem, a to je přesně to, co děláme. Možná to pomůže vysvětlit, proč jsou Američané tak pesimističtí ohledně budoucnosti.

Poll: Wall Street Journal/ University of Chicago

Podívejte se na spodní lištu. Sedmdesát osm procent Američanů si myslí, že generace jejich dětí na tom bude hůř než jejich vlastní. Ještě před 20 lety si to myslelo jen 42 procent.

Jeden poslední bod: Když New York City stavělo metro, počínaje začátkem 20. století, umístilo do stanic toalety. Teď jsou zavřené.

Kdyby nebyly, žili by v nich lidé – znásilňovali a vraždili by v nich. Něco se muselo změnit.

Jak by to všechno vysvětlili naši vládcí – nebo něco z toho? Už je slyším. „Jsou to složité, mnohostranné jevy, ale čerpáme z nesmírné síly naší úžasné rozmanitosti a budujeme novou, soucitnou Ameriku, ve které jsou všichni ceněni.

Nikdy by neřekli: „Tato země umírá“, ale to se děje.

Všechny tyto věci mají něco společného: patologický individualismus. Neschopnost – nebo odmítnutí – přemýšlet nad rámec úzkých osobních zájmů.

Je zřejmé, že útoky smeč a chňapnutí nebo skákání na auta lidí je brutálně asociální, dokonce psychopatické, ale černoši k tomu směřují už desítky let. Něco jiného znamená, když národ jako celek přestane chtít mít děti a během jediné generace se stane mnohem méně vlasteneckým.

Společnost potřebuje děti, aby mohla pokračovat.

A národ nepřežije bez určité úrovně loajality občanů. Povinnost platí oběma směry: Vláda se musí o lidi alespoň zdát. Je těžké respektovat vládu, která na každé dítě od chvíle, kdy se narodí, naloží veřejný dluh více než 93 000 dolarů. Když je vláda plná chamtivých, narcistických lidí, proč by měli být občané jiní?

V roce 1961 prezident John Kennedy ve svém inauguračním projevu řekl: „Američané: Neptejte se, co může vaše země udělat pro vás – ptejte se, co můžete udělat pro svou zemi.“

Dokážete si představit, že by to řekl Joe Biden? Lidé by vyprskli smíchy.

To byla jiná Amerika.

Zlepšil se od té doby byť jen jeden společenský trend? Napadá vás i jeden? Vlastně můžu. Spotřeba cigaret na hlavu je asi čtvrtina toho, co byla v roce 1960.

Něco dalšího?

Jak tedy opravit celou zemi? Jak dáváte lidem loajalitu mimo ně samotné? Jak léčíte patologický individualismus?

Za prvé, uznejte, že rasová rozmanitost je mor. Lidé nevěří lidem, kteří jsou jiní. Robert Putnam z Harvardu je známý tím, že kvantifikuje, do jaké míry rozmanitost zabíjí důvěru.

Abstract:

A Harvard political scientist finds that diversity hurts civic life. What happens when a Bylo hroznou chybou opustit původní myšlenku Spojených států jako země pro bílé lidi.

V roce 1960 tvořili běloši téměř 90 procent populace. Byla to společnost s vysokou důvěrou. Nikdo by si nepředstavoval scény, které jste viděli na začátku tohoto videa. Nyní je podíl bílých na 60 procentech. Žije zde sto třicet milionů nebílých. Bylo by nemožné je přesvědčit, aby odešli.

Jediným lékem na diverzitu je proto odpoutanost. Pokud by Američané měli stálé komunity lidí jako oni, měli by alespoň místní loajalitu a připoutanost.

Věděli by, že jejich děti vyrostou a budou žít mezi lidmi jako oni, kterým mohou věřit. Rozdělení ve velkém by nebylo snadné, ale je to jediný lék na rozmanitost.

Lidé se samozřejmě neustále oddělují. Je to instinktivní. Podívejte se na čtvrti, kluby, grilování na dvorku.

Když mají lidé na výběr, chtějí homogenitu. Naše země musí uznat, že je to přirozené, normální a zdravé. Místo toho vláda neustále tlačí lidi dohromady. To se nezmění, dokud to nezmění bílí lidé, kterých je stále většina. Bílí lidé musí pochopit, že rasa je ústředním prvkem identity nebílých. Musí být také ústředním bodem naší identity.

Rasová loajalita léčí patologický individualismus. Rasově uvědomělí běloši milují své evropské dědictví, biologické i kulturní. Vědí, že pouze bílí mohou nést toto dědictví vpřed.

Kredit: isogood, CC BY-SA 4.0 , prostřednictvím Wikimedia Commons

To vyžaduje nové generace bílých rodin a bílých dětí. Znamená to naučit děti respektovat minulost a budovat budoucnost. Znamená to žít pro něco většího, než jsi ty sám.

To vše mění.

Zdravá společnost je postavena na rodinách. Chápu, že muži a ženy jsou odlišní. Uvědomují si, že děti potřebují otce a matku, kteří zůstanou spolu. Celá struktura společnosti – vzorce námluv, sexuální morálka, povaha práce, zákony o manželství, daňový systém – vše je nastaveno tak, aby podporovalo rodiny.

Žádná společnost, která si cení rodiny, neoslavuje homosexuály.

Kreditní obrázek: © Cris Faga/ZUMA Press Wire

Lidé, jejichž reprodukční energie je zaměřena na jejich vlastní pohlaví, jsou biologickými slepými uličkami. Nejsou vzory. Většina si pravděpodobně nezvolila být tímto způsobem, stejně jako neslyšící lidé se rozhodnou být hluchí. Nepronásledujeme neslyšící, ale ani nelemujeme ulice, abychom fandili na průvodu „hluchých hrdosti“. Žádná zdravá společnost nepodporuje změny pohlaví. To je další slepá ulička. [0:47 – 1:16]

Když jsou muži a ženy loajální ke svým lidem a společnosti, kterou budují, pracují na zlepšení společnosti, ale i lidí samotných. Dnes Spojené státy propagují všechny špatné věci. To proto, že se oficiálně zavázala k rovnosti.

Kreditní obrázek: © Michael Brochstein/ZUMA Wire

Rovnost je nemožná a snažit se o to, aby si lidé byli rovni, nevyhnutelně znamená stahovat dolů ty nejlepší a podporovat ty nejhorší.

Americké nutkání k rovnosti začalo rasou, myšlenkou, že černí a bílí jsou si rovni a jsou zaměnitelní.

To zjevně není pravda a veškeré úsilí o to, aby si byli rovni, selhalo. Navzdory tomuto neúspěchu se touha po rovnosti rozšířila. Všechny kultury jsou si rovny, žádné náboženství není lepší než jiné. Dokonce i pohlaví jsou rovnocenná a zaměnitelná. Nyní máme věřit, že je zdravé a krásné být tlustý a že je špatné obdivovat krásu a nechat se odpuzovat ošklivostí. [Lizzo na jevišti] Všechny rozdíly jsou tak nedůležité a povrchní, že mohu oznámit, že jsem dnes žena, a trvat na tom, aby se mnou jednalo.

Společnost posedlá rovností je posedlá neúspěchem. Ne trestat nebo zlepšovat lidi, kteří selhali, ale trestat společnost za to, že je údajně přiměla k selhání. Žádná osoba – pokud to není běloch – není nikdy zodpovědná za selhání. Každý poražený, deviant a zločinec je obětí bílého muže a čím více způsobů, jak se můžete prohlásit za oběť – nebílý, queer, transsexuál, přistěhovalec, nemluvící anglicky – tím cennější jste a tím více požadavky, které můžete klást.

Kreditní obrázek: © Rodrigo Sura/EFE přes ZUMA Press

Proto je dnes největší ctností soucit se všemi těmito takzvanými oběťmi. Samozřejmě je to falešná ctnost, protože to nepřináší žádné osobní náklady.

Vše, co musíte udělat, je dělat povyk nad neúspěchy a propagovat způsoby, jak vzít peníze úspěšným lidem a dát je neúspěchům.

Představte si společnost, která ctí odvahu, integritu, čestnost, věrnost v manželství, věrnost zásadám, povinnost k rodině a národu.

Kdy někdy slyšíte někoho chválit tyto věci?

Národ rasově uvědomělých bílých, kterým záleželo na budoucnosti jejich lidu, by si vážil skutečné ctnosti. Byla by to šťastná společnost hrdých lidí, kteří se těšili na budoucnost. Oslavovalo by to úspěch, ne neúspěch. Chtělo by to hledat důvody pro obdiv, ne pro soucit.

Uvědomil by si, že v poslání společnosti číslo jedna podporovat rodiny si některé rodiny zaslouží více povzbuzení než jiné.

Dědičnost je důležitá a zdravý národ chce, aby budoucí generace byly vždy lepší, nejen morálně, psychologicky a duchovně, ale i biologicky. To vše by mohlo platit o zdravé společnosti jakékoli rasy, ale v multirasové společnosti to není možné.

Kreditní obrázek: © Stephen Shaver/ZUMA Wire

Je to možné pouze ve společnosti společného cíle. Rozmanitost bude vždy nepřítelem jednoty a společného cíle.

Po čem samozřejmě volám, je revoluce ve způsobu, jakým přemýšlíme o společnosti a našem místě v ní, ale byla by to mírová revoluce.

Vyžaduje pouze, aby dostatek lidí pochopilo, že směřujeme ke katastrofě, a byli ochotni s tím něco udělat.

Nechtěl byste raději žít v lepší zemi? Nechcete svým dětem zanechat lepší zemi? To se nestane, pokud nevybudujeme tu lepší zemi.

Jsem zoufalý.

Merritless Garfinkel vesele zaútočí na Proud Boys (nebezpečné patrioty, jejichž nebezpečné zasvěcení znamená pojmenovat 5 obilovin) a nechá Antifu zuřit. Zdá se, že nenávidí rodiče, heterosexuály a církve. Zdá se, že jeho politika a posedlost Jansixem ničí zemi.

Mám podezření, že historie k němu nebude laskavá.

Meanwhile, the Right whines about all the shite it lets happen. It's filled with RINOs and cowards and mcconnells-grahams-romneys. It follows laws, procedures, and traditions that render it impotent.

Republicans also hold endless "Thank you for that question, Senator!" do-nothing hearings. They seem to think their job is to point out problems, not solve them.

FIRST — Follow Wilmot Robinson's advice and form Ethnostates. Be gradual. Be discreet. Start with gated neighborhoods that are ALREADY white. When you get the trailer parks to do the same, you're moving in the right direction. Create affordable housing for young whites where none is available.

TWO — Once you've got enough Ethnostates of the European variety, you're gonna need political clout. Just like Jews tax themselves for things like the ADL, we're going to tax ourselves for the same sort of thing including infiltrating political parties — * all * — and maintaining media empires and publishing houses and education establishments. If they * can * do it, we * must * do it.

To be like us, full time, we have to be like them, in the time it takes to win.

When Tucker got fired, I stopped watching Fox...save for Gutfeld's show. Now I'm done with him, too.

Why?

Because tonight he had on loudmouth racist yenta Brooke Goldstein. She was allowed to wear a politically-themed tee that said #EndJewHatred. At first I thought, great: Jews are finally going to stop shit-stirring!

But no. It's yet another grift to get people to stop hating Jews (despite their own constant spreading of venom.)

"[A]nti-Semitism is the oldest hatred in the world..." ~ Bari Weiss

<https://www.endjewhatred.com/>

So not only are Jews, in their own eyes, Chosen...they're also are victims of the earliest hate. No mention of hate existing before Jews arrived on the scene. No mention either of why Jews get hated on. Or the causes of 109 expulsions. Also, no mention of Zionism's many crimes.

So now EJH will be added to SPLC, ADL, Snopes, ACLU, AIPAC, and other Tribe-focused entities that won't allow any criticism of Jews.

Whites need to unite and stop hatred of Whites. Why don't they? Why do they always turn cheeks? Why are they so meek, instead of proud? Why do they whimper that it's only "okay" to be white"?

Dwelling in the past, nostalgia, isn't going to fix today's world. That was a different time with much less people and different sensibilities. It's gone and it's not coming back. You can't cram Pandora back in her box.

White, black, yellow, red, green – we all have the same body parts under the color of the skin. The problems arise from the brains. As George Carlin stated:

“Think of how stupid the average person is, and realize half of them are stupider than that.”

People on the left side of the IQ curve should not be allowed to vote, write or comment on the net. In fact, if the sub-average babies were culled at or around birth, we would achieve a superior society.

Eventually, this world will be one with no national borders, where everyone speaks the same language and where everyone will be approximately the same color due to intermarriage. Hopefully, this will occur in conjunction with some method of requiring people to achieve a minimum IQ level before being allowed to procreate and a general overall reduction in world population by at least 50%.

JT: “How do you cure pathological individualism?”

JT: “Instead, the government is constantly pushing people together.”

Observation: These two statements directly contradict one another.

The writer opposes “pathological individualism”, and yet, at the exact same time opposes “the government constantly pushing people together.”?

Question: Isn't the government's “pushing people together” its attempt to eradicate “pathological individualism” and enforce the idea that everybody is the same, and “equal”?

Conclusion: This writer yet again proves that he is a hopelessly confused, dare I say it, individual .!

...the Berbers of north Africa when they were invited by the Spanish Jews to cross the nine-mile strip of water at Gibraltar and possess themselves of the Christian kingdom. The plot was discovered, and the Jews sternly punished. A second attempt, however, was successful at a moment when the Visigoth monarchy was perishing of its own follies. "It remains a fact," says the Jewish Encyclopedia, "that the Jews, either directly or through their correligionists in Africa, encouraged the Mohammedans to conquer Spain." In 709 the Arab general Tarik led an army of Berbers, in which there were many African Jews, across the straits. Defeating and slaying King Rodrigo, with the aid of Christian traitors, at the great battle of Jerez de la Frontera, they carried death in all directions through the peninsula. Wherever they went, the Jews threw open to them the gate of the principal cities, so that in an incredibly short time the Africans were masters of all Spain...

From Isabella of Spain: The Last Crusader by William Thomas Walsh (McBride & Co., 1930), p. xvi

And, I might add, this is the very same group behind bringing Africans to the New World. A group which primarily seeks to subvert and bring disorder to the world and the natural order.

Thank you for pointing out the contradiction generated by the fantasy condition titled “pathological individualism”. The foundation of righteous government and culture is individualism. Government should only exist to protect the individual against the mob. My rights as an individual stop where your begin, your rights stop where mine begin. A righteous and moral culture teaches Biblical principles and obedience to the ten commandments. Read them which one is impossible to obey? Torah is not Jewish Judaism tossed it after the excile, the word of any rabbi supersedes the Word of God. Christianity tossed Torah only in the last two centuries by teaching “grace” without obedience a deadly “once saved always saved” doctrine. Our Messiah was wholly spiritual not political. I agree with most of what you say...the problem is how to effect the change. I don't see a peaceful change coming. Our rapacious, megalomaniacal overlords thrive on disruption of our society. The disparity in IQ, even among whites, is such that full suffrage under democracy will not work.

The discordance among our current population is impossible to change peacefully.

Nonwhites are certainly a problem. However, our main problem for the last sixty years is that our governing white elites have increasingly become predatory criminals themselves. They have formed an alliance with crime prone minorities against the productive citizens of this country.

Governments through most of history have been the enemy of the productive segment of the population. They have been little more than a band of robbers who have settled in one place to exploit the local population on a continuing basis. The main exception has been America and a few places in Europe under the influence of Enlightenment era ideas. Here productive people were allowed to keep what they produced, which encouraged economic growth that resulted in a high standard of living. As America has moved away from its founding ideas, it has given criminals both inside and outside the government free reign to do what they want.

JT: "How do you cure pathological individualism?"

JT: "...[T]he government is constantly pushing people together."

Observation: These two statements directly contradict one another.

Not really.

Jared, cited pathological, not healthy individualism. The former is naive, the kind of tomfoolery that thinks isolated snipers can defeat the Red Army. That kind of thinking keeps Western men isolated and easily defeated.

"No man is an island," eh wot?

FACT: Individuals rarely raise barns of any size. Groups are needed to build large enclosures.

Most businesses, colleges, communities, etc. are, by nature, similarly communal enterprises, not the creations of lone hermits.

On the other hand, toxic governments can (and often do) push individuals together when it finds them isolated. Just like slavers/raiders targeted lone villages on coasts.

Ergo, freedom is a balance.

Individuals affiliated with "enough" like-minded others get protection. And tend not to get bullied while retaining a goodly amount of freedom.

On the other hand, random isolated individuals can be forced by government/gangs to "unite"...and often have little freedom.

The great evolutionary biologist william hamilton explained that 60 years ago. For obvious genetic reasons animals trust animals related to themselves and distrust those they can see are not relatives. Racism is instinctive and automatic. Without thinking about it i know a black skinned person does not share genetic heritage with me and i don’t want to be around him.

Diversity is a terrible horrible awful society-destroying idea and that’s why china pays our leaders to support it.

In fact, if the sub-average babies were culled at or around birth, we would achieve a superior society.

This happened naturally before the industrial revolution, the child survival rate was almost a coin flip back then, afterwards it became virtually one hundred percent survival rate. It'll correct itself eventually when IQ drops low enough that maintaining modern civilization becomes impossible. The only question is whether any Whites will still be around in the west when that happens, I imagine most will flee once things really start breaking down.

Taylor speaks only about Black vs White.

What about the millions of Latinos and Latinas, many of whom are marrying with whites.

What about the nr-f*g white whores having mulatto babies.

What about the white men marrying Asians.

First America was the “melting pot” of “all the European races” (a Jew said that), now it’s the “vibrant soup” of all races and ethnicities.

Now, I do favor some sort of secession, I think it’s inevitable. But even if Whites separate, I don’t see this fully working. “American” is not a race, it’s not a culture, it’s not anything.

I’d say, let’s just scratch America as a failed Freemason experiment, and let’s try to save European countries that still have a remnant of their own peoples.

Ok, ok, perhaps some subsets of America can be saved and divided into different countries (Dixie, Amish Country, Mexifornia), but I doubt it.

One of the classic sociological studies of all time was conducted by Richard La Piere who went on a trip for 2 years across the U.S. with a Chinese couple during a time when there was negative sentiment toward Chinese in 1934. The Chinese couple were never refused lodging in 66 hotels and never refused service in 184 restaurants. La Piere later sent a questionnaire to the same hotels and asked if they would accept a Chinese customer. 90 percent of the hotels said “NO”.

So attitudes have little or nothing to do with actions. So I wouldn't give much credence to these studies.

The only solution is a white ethnostate which can be created by a false flag operation, because the reason to dissociate has also got to be a major cause. If you simply decide to remove and start afresh the Jewish worm will follow you there. At least with a false flag you have a legit excuse. Take over a mid western state like Maine or Colorado.

Other option is leave everything behind....your histories, the magnificent buildings and bridges you built, and relocate en mass to Russia and start again. This seems like a more logical solution. You don't even have to force others....the majority of left sympathizers are brainwashed whites. Leave them behind.

Start with a bunch, you don't need a lot, even a million humans would do and have a restart.

“First, recognize that racial diversity is a plague.”

How so?

Most likely, you are simply assuming that your low IQ audience will see “racial diversity” as “cultural diversity”.

If they make that erroneous move, they can then point to the fact that great cultural diversity, and especially cultural diversity as a positive goal, really IS a plague.

But they don't get there without the initial error.

“It was a terrible mistake to abandon the original idea of the United States as a land for white people.”

You should have stopped at “United States”.

You really have to be a historical moron to think that Thomas Jefferson and Ben Franklin and the crew “conceived” of the US as a land for white people.

Obviously, the thought never entered their heads, since it was simply A FACT.

You sound like that 1619 “woman”.

The ideas founding the US were great, and we should stick to them even now.

“When they have a choice, people want homogeneity.”

I guess you don't read Aristotle much... figures.

But since you don't know, what he says is that:

“All men by nature reach out to know.”

You are kind of like Al Sharpton.

We would need volumes to address these problems, so to be brief. The press was supposed to keep an eye on the government so the people could pursue happiness. The governments primary responsibility is to “secure” liberty. Repeal the Hart Cellar Act. Repeal the 14th and 16th amendments. Bring the troops home, ALL of them, and seal the border. Have a moratorium on ALL immigration for the next 100 years, no exceptions, well, maybe one or two. Systematically repatriate all illegal invaders until their numbers are negligible, with severe penalties for nations that won’t take their people back. The carrot and stick approach. Get rid of the Federal Reserve. Ban dual citizens from serving in government. Ban the exposition of adult themes toward children in all media, with severe penalties for infractions. Reinstate the House Unamerican activities commitee and purge academia and the media of communists and subversives. Give the commitee teeth. Start a truth and reconciliation commitee to get to the bottom of the covid19 fiasco, empowered with the granting of amnesty and persecutory abilities. These things are a start, but we must remember that a republic consists of a moral people. You can’t be a greedy internationalist and rely on the government for protection. Taylor's vision is a pipe dream. Too many White women are useless to the White Cause. Generally speaking, White women would rather shop til they drop than have children, and they are often abusive to the children they do have. It's the jews, but it's White women, too. The author must realize that a diminishing sense of whiteness or toughness among whites or certain lack of grandiose thinking about the American history thereof isn't what's causing the US decline right now. What's causing America's collapse is a direct result of its own chosen selfish path to become the number one maverick of Neoliberalism and finance capitalism. Privately owned central banking system is not beneficial like it used to be in the 60's. Today, the US system is too corrupt to even rescue it. Therefore, there's a urgent need to adopt to a new system without the use of a privately owned elitist central banking.

Jared asserts that the US has declined into selfishness and he is right. However, this was by deliberate choice. Minding your own business, avoiding troublesome situations and looking out for oneself has been foisted on a population as a matter of pure survival.

Consider, you are a licensed conceal carry and you see two thugs (almost always black) beating up a Policeman. Intervene and kill one or both and the DA will string you up by your balls.

In a perverted sense you cannot blame the criminals. Society has allowed them to avoid the consequences of their actions. The same applies to twerking, jumping on cars, drag queen story time and demands for slave reparations etc etc. Non western countries with larger black/ diverse populations do not have these issues. Kill a Policeman in most non western countries means the criminal never makes it to court. He is shot dead “resisting arrest”. Burning, looting etc on the part of the idle members of society is usually met with ultra violence from the Government.

Blacks go on and on with Whites about reparations. In the latest, black leaders in California assert the latest $1.2 M per Dindoo is not enough. It should be $200 M each. The crowd of darkie attendees scream in ignorant delight without having a clue as to where the money is coming from. We listen to them patiently instead of shutting down the conversation and telling them to fuck off.

How come we dont hear this same refrain directed at African countries, Middle East countries, the Caribbean especially Cuba and Brazil which imported 4M slaves versus the 400K in the US.

The answer is simple. In those countries, the Government would apply a very heavy hand to the back of your head followed by the hospital yard, the police yard or the graveyard ! WE, put up with it and so the kiddies, like kiddies everywhere ramp up their misbehaviour !

There is no hope for the US unless a Dictator comes along and puts an end to this deteriorating situation with draconian ruthlessness, rioters shot down, drag queens to maximum security prisons (housed in the black cell blocks) , criminals executed, border jumpers kneecapped, illegals rounded up and shoved back over the Mexican border, blacks back to Africa, the homeless and drug addicted parcelled off to work camps etc. Our problems would be fixed in quick time. Dreams are free of course and this will never happen without 1000 congressional hearings lasting for the next hundred years, that is, if we make it that long.

In the meantime, a person anticipating the coming collapse would do well to divest of all assets, place the money offshore, save every cent and have a bug out bag, ready to flee the inevitable chaos.

Katrinka and Roatan Bill have already seen the light and split the program. Instead of waiting and hoping for a miracle, the prudent would do well to follow their example.

How to Solve All Our Problems

Three words. Exterminate. The. _____.

• Agree: Adolf Smith

Since Jared Taylor doesn't know how to spell to save his life, I'll spell it out for him: IT'S THE JEWS, STUPID.

And the truth be known, if (or God forbid, when) the Jews extirpate the white race, they won't stop there: the admirable societies of the Asia/ Pacific Rim are next in line for the Jewish Cultural Marxist poison of "DIEversity" .

You see the problem with Katie kes is not what they want; what Jews want – racial and cultural exclusivity and continuity (as they practice in Israel , for example) – is actually healthy and decent . The problem with the Jews is that they seek to deny everyone else what they want for themselves alone.

And that's just too damn bad. Because if they require that white European nations and their genotype disappear in order to further their own tribe, I'd rather see every single last one of the 15-16 million of them still stinking up this planet go straight back to Hell and join their father Satan before that happens.

If you lived in a country in which the vast majority of citizens held the same beliefs in traditional values and actually lived by those beliefs, I think many problems disappear.

Instead, we live in a profligate society that enables destructive ideology. If we were forced to deal with the consequences of our actions, rational thought would return and we would see a reversion to the mean.

Nothing will change because of wishful thinking.

Follow the money is the best axiom ever.....when we stop spending money we don't have, things will change. This is inevitable – the only question is whether it occurs gradually or quickly and whether it is accompanied by violence when those who live off the productive stop getting their dole.

Jared Taylor speaks eloquently and calmly, and does not resort to profanity. Profanity weakens your argument and makes you seem like a short-tempered brute with low impulse control.

If you spend any time in the comments on AmRen, you'll know that the entire community is aware of the role Jews play in disempowering White nations. Taylor himself does not share this opinion, but even if you disagree with him on some points, his overall message is one of White advocacy. Someone who agrees with me 90% of the time is much more of an ally than someone who agrees with me 0% of the time.

The various pro-White communities around the internet need to rally around a basic common cause, namely the protection and preservation of White people and interests. Discarding one of the strongest voices as "controlled opposition" because they don't mimic your exact position on every issue is something I would expect an anti-White to do.

Taylor sees Whites as they were in 1950. He has not come to the realization that the jew establishment has so thoroughly destroyed our White Christian culture that most Whites today have zero interest in White identity or establishing a new White country. They have been subjected to 60 years of jew created social conditioning and the infusion of self hatred from media, academia and Hollywood all run by jews. They are conditioned to be compliant as their race is systematically eliminated. First there is much work to be done removing the jew tuberculosis from our country before anything else can be done to convince Whites that a multi-race country cannot work.

“Sorry, capitalism is the finest system we have” This should be in past tense. Once upon time slavery was the finest system there is. But time passed and it outlived its usefulness and became the brake on human development. Capitalism plainly had outlived its usefulness. All this talk about wonderful people quality is just that. Capitalism when new and virile did produce outstanding personalities and was progressive but once it developed, aged and turned into imperialism it stopped being progressive and started actually causing all sorts of things the author doe snot like. In its foundation capitalism just like previous systems had antagonistic conflicts and problems that cannot be solved within this system. The next logical step is obviously socialism which worked well even when there was no experience and especially under extremely high pressure with capitalistic surrounding trying everything to destroy it. Regarding China it is not exactly pure capitalistic example and we all know how Chinese miracle came to be. It is USA made. And in any case I would not want to be working proletariat in China. Capitalism had stopped long time ago to resolve problems of its own making and only creates more and more and it started having degenerative impact upon everything form ecosystems to humans.

There is something not right on AmRen. There is some strange moderation there now that makes me think there is a rat hiding in the cellar. A post was removed that compared blacks in our large cities to a plague of locusts, destroying and then moving on to their next target of destruction. I no longer have confidence in the comments section there with new moderation policies like that.

It is not a problem of rabid anti-white racism, any more than it was a problem of wacko anti-capitalism during the 1960-70's. It was then and it is now a problem of Jewish supremacism. The anti-capitalist folly during the 1960-70's seemed on the verge of killing America as a free enterprise country to turn it in some kind of richer, better organized Eastern Bloc country with bureaucrats and lawyers taking the place of all businessmen. That's not what happened. Jewish interests needed the return in force of business mentality to proceed to the final phase of their take-over so as to crash down most revenues of work through the action of the laws of market and the constant threat of outsourcing.

What the Jews did from 1945 to 1980 was to partially ruin the anglo-saxon and other non-jewish business and cower the rest into perfect obedience to Israel as the new pole of attraction for world money. Once it had become clear the business world was far more subdued to Zionism as a way of thought than the workers and intellectuals had become then under the sway of a less and less jewish-friendly communist nomenklatura in the East, and were also realizing the evident fact that the capitalist system they fought was actually Jewry first and foremost, most Jews in the world swapped ideological allegiance and pronounced their farewell to the proletariat.

The present-day anti-white movement doesn't aim at destroying all whites, it aims at destroying a certain number of them for the example, as was done with so many businesses in the 1960-70's, and at subduing the rest into greater and greater obedience to Jewish racism as the model to emulate to be a good white : that is what Jared Taylor has always been pushing for. The point of inflexion which is now reached is when the Blacks' hatred for dead white male supremacism extends to Jews as the deadliest type of whites for their ambitions in life. Ye is a good forewarning example. Ye was bribed into silence but more and more will raise their voices if only to bribed as richly. At that point the only White supremacists extant will be Jareds, of the kind that recommend the imitation of Israel and the adoration of Jews as the pioneers of White racism in history. Make no mistake about it, if there is a future for white supremacy in the US it is that kind alone, as a reflected glory of Zionism. Watch out for the advent of a Ronald Reagan of White supremacy, though a white supremacy more akin to White supremacy in White minority countries such as Brazil and Mexico, where Whites do enjoy an impregnable superior position provided they act at the bidding of Jewish international commerce. Jews very often sow chaos to govern better and faster but never promote their chaos-incarnating proteges for long, they rather discard them as soon as their utility time has passed and they sound the back to normal trumpet call. Even the Protocols are very clear about that : when the Messianic times start for real a new moral order is restored demanding far more constraints than the one they seemed to want to abolish through chaos. Black supremacist wokism is about to suffer the same fate as the late great Communist Parties of Western Europe : useful idiots having sowed useful chaos for the time needed with no pension nor reward than the final timely purge.

White supremacy ("first the Jew, then the Aryan" to paraphrase Saint Paul) will be based on the sense of thrift and perpetually deferred pleasure on the background of established ecology chastising all overconsumption of resources as a sin, and there is no chance for Blacks to win any point at that new blame game.

White supremacy in history was always a reflected supremacy of the Jewish Talmudic (the Talmud alone was the first treatise assimilating Ham the accursed son of Noah to the ancestor of all Blacks : they first started convincing Arab Muslims during the Islamic Golden Age of Andalusia) one : before the advent of Jews Europeans indulged in other kinds of supremacy than colour-defined. In ancient times courage rather than cunning and refinement of intellect was the primordial trait of superiority and it was pretty clear that whole whiter than white ethnic groups did not have it.

Jews are just the servants of Satan, just like Churchians whose religion is self-absorbed piety. There's enough blame here, so we can spread it around liberally. For instance, most of this grew under our watch if you're anywhere my age – we believed the bullshit and propaganda and even when we might have had some doubts, STFU was pretty much our modus operandi.

So now what?

Studying history – both secular and biblical – each wave of cultural and societal apostasy runs its course, disintegrates and then rebuilds from a remnant which is always there.....even now. That is very clear from biblical history.

I could go on and on ...but here is a starting point for those big picture analysts – <https://crushlimbrow.blogspot.com/2023/05/who-are-daservants-of-satan-does-it.html?m=0> – and if you follow the links enclosed on this subject, you should have a fair grasp of what I've been learning for 15-20 years. We're simply living what has historically happened before time and time again....why? Because Christ's Church has been deceived and redirected from its mission.....which is NOT a secret in the Bible.....but you hardly hear it from DaPulpit or in DaPews.

And just like any other task....keep repeating until we get it right!
Carry on!

Bigger factors IMO were the jew manufactured “sexual revolution” combined with the advent of birth control options. Of course all that was in conjunction with jewry using the media and courts to destroy our Christian culture and family structure. Many people, instead of getting married and having kids, remained single for the purpose of pursuing pleasure instead of a family. And you can throw the jew porn industry on top of that.

The Democrats have the right to win all very close elections. Two of them were “stolen” from them in this century, 2000 and 2016, and they came perilously close to losing another one in 2020. You can’t fault them for being traumatized, can you?

Then there was losing their permanent majority in Congress in 1994. For them, a permanent majority in the House and Senate was the natural order of things. If they don’t have a permanent majority in Congress and don’t win all very close elections, it’s not democracy. People just need to understand that.

Losing is one thing. People can deal with it. When the natural order of life fails, that’s another. Don’t forget the permanent liberal majority on the Supreme Court either.

It’s easy to mock Jared Taylor. But at least he’s proposed a solution: separation. If we accept the fact that much of the United States is gone, that still leaves a sizable area that could be retrieved for whites because it is still overwhelmingly white: The Dakotas, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho and Eastern Oregon/Eastern Washington. There is already a serious movement pushing for the incorporation of Eastern Oregon/Eastern Washington into Greater Idaho. Why not a high plains mountain west nation? Would the politics to make that happen be difficult? Yes. But not insurmountable.

Doesn't matter how many people 'care' as long as jews R around, because (4 example) over 80 million people 'cared' enough 2 vote 4 TRUMP (who has lots of flaws, but not as evil as O'Biden) & the jews just steal the election through fraud, same way they do for Gavin Newsom or N E other ((($hill))). It's E Z 2 C the function of 'unz.com' is 2 throw up various 'red herring arguments' 2 pretend nothing is ever jew's fault, & 'market test' 2 C if 'Those Stupid Goy Beasts' will fall 4 it. It's not really about sharing facts or exposing the truth, but just more (((Propaganda))) = like 'If you silly goy just cared more U would not have child genital mutilation forced on them', as if our 'opinions' or 'actions' matter at all so long as jews are around. Thomas Jefferson thought it was immoral to saddle future generations with today's debt, and that's exactly what we are doing.

I say:

The evil and demonic Baby Boomers have violently attacked future generations by sinking a claw hammer of stolen demand from the future into the skulls of all Americans born after 1965.

The Baby Boomer psycho killer debt swindlers chased down innocent future generations of Americans and they have violently claw hammered in the head future generations by loading up everything and everybody and every entity in the USA with unpayable debt.

The current asset bubbles in stocks, bonds and real estate that the Baby Boomers have greedily and avariciously fed upon has been created by the debt-based monetary policy extremism of the privately-controlled Federal Reserve Bank. Debt electronically conjured up out of thin air!

Debt Is Demand Stolen From The Future!

The Baby Boomers said "after me, the debt deluge" and they piled debt on top of debt on top of debt.

These innocent little lamb students were walking around like little cute puppies and these evil and immoral Baby Boomers sunk the claw hammer of student loan debt right into the skull of these wonderful student loan people.

Attention All Young White Core Americans:

White Americans born before the year 1965 have been bought off by high asset prices to keep their greedy mouths shut about the nation-wrecking mass immigration invasion going on in the USA. Monetary policy has created a series of asset bubbles that satiate the greed of the Geezer Mammonite Whites while immigration policy has been used to keep wages low and housing prices high.

Honest historians will look back on the period before Civil War II and marvel at the Greedy White Geezer treasonites born before 1965 who allowed their civilization to be flooded with non-European foreigners.

This current asset bubble will pop soon. It might have started to pop 5 minutes ago.

The Baby Boomer bastards are just as bad in Europe as they are in the United States. You can call those Baby Boomer rats in Europe 68ers or anything else you like.

Financialization was the drug used to weaken the natural defense mechanism of European Christian nation-states. The bought off scum born before 1965 just stood there and did nothing while non-Europeans poured into their countries. Those born before 1965 have been bought off with massive amounts of unpayable debt and multiple asset bubbles.

It is imperative that young White people not only refuse to pay this Odius Debt, but that they also begin removing large numbers of non-Europeans from their countries.

Why do you think the evil shyster slobs at the globalized central banks have kept interest rates so low for so long? They have done so because the interest costs on government debt would have crowded out most other spending. The monetary extremism from the globalized central banks inflated asset bubbles in stocks and bonds and real estate and that mostly benefited the globalizer plutocrats and the top ten percent loot holders and the White Upper Middle Class Snot Brats and the greedy White scum born before 1965.

Financialization and mass immigration-induced multiculturalism are direct attacks on European Christian nation-states. It is time to bang it out bravely against the evil rats who are using debt and mass immigration as weapons to destroy us.

Thank you for your comments. It needs to be said repeatedly because on this website and many others there exists racially conscious Whites who simply can't understand such an obvious principle.

I too have criticized Mr. Taylor because he's tight-lipped on the JQ. Still, he does much that is good for our people. There are many newly converted Whites to race realism who are not yet ready for some of the more advanced truths, such as the JQ, the origins of WW2, criticism of the Holocaust narrative, etc. We must be patient with them and also thankful that Taylor's website informs them about the realities of race and White identity.

The American Renaissance website provides quality articles and resources. It's a good website to point the newly converted or 'normies' to which doesn't have some of the troubling optics or in-depth articles that other sites might have.

We forget that the JQ is both a complex and highly controversial subject that takes time to really digest and understand. Some racially aware Whites never quite 'get it,' while for others it's above their intellectual acumen.

“Most (homosexuals) probably didn’t choose to be that way, any more than deaf people choose to be deaf. We don’t persecute deaf people, but we don’t line the streets to cheer on a “deaf pride” parade, either. ”

It is a fallacy to suggest that homosexuality is an inherent trait and or disability, such as deafness. Especially when the suggestion comes from a Christian who’s god utterly condemns the practice of homosexuality. Why would that god create homosexuals? So that he can instantly condemn them? Nonsense.

Homosexuality is the cyclical pattern of grooming, manipulating, and brainwashing conducted by adult homosexuals on young, impressionable, terrified, and often troubled teenagers. Those teenagers then grow up to repeat the process.

Deaf adults don’t try to groom non deaf children into becoming deaf. The comparison is absurd.

“We don’t persecute deaf people, but we don’t line the streets to cheer on a “deaf pride” parade, either.”

The author doesn’t seem to understand that by excusing homosexuality as “not their choice” is exactly what has led to them having homosexual pride parades. And they are not parades. They are shows of force.

We need to also remember the power of propaganda, and how every one of us has been fed for decades a Jewish 'narrative' that paints them as eternal victims of "racist whites." This is hard for many people to break through. Human nature is weak and inclined to always take the easy way out of any difficulty.

Jared Taylor,

In arguing your case it would be better to use another phrase instead of “pathological individualism” to describe what is wrong with many whites.

Individualism is not pathological. Individualism is generally good and the better whites know that it is good. You just repel them with talk of pathological individualism. The other pro-white websites I know of besides AmRen – The Occidental Observer and Vdare – make the same mistake.

Regarding demographics and race, it is in my self-interest – my individual, even narrow if you want to say that, self-interest – to live in the sort of society that America once was. People denounce this attitude with the epithet “selfish.” And so it is, in the sense of rational egoism. Of course you know what I’m talking about: Rand’s sense of the word, though I think she made a mistake propaganda-wise trying to focus on one of the understood meanings of the word. Whatever, if “selfish” is an insult, own the insult and reply “If not wanting to be surrounded by asians and blacks is selfish, then yes, I am selfish.” Or, “If this be selfish, make the most of it.”

If you want to use the word “pathological” to describe the problem that many whites have, consider “pathological altruism.” Or perhaps better, simply “altruism,” because altruism in its original meaning (going back to Auguste Comte) is indeed pathological. Comte defined altruism as: the placing of others above the self, of their interests above one’s own. That is quoting the undergraduate thesis Altruism: A Natural Thought History of an Idea on Wellesly College’s website, of all places.

Since I like to advertise my own website, Rand herself was asleep at the switch when it came to immigration, see Ayn Rand on Immigration. Still, I think her advocacy of a benevolent egoism is the solution to the problem addressed in your article, not – for goodness' sakes – “pathological individualism.”

(2)(a) I am an atheist. I regret using the term “atheist,” because the usage may imply that “God,” god, or gods possess socio-psychological or any other attribute(s) that beg my being “against” “God,” god, or gods.

(2)(b) I oppose all religions. Religion is one of the great banes of humanity and all of Earth’s other living things — even the Earth, itself.

(2)(c) My atheism and anti-religion perspectives are pertinent to my positions concerning homosexuality and race-relations — positions that manifest sundry ways in my comment that follows immediately below. My positions do not derive from Biblical bullshit or any religious or religion’s doctrines, dogma, premises of “faith,” beliefs, myths, or anything else of religion, particular religions, or any of the psychic or intellectual defects that explain religion or religions or religious humans’ psyches or perspectives or the sicknesses of them.

Now my comment:

Mr. Taylor’s article is marred by more than few false fact-assertions, pertinent fact-omissions, fallacies, false premises, and bullshit pseudo-philosophy/pseudo-psychology.

Example:

People whose reproductive energy is directed towards [sic] their own sex are biological dead ends. They are not role models. Most probably didn’t choose to be that way, any more than deaf people choose to be deaf.

Homosexuality is a symptom of character neurosis or characterological weakness. Faggots and dykes are not born sexual deviants. No one has proved the existence of a “gay gene.”

>All it takes is enough people who care

This seems pollyanna-ish to me — as if America still resembles a Norman Rockwell painting — anyway, I think the situation is a little more complicated and dire than that.

In many of his weekly talks (you can catch some of them on the 24/7 stream), William Luther Pierce used to emphasize what a huge problem the media was, especially Jewish control of the media — I was reminded of that when I saw this Las Vegas Sun editorial, which I would characterize as obsequiously statist, and full of vitriolic absurdity (if I was the kind who used the term, and knew what it meant today, I would even call it anti-American):

Proud Boys' leaders did not escape justice, and nor should Trump

The Las Vegas Sun is controlled by the Greenspun Media Group, whose principal is Brian Greenspun — he's a Jew.

The problem is too big to be solved. There is no political will to do so. Get out of cities and find a hidey-hole. Network with others in similar circumstances. Stay away from people advocating violence, they are more than likely Fed provocateurs. TPTB want us to lash out; don't give them the satisfaction. Take care of you and your own, and hope for the best.

Not much of a strategy, I know, but without political leadership and organization, it is all one can do.

JT WON'T MENTION THE JQ?

What's a Unz Review commenter to do?

Taylor's thick as ham in VA?

What a day!

Did the Taylor people live up by Tickle Cunt Creek?

Did the colonial Virginia Prewitts and the similarly situated Taylor's meet?

What a week, and yet it's only Monday!

JQ everywhere, except everywhere properly explained.

What is the JQ?

What is the Jew Question?

When people warble on about something called the "JQ" it is all very vague and hush hush sounding.

This "JQ" thing sounds like it could be a type of hamburger sandwich that Trump might serve to his Jew billionaire donors when they barge into Mar-a-Lago with their incessant demands for this or that. Maybe the Jew billionaire donors make Trump go to them for cash exchanges and consultations.

Trump: You guys want the JQ burger?

Jew billionaire donors: Do we get onion rings with the JQ burger?

Trump: Anything for you guys! How about cole slaw and some ice cream afterwards?

Jew billionaire donors: Iced tea and cookies wouldn't be so shabby also!

Trump: Coming right up! I still ain't gonna campaign on dropping a nuclear bomb on Iran though!

Jew billionaire donors: We'll negotiate on the nuclear bomb dropping on Iran issue.

The JEW QUESTION explained:

Jews form a nation within a nation everywhere they reside. Can Jews ever be considered to be part of the larger nation in which they reside when they are genetically and culturally predisposed to put the interests of the Jew Nation over and above the interests of the larger nations in which they reside?

Both Socialism/Marxism and Capitalism are tools for betterment of society. Why restrict oneself to one or the other?

Because unfortunately they are mutually exclusive, although there is a form of compromise: social democracy, in the sense that was practiced by Scandinavian countries at least until recently. But to be clear, that is not socialism – that's just capitalism, restrained.

And just a reminder: anyone calling Biden (or any American politician, for that matter) 'communist' is an idiot who is using that word as a slur, devoid of any actual meaning.

People are actually going to allow this bad faith argument to stand?

The government pushes different RACES and CULTURES together that have no business being together. They would not bond naturally so the US government (and kosher democracies across the western world) forces black and brown diversity on the rest of us. Can you comprehend this sentence, because you appear to be a light-switch thinker on nearly every issue. I'm sure you'll go on about "freedom" and "small government" and how more freedom and less government is always 100% a good thing every single time.

Such thinking is not only useless to any kind of white/nationalist cause, it's easier than pie for Jewish organizations to co-opt. Can't wait to see you championing "freedom" surrounded by an army of 3rd world people. Better make sure you lock your car and hide all the valuables before heading off to the march. “One hundred thirty million non-whites live here. It would be impossible to persuade them to leave.”

In recent history, we've seen millions of people moved for various regions, but primarily to keep the peace. After WW2, millions of Germans were removed from the Volga Basin and Eastern Europe to the nation of Germany. Around the same time, East and West Pakistan were separated from India and millions of Hindus were moved to India. In the US, by simply removing welfare and properly enforcing laws that make it illegal to hire illegals, 50 million would simply leave and go back to their own countries. By removing the sugar that attracts ants to the picnic, they will remove themselves. As for 40 million blacks, they would be more of a problem, but they could be removed also but this would take military action. Brazil would gladly take 40 million more units of diversity to add to their richness. lol

Jared Taylor: “The American compulsion for equality started with race, the idea that blacks and white are equal and interchangeable.”

The idea is as old as America itself. For example, of the original thirteen states, five granted state citizenship and the vote to free negroes.

This fact alone makes nonsense of all Taylor’s appeals to collectivism and patriotism, because if we are patriotic and loyal to the values of old-time white America, there’s nothing more typically American and more typically white than this insane commitment to racial equality. Even a cursory examination of American history will show that white people collectively have consistently acted against their own racial interest, and that being the case, the situation is precisely the reverse of what Taylor depicts and bemoans, namely, that there hasn’t been enough dissent from this collective madness, not enough individualism. Whites need to be brought to understand as individuals what their decline as a race means. They need to be shaken out of their collective decision to commit racial suicide.

What this amounts to then is Taylor attempting to restructure the white collectivity in a way that he thinks would better serve its interests. He thinks he knows what would be good for it better than it does itself. He hopes to persuade whites to continue to exist as a race when all of their actions testify to their desire to abolish their race. It’s a quixotic project, and one, it would seem, with little prospect of success.

Jared Taylor: “Heredity is important, and a healthy nation wants future generations always to be better, not just morally, psychologically, and spiritually, but biologically. All this could be true of a healthy society of any race, but it’s not possible in a multi-racial society.”

This leaves no doubt that re-engineering white genetics to make whites more ethnocentric and more receptive to ethnonationalism would be high on Taylor's list of racial "improvements" he'd like to make. Of course, in the Jew, we already have an example of a race that is both highly ethnocentric and ethnonationalist, so the solution of hybridizing whites with Jews suggests itself. Indeed, some people, including, as it happens, Jared "They-look-white-to-me" Taylor himself, think that Jews already are part of the white race. One wonders then how Taylor would propose this eugenic "improvement" to white racial genetics be carried out. Does he advocate stepping up rates of intermarriage between whites and Jews? That would be the traditional way, though it would take exponentially longer than more modern methods. It's also hard to see what difference, if any, there is between this method and what's already happening. Whites are already hybridizing their race out of existence. Taylor's program of eugenic "improvement" would take this pre-existing genetic inclination and channel it; intensify and speed it up.

Then we come to the question of eugenically improving the white race "morally, psychologically, and spiritually", and that's where things start to get a bit sticky. What sort of moral system would serve a white/Jew hybrid best? It would have to be the same as the Jews', wouldn't it? The white component would disappear, and we'd have a race of white psychopaths. They'd be biological white supremacists, just as we have the Jews today, who are commonly derided as a race of psychopaths, Jewish supremacists, and "Zio-nazis".

Whites as they exist today would never go for this voluntarily, of course. It wouldn't seem Christian enough, and being a psychopath probably would offend Jesus, so they'd have to be forced. That's just one of the many internal contradictions in such a program of eugenic "improvements", but as one of the greatest white/Jew hybrids ever to live told us, if you want to make an omelet, you'll have to break some eggs!

In 1960, whites were nearly 90 percent of the population. It was a high-trust society. No one would have imagined the scenes you saw at the beginning of this video. Now, whites are down to 60 percent. One hundred thirty million non-whites live here. It would be impossible to persuade them to leave.

I say:

Why bother with so-called persuasion when forcible deportation and involuntary repatriation are the way to go.

In the USA, we are going to see the rise of a leader who will combine the power of George Washington and the energy of Andrew Jackson and the grim determination and invincibility of William the Conqueror.

This leader and the new political party called White Core America will pledge to remove the foreigners and financially liquidate the billionaires and remove from power the current controllers of the mass corporate media.

In 1978, the population of the USA was 220 million people. It was a good time in America, and the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost to the New York Yankees in the 1978 World Series, eventually beat the Yankees in 1981, which was the year that the federal funds rate hit 20 percent.

Debt Repudiations and DEBT JUBILEES and other debt extinguishment will be used to remove the evil and immoral JEW/WASP Ruling Class from power.

The treasonous Republican Party will be completely and totally obliterated, and many if not most of the Republican Party ruling class and bribers(donors) and politicians will be removed from the USA.

Citizenship revocations and mass deportations will be used to get the population of the USA down from the current over 320 million to 220 million people.

Young White Core Americans will be able to enjoy AFFORDABLE FAMILY FORMATION and they will control the corporate propaganda apparatus and the newly nationalized Federal Reserve Bank.

Young White Core Americans are under attack from the Greedy White Geezers who push mass legal immigration and mass illegal immigration and these young White Core Americans are undergoing a slow motion implosion of their future due to the floodtide of foreigners who have been poured into the USA by Biden and Trump and the JEW/WASP Ruling Class of the American Empire.

Mass legal immigration and mass illegal immigration increases housing costs, lowers wages, swamps schools, overwhelms hospitals, destroys habitat for wildlife, causes urban and suburban sprawl, creates multicultural mayhem and brings infectious diseases and terrorism to the United States of America.

In the past we had a society that encouraged individualism up to to point, but we started discouraging it when it started to be a danger to the safety of the well being of the majority of the population. Boys were encouraged to play with their chemistry sets so that they could develop constructive skills that might lead to successful careers in the field of chemistry, adding to the human capital of the country. Boys were not encouraged to learn chemistry so that they could make bombs, poisons or anything that would be destructive to public safety. Individualism was considered good when it benefited the individual or society in a positive way, individualism was considered bad when it contributed to the destruction of society. In our society today, individualism is only encouraged when it is self destructive to the individual (taking of drugs, sexual perversion, tattoos and body mutilation) but is verboten when it threatens the power structure (family values, conservative politics, freedom of speech).

I agree with what you are saying, it seems that homosexuality is a subculture where you are either in or out. Like secret societies, they know other homosexuals by certain subtle body language signs. They are always recruiting and looking for young boys to molest so as to make an imprint on their psyches so as to confuse them about their identities in later life. Most humans need to belong to a group, to be around people who are in sync with them, be it an ethnic group, hobby group, church group or sexual orientation. The current, obsession with tattoos and piercings is mainly by whites who desperately need to belong to something. I know of a man who is covered with tattoos from head to foot with hair that's died three colors. He's got to be up in his 40's now and is trying to reach out to talk to conventional people, but his bizarre look turns away almost everyone except the most hardened or others that are heavily tattooed. In a way, I kind of feel sorry for him because underneath all the ugliness that he's put on himself, the real person underneath it all, has perhaps matured and is stuck in a mask that he can't remove.

Autosomal dna shows ashkenaz and shepardic Jews overlap with southern Italians and sicilians and not west asians or arabs. Just google “PCA map Europe” if you don’t believe me. 81% of Ashkenaz Jews have maternal European DNA.

If a Syrian knocks up a German woman the child would overlap with an Italian. One race is responsible for the vast majority of America's woes. One race. It is irrefutable and un-defendable. They did it with careful premeditation and intention spanning decades. They release their racial hatred upon us and we do nothing.

Jews have always used assassination to reach their goals.

[\[history.fandom.com/wiki/List_of_Israeli_assassinations\]\(https://military-history.fandom.com/wiki/List_of_Israeli_assassinations\)](https://military-<div data-bbox=)

When will gentiles return the favor. Imagine if all the Neocons responsible for, "The War on Terror" suddenly all disappeared.

Think of all the evil machinations these cancerous turds were able to plan and carryout over their lifetimes. Hundreds of thousands killed because of the Ideology residing in their craniums. What would our world have been like had they been simply erased in their early stages of malignant growth. Think of the ripple effect these scumbags have had. What if someone could have smashed their craniums with a brick early in their careers. What a gift that would have been to the world.

Why does the Gentile race not begin targeting and eliminating those Jews who have harmed us the most. Why are they allowed to live among us? Why do we allow them to openly carry out their plans for our destruction. They publicly brag about their accomplishments and we do nothing.

Do you think THIS Jewish cow would be in a Muslim Neighborhood pushing her Jewish Multiculturalism???

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/G45WthPTo24>

No —they only target White European Christians because we do not fight back. The Muslims would have waited for her in the parking lot and slit her throat from ear to ear.

This is the level of fear and respect that needs to be instilled in the Jews today. The Jews fear the Muslims because the Muslims have the resolve to kill their enemies without mercy.

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/uCodaoMt8XE>

This is what is odd to me. We White European Christians see the destruction of our country, we know who is doing it and yet we do nothing. We turn the other cheek.

And the long awaited pogroms never get the right Jews. The International Jews use organizations like the FBI, the ADL and the SPLC as barometers of the masses they are fleecing; as look outs for any unrest among the masses.

By the time the pitchforks and torches come, the International Jews are long gone.

I don't know what it is going to take for the White Race to start fighting back. Perhaps we never will.

Jews have considerabl Italian in them. Look it up.

Syrians aren't 100% White. Every group you mentioned is semi-White except pure Arabs. The Northern Arabs are generally closer to Whites.

Turks are closer to White Europeans with a small amount of East Asian. Ancient Anatolians were likely similar to Greeks and that's the foundation of the Turkish race. Iranians are Middle Eastern Whites.

With Jews it's an identity problem, not a racial one. Jews are not White because they don't identify as White. Jews are a problem but they are not "the problem". Most the damage has been done.

Jews were the head of the snake years ago. Now Blacks ingrates, traitor Whites, ect. have formed their own heads.

There will only be a future for whites without white females. The only way whites will exist in the future is through the use of artificial wombs, since white females refuse to have children in numbers sufficient to maintain the population (and when they do have children, they do their best to turn the kids into homosexuals and trannies). After artificial wombs are put into use, white females will simply stop being produced because they will be redundant and because their continued existence is huge liability.

Actually this is what Soviet leadership started doing in 60-70's. With predictable outcome. There is no socialism left. You cannot mix honey with horse shit and expect something good from that. The working Socialist model built under Lenin and Stalin did not have profit in it. The goal of the Soviet manufacturing was to reduce manufacturing costs which was leading to rapid growth of efficiency and innovations under Stalin and extremely rapid growth surpassing that of China and without any investments from abroad. This is just a small part of that system. To learn more there is good lectures on youtube and there is a book which while not mentioning real causes of those rapid developments = socialism and plan economy, still tells a lot about what that model was. "Crystal of growth". BTW, under Stalin large percentage of the Soviet economical output was produced by so called cooperatives= artely. However, those arteli were only engaged in personal labour by members without exploitation and hired labour and without right to take out own stake if leaving the cooperative. Land also could not be bought or sold but was given free for lets say eternity as long as people were using it. Khrushchev destroyed Stalin's system within 7 short years cancelling all private enterprise which accounted to 6-9% of Stalin model and produced most of the goods for daily consumption. Then they brought in profitability which is part of capitalistic economy.

Autosomal dna shows ashkenaz and shepardic Jews overlap with southern Italians and sicilians and not west asians or arabs.

They overlap with neither southern Italians or west asians. They are midway between the two groups, since they are a mix of the two. There is a small overlap with Sicilians because Sicilians have west asian admixture, but not as much as Ashkenazi Jews do.

81% of Ashkenaz Jews have maternal European DNA

Ever since Christ was lifted up on Mount Calvary, the world has been subjected to two truly opposite forces: the Jewish force and the Christian.

In the world as it is, there can be only two truly basic modes, two poles of attraction: the Christian and the Jewish. Only two religions: Christian and Jewish.

All that is not of Christ and for Christ is done in favour of Judaism. It follows from that, that the de-Christianizing of the world runs parallel to its Judaizing.

| Both Socialism/Marxism and Capitalism are tools for betterment of society.

Can you name one country (just ONE) that applied Socialism/Marxism which resulted in betterment of their society (ie: improved prosperity over the situation it inherited) ?

And don't give me the examples of Sweden or Norway.

In Sweden's case, it built up an enormous reservoir of wealth in the first half of the 20th century pursuing Capitalism (eg: staying neutral in both wars, and profiting handsomely from trade with the belligerents).

And, needless to say, when it was a Capitalist country, it had one of the highest per capita GDP's in the world.

Since embarking on the Socialist experiment around the 1960's, it has slid well down the list in terms of per capita GDP and, recognising the failure of Socialism, successive Swedish governments have unwound many of the policies in recent decades that have been bleeding the country dry.

As for Norway, it practised socialism and had a cradle to grave welfare state – and paid dearly for that. Norway was one of the poorest countries in Europe for the first three quarters of last century.

THEN, in the 1970's, it discovered the 'River of Riches'. ie: North Sea Oil.

Now, despite upping the ante in the last 50 years as far as Socialist squandering of wealth is concerned, Norway's oil revenue more than compensated for the stupidity of Socialism.

Bottom Line: Norway is doing well* today DESPITE the destruction of wealth from Socialism.

(*When you have a torrent of oil revenue at your disposal and divide that among a minuscule population of only 5.5 million, you can get away with some of the most profligate behaviour imaginable and still end up rich).

Absent the welfare state nonsense, Norway would be doing far, FAR better still.

Similarly, in the 130 or so years leading up to the creation of the Zio owned U.S Federal Reserve, the U.S was the bastion of Capitalism on the planet, and had as near to unfettered Free Market Capitalism as any country ever had in all of recorded history.

Needless to say, this resulted in a citizenry that was the most free and prosperous on the planet.

With the expansion of Big Government, starting with the FDR administration, but really expanding on steroids under the first Jewish President LBJ, Socialism took root in the U.S and hence explains why the U.S is a Socialist Shit-hole today.

@Anymike

The Democrats have the right to win all very close elections. Two of them were “stolen” from them in this century, 2000 and 2016, and they came perilously close to losing another one in 2020.

No question, the 2000 election was stolen so that Dubya would win.

And I don't disagree that there was tampering in the 2016 and 2020 elections – in the Democrats favour.

That's right, the 2020 election was undoubtedly stolen from Trump. Only dyed-in-the-wool leftists believe otherwise*.

(*FYI, I hate both parties with a passion and would be pleased to see them both get flushed down a rat hole and replaced by a third or fourth party that is not controlled by ZOG).

So, in the case of the 2016 election, I recall reading an article stating there was considerable manipulation done in favour of HRC in five (5) states. But Hillary was so on the nose with voters that, despite the vote rigging, Trump still won in those states.

Do I really have to spell it out AnyMike ? We all saw the huge rallies turning out for Trump across the country everywhere he went. Meanwhile, at HRC rallies there were tumbleweeds blowing around, like in a deserted ghost town in the old west. Trump promised to sit down and talk with Putin and resolve their differences. (HRC was calling Putin the next Hitler and said she'd never negotiate).

Trump promised (recorded on video), to 'tell us who really did 9/11', release the files relating to the JFK assassination, Build that Wall (whilst getting the Mexicans to pay for it), and much more.

So many people were hopeful that, even if Trump only made good on a quarter of his promises, that would be streets ahead of what an HRC administration would do (seeing as the latter was saying she's do things that would increase the tensions with Russia which could lead to nuclear armageddon).

So, in that context, how can any objective observer be surprised that Trump won ?

Don't tell me you're one of those dimwits that believed the B.S coming out of the Zio MSM, who were saying, in the weeks leading up to the election, that HRC was 9 points ahead, then 12 pts ahead and in the final week before voting, they claimed that HRC was an over 90% certainty to win the election.

Don't tell me you fell for that Rachel Maddow/CNN orchestrated propaganda.

Of course, as we now know, Trump turned out to be a fraud. He was nothing but a ZOG sock puppet that delivered the entire agenda of the Talmudic Zionists (and then some), during his failed administration.

Nevertheless, there were still more than enough MAGAts that held out that Trump would come good in his second term, that he just picked a few bad apples in his cabinet who blocked his agenda, and that he'd come good eventually after a cabinet reshuffle. So they voted for him again in 2020.

As bad as Trump was during his term, most voters still believed he was a better option than demented, creepy (sniffing/fondling the hair of prepubescent girls) Joe Biden.

AnyMike, do you really believe that more Americans voted for Biden (by many millions), than any Dem Presidential candidate before him, as is alleged for the 2020 vote count ? ie: that Biden was more popular than 'Hope and Change' Obama in his 2008 campaign ?

Are you that gullible to fall for that ?

SUMMARY: The 2000 election was stolen away from Al Bore.
The 2016 election was an attempted steal in favour of HRC but it didn't work – such was the contempt for HRC among voters.
The 2020 election was clearly stolen from Trump.

You ideal picture of pink unicorn of capitalism only exist as fairy tale. Yes, once upon time capitalism was progressive compared to feudalism. Just like feudalism was once upon time progressive compared to slavery. But let's be honest, the best time of capitalism was when USSR and socialist block existed side by side so that capitalists had to share with working class and give working class part of what socialism was giving. You also should never forget few simple things. There is capitalism in UK, USA, France and Germany and there is capitalism in say Africa or Latin America. Imperialism which is what capitalism had morphed into 100+ years ago was capable to improve living conditions of their respective working classes by exploiting and stealing from colonies and capitalistic countries of lower order. Hence we see how desperately USA and the West is trying to preserve this system of consumption beyond their means at the expense of others. USSR and other socialist countries developed exactly from the countries colonies and peripheral capitalistic countries which were poor from the start. I wonder , do you believe that capitalism is the end and there is nothing after it? If you did not notice but each subsequent economic formation last less than previous and capitalism has been around for some 400 years. Obviously that nothing stands unchanged and things changed. Lenin wrote 100+ years ago his work Imperialism as the latest stage of capitalism and everything he wrote is here now. Yes, it is financial crony or whatever capitalism and it is natural development of monopolistic capitalism because when monopolies along with banks got to certain level of wealth and concentration they naturally started influencing politics and everything else. At the moment capitalism is incapable to solve any issue caused by it very existence and workings and only make these problems worse and it all influences society in a way that nobody here likes. It is rot.

OK, so what you're saying is that you can't name a single country that adopted Socialism and increased its prosperity thereafter.

As for this factually incorrect statement of yours:

| China uses a hybrid system – basically socialist with capitalist elements.

.... the fact is that China is overwhelmingly Capitalist in terms of the wealth generating component of its economy is concerned. Yes, there are still some of the old guard Communist/Socialists gumming up the works by insisting that the leadership continue subsidising the SOE's (State Owned Enterprises) which, as a collective, are haemorrhaging red ink.

But said SOE's are being streamlined, amalgamated and shut down at a rapid rate, to minimise the burden on the productive private sector.

Make no mistake, China's economy is dynamic today because it has abandoned socialism for the most part. One only has to look at the Chairman Mao era for a glimpse of what a predominantly socialist economy looks like.

Little Red Bot, you still have a 1970's mindset about what China's economy is really like.

Oh, you mean that time I referenced to in the link contained within my comment # 177 ? (Focus especially on the 9 min video I posted there about the East German Trabant automobile).

So obviously you're alluding to the Trabant and the Soviet made Lada vehicles, which are what 'socialism was giving the working class'.

If so, you can keep your Trabants and Ladas. We in the west can do without that garbage.

Western motor vehicles were light years ahead in technology, reliability, better fuel economy, performance and handling etc.

When Capitalism functions in a free market, or very near to that (with no barriers to prevent new entrants that will compete with established players, and a competitive market exists), Capitalism always outperforms and delivers a better quality product or service at a lower price.

There are no exceptions.

Go back to that link I posted in comment # 177 and read thoroughly that comment from a Larry Romanoff article last year. You'll see that I made mention of several REAL WORLD examples where Capitalism thoroughly trounces Socialism.

At the end of the day, I could post another thousand such examples. Because, other than in those situations where corrupt governments provide a monopoly environment for the established oligarchs (which of course is NOT Capitalism anyway), a free market composed of private entrepreneurs will ALWAYS deliver a better outcome for consumers than that which government attempts to provide.

China 1949 GDP Per Capita $200 (in 1990 USD) When China became Socialist

China 1978 GDP Per Capita $700 (in 1990 USD) This was just before Deng's reforms

.... the fact is that China is overwhelmingly Capitalist in terms of the wealth generating component of its economy is concerned.

It is apparent that in your mind:

Market Mechanisms for Allocation of Goods and Services = Capitalism

shadowstats did not work, but after reading your comment now I see where you are coming from. Consumerism. Basically you take one example of consumption good and make it something like overwhelming proof of capitalism superiority. I also wonder. Imagine USA having some 40-50% of total housing assets razed to the ground the way it was in the Soviet Union between 1941-1945. No Marshall plan for you. Could you imagine similar performance to the one shown by the Soviet Union with 20 million able body men dead, 10 million invalids? I somehow doubt. Also, using car or any other consumer good as the only thing worth using as a proof is what you value the most. Because you were not ever in situation where you would have valued roof above your head, free education, medicine, guaranteed pension , guaranteed employment, free clubs and sports for everyone and many many things you would have to pay a fortune in the West. There is different criteria in capitalism and socialism. Soviet model as I stated under Stalin was not about profit but about reducing costs and prices for population. As long as this system was intact things were going great. The moment Khrushchev equalled communism to pigs heaven of consumerism this was a dead end and with destruction of the working economy built by Stalin things did not go well. Have you checked Soviet Union economic growth till 1956 and later? It is an eye opener.

Have you checked Soviet Union economic growth till 1956 and later? It is an eye opener.

It's very easy to achieve a high growth rate if you're starting from an infinitesimally low base.

Very easy to increase you net worth by 100% in a year if you only started with $1.

Sergei also writes:

A wise man once wrote:

‘ There is nothing more expensive than what Government provides for free’.

When a product or service is provided by the private sector, a particular entrepreneur will come up with a way of supplying said product or service in an efficient way and reap outsized profits as a result.

Noticing the increase in market share of this entrepreneur (let's call him Henry Ford or Steve Jobs for the sake of argument), his competitors will come up with a better mouse trap.

ie: something that is more innovative, has better technology, is more reliable and priced lower.

Little Red Bot writes:

| In your (TV) mind, Market Mechanisms for Allocation of Goods and Services =

It is not just in 'my' mind, this is the textbook definition of Free Market Capitalism.

The key word is 'market'. In Capitalism consumers are free to shop elsewhere in the market.

If your present supplier of a particular product or service is unsatisfactory, you go elsewhere.

Not so under Socialism where there's usually only one product on offer of a particular type and supplied by the same source.

In Socialism meanwhile, we have a Command Economy, a centralised mechanism for deciding how land, labour and capital are allocated toward society's needs.

In Socialism we have incompetent Government bureaucrats deciding how much wheat is grown (to make bread and pasta), how much toilet paper is produced, what shampoo is made (often only one variety is available, it has a rancid odour and is likely to give you dandruff).

In Socialism the government owns the means of production. It decides what is best for you.

Consumer preferences are not taken into consideration. After all, the consumers are a captive audience.

If the consumers don't like the crusty, less-than-tasty bread offered by the government run bakeries, it's not as though they can shop elsewhere.

There is no alternative. Hence no incentive for the government run bakery to ensure that their bread is baked just right – not under or overcooked.

There is no quality control. If your loaf of bread contains the occasional pubic hair well, that's just tough luck.

You can take comfort in the knowledge that you're all equal under Socialism. ie: everyone is equal, and everyone lives in squalor*.

(*The high ranking party members meanwhile, live the life of a privileged elite. They live in plush housing in their little enclaves in the far nicer part of town. They have access to all manner of luxury western goods, infinitely better healthcare and schooling etc, that the grovelling masses are not allowed access to. That is the REALITY of Socialism).

Whites must collectively realize that jews are antithetical to healthy societies because jews only wish to rob and denude the societies of which they are a part. "Is it good for the jews?" is not acceptable in a White society under institutional siege from jews. That's why decentralization is so vital, because our present federal government is an overbearing colossus that serves zionist supremacy inc. It's also vital that Whites do as little as possible for the current government and let it collapse upon itself. Until ZOG is destroyed, we cannot start over. This could be done by taking collective action, but it will take EVERYONE getting on-board. I don't know if that will happen.

Hate to be a pest, but you unfortunately missed the sarcasm. I was mocking the Democrats. Too many of them do believe that they have a god-given right to win all very close elections, have a god-given right to a permanent majority in Congress and a god-given right to a majority on the Supreme Court.

When you lose, it's one thing. It happens. When the natural order fails, you flip out. You do anything to restore it. Find ballot boxes in car trunks and under park benches. Switch ballots. Vote people who have moved, died or don't vote.

Who knows what the truth is about all of the very close national elections in my lifetime. 1960, 2000, 2016, 2020. Maybe even 1976 was suspect.

My ultimate conspiracy theory is that 2016 was fixed – in favor of Donald Trump. The idea here is that there was some reason why Hillary Clinton could not be allowed to serve as president. Not any of the usual things, but something very deep. What they did, though, was fix it up to look closer than it was so that Trump would be as weak and vulnerable as a president as it was possible to make him. Maybe Trump won in 2016 by a much larger margin. After all, what winner is going to ask for a recount or an investigation?

The increase in the total vote cast in 2020 was extraordinary, a 16 percent increase over four years with both institutional parties increasing their vote total considerably. There are questions.

| Do you agree that China under socialism improved its prosperity?

No, I don't agree that going from a $200 per capita GDP in 1949 to $700 per capita GDP THIRTY YEARS LATER (ie: going from a diet of eating cockroaches and insects to a diet consisting of rats and other rodents – even though the latter is protein rich), is anything to crow about.

Also, I would wager that a significant portion of the measly few hundred dollar increase occurred in the handful of years post 1972. And the reasoning behind that is simple enough.

Nixon visited China in 1972 and there was an immediate thaw in relations that enabled FOREIGN INVESTMENT.

As a result, some western entrepreneurs with foresight got in on the ground floor and invested in China, bringing in western technology and setting up factories that supplied goods to the west.

Yes, the workers were still paid a pittance and said product exported to the west was made at a fraction of the cost that it would have been in the first world.

So, here's my best guess. Chinese per capita GDP barely budged from 1949 to 1972 and maybe went from $200 to $300.

ie: $300 per capita GDP = $300 income for the WHOLE EFF'N year, which translates to around $6 per week in wages or about FIFTEEN CENTS HOURLY WAGES for a 40 hour work week.

So, some U.S corporation comes into China in 1972 or 1973 and sets up their factory.

To attract the best workers they offer the King's ransom of 25 cents per hour (a 66% increase), and thus in one fell swoop the wages, and therefore per capita GDP, rise precipitously.

Bottom Line: Socialism is a FAILURE wherever it has been tried.

There have been NO EXCEPTIONS to that in all of recorded history.

“It’s very easy to achieve a high growth rate if you’re starting from an infinitesimally low base.” This is not the case of the Soviet Union in already 1941. By 1940 USSR already had second GDP in the world after USA. We are talking about period starting 1945 and till 1956. That was the case of developed large economy showing extremely high growth rates under stress of USA sabotaging it. No outside investments by the way. 20 million dead. 10 million disabled by the war. No coffers full of gold like in USA case which was untouched by the war. You completely miss the point. Those rates of growth sent panic in Washington because it was clear where those high growth rates were going. Fortunately for USA Khrushchev did a good job of killing the hen which was laying golden eggs. That’s why Churchill ,who definitely understood things a lot better than you , stated that the honour for doing the most damage to the Soviet Union should go to Khrushchev. Once upon time you used to have clever people in the West which is not the case anymore.

“A wise man once wrote:

‘ There is nothing more expensive than what Government provides for free’.” I would put this “wise” man in situation of the Soviet people in 1945, preferably with wise man lacking a leg or hand and living in dugout and then I would listen to his outbursts of different nature. This”wise” man is capitalistically wise, but the future doe snot lay with capitalism which all developments obvious for wise are here but for those who see nothing beyond capitalism, capitalism is the end of the history. If capitalism were so progressive now and such a good thing all of you would not be sitting here day after day and posting posting about being angry or unhappy about this or that and everything that is caused by the said capitalism.

“Noticing the increase in market share of this entrepreneur (let’s call him Henry Ford or Steve Jobs for the sake of argument), his competitors will come up with a better mouse trap.”

You know how many engineers and inventors of far higher level of talent we had in the Soviet Union? Yakovlev, Tupolev, Mikoyan, Korolev and many others. USSR was producing all of the planes USSR used by the way... Not so capitalistic Russia. The difference is that they were doing things for the people and not their own pocket and that of investors. You simply do not hear about that. Capitalistic literature only mentions those who made tons of money.

By the way, I do not know of Trabant but Soviet made cars Lada and Moskvich of 70-80’s a still running in very large numbers. You would find such old cars in Northern America only as collectibles. That’s pretty good quality. And fyi, Soviet cars were not any worse than economic segment of Western or Japanese cars of the same period.

Still on the topic of Socialism, those of you that are familiar with my commentary will know that I've stated the obvious fact that the U.S today has descended into becoming a socialist shit-hole.

Hence the reason for the countless hundreds of thousands of Americans living in tent cities, under freeway overpasses (not to mention the copious quantities of human faeces in the streets of San Francisco, Philadelphia and elsewhere).

What UR readers may not be aware of, is that socialism was tried in the early days of white settlement in America – with predictable results.

Listen to the audio only podcast below from 14:40 – 23:30, as the premier financial commentator in the world today, Peter Schiff, explains what went on at the Plymouth colony in the years immediately after the Mayflower reached the New World:

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/2tacjX0r1Us>

SUMMARY: When socialism was implemented, half the colony STARVED TO DEATH within a few years.

The settlers immediately reverted to the tried and true Capitalism, and the colony flourished spectacularly in no time at all.

Undeterred, and no matter how many times Socialism is proven to be a disastrous experiment, the rabid Marxists keep trying to implement the same thing that has had a 100% failure rate in the past.

Some would call that the definition of insanity.

Joe Biden — An Unrelenting Stream of Immigration: Nonstop, Nonstop

Well, when Biden was Vice President to President Barack Obama he advocated for an “unrelenting stream of immigration” into America. While many are aware of Biden’s statement, very few realize who was seated next to him as he uttered those heinous remarks. It was none other than Alejandro Mayorkas (Sephardic Jew), who was at that time serving as the Director of Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Deputy Homeland Security Secretary in the Obama Administration.

It should be remembered that Mayorkas swore an oath to “support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.”

With his recent actions, he has violated his oath and should be tried for treason...

I think each race must have its own country, however, if whites decided to separate themselves from other races, the Federal Government would try to stop it, through force, if a peaceful solution becomes problematic. The main motivation of an attack on us, is because the US couldn't exist without the white man's tax-money. It would crumble into veritable chaos, and killing. I think the other races would realize this, especially blacks as they are dependent on white money. It has been prophesized by a man living in Switzerland, who proclaims there will be three Civil Wars, and the US will be divided into five or six territories, in the future. | Are you now attempting to shift the goalposts?

| Did China increase its prosperity after Socialism, Yes or No ?

Let me answer it that question with another analogy.

U.S GDP per capita increased every decade in the last 50 years.

But I recall seeing a poll of Americans where a majority said it was likely that their children WOULD BE THE FIRST GENERATION (of Americans) WHOSE CHILDREN WOULD HAVE A LOWER STANDING OF LIVING THAN THEIR PARENTS.

We have record numbers of Americans living in tent cities, under freeway overpasses or defecating on the streets.

| Simply put, FOR MOST AMERICANS THEIR PROSPERITY HAS DECREASED.

To the extent that GDP per capita may have increased ON AVERAGE, is due to:

1) a disproportionate share of the spoils having gone to the Zio oligarchs.

2) The U.S GDP figures (like the figures for employment, rate of inflation), are Zio manipulated B.S that's designed to make America look more prosperous than it really is.

SUMMARY: The U.S is a FAILED STATE and most Americans are demonstrably worse off than they were pre-2008 GFC.

Similarly, the Chinese were likely NO BETTER OFF in 1972 (just prior to Nixon's visit) than they were in 1949.

Even though their wages may have been higher in 1972 in NOMINAL TERMS, the Chinese citizenry may have had LESS PURCHASING POWER with that higher wage due to inflation/higher energy prices/higher fees (?)/government sales taxes (?) imposed by the Chinese regime to fund government.

So, not knowing what sales taxes and/or cost of living charges were imposed by Mao's regime in the 1949-1972 period, I can't definitively say just how much worse off the Chinese were at that time.

In other words, the per capita GDP figures alone do not tell the whole story.

Nor can we be certain that the Chinese per capita GDP figures are any more honest than those from the U.S, which we know FOR CERTAIN are bogus.

Now, in relation to the period 1972-1978, a six year period when foreign investment poured into the country and Chinese exports to the west increased as low priced goods could be manufactured with the technology imported from the west through this foreign investment, then YES, this did increase wages and thus per capita GDP.

Absent this foreign investment (ie: funds that were the surplus created by Capitalism), Chinese per capita GDP may not have risen at all.

There is your question answered. ie: CAPITALISM was responsible for the bulk of the increase in Chinese GDP in the aftermath of Nixon's visit in 1972.

As for any alleged prosperity in the 1949-1972 Socialist period, it's possible that China actually went BACKWARDS.

The only portion of your post I would agree with you is this :”Meanwhile, people like me, who could easily afford a new car every few years, have never bought a new vehicle in their lives. I’ve always purchase second hand cars, thus enabling me to have a surplus that could be invested and saved for a rainy day.”

The rest I would not even go into discussing as we speak different languages, have different core value and come from different backgrounds. You delirium about socialists and socialism is truly hilarious.

The problem is you know not what socialism is and see socialism where there is none.

Meanwhile after reading this:”And that occurred because there is PRECIOUS LITTLE CAPITALISM going on in the U.S today. America today is a Socialist Shit-hole. ” I would definitely this that it is you who need to have your head examined because it is exactly capitalism in USA despite you knot liking how it turned and there is nothing of socialism in USA. You are speaking as someone who has no clue as to how it was but let’s say, no one would have time in the Soviet Union to sit idle and write all kinds of nonsense when it is time to work. One that doe snot work should not eat was the principle hence no welfare and no unemployment benefits existed in the Soviet Union or other socialist states. Those who would not work for a month or two would receive visit from local militia9socilist police) department asking for explanation and those idle would get some time behind the bars learning useful trade and making contribution to common wealth.

Regarding trubant. We did not have it on our roads. But lets say that this car Lada 08 still running now and being older than Corollas of say 1990s of which I see few running was made in 1984 was not much different from say Mazda 323 or Corolla 1990 which I owed.

As wise man said truth is not coming from argument especially between people holding completely opposite views and coming from such different backgrounds.

Little Red Bot, let me enlighten you a little about GDP and whether or not its actually related to prosperity.

If the GDP of a country increases because of expenditure on the MATERIAL/PHYSIOLOGICAL IMPROVEMENT in the lives of the populace, then yes it can be a useful metric to use in assessing improved prosperity.

So, take the case of the U.S. It's GDP (if we're to believe the less than reliable figures from the USG), are going up every year.

Now, as we know, the U.S manufacturing base has been gutted over the last few decades and America manufactures very little.

But, as the world's largest arms exporter, it certainly exports overpriced weapons of deaths which it forces/intimidates its European and Five Eyes vassals to purchase.

One such item it manufactures is the Lockheed Martin F35 stealth multirole combat aircraft.

This lemon (many are dropping from the sky, are constantly in need of maintenance and not operational for much of the time, and whose performance is less than Russian equivalents that cost a fraction of the price), over the period of its useful service life, is projected to be the most expensive single weapons programme in history, coming in at well over $1 trillion.

So, that adds over $ 1 trillion to GDP. But it adds NOTHING TO THE WELL BEING OF ORDINARY AMERICANS.

The profits from said weapons programme go to the Zio owned Defence contractor Lockheed Martin.

Money spent on healthcare, education, housing and infrastructure, increased farm output etc, are items that increase GDP whilst simultaneously improving the prosperity of the citizenry.

So now, let's turn our attention to China.

You claim that China had a per capita GDP of $200 in 1949 and that it went up a few hundred dollars over the next few decades. Well then, let's see what happened in the two decades that followed that may have contributed to increased GDP.

In 1950 the Korean War begins and the Nth Koreans are in headlong retreat as they're forced into a narrow corridor along the Chinese border.

So the Chinese intervene and send Chinese troops to come to the aid of their communist brothers.

In conjunction with that, no doubt a massive number of young Chinese men are conscripted and what little there is of the manufacturing sector in China is converted to manufacturing weapons.

Under licence from the Russians, the Chinese now start manufacturing AK-47's, artillery pieces, mortars, grenades, tanks etc.

All of these things massively increase GDP, but simultaneously REDUCE PROSPERITY for the Chinese citizenry, as young men that were previously working in the agricultural sector and contributing to increasing farm output, are now fighting on the frontlines.

Similarly, those men and women that were working in the textile industry to produce warm clothes for the cold winters, or the doctors and nurses that were treating Chinese civilians, are now diverted to the armaments industries (in the case of the former), or conscripted into the military (in the case of the doctors and nurses, who are now working in military hospitals on hundreds of thousands of Chinese boys who have lost a limb or been disfigured, as the Chinese suffer horrific casualty rates).

Let's jump ahead to the 1960's and take a peek at something China did that would have massively increased GDP, while simultaneously subtracting expenditure from areas that would have improved the well being of the Chinese citizenry.

(Let me give you a clue: The U.S did the equivalent in WWII and it was called the Manhattan Project).

The Manhattan project ended up employing nearly 130,000 people and absorbed an OBSCENE AMOUNT OF MONEY (that greatly increased GDP), as the U.S sought to be the first cab off the rank in getting the A-bomb.

Well, guess what. China too got the Atomic Bomb in the mid 60's and this necessitated expenditure of colossal sums of money that the Chinese could ill afford – I guess it explains the millions that perished during the Cultural Revolution.

With no need to feed said millions, this freed up funds to spend on weapons of death.

Bottom Line: In both cases (the financing of the Korean War and China's nuclear arsenal), huge sums of money were DIVERTED FROM EXPENDITURES THAT WOULD HAVE INCREASED THE PROSPERITY OF THE CHINESE CITIZENRY, and instead were spent on weapons of death.

So Little Red Bot, what can't you understand about that ?

Clearly prosperity DECREASED for the average Chinese citizen during that period under Socialism.

name a single country that adopted Socialism and increased its prosperity

Easy, the answer is Germany with the NSDAP government.

I get it that NSDAP stands for Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei and that therefore the 'S' was meant to designate Socialism.

But let's understand how that nomenclature was adopted in the immediate aftermath of WWI.

Straight after the Great War, there was a communist uprising in Germany which attempted to seize control of government.

It was a close run thing but was eventually put down by the paramilitary Freikorps.

At the end of the day, there was a feeling amongst workers and returned servicemen, that the oligarchs of Germany (which were disproportionately Jewish), had sold out Germany.

So when the Nazi Party was formed, it had to appeal to the working class – hence the need to include the words Sozialistische and Arbeiter (the last word meaning 'worker'), so as to get those on board that were leaning towards Marxism.

But, as the acronym USSR implies, the second 'S' stands for Socialism.

And REAL Socialism (as opposed to the heavily diluted formats existing in some Scandinavian countries – which are not really socialist at all since private ownership is allowed and a market economy exists, for the most part), means State Ownership of the Means of Production.

ie: no private businesses, no ownership of private property, no ownership of anything of substance (like a car) unless you'd been a good boy and prostrated yourself to the party and demonstrated obsequious loyalty, in which case they'd throw some crumbs your way*.

(*Even then, you'd have to wait 7-10 years in a queue for your car to arrive. Scroll up to the video I posted in comment # 200 and see the god-awful car that you were likely to get).

Simply put, REAL Socialism is effectively Klaus Scwab's mantra of: ' You will have nothing and be happy'.

(*Except for the 'happy' part – seeing as the actual outcome was widespread misery).

You will live in a little dog box of a drab Soviet style monstrosity of an apartment, and you will toil in a dead end job, like in a factory, for subsistence wages.

Meanwhile the party big wigs lived in lavish houses in upmarket enclaves, and had all the material conveniences that one would want.

Contrast that to Germany under Hitler in the 1930's. Private ownership thrived. If you worked hard and lived prudently, you could accumulate quite a nest egg.

Germany was only 'socialist' in the sense that the state directed the Big Industries to focus their output on production of armaments (and redirection of resources), for the coming Zio orchestrated war that they knew would be foisted on them.

SUMMARY: Third Reich Germany was NOT Socialist, for the most part. It was all about encouraging private industry (Krupp armaments works, Blohm & Voss [manufacturer of numerous U-boats], IG Farben [who produced Zyklon B to be used in the work camps to delouse the inmates clothes] etc), to work toward a common goal to ensure Germany's security.

German workers got to keep the bulk of their earnings and were this incentivised to work hard.

Those that were more productive and lived prudently, enabling them to save a surplus, were able to accumulate private possessions (a house, a car, perhaps even an investment property etc), which would not have been possible in a genuine Socialist regime.

Yes, my prediction came true. Indeed he says the NSDAP was not socialist because it used market mechanisms.

He seems to equate Socialism = Command Economy

| which are not really socialist at all since private ownership is allowed and a market economy exists

@Сергей Гончаров

But lets say that this car Lada 08 still running now was not much different from say Mazda 323 or Corolla 1990 which I owed.

Your comments confirm to me that you're not a car enthusiast and you're unable to distinguish the differences in quality/reliability/fuel economy between a Japanese car and the comparable Soviet car of that era which superficially, may look similar to the offerings from the west.

Soviet made cars were notorious for sub standard build quality. ie: Body panels out of alignment, oil leaks and rattles and all manner of other issues.

The photo you have in your comment is the Lada Samara VAZ-2108, produced from 1984-2013.

These were equipped with engines ranging from 1.1 to 1.6 litre capacity, with power outputs of between 40kW-55kW, or thereabouts.

They were 2 valve per cylinder SOHC low tech slugs.

Now, while Lada did produce a literal handful of high powered race and rally cars (like the Samara S-Proto with 261kW that was raced in the 1990 Paris-Dakar Rally), these vehicles were not available to the public (and would have cost ten or twenty times as much in any case, seeing as they were race prepared vehicles that bore no resemblance to the street versions).

Meanwhile, seeing as you mention that your Lada's were comparable to say a Mazda 323 or a Toyota Corolla, you're of course referring to the BASE MODEL 323's and Corolla's that you drove.

Of course many Mazda and Toyota owners did not opt for the base model. The Mazda 323 for example (called the Mazda Familia in Japan), could be purchased in the early 90's with a 1.8 litre DOHC intercooled and turbocharged engine putting out 154kw. (refer to below to the specs):

1992–1993 – 1.8 L (1,839 cc) BPD, FI, 16-valve DOHC, turbo, 210 PS (154 kW) / 255 N·m (188 lb·ft) (Familia GT-R & GT-Ae)

I know this because I owned one of these myself. It had approx triple the horsepower of the Soviet Lada offerings.

In addition to that, all of the Japanese cars of this period came standard with power steering, air conditioning and a range of other features, whilst most Lada's would not.

Similarly for the Corolla, there were a lot of engine variants and specs that were available that would run rings around anything that Lada offered.

SUMMARY: The Japanese cars were a world away from the Soviet offering in terms of quality, technology, reliability, handling and performance.

If you're not aware of this Sergei, and evidently you aren't, you have much to learn.

You are correct. Germany recovered from the great depression (without having to start a war) much faster than the rest of the world.

It was the monetization of productive physical labor that propelled Germany to prosperity. Germany did not have any appreciable amount of precious metals or reserve currency, and few natural resources other than water and abundant coal reserves.

Physical labor is the primary source of all economic value, not what some Talmudic gnome sitting on his pile of gold and silver claims it to be.

A true national economy must exist to serve the people, not the other way around.

No truly sovereign nation would let its citizens starve or suffer degradation and debt slavery simply to appease the lurking market worshipping demons.

The German people were under no imperative whatsoever to starve or turn back to those Weimar Republic days when Berlin was the cheap sex capital of Europe and women were often forced to prostitute themselves for a cup of sugar or a piece of bread. Hitler's great crime (other than having lost the war) was that the National Socialist economic policies worked so well. This no doubt horrified the usurious overlords of Wall Street and the City of London, and enraged FDR, whose so called "New Deal" had been totally ineffective at dealing with the depression in the US.

Even today, labor is looked upon as a liability, to be marginalized at all cost, the stockholders being the only group that counts.

Henry Ford is a prime example of the way true capitalism is supposed to work...

Henry Ford CREATED a market which had not existed when he paid his employees $5.00 per day when the average wage of the day was around $1.25 per day as well as establishing the 8-hour work day. His premise was not entirely altruistic as assembly line work was monotonous; a way had to be found to retain employees, as well. Of course, the wall street types and the banksters howled that Ford's wage rates would destroy capitalism (as they knew it-those at the top reap all of the benefits while the proles are forced to live on a bare subsistence wage, due to the machinations of those at the top).

Guess what??

The OPPOSITE happened. Henry Ford knew one of the basic tenets of a truly free, capitalistic society, that a well-paid work force would be able to participate and contribute to a strong economy, unlike what is taught in business schools to this day-that wages must be kept to a bare minimum and that the stockholder is king. Our free trade politicians have assisted the greedy wall street types and banksters in depressing wages on the promise of cheap foreign labor and products. There has not been a real wage (value of labor) increase since 1970.

This is just my “take” on the 2020 election which was stolen from Trump.

When it comes to the jews, Trump DID “give them what ((they)) wanted”. This was all by design as Trump has always been a “deal maker”. Trump KNOWS what jews are like as he has been dealing with them all of his life.

Trump was going to “drop the hammer” on the jews during his second term until the election was stolen from him (us). The jews could not “kennedy” Trump as he was smart enough to have his own security detail interspersed with the secret service. There would have been no way to effect an assassination.

You would have seen the “Palestinian” issues resolved as well as the elimination of the “Bantustan system” for Palestinians as there would have been many (illegal) jewish settlements declared “null and void”. Yes, there would have been much “wailing and gnashing of teeth” by the jews, but that too would have subsided in time. The future will tell whether Trump’s influence on the jews was helpful or merely a “smokescreen”.

It is my humble opinion that the jews wanted Trump out of office because, as jews always do, did not want to be required to fulfill “their end of the deal”.

Little Red Bot writes:

Not all Command Economies are necessarily Socialist.

But ALL SOCIALIST ECONOMIES are COMMAND ECONOMIES.

How could it be otherwise ? A genuine Socialist economy (like the Soviet Union), was one where the state owned the means of production.

The Centralised Command structure (the Politburo) issued the Five year plans and dictated what resources would go where.

The Soviet citizenry had no input in those decisions. That is a Command Economy.

That you don't know this is demonstrable proof that you're one ignorant little Chinaman. (You are Singaporean and, with all the gushing praise of Lee Kuan Yew, I'm guessing you're one of his kind*).

I will leave post 221 to be answered at a later time.

Now back to Item 1 ... YOUR VERY OWN CHALLENGE TO ME.....which you now insist on skirting around and obfuscating.

In your post 214, you deny that GDP is an indicator of prosperity.

let me enlighten you a little about GDP and whether or not its actually related to prosperity.

but in your Post 176, you clearly use GDP as an indicator of prosperity. I append it below for your easy reference.

Can you name one country (just ONE) that applied Socialism/Marxism which resulted in betterment of their society (ie: improved prosperity over the situation it inherited) ?

And don't give me the examples of Sweden or Norway.

In Sweden's case, it built up an enormous reservoir of wealth in the first half of the 20th century pursuing Capitalism (eg: staying neutral in both wars, and profiting handsomely from trade with the belligerents).

And, needless to say, when it was a Capitalist country, it had one of the highest per capita GDP's in the world.

Since embarking on the Socialist experiment around the 1960's, it has slid well down the list in terms of per capita GDP and, recognising the failure of Socialism, successive Swedish governments have unwound many of the policies in recent decades that have been bleeding the country dry.

You are clearly using a double standard, a total 180 degree about face.....because you are confronted with solid proof that you are wrong and yet do not have the gumption to admit it.

History:

You challenged:

Item 1. TV: name a single country that adopted Socialism and increased its prosperity thereafter.

I replied:

China 1949 GDP Per Capita $200 (in 1990 USD) When China became Socialist
China 1978 GDP Per Capita $700 (in 1990 USD) This was just before Deng's reforms

You replied:

| is anything to crow about.

You obfuscate:

| Let me answer it that question with another analogy....

You become disingenuous instead:

| And you are yet demonstrate a single country that had improved prosperity after adopting Socialism.
| Why are you obfuscating ?

and

| let me enlighten you a little about GDP and whether or not its actually related to prosperity.

At least have the moral fibre to admit you were wrong in Item 1, so that we can now debate about Item 2.

At least have the moral fibre to admit you were wrong in Item 1, so that we can now debate about Item 2.

Oh dear, it's come down to moral fibre now.

At the end of the day, I asked you to name JUST ONE COUNTRY [in all of human history] that managed to achieve prosperity from Socialism.

You came up with some GDP per capita figures, which we have no way of knowing are right or not.

But, for the sake of argument, let's just say they're right.

The 1949 GDP per capita figure for China you posted is $200. ie: that translates to a weekly wage of $4, or 10 cents per hour (if we assume a 40 hour week – although more likely to have been a 48-50 hours week).

In 1978 you claimed the per capita GDP was a few hundred dollars per year higher.

Simply put: Whether a Chinese worker is earning 10 cents an hour in 1949, or 30 cents per hour in the late 70's (a time of runaway inflation throughout the ENTIRE WORLD, when the cost of living was much higher than in the late 1940's), it makes no practical difference.

SUMMARY: In BOTH cases said Chinese worker was living in ABJECT SQUALOR and there is no metric than can be utilised to suggest that THERE WAS ANY PROSPERITY WHATSOEVER in 1978 compared to 1949.

Fast forward a few decades after 1978, after China had FULLY EMBRACED CAPITALISM, and the situation is reversed.

By this time the average Chinese citizen had been the beneficiary of genuine prosperity.

So Mr Red Bot, why don't you show some moral fibre and admit that YOU CANNOT FIND A SINGLE EXAMPLE OF A COUNTRY [in all of human history] THAT ACHIEVED PROSPERITY THROUGH SOCIALISM ?

As for the trustworthiness of GDP figures, in the case of the U.S they are demonstrably wrong – and may well be wrong in the case of the figures you furnished for China in 1949 and 1978 (seeing as you may have sourced them from a less than reliable venue).

In the case of the GDP/GDP per capita figures for Norway, I would tend to think they are more reliable, as the Scandinavian countries are not noted for their dishonesty on these statistics.

One thing is for certain, we do know that Norway today has a Sovereign Wealth Fund with well in excess of $1 trillion in it – not a bad achievement for a nation of only 5.5 million, so we can pretty safely assume that their per capita is among the world's best as claimed.

So no double standards here.

In a nutshell, the GDP figures are sometimes reliable and sometimes not.

If you wish to be sceptical across the board and assume that ALL GDP figures from all countries are bogus, then be my guest.

All I can tell you, and all OBJECTIVE data confirms this (without factoring in GDP figures), is that the average Chinese citizen was DIRT POOR in 1978, just as they had been in 1949, hence

NO OBSERVABLE PROSPERITY FOR THE CHINESE UNDER SOCIALISM during that ENTIRE period.

This post is coming from an (almost) 72-year-old retired industrial electrician. I have read through the posts and I do not find anyone proposing any solution(s) to the problems besetting our country, the United States. Having been gainfully employed for 40+ years, I have witnessed a few things in my day.

The changes that I have witnessed have been immense and from my perspective of being a “blue collar worker,” NONE of the changes have been beneficial. NONE.

I have done a fair amount of studying U.S. and world history – the REAL history, not the history that I was taught in school. It seems to me that the majority of our problems started with the advent of the Federal Reserve and the implementation of the personal income tax. After that, the non-stop wars that our country has been engaged in, ones that we had absolutely no business being in.

It also seems to me that with the advent of the unions in the 1920s and 1930s, the “playing field” began to somewhat be levelled for the average working person here in the USA. Yes, I know that I will incur the wrath of the anti-union people here, but I do not care. If it was not for the unions, we would still be having children in the labor force, we would be working 60 and 72 hours per week, there would be no over-time or paid vacation, no sick leave, no type of profit sharing systems and none of the other so-called “fringe benefits that we (some) enjoy.

People here seem to be in a heated argument about “socialism” vs. “capitalism” and for anyone wishing to learn how the real world works would do well to read a book by Ha-Joon Chang, Ph.D. His book is titled “23 Things They Don’t Tell You About Capitalism” and he spells out EXACTLY how the real world actually works. His writing is very easy to understand. I have read the book and everything that he writes makes perfect sense to me.

I have said this many times before, but I will say it again. The United States has gone from being the country with the most perfect political system in the world to being one that has one of the worst “systems.” We (meaning the 1/10 of the 1%) have squandered our assets and have gone from being the industrial powerhouse of the world, the largest exporter of USEFUL products to being the world’s largest importer and holding the world’s largest amount of DEBT.

We now have the record of having the largest prison population in the world. The personal and corporate bankruptcies are off the charts, as well as the number of homeless people that we have. The 1/10 of the 1% continue to get richer, while the American Middle Class is being destroyed. If there is anything here in the USA that is actually improving, I sure as Hell do not know what it is.

From my perspective, ALL of the problems affecting the American people are planned. There is a lot of “money” to be made by trying to “solve” these problems. But the Powers That Be do not want them solved; they are making too much “money” from the problems and it is to their benefit that the problems do not get solved. There is no shortage of intelligent people or technology with which to solve the problems. The problems are all man-made and Americans could solve them, if only given the chance.

Also, as I have said this many times before, EVERYTHING that happens here in the USA and throughout the so-called “civilized world” is either the result of a conspiracy, or a scam, or a combination of the two. NOTHING is as it seems. Absolutely NOTHING.

I do not look for any of our politicians to actually try to improve things here in the USA. They are part of the “system” and they are getting rich(er) from it. Why would they want to kill the goose that is laying the golden eggs (for them)?

There is NO political “party” here in the USA that speaks for ME. The “libertarians” seem to have the most reasonable beliefs, but I have yet to hear a Libertarian propose how their “system” would protect the people from the fraudulent banks and the corporations. If there is a Libertarian out there who could explain this to me, I would very much appreciate it.

If I had my way, we would have a smaller HONEST government and reasonable & meaningful regulations to go along with it. And, we would have strong, HONEST unions, to act as a “check” on corporate behavior towards their labor force.

Thank you.

@Brad Anbro

You are correct in stating that most things do not happen by “accident” and are planned at the highest levels of both governments and corporations.

We are living under a “corporatocracy” where multinational and national corporations both propose and write the legislation that benefits ((them)), the politicians then “rubber stamp”, passing “laws” that we are expected to obey. Of course, contributions to political figures is “part of the deal”. Almost every American politician enters office as a near pauper and within one or two terms becomes a wealthy millionaire.

This has been going on for a very long time and is not a recent development, although such corporate influence has increased greatly over time.

There has not been a real wage (wealth) increase for the average person since 1970.

Corporate leaders, those who sit on corporate boards are the only ones who award themselves massive benefits and cash even if they run their corporations into the ground—golden parachutes. They are the “problem”, being similar to the actions and greed of the 19th-century “robber barons” who enjoyed lavish lifestyles while not giving a damn about their workers.

Unions in the USA are too fragmented to have any real effect on corporate power.

Although unions presently in the USA leave something to be desired (at least in my experience) they could be useful in consolidating real power if they banded together, linking like industries, such as the case in European countries.

European unions wield much power as they are able to link together when striking, shutting down entire industries and even public infrastructures.

Successful labor unions should eschew ALL present-day political power linked to one political party (democRATs), and should create and become a powerful political party in their own right. There is strength in numbers.

This one move would do more to give labor a true voice than our present fragmented union structure.

What do you think? I await your intelligent response.

Best regards,

Because there is no solution for your layer of social strata. The people in power do have a good solution for themselves, of course. Same is everywhere in the developed world.

Why is that, several theories. Even if we all agree on one wouldn't make any difference. And you'll never get people here to agree on anything like that. Same everwhere.

And, even more importantly, there is a quite a gap between knowing what and why is something happening and be able to do anything about it.

Let's face it, almost nobody in Europe, or the English speaking world, will ever admit that the NS government in Germany knew a thing or two about organizing an economy.

This NS government appeared to work so well that the left and right governments of the entire world had to make common cause to destroy it in case their own people wised up to the fact that they were being screwed over.

Almost 80 years later we still hear the derogatory Naaazi spewed forth should anyone dare to illustrate the achievements of that NS government.

I shall be brief. You are trying to measure USSR and socialism from your capitalistic points of view measuring according to your own values. Which is consumer based. I am coming from different background and I am not consumer and value different things. What however is undeniable that capitalism is successfully turning people into pigs who cannot see beyond this consumer bubble. That was one of the huge list of mistakes mistake by Khrushchev who not only destroyed true socialist economy but also concentrated competition to narrow consumers oriented race. Soviet goods were made to satisfy our needs and it was mad eon our factories providing good paying jobs and it did not matter that Japanese did something better or we did something better this is not the point. These Ladas and even older are still running and no Toyota of that period are on the road. Period. That's reliability, ease of maintenance and durability for you . This whole consumerism and concentration on it and constant struggle by you to continue being parasite on the world back leads us to wars, degradation and inability to really progress as a species and move forward. You have nothing to offer but a little bit better version to be sold while keep complaining about how human material is degrading. Yes, it is degrading exactly because capitalism had stopped working long time ago and the goals of capitalism are money money money. You have turned the whole humanity into the bunch of pigs only looking for pleasure and next nice toys. I feel complete disgust of what capitalism is. It is also slavery that makes people think they are free while in fact forced to constantly sell themselves of the masters to be able to pay for shelter and food and their toys.

Thank you very much for the detailed reply. Everything that you say makes perfect sense to me and there is not anything in your reply with which I disagree.

Being a former union member (United Auto Workers Journeyman Electrician), it breaks my heart to see what that union has become. The United Auto Workers (UAW) union was certainly not like that when Walter Reuther was president of that union and his brothers were actively involved in it. But “they” killed Walter Reuther, because they knew that he was completely honest and incorruptible.

I have done a lot of research on the unions in this country, especially the UAW and the Teamsters; I have also done a lot of studying on the American labor situation in general. Walter Reuther was (is) one of my heroes, as was (is) James Hoffa. Neither one of them lived an ostentatious lifestyle and both of them would be willing to do any of the work that their union members did.

I find myself powerless to do anything to effect any meaningful change here in my country, the United States. I will no longer vote in any national or state elections. Fortunately, here in northeast Tennessee, we have very good county government and they seem to do a good job of “taking care of business.” I do not know about the county or the state police.

As for how I conduct my affairs, I bank at a local credit union and I avoid debt as much as possible. I no longer am a participant in the national casino, known as the stock market. I try to buy the bulk of my groceries at a locally owned and operated grocery store. The prices are a little more than those at Walmart, but the service is so much better and they pay their employees a fair wage, as well as taking an active part in the community.

Also, with my hobby of amateur radio (ham radio), I am continually in contact with hams in foreign countries and I try my best to be a “good-will ambassador” for my country. Speaking of ham radio, three years ago, I spent three weeks in Sweden, the land of my forbears. I stayed with a Swedish ham that I have known for almost 40 years. The people there treated me like some kind of royalty. When it came time to come back to the USA, I did not want to come back here to the land of the barbarians. But I did and now I just try to make the best of things.

Being almost 72 years old now, I do not see ANYTHING ever getting better during the rest of my life. I only see things getting worse...much worse. I think that the USA is too far gone “to save” and I think that the only thing which will effect real change would be another revolution. But I am afraid if this were to happen, the resulting government would be as bad, or worse, than what we have now.

Thank you.

But I am afraid if this were to happen, the resulting government would be as bad, or worse, than what we have now.

Not necessarily but, irrelevant for practical purpose.

Practially, one CAN create his/her own bubble within the Clown World and live decently within in. Requires effort and a bit of luck but it's quite doable.

You, apparently, are already doing it. All good.

“How to solve all our problems?”

For me, it is easy. Listen to (and follow) national or world problem solutions presented by four individuals: Ron Unz, Paul Craig Roberts, Ron Paul, and Ann Coulter. I am sure there are others who are good too, I just can't think of everyone. However, the four I have listed work for me.

USians back tyrants; they don't stand up to them. Saudi Arabia is only 1 example among many. And "making the world safe for democracy" is the us empire propoganda line; in truth, the USers continue to create a v. unsafe world. But do agree that this nonsense is in their commercial interests (esp. The war corporations) and serves to advance us empire power, wh/is the real agenda here, and always has been.

Some years ago, the UN did a poll on whom the world's nations regarded as the greatest threat to world peace. 198 of them (give or take) said the US, and the US and Israel said Iran.

The American people remain bad jokes, and this is, as George Carlin famously said, the gene pool from which our leaders come.

shudder to think of a Trump presidency, despite the fact that abt half the country loves him. The only thing that makes me shudder more violently is nuclear holocaust. Trumpi won't deliver that; Schmiden might. He's a war mongering doofus who is mechanically following "generations of US foreign policy orthodoxy." No possibility that that orthodoxy has been a costly error? And that review and revision might be a better path, at this point? No, let's just keep our heads tucked in our rear ends, and proceed accordingly.

I agree with your assessment of the historical politics, Mr. Anbro, with your Libertarian and Constitutionalist bent. Yes, Amendment XVI and the Volstead Act allowed the US Gov't to become the Feral Beast it is today.

However, maybe it's because you live in the Tri-Cities(?) are in NE Tennessee, but you had no mention of the many ills caused directly by Black! dysfunction and it's enablers. Not only that, but over half a century of the million yearly (much more now) of immigration of very-foreign not-easy-to-assimilate foreigners has given us a very disunited population.

Not only is this becoming the Tower of Babel, but it's not like the types of people being imported are of a Libertarian and/or Constitutionalist bent like you or I, Brad. Put it this way, Reason magazine may be all for open borders, but not one in 1,000 of the newcomers they want in will be new subscribers to Reason magazine. That's not the way to spread Libertarianism to help reverse the ills!

@Сергей Гончаров

I do not support unbridled capitalism but, capitalism does give the individual choices. Further, capitalism has done much to improve the standard of living for most people.

It also gave people the choice to become or resist being a slave to their wishes, with the result that many chose the former, and became wage slaves as a result.

Unfortunately many -most?- people are unable to make good decisions where money is concerned, and pay the price for their ignorance.

I happen to firmly believe that the ability to make personal choices, within the context of civilized society of course, is the way towards a happy and fulfilling life. But the decisions necessary to achieve this need to be based on sound information.

Uncontrolled impulse purchases are definitely the path to poverty in old age.

The Linked Ecological Futures Of America And China

When one country's desert forms another's rain, then one's dream is another's peril.

Sort of reminds one that the evils and others America creates and USians put out in the world are contrapositional and obverse to it. We exist as a holism and it seems the US empire will beat its head against the wall til it breaks open before it ever recognizes that..

Vast majority of USians want what the us empire offers. It's consensual not coerced. Manufactured consent by war mongering, capitalistic lovin' hustler /huckster populace.

Consensual sex, not 'rape'. 98.7% USians were and are morons.

USers get the “opportunity” to have no health care system and pay 6000$ per month for the same medicine that’s 550$ elsewhere (then, that cost is paid by govt ~ 80-100%—not for USer bombs, drones, amissiles and bases).

Lots of options-opportunities for poverty and little workers rights “thanks” to the very unique US empire employment at whim-will doctrine.

It’s a sht hole, fake “nation” that is a business enterprise masquerading as a “country”.

Sorry, but you don't live here, obviously, so you are simply wrong. Don't believe that the people you see on the TV are representative of Americans. Most American do not like 90% of what the Potomac Regime stands for and the actions it takes.

Would you have been calling all the Russian people out for the actions of the Kremlin in the Soviet Union during their Communist era? They had no say in the matter.

Americans may yet stand up to the Regime. We'll see.

USSR was ahead in many areas of technology. Unfortunately, they were behind in one key area, which was microchips (but the USSR did have some very interesting analog computation and other weird stuff like ternary computing that are actually being looked into now for further development in future computer technology). And, also unfortunately, microchips were the technology that the USSR needed most, since it would have fixed the few problems of socialist production that existed at the time. Marxist computer scientist Paul Cockshott has shown this. The problems with socialist production, such as the alleged "calculation problem" have been solved now for a while, but just a little too late for the USSR.

How's that gonna happen mr newmans? The us spends what 800,000,000,000+ for war de jour and you and your "gun" and your revolting and resisting is gonna stop em? They'll just use a drone on that mobile house and or apartment in shit town usa.

and yes, we all call em USians and – or USers. American is a generic term for all Americans—in North and South, hence, ewhen we talk abt USers and or USians, we mean those that live in the shit hole called the US empire.

It's over amigo. Hustlers, hucksters, and war mongering imperialistic, capitalistic bastards. The USers WANT what the US empire offers. It 's very obvious, you still believe in some Chris Hedgian and chumpsy revolting, resisting, rising up, nonsense against those "govt crooks" .

Good luck with dat. Why America Failed by Morris Berman may help you understand USIAN reality amigo.

What's a "commie tag?" Is that like an anti USer imperialistic, capitalistic emptiness tag? Maybe those pilipinos (us colony vassal) can weigh in since they love the failed us empire more than you do amigo. Psy ops, delusions, denials, and deceptions with some filler corn dogs and corn syrup apple pie. Very USIAN.

Who are you gonna "fight"?! The US empire OWNS you. THEY control your money. The IRS, FINCEN, etc The military will drop a tax payer/lackey drone on ya, other "accident", etc.. and have the full backing of millions of usian lackies ready to fight you for a "college" scholarshit and US govt pensions.

They know where their bread is buttered amigo. What's there to "fight". The best strategy is to leave-emigrate amigo. It's over bro. No revolting, no Hedgian resisting, no letter writing, or hang wringing rhetoric. Emigrate. Let the USians enjoy their shitty vile place. A garbage dump of flunkies, lackies, and imbeciles who gleefully want what the us empire is offering

When you're empty amigo, the us is all ya got. And it's sad. The place is really, sad. Ivan Illyvich by Tolstoy, may help you amigo. Or copy cat, Death of A (USer) Salesman by Miller.

That's indeed very tempting. However, we're sticking. It's not over. It'll probably take separation, with America having different borders from the Potomac Regime.

It's no certainty, I'll admit, but some of us will take care of the problem. Others don't have what it takes and will flee. Also, I'm not your amigo.

Have to agree with @anon – this is a bad faith argument. JT's point regarding individualism is that Whites do not act as a collective as other races do. The people that the government pushes together are not Whites to act as a collective for the Whites' benefit, but rather it exploits Whites lack of collective action as Whites to push other races on them. Hardly contradictory – the former is an unfortunate state of affairs for Whites in the current ZOG controlled USA, the latter is the execrable use by the ZOG of the USA of this unfortunate weakness to eradicate Whites. Not the first time onebornfree has posted in bad faith here.

| As I wrote above, I am not in favour of unbridled capitalism.

WHY do you think that ?

After all, when America had as near to 'unbridled' Free Market Capitalism as any nation has experienced in human history (ie: the 130 or so years leading up to the formation of the Federal Reserve in 1913), it represented the most dynamic period of growth and prosperity, the lowest period of inflation*, in the history of the U.S. (*In fact, since the U.S was on a sound money system, none other than the Classical Gold Standard, there was deflation during the 19th century. In other words, a dollar in 1900 had MORE purchasing power than a dollar did in 1800.

And this was achieved despite the fact that workers earned far more in nominal terms in 1900 than they did 100 years before. ie: a total win/win situation).

More importantly, it represented the period of the 'Great Meritocracy', whereby anyone who worked hard and wasn't profligate, could escape their lower class status and progress to the middle and upper classes.

It enabled social mobility like no other period in the entire history of the western world.

Then, as the 20th century progressed, the era of bigger and bigger Big Government was the norm. And all the while Capitalism was throttled to such an extent that the U.S became what it is today. ie: a socialist shit-hole that will soon descend into the abyss of an inflationary depression.

So HdC, why wouldn't you want to go back to the era when America (and indeed the entire western world), prospered like in no other period ?

Today in the west we live in the era of something resembling Unbridled Socialism – and we're paying the consequences for having opted for this foolishness.
